"We are not expecting a big rush for Germany this year," a London travel agent told The Canadian Press, "But next year we may get something like pre-war figures. Ironically, there was a boom in tourist traffic to Germany the year war broke out."

Dimiss Injunction

TORONTO, June 14.—(CP). — An injunction restraining employees of the Anaconda American Brass Company's suburban New Toronto plant from voting to decide if they would continue affiliation with the International Union of Mine Mill and Smelter Workers (CCL) was dismissed Monday. Mr. Justice J. L. Wilson said the applicant, Bernard Doherty, failed to make out a case.

45 Elk May Die

PETAWAWA, June 14.—(CP). —A herd of 45 elk brought from Wainwright National Park 15 years ago to the Petawawa Fish Hatcheries 75 miles north-west of Ottawa may have to be destroyed, an official of the Department of Lands and Resources revealed Monday. The herd has been attacked by a parasitic disease of the liver carried by a snail eaten by the elks.

Export Goods Pilferage Rises In Britain

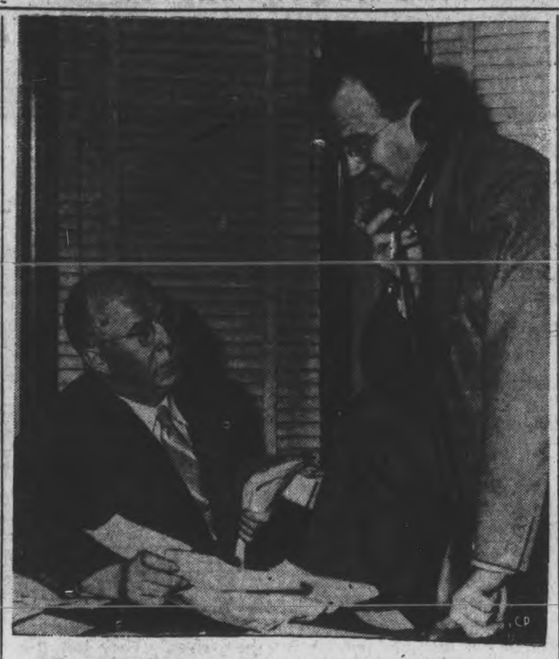
LIVERPOOL, June 14 — (CP) —Pilferage and hijacking of export goods destined for overseas markets is on the rise in Britain. But, large as the losses are, their effect on Britain's drive to close the dollar gap is insignificant.

These are conclusions of a research study made by the University of Liverpool's department of social science, which turned a scientific eye on sensational reports of huge losses to exporters and insurance underwriters.

Among these were complaints that Canadian insurance concerns were paying large claims on importers' losses for thefts which actually occurred before the shipments were loaded in British ports.

While not specifically dealing with the Canadian charges, the Liverpool group said "there is a considerable body of opinion that a substantial portion of the loss suffered by British exports takes place outside this country."

They came up with figures showing that thefts from railways increased 315 per cent. over the last 10 years, that pilferage from warehouses and shops shot up 172 per cent.



The money value of these losses is placed at £13,000,000 ($52,000,000) a year. This is a rise from the pre-war level of £2,500,000 and the investigators found no basis for believing the peak has been reached.

To combat the pilferage plague, mobile police squads have been set up in all major ports. Emphasis has been placed on preventing thefts by improved organization and more efficient methods of handling cargo.

The investigators urged the need of a central body to which all losses could be reported. At present only a fraction of the thefts committed are reported to the police, largely because of the lapse of time between the theft and discovery of the loss.

SANTA MONICA, Calif., June 14—(AP)—Planes and a surface craft searched today for a Naval Reserve training plane missing with a crew of seven since early last night The two-engine transport would have run out of fuel at 1.32 a.m. today, the Navy said.

PC NERVE CENTRE—With a new national leader sparking their campaign, the national headquarters of the Progressive Conservative party is one of the busiest places in Ottawa as the federal election campaign nears its climax. The two men largely responsible for the campaign's direction are C. V. (Les) Charters, left, director of public relations, and R. A. (Dick) Bell, national director.

Father-Daughter Team Candidates In Ottawa Area

OTTAWA, June 14 — (CP) — Closing of nominations in the Ottawa district Monday found a father-and-daughter team contesting constituencies on opposite sides of the Ottawa river and a revival of two slightly off-pattern political feuds.

The father-and-daughter combination consists of Patrice Brunet, a candidate in Ottawa East and his schoolteacher daughter, Miss Cecille Brunet, a candidate in Hull. Both are running under the Social Credit banner.

Highlight of the six-man race in Ottawa East, however, is the competition between two men—both Liberals and former holders of the seat.

In the last federal election, J. T Richard won the seat with 15,014 votes to 6,284 for his Liberal opponent, J. A. Pinard. Mr. Pinard held the seat from 1940 to 1945. The National Liberal Federation recognizes Mr. Richard as the official candidate.

Mr. Pinard Monday told the returning officer for Ottawa East he was running as an Independent Liberal, although he previously announced he would contest the seat as a straight Liberal, as he did in 1945.

2 More Candidates

Meanwhile, the same constituency sported two straight Progressive Conservative candidates: L. Choquette, who was nominated at a nominating convention, and E. V. (Eddie) O'Meara, former Ottawa newspaper man, who previously was reported as an Independent Progressive Conservative. He told the returning officer Monday he was running under a straight Progressive Conservative ticket.

The sixth candidate in the riding is Henri Robert, a mechanic, running as CCF candidate.

Two men named Casselman and a CCF candidate are running in Grenville-Dundas.

A. C. Casselman, sitting member of the constituency since 1921 and Progressive Conservative party whip in the Commons, is being opposed for the second time by J. Frank Casselman, a Liberal. In the last federal election, the Progressive Conservative Casselman polled 9,306 votes to 4,634 for the Liberal Casselman. Also running in Grenville-Dundas is Arthur Orr, CCF candidate. The two Casselmans are not related.

Recreation Area Planned At Lakefield

LAKEFIELD, June 14 (ENS)—The village clerk was instructed to write the Department of Transport accepting from them the property north of Bridge St. at a Council meeting held last week.

The village is applying to the Department of Highways to make a roadside park on this property.

A request will also again be sent to the Transport Department for steps on the wall of the Trent Canal, where there have been several drownings in the past few years.

A letter is being sent to the American Nepheline Co. requesting that they give the village first choice on the dock property for a recreation park.

A grant of $250. was given to the Chamber of Commerce.

Can Move Trees

The clerk was asked to write Harold Deeth to the effect that Rolleston St. is being opened up to give him an opportunity to move his fruit trees and shrubbery from the road allowance if he wishes to do so.

Permission was granted for the laying of two water lines, one across Albert and water Sts. by P. H. Darling, H. McCracken, H. Sherwin, Mrs. W W. Leonard, and Misses Clarice and Elsie Kidd, and the other across Clementi on the south side of George to the river by Miss E. Thompson, Earl Edwards, Doug. Davis and A. Taylor.

Another meeting will be held June 17.

Forced To Withdraw

SARNIA, June 14.—(CP). — David A. Harding, one-time football star and permanent Air Force officer, Monday announced that he had been "forced" by circumstances beyond his control to withdraw as independent candidate in Lambton West. He did not elaborate. He first had intended to contest the riding in the June 27 federal election as an Independent - Liberal, in protest against what he called "machine politics," but later said he would run as an independent.

Find 1948 Healthiest Year Recorded In S. Ireland

By MICHAEL O'MARA

DUBLIN, June 14 (CP)—Last year was the healthiest ever recorded in Southern Ireland, figures released by the government information bureau showed.

Infant mortality touched new low figures and deaths from tuberculosis—ancient scourge of Ireland—were fewer than ever Other major diseases also showed remarkable declines.

Average infant deaths per 1,000 live births during the last 10 years has been 71, but the 1948 figures was only 49. Deaths from enteritis, whopping-cough, measles and diphtheria all decreased sharply.

Among adults, influenza deaths fell from 651 in 1947 to 179 last year, tuberculosis from 3,700 to 3,017 and cancer from 3,961 to 3,885.

Other diseases—typhoid fever, scarlet fever, heart ailments—all dropped in roughly similar ratio.

Athletics and politics

Sean Macbride, the Republic of Ireland's Minister for External Affairs, wants to see Irish athletes from both sides of the border controlled by a single body.

At present northern Ireland and the Republic have separate governing bodies for tracks and field sports although the whole island acts jointly in controlling golf, rugger and field hockey.

The Irish independent, supporting Macbride's view, said editorially:

"The matter now becomes one of consequence not only to the future of athletics but to Ireland's national demand for the abolition of the English-maintained border . . . In present circumstances it is injurious to the national cause that the division of the country should be accepted for athletics.

"Ireland's political claims may well be misunderstood if athletes voluntarily present themselves abroad as representing part of the country."

Will Use Water Bombs To Fight Forest Fires

TORONTO, June 14 — (CP) — An experiment in fighting forest fires with water bombs will be tried by the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests working in conjunction with the Defense Research Board of Canada, it was learned Monday.

Beaver Aircraft will "water bomb" the Sault Ste. Marie district sometime before July 1 in an experiment to determine the feasibility of wide-scale operations.

Each bomb will contain about five gallons of water. The containers will be filled from water tanks aboard the craft. The bombs will be dropped through an opening in the aircraft usually used for aerial photography work.

Gets Hero's Burial

ISTANBUL, June 14—(AP) — Turkey Monday gave a hero's burial to a Turkish diplomatic courier who died of gunshot wounds last week in Russia. The Russians turned the body over to the Turks with a report that he had killed himself. Disbelief of the Russian version was expressed in many Turkish quarters and the huge military funeral was taken to mean that official Turkey, too, has little or no faith in the Russian story.

Clowns In Tie With Petes In Lively Fray

Kokomo Clowns, erstwhile of Indiana and now of New York, played a 7-7 tie with Ed Murphy's leading COBL baseball club at Riverside last evening as a bumper twilight crowd of fans enjoyed the combined skill and mirth presented by the colorful mixture of semi-pro and college talent.

B'nai B'rth sponsored the show with proceeds allotted to Turner Park.

Stretcho, a diminutive left-hander with a stinging whip-like delivery and baffling change of pace, opposed Doug Plunkett who also twirled a creditable game for the Marines.

Good Game

Despite in between acts of mischief by the men of mirth in which Umpires P. Calladine and C. Whatley suffered the indignity of being shot in the back in fun by Biffo, trying to make a homer out of an infield out to which was added a sprinkling of water from manager Bobo's water gun, the game was replete with diamond thrills featured. The first drive into the river under the new set-up came as catcher Ha Ha hoisted a mighty drive to deep right that bounced over the fence.

Other features were Stewart's hitting with three solid bingles, one a triple. He drove Lowry home to tie it in the ninth; also fine fielding by Lowrey and Estlick, the former snaring Jo Ko's hard drive with a leaping catch after a long run. The Clowns looked every inch the team they are represented to be. Unbeaten in Southern Ontario, save by Waterloo, the team moves north next week after Tuesday's game here under the lights at 9:00 p.m. Kokomos have their own lights.

Seek Dominion-Wide College Athletic Union

HALIFAX, June 14 (CP)—The National Conference of Canadian Universities Monday recommended formation of a Dominion-wide All-University Intercollegiate Athletic Union.

Formation of such a union would be subject to approval of the governing bodies of the universities.

The report embodying "approval in principle" of the union was presented by Dr. G. E. Hall, President of the University of Western Ontario.

Dr. Hall said Canadian universities are competent to deal with eligibility rules for their players, apart from any other athletic bodies.

The report said that if member universities approve the proposed union, its formation will begin at the fall meeting of the Conference's executive.

LAWN BOWLING

By HERB MARTIN

To George Coleman Sr., and his rink go the honor of scoring the first possible 8-end of the season. Just when the last 8-end was scored, off hand, we don't know, but it must be some time ago. Mr. Coleman's boys were playing against Reg. Dyer's quartet and they got their big score on the very second end. We didn't see it and were somewhat doubtful about it, but the boys finally persuaded us that it was true.

So the Coleman rink of Nels Routley, H. Outram, Geo. Saulby, and Geo. Coleman Sr., will have their names engraved on the honor roll.

Word was received yesterday that there are 40 players coming down from Toronto next Saturday for the Family Hour tournament. Our players are asked to keep this date open. The committee would like as many as possible on hand to welcome these visitors. It is not likely that chairman R. Hendry will get us the details tonight.

SOMERSET, Mass., June 14 — (AP)—Shirley May France, 15-year-old Somerset high school student, will attempt to swim the English Channel late next month or early August, depending upon the tides. Mimico Takes OLA Win Against Petes Mimico Mountaineers beat the Petes 27-14 at Mimico last night in their OLA senior "A" clash. Goalie Frick, formerly of St. Catharines, was in the Petes' net and kept the count down with some fine footwork as the Mountaineers sifted through a rather loose visiting defence. It was tight enough the first while but the classy homesters worked up a 14-8 lead at the half and fashioned a 19-10 margin going into the last quarter.

Ken Dixon led the winners with five tallies, while Don McPhail and Jack Williams got four apiece and Bill Rankin sniped in three. Jim McNulty hit the rigging for three Peterborough markers, Jack Foot, Arn Dugan, Curly Warren and Leo Teatero blasted home a pair apiece. Johnston replaced Taylor in the Mimico cage after the half-time interval.

Despite their one-sided loss, the Creighton crew planned to keep building in an attempt to get into the thick of the OLA senior "A" scrambled. Frick will be a good addition when the club is bolstered in some other spots. Ralph Speck is here awaiting a release from St. Catharines, and there may be other changes in an effort to hit a winning combination. The Petes are at home tomorrow night to St. Catharines at 8.45 in Miller Bowl, and they have two games then later in the week. Lineups for last night's game:

Weston Thumps Brampton 15-4

By The Canadian Press.

If the league-leading Brampton Excelsiors have hit a slump, their nearest rivals, Hamilton Tigers, appear only too happy to take over leadership in the Ontario Lacrosse Association Senior race.

The Excelsiors Monday night suffered a 15-4 defeat at the hands of the lowly Weston Lions while the Tigers rolled to an 11-9 victory over the third place Owen Sound Crescents.

At Weston, the Lions were paced with a four-goal display by fleet Johnny Hill. They gave the Excelsiors no chance as they tallied four unanswered goals in the second quarter and added three more in the final frame.

Other Weston scorers were brothers Tom and Harry Downer and Venner and James Smith with two apiece while Allwell, Lovelace and Skhordoff sniped one each. Harry Madgett, Charlie Madgett, Ferri and Graham accounted for the Brampton goals.

At Hamilton, Owen Sound rammed in seven goals within nine minutes in the second quarter to take a 7-2 lead but the Tigers outscored the Crescents 5-2 in the tthird frame and then went on to register four unanswered goals in the last quarter.

Elmer Lee, McDonald, Jack Dorney and George Masters paced the Tigers with two goals apiece. Black, Doyle and Gair followed up with one each. Grant Gillespie, McWhirter and Slater tallied two goals each for Owen Sound, while Campbell, Mason and Woods notched the others.

RECEIVES GOOD OFFER

Promoter Jack Solomons claimed Monday he has received a tempting offer to move his "world championship" bout between Bruce Woodcock and Lee Savold to New York.

Solomons said at London if he couldn't rent a stadium in London with a seating capacity of 75,000 he might accept.

Woodcock, British champion, and Savold, of Paterson, NJ, are under contract to fight for Solomons in London Sept. 6 for the British version of the heavyweight crown.

An American Syndicate, Solomons reported, made a week-end effort to buy the fight outright, or to give him a 50 per cent interest in the promotion there. He refused to confirm published reports that the syndicate was Madison Square Garden.

TRANS-CANADA CYCLISTS—Douglas Le Blanc and his pretty wife, Yvonne, of Vancouver, have mapped out an ambitious summer holiday for themselves. They left the west coast on a 4,800-mile bicycle jaunt to Halifax. They hope to make the trip in two and a half months and figure a dollar a day will cover their expenses.

Local harriers will be in the Ontario track and field championships Saturday in Hamilton. Coach Bill Morewood has been training his 10-man team each Tuesday and Thursday eve at the Ex. and they'll enter nine of the 15 events, including the junior 440 relay. Bill Thistlewaite and Dave McNeil go in the three and six-mile runs respectively while J. Brown and Jim Flowers are in the 440. Latter and G. McGillis are entered in the 100 and 220 dashes, and Jim is also in the running broad jump. Gus Kuke, harriers' big field man, is in the shot put and discus. In Toronto on Saturday, McGillis took second in his heat in the junior event and was fourth in the final. Flowers ran second also in the open event and fourth in the final. O'Brien of the Olympic team coming first.

City Baseball League schedules are in tonight, and show two games listed for this e'en. East and west bantams clash at the Bonnerworth, where all bantam frays are staged. Southend juves meet westenders over at Riverside, but future juvenile jousts will be in Morrow Park inside the oval. The midgets will run off their games in the Ex., also, over at the east end. Peewees play either at the Orphanage or East City Bowl, some Saturday a.m. twin bills being arranged. Clubs interested should clip schedules, and also send in reports on games. Seniors and juniors play all games in Riverside.

A Rugged Road Ahead

Senior "A" lacrosse Petes take on St. Catharines at 8:45 in Miller Bowl tomorrow night. They have Mimico here on Friday, and have to trek to the St. Kitts' arena on Saturday. It's a rugged schedule all right in this senior "A" setup with lots of long hauls coming fairly close together, and stiff struggles against the best gutted-stick talent to be found anywhere. And it runs right out till the end of August, with playoffs following. The Petes will keep building and improving, and should be in the thick of the fight ere too long.

* * * * * *

Whitey Frick of St. Catharines—his dad is an old Peterborough boy—turned out with the local lacrossers last eve and did a good job in goal. But his defence wasn't too hot and Mimico piled up a sizeable count ere the end. Ralph Speck is here, too, awaiting a release. Jim McNulty led the Petes at bat with three goals and two assists, while Teatero, Warren, Foote and Dugan dumped the ball into the twine twice each for the visiting club. Not a bad game for awhile, but the hustling Mountaineers later began to sift through to score a lot at close range. The winners lost no less than two dozen balls in the first half, as every one over the fence was snared by fans. They wouldn't return any.

Fastest Fray Of Year

Once again, the lasses came up with a dandy doubleheader at the Bowl d'Ashburnham last eventide before a fair gallery. The CGE-ers pulled out a 7-4 win o'er Woollens and it took 'em but 40 minutes—men's loop please copy—to do the trick in the snappiest struggle so far this semester. Other joust was okay, too, as Westclox hit a bit harder to earn an 8-4 win against the colleens from up Lindsay way. In both tilts, the losers might well have won with the odd timely hit, but those money blows sometimes don't materialize. The winners had them. Another pair of girls' jousts over there on the morrow, Lock Co. vs. CGE, and Ashby's vs. Marines, whilst Westclox travel to Lindsay.

* * * * * *

Lot of folks got a lot of laughs last evening in Riverside and also some okay baseball as the Kokomo Clowns and senior Petes went to a 7-7 draw. Not a bad showing, either, for the Petes as the Clowns play good ball and have won almost all their games on tour. They did plenty of clowning, particularly at the expense of Umps Pat Calladine and Cy Whatley, the fans naturally enjoying this muchly. Cash raised will be used by the B'nai B'rith club for Turner Park. We understand the Clowns will be back this way next Tuesday for a floodlight fixture, bringing their own lighting system. The Petes go to Oshawa this week-end.

Leafs Swamp Giants In 10-4 Decision

By The Associated Press

Toronto Maple Leafs have a number of fine looking major league prospects on their team, and one of the best is rookie right-hander Max Peterson.

Peterson has won four straight games. Knocked out in his first three starts, Peterson began clicking late in May. Monday night he pitched the Leafs to a 10-4 decision over the Jersey City Giants.

Tied 4-4 going into the seventh, the Leafs belted Hub Andrews for five runs. Ed Sanicki highlighted the uprising with a three-run homer, his second four-bagger of the game. The two blows upped Sanicki's total to 16. Bill Glynn also homered for the Leafs and Monte Irvin cracked one for Jersey City.

The triumph enabled the Leafs to take over second place in the International League from the Giants. The Leafs trail the pace-setting Buffalo Bisons by 11 percentage points.

Buffalo drubbed the last-place Newark Bears 7-1. Lefty Jim Parton scattered eight hits to post his fourth victory.

First-sacker George Byam drove home four runs on a homer and two singles to spearhead Buffalo's nine hit attack.

Edge Orioles

The fourth-place Montreal Royals edged Baltimore Orioles 10-9 to stay within two games of Buffalo.

Vern Taylor, third Baltimore pitcher, balked home what proved to be the winning run in the ninth. The Royals slapped out 10 hits including four-masters by Ken Wood and Bob Repass.

Ken Burkhart pitched Syracuse Chiefs to a 8-3 triumph over the fifth-place Rochester Red Wings. Frankie Drews and Bob Sher hit successive home runs in the fifth for Syracuse.

Burkhart held the Wings hitless for six innings. Russ Derry broke the spell with his 16th home run of the year in the seventh. Rookie Steve Bilko poled another round-tripper in the ninth for the Wings.

Westclox Girls Gain Win

Westclox defeated Linsay 8-4 at the Bowl last night in a Girls' Softball League encounter. They were outhit 10-9 and had two errors to none, but cashed in on experienced and bunched their blows better to earn the duke. It was a good game, with Lindsay always in the hunt, but the visitors could not get the hits when needed, apart from one frame. They used two twirlers, M. Owen taking over in the sixth, while M. Downer went the route comfortably for the Clockers. She fanned seven as five of the winners went down on strikes.

M. Downer and A. Anderson looked best defensively for the victors, as P. Graham and M. Chase stood out for the Lindsay lasses. The latter led them at bat with a double and two singles in four. For Westclox, N. Whetung was the big sticker with a homer and two singles in four. Homers were also hit by M. Downer, M. Hawthorne, and J. Vass, as A. Anderson connected for a triple.

The teams:

Lindsay — H. Deyell 2b, P. Graham 1b, M. Dawlins cf, M. Chase ss, M. Owen 3b p, I. Green rf, D. Wakelin c, P. Richards lf, F. Reynolds p 3b, M. McDonald 3b

Bell Beats Hughes

Bell Telephone took a 14-3 Civic Softball League triumph over J. K. Hughes last evening. They got three runs in the first frame, added one next time up, then got five and five the next two innings. The losers tallied their three in the sixth of a fair tussle. t Teams:

Bell: Greatrix, Conway, James, Ackford, Gillespie, Giardino, Tushingham, Wood, Boyce, Harrison.

J. K. Hughes: Dyer, Reid, Carl, Dummitt, Anderson, Berwick, Stanley, O'Connell, Bannon, Panter.

5 Ball Players Traded In Major League

NEW YORK, June 14 (AP)—Five major league baseball players today swapped uniforms amid rumors that may be a half-dozen more would change clubs before the trading deadline at midnight tomorrow.

Boston Red Sox, in a bid to strengthen their wobbly pitching staff, sent lefty Mickey Harris and outfielder Sam Mele to Washington Senators Monday for righthander Walt Masterson.

New York Giants shipped catcher Walker Cooper to Cincinnati Reds for backstop Ray Mueller.

The grapevine has the Giants planning a wholesale shift in their personnel. They departed for Cincinnati last night without Mickey Livingston, who along with Cooper had done their catching.

Livingston said he didn't know why he was left behind "unless a deal is cooking."

Reports had Livingston going to either Pittsburgh or Chicago White Sox.

Outfielder Willard Marshall and first-baseman Johnny Mize also are reported on the block. The Giants are looking for an established second baseman and according to the boys in the know they have their sights trained on either Ed Stanky or Sibby Sisti of Boston Braves with Marshall as the pawn. The Braves are seeking an outfielder of Marshall's class.

Too Slow For Leo

Mize, despite his 10 home runs, has not been hitting and his slowness afoot does not fit in with manager Leo Durocher's style of play. Brooklyn Dodgers are looking for first base insurance but they will have to give up more than reserve infielder Ed Miskis to land Mize.

The rumor mart also was working in the American League with smoke brewing in the ranks of the New York Yankees, the runner-up Detroit Tigers and the last place St. Louis Browns.

New York is pining for an outfielder and it is understood that manager Casey Stengel will take a chance on Detroit's problem child, Dick Wakefield. The Yanks also would welcome Dick Kokos of St. Louis. The Browns are said to be willing to trade second-baseman Gerry Priddy if they can land a suitable replacement.

Yankee second-baseman George Stirnweiss is the lad the Yanks are rumored as dangling in front of St. Louis and Detroit. The Browns might trade Priddy to Detroit for Wakefield and cash or a pitcher and then ship Wakefield or Kokos to New York for Stirnweiss.

Electrics Take 7-4 Victory Over Woollens

A three-run drive in the eighth clinched it for CGE last night at the Bowl as they pulled out a 7-4 victory over the Woollens in a neat Girls' Softball League tussle. It was the fastest game of the year, going just 40 minutes, as both sides hustled all the way an the umpires were right on their toes. Fans present thoroughly enjoyed the snappy fray. Woollens played good ball but just could not clout in the pinches, and CGE came through with their late rally.

Each side used but one pitcher and both went well, with Marg Perrin having a little edge in a seven-hit chore as she whiffed 11 in a nice showing. Eight of the winners fanned, too. Marg Perrin, R. Todd, L. Derry and C. Ferguson were good in the field. J. Perrin had three hits for CGE, while C. Ferguson topped the losers at bat with a double and single.

The teams:

Woollens — R. McIlroy 2b, J. Walling 3b, J. McIlwain ss, M. Laing 1b, S. Westlake c, C. Ferguson lf, L. Derry p, E. Humphries cf, S. Johnson rf.

CGE — M. Batley cf, M. Perrin rf, A. DeCarlo c, E. Boyce ss, Marg Perrin p, C. O'Brien 1b, R. Tod 3b, R. Boyce, lf, T. Connors 2b.

Umpires—Borland and Akers.

IN OPENING BOUT—Tom Collins, pictured above, who meets Bill Stack in the opening bout of Wednesday night's wrestling card at the Brock Arena. Both Stack and Collins are equally matched and clean wrestlers and should provide an interesting match. The main bout brings together the team of Whipper Billy Watson and Pat Flanagan against Wee Willie Davis and Hi Lee. Wee Willies figures he has strengthend his team considerably by having Hi Lee on his side. Both men are huge but they will have to be at their best to beat wrestling's perfect team, Pat and Whip. The semi-final has the sensational newcomer Al Lovelock pitted against the clever and popular Mike Sharpe. As the season is nearing an end fans will likely be out in force to see this well-balanced card.

Brooks, Cards Square Off In Vital 3-Game Series

By RALPH RODEN,
Associated Press Sport Writer.

Those old National League antagonists, the league-leading Brooklyn Dodgers, and the runner-up St. Louis Cardinals, go at each other tonight in the first game of a vital three-game series in St. Louis.

Brooklyn, clicking on all cylinders, leads the Cards and the third-place Boston Braves by two games and is riding the crest of a seven-game winning streak.

Brooklyn just completed a home stand that brought 11 victories in 15 starts.

The Cards are pretty hot themselves. Stan Musial and company staged a triumphant swing through the east that netted them 10 victories in 13 games.

The Braves meanwhile, open a three-game set with the seventh-place Pirates in Pittsburgh. Rookie Bob Hall is slated to go against the Pirates' Bob Chesnes tonight.

New York's stumbling Giants open their second tour of the west in Cincinnati and the up-and-coming Philadelphia Phillies take on the Cubs in Chicago in the lone day game in the majors.

The American League's front-running New York Yankees return home after a roadtrip that saw them win only eight of 15 games. The Yanks left the stadium on May 30 in first place by 4½ games.

Casey Stengel's crew now leads Detroit Tigerss by three games. The Tigers, in fifth place, six games off the pace before Memorial Day's games, have captured 11 out of their last 15 starts.

The Tigers begin their second jaunt through the east in Philadelphia taking on the Athletics for three games.

Boston, tied with Washington for fourth place, entertains the Indians in the first of a three-game set tonight while the Senators play host to the Browns in the first of three.

No games were scheduled in either league Monday.

Analyses Show Water Unfit Below Bridge

Water tests of the river from Lakefield to Wallace's Point show that below the CPR bridge and down as far as Wallace's Point the water of Little Lake and the Otonabee river is unsuitable for swimming. Water samples were taken by Sanitary Inspector R. M. MacPherson, and analysed at the Provincial Laboratory in the City Buildings by Dr. C. B. Waite, director of the laboratory.

One cubic centimeter of each sample of water was put on a plate in the laboratory and kept at a temperature of 37 degrees centigrade for 48 hours. After that time the bacteria which grew on the plate were counted.

The bacteria count from Lakefield to Nassau did not rise above six for each cubic centimeter of water. From there to the CPR bridge in the heart of the city the bacteria rate was higher but the water is considered sanitary enough for swimming. The count of the water taken from the river at the end of Water St. above Canada Packers was 57 per c.c. This the Health department believed to be caused from a small backwater in the river.

High Bacterial Content

Water tested at the George St. wharf had an exceedingly high bacterial count of 336; that is, 336 bacteria per cubic centimeter of water. A cubic centimeter is less than one half a cubic inch. From the George St. wharf to the river at Wallace's Point nine miles down the river, health authorities consider the water so unsanitary as to be unsuitable for swimming. Here are bacterial counts made along the river: one mile below the Sewage Plant, 168; three miles south of the sewage plant 116; at Wallace's Point 47.

In contrast with these high figures are the Otonabee at Inverlea where the bacterial count was 16, and 16 at Lansdowne St. above the sewage disposal plant. Canal water, checked in two places, gave a low count. At Mark St. it was 2, at McFarlane Ave. 4.

Water from the Jackson Park pool showed a bacterial count of 28. This is not considered too high for swimming.

Dies Third Time In Hospital

BALTIMORE, June 14 (AP) — Death came Sunday for the third and last time to James W. Stanke who "died" twice on an operating table last Wednesday.

The 49-year-old printer succumbed to pneumonia, his wife said.

Stanek entered hospital last week for a hernia operation. While on the table, his heart stopped beating.

(Doctors consider a person dead when the heart stops beating.)

Dr. Joseph V. Castagna cut open the patient's chest and started massaging the heart. It was 20 minutes before Stanek showed signs of life.

Then a few minutes later Stanek's heart stopped again. After nine minutes of massaging, Dr. Castagna said life reappeared.

Stanek remained unconscious until Saturday.

Careless Driver Guilty On 2 Counts

John Herlihey, 44 George St., whose car overturned into the ditch Friday night at the junction of No. 7 highway and Wolsley St. Monday pleaded guilty to careless driving before Magistrate W. R. Philp K. C.

After Constable Claire McGillen told the court he had found a bottle of whiskey partly empty, in the glove compartment of the car, Herlihey was convicted on a plea of not guilty to having liquor in a place other than his home.

Herlihey, who was find $15 with $2.50 for the liquor offence and $10 with $2.50 costs for careless driving, denied knowledge of the whiskey being in the car.

Closing Held By Boys' School

LAKEFIELD, June 14 (ENS)—Lakefield Preparatory School held its seventieth annual closing Saturday afternoon. The ceremonies began with the final chapel service of the year conducted by the school chaplain, Rev. Lloyd Delaney of St. John the Baptist Church, Lakefield. Participating also in the service were Rt. Rev. G. A. Wills, assistant Bishop of Toronto, and former principal Protestant Chaplain of the armed forces and Rev. R. Howden of St. Michael's and All Angels', Church, Toronto, who preached the sermon.

Rev. Mr. Howden urged the boys to be ever mindful of the teaching in character which they had received at school.

Announces Retirement

H. McCulloch, chairman of the board of the school announced the retirement of Miss Perry, beloved matron of the school for twenty-one years.

G. Winder Smith, head-master of the school, gave a report of the year's school activities. He touched on his visit to the fifty-sixth annual meeting of the Headmaster's Association of America as the representative of Canadian headmasters. (Mr. Smith is president of the Canadian Headmaster's Association). Mr. Smith also mentioned the very favourable report of the inspector of the Provincial Department of Education on the School.

Mrs. W. L. Grant, widow of the noted Principal of Upper Canada College, presented the greater part of the prizes. She was presented with a bouquet of red roses by Anthony Johnson. The award of the Old Boys Gold Watch to Bob Ketchum, Head Boy, was made by Mrs. A. Mackenzie, whose husband was for many years Headmaster of the Grove.

Mrs. Mackenzie received a bouquet of pink roses from her grandson, Alex Ryder.

Public Bilks Movie Stars

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, June 14 (AP)—Why does a Hollywood star make her home in New York?

This question was put to Gene Tierney, who has chosen to live in the east and remain here only to make movies. Her answer:

"My husband's business is in the east (he's designer Oleg Cassini). But there's another reason—that's the discrimination against movie stars in Hollywood.

"Everybody from the butcher to the hairdresser tries to get his share of a star's earnings. Hollywood is the worst place in the world for this. It's a carry-over from the lush days when stars were able to keep the salaries they made.

"But today, by the time the tax collectors get through with the salary, there's little left for the mass of people who expect double or triple the price from a star."

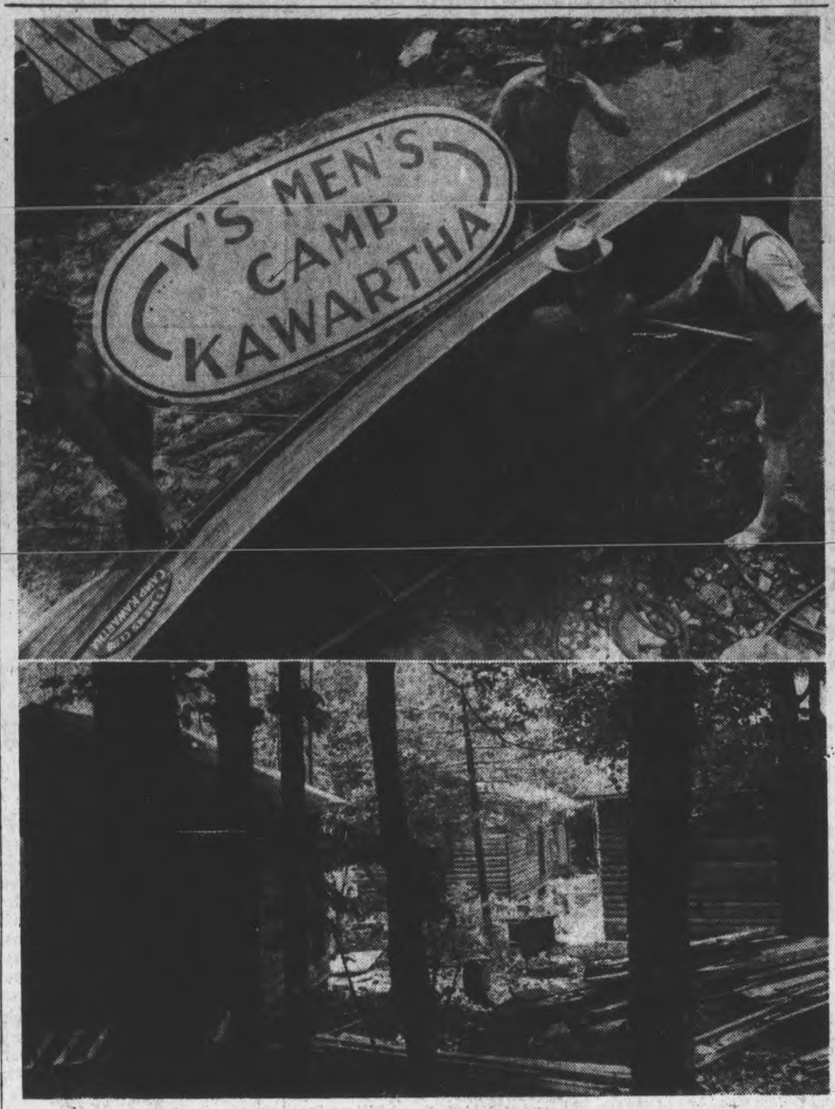
Mayor Seeks Curb On Reckless Drivers

Somebody is going to be killed if the police don't do something to curb the reckless drivers around town, according to the dark prediction of Mayor M. J. Swanston at the meeting of the finance committee of the council Monday night.

His reference to the acceleration of local motoring speeds, especially by those who leave thoughts of safety behind them when they sit in behind a wheel, elicited two specific instances reported by Ald. Grant Miller and Ald. Herb. Young, relaying complaints of alarmed citizens.

Mayor Swanston said he had discussed this question with Chief Constable John Thompson whose reply was to the effect that he should have three men "to give the service suggested".



There are now 30 men in the department, in fact only 29, since the retirement of Inspector James Reid and the ensuing promotion of Sergeant John Naples to be deputy chief. The staff works the eight hour day, and if any of the men becomes ill or is off on holiday, the number remaining on duty for that shift is ony sufficient for the routine work, apart from special traffic spotting.

The sentiment of the council was a willingness to provide the funds for the three extra policemen. Total cost was estimated at around $3,000 for the rest of the year.

"I want to know whether the council is agreeable to the appointment of these three men," Mayor Swanston said. "Actually there will be four."

No resolution was proposed, but it was understood that Mayor Swanston would report the wish of the council to the Police Commission, paricularly in respect to the appointment of three traffic police to clip the wings of taxi and truck drivers and the numerous company of citizens who like the flight of gas without regard for the safety of others.

Said Ald. Dick Raine: "We want the police to tighten up." His motion, seconded by Ald. Sands, expressed approval of the proposed appointment of the additional traffic police and the expenditure involved, in the expectation that this action will be taken by the Police Commission.

FINISHING TOUCHES AT CAMP KAWARTHA on Clear Lake, were added by some of the 40-odd members of the Peterborough Y's Men's Club. They have spent 1000 man hours on weekends and holidays at this worthy effort since mid-April. At the waterfront, Top Photo, Stew Csumrik and J. Rowan carry the camp signboard past Allan Austin and Ernie Gibson who clean boats in preparation for varnishing. In Lower Photo, four new sleeping cabins are shown.

Good Job Done On Voters' Lists

Arthur J. McClellan, returning officer for Peterborough riding, estimates at ¾ of 1 per cent the number of corrections in the enumerated voters list by the recent revising officers.

"I really think the women who took on this job did most conscientious work," Mr. McClellan said. "In may of the subdivisions there were no omissions, or corrections submitted to the revising sittings. There were no rejections of any kind by the revising officers, and on the whole I think the enumeration was well done. Credit goes to the women who called from house to house when the names were being compiled."

Mr. McClellan said he might have some more definite report of the enumeration in a day or two.

Heavy Rainfall In Some Areas

The first rain to fall during the past two-week drought came to a section of Eastern Ontario between 11 p.m. and midnight on Monday, but not to Peterborough. A heavy downfall was reported in Cobourg following an electric storm of moderate intensity. The storm track is believed to have extended east of Trenton where an inch and a half of moisture fell and followed a path north including Hastings, with less than a quarter of an inch. It moved into the Upper Stony Lake area, bounded by Hall's Glenn, to the head of the lake and east.

Service station manager Jack Morgan, Hall's Glenn, estimated about half an inch of rain fell around midnight and overnight cottagers on the Dummer shore of Stony Lake reported about the same rainfall. The storm skirted Warsaw by a few miles and weather recorder Jim Harrison could report little if any percipitation in the rain guage this morning.

1,000 Man Hours of Work Put In Boys' Camp Effort

Forty odd members of the Peterborough Y's Men's Club completed on the weekend more than 1000 man hours of work in and on the buildings and grounds of their Camp Kawartha on Clear Lake since the middle of April this year. They took over the management of the Camp from the Peterborough Rotary Club about eight years ago and this year the club has spent a great deal of money and effort on this worthwhile project.

As all summer camps will, buildings have deteriorated and in place of fixing some of them, new ones were built, four log-siding sleeping cabins and two new septic toilets. Other structures are being torn down and, taking the broad view, the camp will eventually be the finest in Canada. As far as that goes, it rates fourth from the top by a panel of experts in Toronto who have to do with inspection and judging of summer camps of this nature.

Regardless of the weekend's blishering heat, many of the group were busy with saws, hammers and paint brushes putting finishing touches on the four new sleeping cabins. These will accomodate eight boys and one councillor and are arranged to enjoy full view of Clear Lake. The establishment at the present time consists of main dining hall and kitchen, a five-bed hospital, a cabin each for camp and assistant camp director, one large bunkhouse, four sleeping cabins, and two new toilets. There is a fine open-air chapel back of the camp on the hill and at the waterfront a large boathouse, and three docks, 11 boats of various types and two motors. Besides a regulation-size playground, that was bulldozed out of a rockpile last year, the camp guests have 500 acres of ground in which to roam at will.

Accomodate 60 boys

Saturation point of accomodation is from 50 to 60 boys and that is being rapidly reached, according to camp committee chairman Jack Stuart. There are only 45 openings left in the period July 4th to mid-August and it is more than certain that these will be filled long before camp opens.

Under dircetion of William Moorhead, president until August 1, and incoming president Jack Richardson and Mr. Stuart, an able staff for this season has been chosen. Don Duncan will be camp director, E. A. Druery, his assistant and program director and and John Lewis in charge of the waterfront. There will also be eight councillors on the strength at all times.

To give the boys the best summer of their lives, the Y's Men's Club members deprive themselves of all their spare weekend time through spring and early summer. During fal and winter they stage all sorts of carnivals to raise funds to sink back into this worthy project. Their reward is the robust healthy laughter of youngsters playing on land, on water and in the water of Clear Lake who, by medical check, put a pound of muscle on each growing body every week of their stay.

Ward System Be Studied At City Hall

An Allied Labor Council letter advocating adoption of the ward system for the election of aldermen was referred by the finance committee of the city council Monday night to the legal committee

The motion by Ald. Dick Raine and Mayor Swanston followed a suggestion that the smaller committee would be preferable for the study of the proposal and the reasons for the change as set out by the Labor Council. Their opinion, in part, is that the ward system would bring out candidates who would be better known in their respective localities than were aldermen elected by the general vote, and that ward representatives would be more accessible to the ratepayers.

ALC believes that the ward system would produce more specialized representatives who would also feel more direct and local responsibility than were aldermen elected to represent the city as a whole. The change, it was said, would provide more diffusion of members of the Council over the whole city, ensuring to each section the same numerical representation as all the others.

No Action Taken

No action was taken on a letter from the Peterborough Business Men's Association enquiring whether an alternative free parking area would be provided in the event of the Council metering the market as a contributing and revenue-producing parking space. The letter was simply received.

A request from Peter Dominik, 568 Domaine St., that employees of Outboard Marine and Manufacturing Co., who park their cars on that street be asked to use the parking space provided by the company, is being referred to the management of Outboard Marine.

Mr. Dominik's complaint about night shunting on the CPR in the vicinity of Romaine St. and Monaghan Road is being forwarded to the divisional superintendent of the railway company. Both the CPR and CNR are being asked to avoid blocking George and Charlotte Streets respectively by trains extending over those streets for longer intervals than are permitted. Recent instances of traffic lines at both crossings were mentioned.

Hosing Rules Help Pressure

The rate of consumption—as distinguished from the volume—of water rose 50% on the register at the Utilities pumphouse Monday night at 9 o'clock.

"That was evidence of the co-operation of the citizens in holding off watering lawns and garden from 4 to 9 p.m. as requested by the Commission," said R. L. Dobbin, manager. "I think that arrangement worked out fine. Total pumpage Monday was 6,600,000 gallons as compared with 6,910,000 gallons Saturday. That is not much difference, but by switching the period of heaviest use we got some pressure in the higher levels of the city where recently taps were opened but no water flowed out of them, as reported by some householders."

A news item from Whitby tells of three firms there buying water from the Whitby Public Utility Commission and delivering it at points up to 15 miles radius from the town. A. Mitchell of Pickering operates three trucks each carrying 500 gallons. Howard Grylls of Brooklin is using an 800-gallon truck for the same purpose, and W. Lynde of Dunbarton has a 500-gallon truck in use. Pickering people pay $3 a tank load plus a mileage fee for supply of water to their wells. At the farthest points a load of water costs $5.50.

Place 3 Names In Official Nomination

Returning officer Arthur J. McLellan kept a lonely vigil in the large Legion Hall on Murray St. from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. Monday, official nomination day for the coming federal election.

Mr. McLellaan had three visitors in the two hours. They were Gordon K. Fraser, present member of parliament and Progressive Conservative candidate: Arthur Lewis president of the Peterborough Liberal Association, and one sparrow which flew through the window three minutes before closing time.

Last week each candidate handed in his nomination papers and paid the $200 deposit. The candidates didn't have to appear Monday. The three men seeking the Peterborough West seat are Aubrey V. Clapper, Liberal; Gordon K. Fraser, Progressive Conservative; and J. Howard Miles, C. C. F.

"If I had known it was going to be like this," Mr. McLellan said looking about the empty hall, "I would have had the nominations in my office."

It used to be different in the old days Mr. McLellan reflected. Nomination days used to be exciting. Each candidate would get up on the platform and give his opponent what for. Often it ended in a fight. Those were the days.

Marmora Man Becomes Octogenarian

MARMORA, June 14 (ENS) — James Edmund Gehan, resident of Marmora for the past forty-one years today joins the ranks of octogenarians and is receiving the congratulations of a host of friends.

"Jim," as he is known to them, is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Gehan of Throoptown (about 15 miles from Brockville), where he was born in 1869. He came to Marmora from Smiths Falls where for about seven years he was in the employ of Frost and Wood, makers of farm implements. On coming to Marmora, he was the agent here for this company for many years. He was soon operating a blacksmith shop also.

Enjoys Reading

His two main pastimes are reading and a friendly game of cards. In past he enjoyed fishing.

Mr. Gehan lost his wife a few years ago and household ministrations are in the hands of his daughter Gladys. The Gehan home is noted for its atmosphere of friendliness. Mr. Gehan enjoys his daily perusal of the Examiner being one of its oldest re[illegible].

WHO WILL CLIP HIS WATER WINGS?

Be it known to all men, and to the smart aleck speedboat operator that was going all open in the Lakefield Pool on Sunday evening, in particular, that the Department of Transport has rulings against these sort of antics. It says, in part: "No person shall drive or operate a motor vessel on any waters forming part of the minor waters of Canada, recklessly or in a manner, or at a speed which is dangerous to navigation or to life and limb, etc." Hundreds of onlookers will vouch for the fact that more than six boatloads of people, many of them children, were seen to jockey out of the way of this speeding pest. Newspaperman Jailed For Two Months

Larry Boccioletti, Peterborough correspondent of a Toronto newspaper, was sent to jail for two months Monday by Magistrate W. R. Philp, K.C., on two convictions of retaining a stolen camera and photographer's light meter and a third conviction of stealing a wrist watch. A fourth charge of retaining a camera attachment was dismissed.

Arrested at the end of May, Boccioletti was charged with retaining a Kodak 35 m.m. camera stolen from Elliott's Drug Store which Jim Stutt, an assistant at the store, said was retail priced at $98.28; retaining a photographer's light meter which Fred Roy identified as a meter stolen from Roy's Studio; stealing a gold wrist watch, the property of Jack Ackerman, from the office at the Y.M.C.A. and retaining a lense hood, a camera attachment, which was stolen from Jim Stutt's room at the Y.M.C.A.

Consents To Return

Boccioletti who lived at the Y.M.C.A., at first pleaded not guilty to all four charges and was defended by John Corkery. Although he was acquitted of retaining the lense hood which Mr. Stutt identified as an attachment missing from a drawer in his room, Boccioletti told Crown Attorney John Bradshaw that he would consent to the attachment being returned to Mr. Stutt.

Before addressing the magistrate concerning sentence following conviction, the Crown Attorney asked Boccioletti if he would allow Mr. Stutt to take the attachment.

Often Visited The Store

Mr. Stutt, who said that Boccioletti had often visited Elliott's Drug Store, told the court that the camera had been missed from its case during the May 24 holiday week. Mr. Roy said he had missed his light meter from a show case in his studio, and hour after Boccioletti had visited him to ask for a part time job as a photographer and to make a small purchase.

Mr. Ackerman said he had left his watch in the care of Mr. George Roper, secretary of the Y.M.C.A. and during that time, it had disappeared from a drawer in which Mr. Roper told the court he had left it.

Boccioletti told the court that he had bought all three articles—the camera, meter and watch—from a man whose name and whereabouts he did not know. He claimed that he did not know they had been stolen. He claimed to have purchased the lense hood in Welland.

Changed Plea

When the magistrate said he could not accept Boccioletti's story and found him guilty of the charge in respect of the lighter meter, the accused changed his plea to guilty on the two subsequent charges of retaining the stolen camera and stealing the wrist watch.

Mr. Corkery pleaded for leniency on behalf of the accused, who told the magistrate he had spent his 21st birthday in jail on remand, but the Crown Attorney commented that the attitude of the accused in the box had not been that of a young innocent who gets into trouble for the first time.

Mr. Corkery pointed out that there had been no previous conviction against the accused. Boccioletti had planned to study television in the U.S. but would be unable to do so if he had to serve a jail sentence.

Professor Spots Caterpillars; Blight To Pass

Prof. W. C. Allan of the department of entomology of O.A.C. has identified the caterpillars of the recent invasion of the Burleigh shore as eastern tent and forest tent species, as suggested by F. C. Paterson, agricultural representative.

"These pests appear in great numbers every so often and defoliate the trees in certain areas. However, the trees will leaf out again in the same season, and will certainly show no ill effects next year. Not only will the pest be much less next year, but in all probability it won't be seen again for quite a number of years, as they have terrific numbers of natural enemies."

One of those who did not wait for "post mortems" or official identification was Tom Lawlor of South Beach. When he heard of caterpillars up on the north shore of Stony Lake, he immediately arranged with Leavens Brothers to spray his resort area from the air. It was a precaution that was probably not needed as the invasion turned out, because none of the trees in that neighborhood was attacked.

"I didn't want to take a chance on any stripped trees around the place," Mr. Lawlor said. "You can imagine the impression they would make on arriving guests. They'd probably think there were caterpillars all over the place, even if there wasn't one in the township."

Thinks Europe Should Speed Tariff Pacts

By FORBES RHUDE

QUEBEC, June 14 — (CP) — The advice of Sir Arthur Guinness, president of the International Chamber of Commerce, is "full speed ahead" on tariff agreements among European countries.

But he thinks suggestions that the pound sterling should be devalued are unwise.

He gave these views Monday night in a address to the opening dinner of the present congress, at which delegates from 25 countries were guests of the Canadian government. Trade Minister Howe presided.

The governor-general, Viscount Alexander, welcomed the visitors and told them, "we cannot be prosperous if the rest of the world is not."

Sir Arthur doubted that Britain, under devaluation of the pound, could increase her exports to North America sufficiently to make up for the higher prices for raw materials which she would have to pay to this continent.

Strikes Balance

To many countries, said Sir Arthur, sterling is a "hard" currency, and Britain, though at a deficit in her trade with North America, is approximately balanced in her trade with the whole world.

In regard to tariffs, Sir Arthur suggested that the 18 European countries participating in the European recovery program, should at once negotiate trade agreements on a multilateral trade basis; limiting their tariffs to a height of 15 per cent between each country.

The ultimate aim, he stated, must be free convertibility of currencies. But, in addition to expansion of trade among Marshall aid countries, "there is no economic reason whatever for the retention of American tariffs at such a high level as at present."

Luxurious Life In Orient Thing Of Past

By KENNETH LIKES

BATAVIA, Java, June 14 (AP) —An average Dutch housewife here has a cook, a laundress and a houseboy, but don't think she and her family are living in a colonial lap of luxury.

Disorganized politically and economically, Indonesia is far from the paradise for Europeans it was in pre-war days. That paradise was lost—for good, most Netherlanders think—when Japanese soldiers overran the Archipelago seven years ago.

An estimated 1000,000 Netherlanders are crammed today into this steamy, tropical city of 1,500,000 persons.

At least 60 per cent of the Dutch families in Batavia live in garages or in single rooms.

Batavia's price level for main foodstuffs has leaped to 12 times what it was 10 years ago. The average income, at most, is 300 per cent higher than before the war.

Try to Keep Ceiling

In an effort to hold a lid on some prices, the government has issued ration stamps for a few products which can be purchased from special stores at set prices.

On this "distributie," as the Dutch call it, are textiles, kerosene, salt, processed milk and locally made cigarets. Rice and sugar were dropped recently from the list.

Chinese-owned "tokos" (shops) are piled high with canned juices from California, cigarets from England, canned meat from Australia and butter from New Zealand, slipped in through the back door. But prices in these wide open "black markets" are astronomical enough to stagger the most sturdy Dutch housewife.

Besides the general discomforts of living in one of the most drab, dirty cities of the Orient, the Netherlanders here don't know where they stand after almost four years of bitter political bickering and bloody fighting with Indonesian Nationalists.

Cut In Copper Prices Passed On To Public

Canadian General Electric Co. is passing on to the public immediately the recent reduction in the price of raw copper C.G.E. News of last week quotes these examples: insulated building wire and cable down 11 per cent to 23 per cent.; bare copper, magnet wire and cable., down 14 per cent to 17 per cent.

"So sudden was the fall in the price we pay for raw copper that the company suffered a monetary loss of several hundred thousand dollars on the hugh quantities of copper now being used, that were bought at the previous high prices. It is just one of the risks of carrying on business."

Many Drivers Losing Car Licences

A total of 10,621 persons had their motor vehicle licenses revoked in Ontario during 1948, of which 4,116 still have not been restored, and suspensions of licenses are being made so far in 1949 at an even higher rate, John Johnson, Peterborough branch manager fo the Pilot Insurance Company, told members of the Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon on Monday in the Empress Hotel. There have been a total of 94,222 suspensions since the late 1930's when amendments were made to the Highway Traffic Act making it possible for the Registrar of Motor Vehicles to take such action.

Mr. Johnson, who was introduced by D. P. Diplock and thanked by Thomas Taylor, declared "there are a lot of people on the go at the present time who have no license to drive." He said that it was incumbent upon every car owner to "be very careful who he allows to drive his car," as under the Unsatisfied Judgments Act, the owner as well as the driver is responsible if an accident occurs.

The speaker stated that about 40 per cent of the licenses suspended in 1948 have not been restored because of physical defects, mental conditions, "incurable alcoholism", persistent tendencies toward reckless driving, and because of advanced age. The remaining 60 per cent comprise those whose licenses "might or perhaps should be restored" by meeting certain requirements outlined in the act.

One of these requirements is that the ex-license holder must prevail upon some insurance company to file a certificate of financial responsibility on his behalf to the value of $14,000. Most insurance companies are now becoming increasingly reluctant to do this, said Mr. Johnson, due to the alarming increase in the rate of suspensions noted so far in 1949.

As a result of this trend, the companies handling this type of insurance are being forced to restrict their operations, as their "first duty is to their own policyholders."

Mr. Johnson advised the Rotarians "to be very careful to keep good driving records with the Department of Highways. In other words, prompt attention should be given summonses for minor offenses, so that in the event drivers become involved in a major accident there will be a good record behind him.

Canadians In Dieppe Twice In 7 Years

OTTAWA, June 14 — (CP) — The Canadians are landing in Dieppe again on Aug. 19, seven years after their most costly few hours of the second world war. But there will be just 28 of them this time, representing army units which took part in the 1942 raid.

The group will include non-commissioned, warrant and commissioned officers up to the rank of major and will be drawn from reserve units. They will be flown by the RCAF from Montreal to England and will go from there by train and boat for the memorial ceremonies.

Accident Kills Three

SARNIA, June 14.—(CP). — Death toll of a car-truck collision near Wyoming early Saturday mounted to three Monday with the death of Murray Burke, 24, of Rosedale, near Windsor. William Burke, brother of Murray, died Saturday less than two hours after the accident and Glen McCort, 22, of Windsor died shortly before noon on Saturday.

Too Complacent About Trade Canadians Told

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

James S. Duncan, president of the Canadian section of the International Chamber of Commerce, has some advice to Canadians on the subject of foreign trade and what the I.C.C. means to them.

Speaking to Canadian delegates in Quebec, he said:

"When one considers our almost unique dependence upon export trade, that between 30 and 40 per cent of our national income is derived from our operations abroad, and, that, for instance, when eight or nine people are gathered together in one room, the average chances are that at least three of them derive their income from foreign trade—it is difficult to over-emphasize our dependence upon the ebb and flow of international trade relationships.

"And yet, as a nation, we have been surprisingly complacent and disinterested in matters of foreign trade generally, a condition which is due, no doubt, to our privileged position as a repository of great natural resources in our mines, our forests, our agriculture, which the world requires, and to the fact also that in pre-war days we sold more than 80 per cent of all our exports to two customers, the United States and the British Empire, and a knowledge of the intracacies of world trade was, therefore, not essential....

"It is essential that this situation be remedied. Our dependence upon exports (and the imports which make them possible) is so great that our voice must be heard in the formulating of the rules which will govern the game."

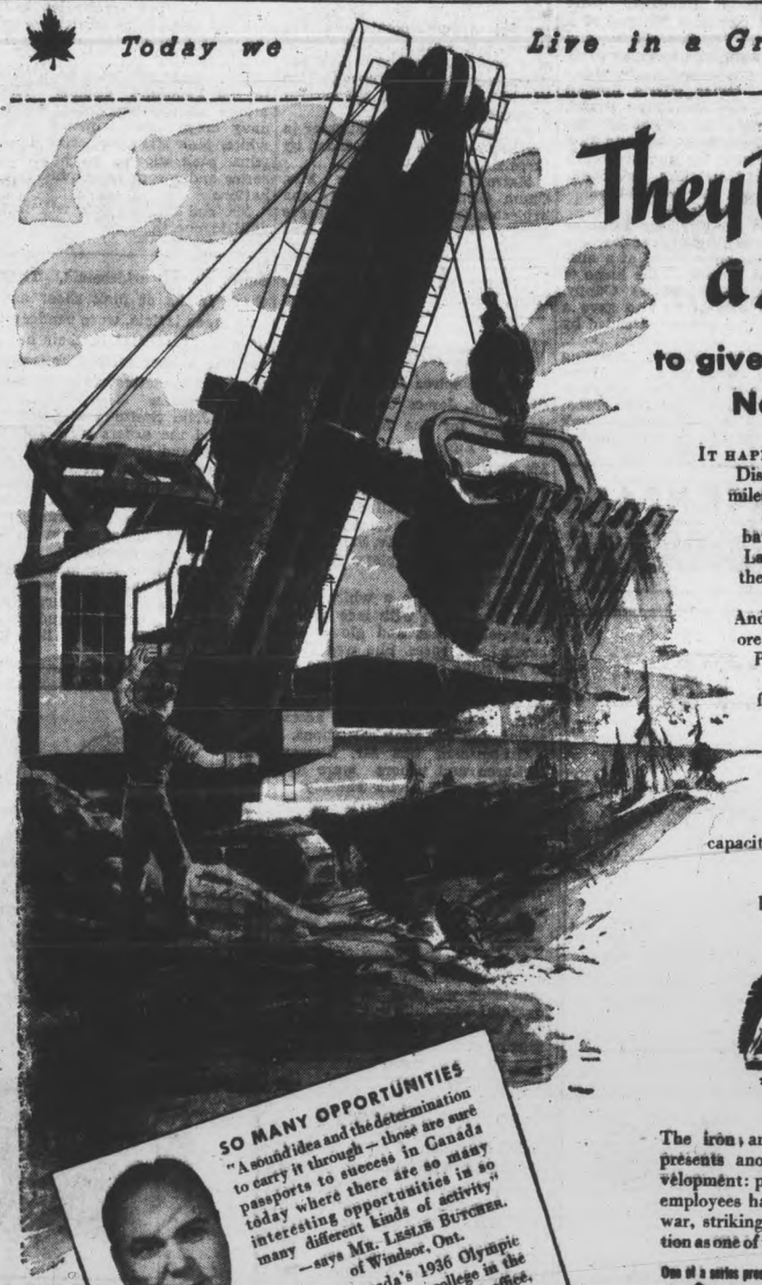
Say Eastern Ontario Grows Best Timber

KEMPTVILLE, June 14—(CP) —John D. Gilmour, a Montreal consulting forester, said Monday night eastern Ontario is the "best timber-growing region in the whole of Canada."

"In this area from 15 to 80 per cent of the land is not really agricultural land but is best fitted for forestry," he said at the annual meeting of Zone 5 of the Ontario Conservation and Reforestation Association. "Under proper management it could produce 300 to 500 board feet of timber per acre per year."

T. A. Wilson of Pakenham was re-elected president. Other officers elected were: T. D. Creighton, Bath, first vice president; Fred Broder, Cornwall, second vice president and Harry Parslow, Ottawa, secretary treasurer. Executive members included: J. D. Meilleur, Casselman; Fred Larose, Prescott; Harry Von Luven, Sydenham; Howard Craig, North Gower; H. E. Durant, Chesterville and C. Reilly, Cardinal.



Three Families Evicted

TORONTO, June 14.—(CP). — Three families, evicted for the second time from a home in suburban Mimico, Monday night were installed in the Mimico Town Hall by a group of war veterans after smashing a window to gain entrance. The families were evicted by a sheriff and five deputies from the large house on the Lakeshore road.

SEEKS RE-ELECTION—Only woman member of the last Parliament was Mrs. Gladys Strum who represented the Saskatchewan riding of Qu'Appelle. Mrs. Strum, first woman president of the CCF organization in Saskatchewan, is one of the six women seeking election on the CCF ticket on June 27 but the only one seeking re-election.

Today we Live in a Greater Canada

They Drained a Lake

to give Canada a Great New Industry

IT HAPPENED in Ontario's Rainy River District. Steep Rock Lake — fifteen miles long and ranging in depth from 40 to 265 feet — was emptied by batteries of giant pumps. Finlayson Lake was lowered by draining from the bottom. The course of the Seine River was completely changed. And one of the richest bodies of iron ore on the continent was uncovered. Providing millions of tons of ore a year — with enough uncovered for years to come — Steep Rock's development has been spectacular, but it is only ONE of many examples of Canada's tremendous modern advance. Today we truly live in a Greater Canada—one with productive capacity vastly increased and diversified, offering to young Canadians greater opportunities than ever before in every field of endeavour.

The iron and steel manufacturing industry presents another spectacular example of development: productive capacity and number of employees have been doubled since before the war, striking indication of Canada's new position as one of the world's great industrial nations.

SO MANY OPPORTUNITIES

"A sound idea and the determination to carry it through — these are sure passports to success in Canada today where there are so many interesting opportunities in so many different kinds of activity" —says MR. LESLIE BUTCHER, of Windsor, Ont.

Mr. Butcher—member of Canada's 1936 Olympic basketball team—after returning from college in the U.S. and being manager of a local insurance office, started his own Butcher Enterprises. Their development provides many examples of this young Canadian's energy and enterprise. They include: a unique and successful service in the wrapping of products for shipping; and the modernization of the Windsor Arena to present outstanding sports and entertainment events with great success.

Three Sisters Attend Bride At Hughes-Moore Wedding

A lovely June wedding was that of Miss Barbara Elizabeth Moore and Mr. Arthur Edsel Hughes, which took place Saturday in a setting of peonies and iris banked with ferns and palm at the altar of Mark St. United Church. The Rev. E. W. Rowland heard their nuptial vows.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. R. C. Searles, who also accompanied Miss Doreen Ferguson, who sang the "Lord's Prayer" before the bride entered the church, and "At Dawning" during the signing of the register.

The bride's gown and train was of blush satin and had an inset yoke of lace, tiny buttons trimming the front, and the sleeves coming to petal points over her hands. She wore a bridal bonnet of French illusion to which her train-length veil was caught with lily of the valley and she carried a cascade of roses.

Mr. Moore gave his daughter in marriage and she was attended by three sisters.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Chum Gillespie (Jeanne) and bridesmaids were Mrs. Horace Guppy (Phyllis) and Mrs. Ken Hopcroft (Mary). They were dressed alike in taffeta frocks with off-shoulder necklines and full skirts, matching pleated bonnets and mittens in pretty shades, lime green, pale mauve and yellow. They carried cascades of snapdragon, delphinium and sweetpeas.

The groomsman was Ab. Hughes, brother of the groom, and ushers were Ralph Heard and Glen McIntyre, cousins of the bride and groom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Moore chose a gown of teal blue black hat and corsage of red roses. The groom's mother was in navy and white flowered crepe, matching accessories and had red roses. Both received with the bridal party in the YWCA green room.

The couple left later on a trip to the Thousand Islands The bride's going-away outfit was a navy crepe dress trimmed with white, pink straw hat with navy trim, pink gloves, navy accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes will live at Bridgenorth.

Williams-Mackey

Iris and spirea formed the setting in St. James United Church Saturday for the marriage of Audrey Emmaline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Mackey, to Mr. John Arthur Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Williams, all of Peterborough The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. W. Craik and the music was played by Mrs. Charles Renaud.

The bride wore a white crepe afternoon dress with lace bodice, a matching hat and gloves and carried red roses. She was given in marriage by her father and attended by Miss Doris Carveth who was dressed in pink crepe with lace trim, matching accessories, and had pink carnations.

Groomsman was Mr. Stewart McLaren and ushers were Roy Mathews and Melville Mackey.

Guests were received afterward at the bride's home by her mother who was in grey mesh with contrasting accessories and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother wore rose eyelet jersey, matching accessories and corsage of roses and blue cornflower.

The bride and groom went on a trip to Toronto and Cleveland, the bride wearing a two-piece dress of blue with white eyelet trim, white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. They will live in Peterborough.

Smith-Doleman

In Park St. Baptist Church, decorated with summer flowers, the marriage took place Saturday of Irene May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Doleman, and Angus Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, all of Peterborough. The Rev. E. J. Whan officiated. Mr. Adam Hawley played the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a white satin gown with seed pearl trim at the high neckline. It was fashioned with long tight-fitting sleeves coming to points over the hands, a flared peplum at the waist and the skirt extending in a short train. A coronet of seed pearls held her veil with scalloped and embroidered edge which fell to the floor, and her bouquet was of red roses.

Her sister, Mrs. W. Westman, was matron of honor and the groom's sister, Miss Margaret Smith, was bridesmaid. They chose frocks of pink sheer and pale green taffeta, wore bandeaux of white gardenias in their hair, and the former carried Talisman roses and the latter had pink roses and sweetpeas.

Mr. John Smith was groomsman and the ushers were Harry Doleman and Donald Long.

The reception was at the bride's home where her mother received wearing navy crepe, hat of white nylon straw and white carnations. The groom's mother was in black and wore pink carnations.

For a wedding trip to Toronto and Niagara the bride wore a two-piece dress of turquoise crepe, white accessories and grey shortie coat. They will live in Peterborough.

The bride's gown was of white satin fashioned with pointed sleeves, a draped skirt caught into a bustle at the back, the fullness falling into a graceful train. Her veil of tulle was caught to a crown headdress and she wore a three-strand pearl necklace. Her bouquet was American beauty roses. Mr. Bowes gave his daughter in marriage.

Two sisters attended the bride, Mrs. Clayton Gordon of Peterborough, as matron of honor, and Miss Verna Bowes of Toronto as bridesmaid. 15 Women Leave Kitchen To Fight for Federal Seats

By The Canadian Press.

Fifteen Canadian women have stepped from kitchen to platform to prove—if proof be needed—that a woman can out-talk a man any day and maybe do a better job of it.

They were the 15 women candidates nominated in various constituencies across Canada yesterday for House of Commons seats in the June 27 Federal election. Their numbers aren't perhaps too impressive when stacked up against the total of men running—836.

All 15 aren't in the housewifely category. Some have left offices and classrooms, if only temporarily, to make their bid for election and some already are seasoned campaigners. Some are married and some are single while others are young and others are. . . well, not too old.

The only woman member of the last House — Mrs. Gladys Strum, 43-year-old mother, housewife and former school teacher who was elected CCF member for Saskatchewan's Qu'Appelle constituency in 1945—is back in the fight.

Newfoundland Entry

The Newfoundland entry is Mrs. Grace Sparkes, a housewife. She is the Progressive Conservative candidate in Burin-Burgeo, opposing a lone man, C. W. Carter, Liberal.

Quebec has three women in the lists—Cecile Brunet, school teacher running as a Social Credit candidate in Hull while her father contests neighboring Ottawa East on the same ticket; Mrs. Victor Gladu, Independent-Liberal in Saguenay, and Jennie Theoret, CCF in Montreal St. Lawrence-St. George.

Ontario has the largest number of women entered—six. Two of them—Ruth Radford, Liberal, in Toronto Broadview, and Myrtle Morrison, CCF in Frontenac-Addington—go to university. A third, Sybil Bennett, Progressive Conservative, in Halton, is a lawyer and a King's Counsel.

Mrs. Avis McCurdy, contesting Toronto Danforth as a CCF nominee, is a housewife and mother while Marguerite Marchildon, 25, Union of Electors candidate in Simcoe East, helps her parents run the family store at Lafontaine, Ont. She is a cousin of Phil Marchildon, star pitcher of Philadelphia Athletics.

Manitoba's lone contestant is Mrs. Bessie Keating, CCF, opposing Justice Minister Garson in Marquette.

Saskatchewan, besides Mrs. Strum, has Mrs. Leila Smiley, Progressive Conservative candidate in Moose Jaw.

Veteran Campaigners

British Columbia's women candidates are seasoned campaigners. Mrs. Grace MacInnis, CCF candidate in Vancouver South, was CCF member of the B. C. Legislature from 1941 to 1945 and is the wife of Angus MacInnis, CCF Member of Parliament for Vancouver East. She also is the daughter of J. S. Woodsworth, founder of the CCF party.

Mrs. Dorothy Steeves, running for the CCF in the new riding of Burnaby-Richmond, represented the CCF in the provincial Legislature from 1934 to 1945.

DOROTHY DIX

Big Weddings Waste Money Daughter Can Ruin Parents

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Our daughter is planning to be married soon and resents our suggestion of having a simple home wedding such as we feel that we can afford. Her plan is to have a brilliant church wedding at night with every friend and acquaintance invited. We object to this because it would be a great financial strain upon us. What shall we do?

C. EL.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: If you have even an elementary backbone you will refuse to accede to your daughter's unreasonable demands and simply tell her that you will not be bulldozed into going into debt for a silly display that you cannot afford.

Dorothy Dix

Nowhere else in the world do people get so little run for their money as they do at a splurge wedding, and why people who are poor or in moderate circumstances ever make such a bad investment is one of the things that nobody can explain. From the time the bride trails her white satin and orange blossoms into the church and out of it generally does not consume more than 15 minutes, yet for that brief period of having the spotlight turned on her she has paid hundreds and often thousands of dollars. And it isn't worth it.

A Crime

When a poor girl has a show wedding it is a crime, because it means that for the sake of flaunting herself in the public eye she has been willing to run her poor old father into debt, to lay upon his already burdened shoulders an additional load that will make them sag still further downward and that they will have to endure for years to come while they are trying to pay off the debt of her folly and vanity.

Moreover unless she is marrying a rich man, and that is seldom the case, she is starting out in her new life on the wrong foot because she is beginning in a way that she cannot keep up. Also, she is making both herself and her young husband ridiculous because for a poor young couple who are going to live in a two-by-four flat and who have not even their furniture paid for, to get married as if they were millionaires is merely to hand all of their friends and acquaintances a derisive laugh.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Is there any cure for a liar? Or for one who finds it easier and pleasanter to believe a lie than to face the truth? I am still a young girl, though I have been married for six years to a liar. Have left him three times and have only just returned to try a fresh start again, but find after only four months that he has been lying to me just the same. Once again I find myself hating him for it and planning to leave and go back to business. Do you think I am right or wrong.

MARY

ANSWER: I do not believe that a liar ever ceases to lie or becomes trustworthy. The truth simply isn't in such a one, and he or she cannot become dependable and straightforward.

If you have tried on three different occasions to get along with your husband and every time he has deceived you, I think you are foolish to waste any more time on him. It will always be the same old story of fair promises that are never kept, of reformation that never reforms, of quarrels and reconciliations that keep you forever upset and miserable. Better just give the liar up unless you love him well enough to forgive his duplicity and not let it make any difference to you.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: I am a girl, 24 years old, madly infatuated with a married man and he is with me. Now the fact about our relationship has been discovered, even his wife knows it. How can I justify my position before my many friends so it will appear that I am the victim of his wiles, instead of being equally guilty with him in the matter?

SAPPHIRA

ANSWER: You can't. The day has gone by when a girl could pose as a victim of the prefidy of man and be wept over and pitied instead of being condemned. The old ignorant, innocent credulous racket has played out. Everybody now knows that the modern girl knows her way about and is perfectly aware of what she is doing and that when a man leads her into temptation it is because she is out looking for it.

So my advice to you is to be a good sport and take your medicine. Your friends and acquaintances will have a lot more respect for you than they will if you leave the man to stand all the obliquy alone. And you will simply give them a laugh if you try to play the innocent.

Touring World Lots of Fun US Woman Says

NEW YORK, June 14.—(AP)—Mrs. Charlotte Gilbert, a native of Manhattan, is terrified crossing city streets, even with the lights in her favor. But she's off now for a two-year journey from Capetown to Cairo—and she's not scared a bit.

"I've spent my life proving that with a little money and a lot of inclination, any woman can travel anywhere alone, without fear," she said as she packed in a New York hotel for the latest venture.

"For goodness sake, I've had my pocket picked on a Broadway street car, and I just missed being shot when policemen and robbers were shooting it out with each other on 34th street a few years ago."

Once she happened to tune in on a radio baritone singing "The Road to Mandalay," and first thing you know, there was Mrs. Gilbert on the Burma Road from Rangoon to Mandalay.

"It wasn't as pleasant as it sounds in the song," she remarked.

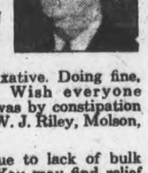
Travels Light

Mrs. Gilbert maintains she gets places because she travels light and alone, but, she warns, trusting—and plain uninformed—women can get themselves into an awful lot of trouble.

"Any lady—note the word lady—can travel alone," she claims, "but she must remember her dignity, to respect others and assay human values. You meet an awful lot of people casually, but you've got to be careful about making friends."

When abroad in the world, eat the food the natives eat, and be careful about drinking water, eating salads and uncooked fruits, she warns.

"This water thing applies even to brushing your teeth," she cautioned. "You can always use beer or wine, and its safer."



AND IT'S STILL "SHE"

The Greeks were the first to give each ship its own name—usually that of a woman.

CAMPBELL'S CAKE MIX

Cool Thirst-Quenchers Served During Hot Weather

BY MARY MOORE

My sisters dropped in with two of their guests from Columbus, Ohio,—and they had just finished a big dinner. So I bided my time, while dinner settles, before I made some drinks for them.

I asked them if they would prefer Iced Coffee to my Raspberry Shrub Special. The mystery of the latter appealed to them, so, being good sports, they chose it, sight unseen.

I had new very tall frosted glasses to serve this in, and it was a hit.

Emem's Raspberry Shrub Special

To one 8-oz. jar of homemade raspberry jam add 3 cups water, ½ cup sugar, 10 mint leaves crushed, and boil 5 minutes. Strain. Chill. Add 1 6-oz. can true lemon juice, 1 large bottle ginger ale and about 8 or 10 ice cubes. Taste for sweetness. If more sugar is needed add berry sugar and stir well. To extend this and vary it, a good addition is a 20-oz. can of true orange juice. Serve with sprig of mint in top of each glass.

Iced Coffee

There are many versions of iced coffee: some like it poured hot over ice cubes, some like it chilled and poured over the ice. I think the true flavour and bouquet of the coffee is retained if the ice cubes are put in the glasses, filling them to the top, then pouring over double-strength hot coffee, putting sugar on top if used, stirring, then carefully pouring down the side of the glass heavy cream (if used). —If you do not jar it the coffee has a beautiful marbled effect. Serve with straws,—glass if you can find them in the stores,—I can't.

Orange Mint Julep

Boil 2 cups granulated sugar with 2½ cups water for 5 minutes. Add ½ cup chopped mint leaves and boil 2 minutes, remove from heat and add 6oz. each canned true lemon and orange juice (you may use squeezed strained juice from fresh fruit, but it is more trouble and, I believe, costs more). Add the grated rind of 2 oranges. Chill for 1 hour and strain. Fill tall glasses with ice, add 1-3 cup of this syrup to each glass and fill glasses with carbonated water or ginger ale. These amounts serve 12.

Iced Tea (Method I)

In scalded hot tea pot put 1 tea bag or 1½ teaspoons tea for each person to be served. Pour over it boiling bubbling hot water—1cup for each person to be served. Cover and let steep for 4 minutes. Pour over glassful of ice cubes. Add sugar and lemon juice and mint for those who desire it.

Iced Tea (Method 2)

Iced Tea with sugar syrup: Measure 1 cup tea leaves in large pot. Pour over 5 cups boiling hot water and steep 12 minutes. Strain. Dissolve 2-3 cup sugar in hot tea. Store in covered jar; when needed put 3 or 4 tablespoons in tall glass; fill 2-3 full with cold water. Add ice last to avoid cloudiness. Add lemon juice and mint as desired.

Fruit Punch (for receptions)

Make sugar syrup by boiling together 1½ cups sugar with 1½ cups water and chilling. To this add 2 cups cold water, 2 cups sliced berries, juice 4 lemons, 4 cups citrus fruit juice—orange or grapefruit or both. Just before serving add charged water or ginger ale, ice cubes, and sliced maraschino cherries for garnish.

Social Situations

SITUATION: You have accepted a date, but get a chance to do something that sounds like more fun.

WRONG WAY: Break your date.

RIGHT WAY: Do what you promised to do. It is extremely rude and selfish to break a date just because something better turns up.

6—In Memoriams

FAULKNER—In loving memory of a dear son and brother "Bill", who was drowned June 13, 1948.
If all the world were ours to give,
We'd give it, yes and more
To hear your voice, to see your face
Come smiling through the door.
They say time heals all sorrows
And helps us to forget,
But time so far has only proved
How much we miss him yet.
God gave us strength to fight it,
And courage to bear the blow,
But what it meant to lose him,
No one will ever know.
—Ever remembered by mother, father, sisters and brothers.

GARRETT—In loving memory of our dear mother, Hilda Garrett, who passed away one year ago today.
Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days,
Sincere and true in her heart and mind,
Beautiful memories she left behind.
—Sadly missed by husband Alf, daughters Edith, Gweneth and Elsie, son Fred.

KILLINGBECK—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, William A. Killingbeck (Hastings) who passed away 15 years ago, June 13, 1934.
O happy hours we once enjoyed,
How sweet his memory still,
But death has left a loneliness

Here And There In Sports . . .

By The Canadian Press

At Springfield, the Illinois the finest four days of racing on the British turf calendar, the Royal Ascot meeting, starts today in what probably will be near-perfect conditions.

The Royal family will drive in semi-state to the races from nearby Windsor Castle on each of the four days. Nearly all the top-flight horses in Britain and many from France and the Republic of Ireland will compete for rich prizes. And, with clothes rationing a memory, the parade of feminine fashion probably will be the gayest since before the war.

At Springwield, the Illinois Senate Monday night refused to pass a bill legalizing horse race bookmakers in Chicago.

The bill would have let Chicago license, tax and regulate bookies operating outside race tracks. The city and its schools would have shared the income.

The sponsor, Senator Christopher C. Wimbish (Dem. Chicago), said a poll by the Chicago Herald-American indicated public was in favor of the bill.

At Cooperstown, NY, Washington Senators of the American League Monday defeated Pittsburgh Pirates of the National League 8-7 in a casual exhibition of the United States' national sport on the hallowed baseball field where it was born 110 years ago. The victory brought to three the American League's victories in the series started in 1940. The National League has won five.

Harry Feldman, erstwhile Mexican leaguer who returned to New York Giants, has been released unconditionally at his own request, the Giant office announced Monday at New York. Waivers had been asked on the right-handed pitcher, with no takers. Another reinstated player, second-baseman George Hausmann, will join the Giants at Cincinnati today.

Ezzard Charles and Jersey Joe Walcott will use six-ounce gloves for their June 22 heavyweight bout at Chicago's Comiskey Park. The Illinois State Athletic Commission Monday amended a rule which prevously required eight-ounce mitts for heavyweight bouts The six-ounce glove is used in heavyweight title bouts in New York—a State which does not recognize the Walcott-Charles mix as a world-championship affair.

At Quebec, Fernando Gagnon, 120, of Quebec and Jean Richard, 129½, of Montreal, respectively bantamweight and featherweight champions of Canada, both won by knockouts Monday night in two 10-round main bouts.

Gagnon floored Manuel Batista, 123¼, of Puerto Rico, four times, before the latter decided to quit at the start of the eighth round. Richard knocked out his opponent, Johnny Lemos, 126, of Cuba, in one minute and 57 seconds of the second round.

Liquor Charges

A charge against Joseph Fontaine, 75 Park St. of illegal sale of liquor was dismissed today in city police court by Magistrate W. R. Philp, KC. The Crown prosecuted in the absence of Mrs. Jean Judge for whom a warrant has been issued on a charge of illegal purchase of liquor from Fontaine.

Mrs. Mary Beach, 747 Chamberlain St. was fined $50 with $2.50 costs for a second offence of drunkenness and a third charge of being drunk was dismissed when the Crown offered no evidence.

Clapper Attacks PC Program As Price-Raiser

Dit Clapper, Liberal candidate for Peterborough West, began an attack against the Progressive Conservative program with a vigor reminiscent of his hockey days when he punched holes in the Progressive Conservative plan for bettering living conditions, at a meeting in the trim newly-painted Ennismore hall Monday night.

Speaking in support of Mr. Clapper at the meeting were Senator J. J. Duffus and former candidate R. M. Glover.

The Progressive Conservative program looked fine on paper but close examination of the 14 points revealed something different Mr. Clapper charged.

The Progressive Conservatives proposed to devaluate the Canadian dollar so that it would be worth about 90 cents on the world market, Mr. Clapper said. As a result imported goods would immediately go up in price. "How are you going to get better living conditions by making the dollar worth only 90 cents?" Mr. Clapper asked. "That just adds to the cost of living".

Devaluing the dollar would increase the price of gold so that it will cost 10 to 15 per cent more. The extra money would be paid to the mine-owning friends of George Drew, Mr. Clapper stated "They will be the ones who benefit from the increased price of gold", said Mr. Clapper.

Mr. Clapper said the Progressive Conservative party's platform as publicized locally by Mr. Fraser might seem pretty but when you looked underneath it you found it was being held up by George Drew and his moneyed friends, "and they're not doing it for the exercise."

Senator Stresses Unity

Senator J. J. Duffus told his audience the coming election was probably the "most important yet held in Canada." Never before had the people been called upon, except in war, to make more important decisions The reason was that if they elected a government which represented a united Canada that unified Canada might well bring hope to a shattered world.

A Prime Minister would not be "true to himself and the people" if he didn't bend every effort to national unity, Senator Duffus declared. The Liberal party, said the Senator, is a national party with represetatives from coast to coast in the Dominion. There was a danger that after the election the house might be a "parliament of particles rather than a parliament of parties," unless the Liberals were re-elected.

The last four years have been a period of unprecedented progress, Senator Duffas said. Prime Minister St. Laurent has been succeeding better than any other prime minister in so short a time. He had gone impressively after social security legislation.

Social Security Measures.

The most striking feature of the past government has been the way it has encouraged prosperity and shared the prosperity. In a short time, the Senator predicted, Canada is going to have the finest social security in the world. With Family Allowances the Dominion now has the best social security in the western world. One third of the total budget was being spent on social security.

Five plans had highlighted the social security program in the last four years. They were the veterans' charter, family allowances, old age pensions and pensions for the blind, unemployment insurance and a health program.

The veteran's charter was a practical demonstration of the nation's gratitude to its fighting men and women. Canada had the name of having treated its veterans "better by far than any other country in the world."

A revised Old Age Pensions Act, introduced by the St. Laurent Government, increased the basis of the federal payment for Old Age Pensions from $30 to $40 a month. The age at which pensions were paid to blind persons was reduced from 40 years to 21 years.

Armed services, medical examinations had revealed a poor state of health for Canadians, the Senator declared. He said only two of every 15 passed the medical inspections. The government in 1948 had recognized the need for a national health program and had passed a bill approving the expenditure of $160,000,000 for health grants over the next five-year period. The money is to be spent on such necessities as new hospital beds, training of health workers, research and more care for crippled children.

The Family Allowance had unquestioned benefit, in spite of the attacks of the former Progressive Conservative leader, John Bracken, and his successor, George Drew. When the bill was first introduced George Drew, speaking against it, said "It is not the bill alone but the whole principle involved which we intend to resist."

Senator Duffus termed the family allowances "the wisest expenditure" of money any government ever made.

Chemong Causeway

Senator Duffus said even before he had first gone into public life 30 years ago, he had been interested in the causeway linking Ennismore township with the shortest route to Peterborough and markets for farmers' produce.

Together with R. M. Glover and various deputations from Ennismore, he had gone to Ottawa repeatedly to help the township get the causeway.

R. M. Glover, former Liberal candidate in the federal field, told more of the story of how the causeway became a reality. He said he wished to compliment Reeve James Gifford on the tremendous job he had accomplished.

"I feel that if there had been no Reeve Gifford, there would have been no causeway," Mr. Glover said.

There had been many obstructions in the way of building a causeway and many people had contributed to defeating those obstructions. The project would have been impossible, said Mr. Glover, if there had not been a sympathetic government in Ottawa.

The provincial government had also lent its support to the project. The Dominion government had invested about $30,000 in labor on the causeway. In addition, the swinging bridge had been supplied by the Liberal government. Acting Minister of Transport C. D. Howe had been able to get a bridge from the Welland canal and have it installed so that now the causeway was almost entirely completed.

As a result of the causeway, Mr. Glover said he hoped and expected Ennismore would regain its lost population and increase its prosperity.

Sorority Showers Past President

Honoring Miss Mildred McIntyre, bride-elect of June 24 and immediate past president of Alpha Theta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, a supper party and shower was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Maurice Holt, Water St.

The weatherman, being undecided whether he would permit rain or not, forced the pessimistic members to entertain indoors instead of in the garden as planned. However, the guests went outside after a lovely supper and there the bride-to-be opened her gifts.

Unusual decor of the serving table contributed much to the success of the party. It was covered with a white satin cloth on which was placed a huge Sorority crest that hung over the front of the table. Over the place of honor at the back of the table was a large umbrella trimmed in gold and black, the Sorority colors, and with a Chapter insignia in the centre. The umbrella was held in a slanting position by ribbins tied to a reflector, and the gifts were artfully arranged below it. A miniature watering can was filled with yellow roses, the flower of the Sorority, and placed on the reflector with tiny umbrellas around it.

Summer flowers in profusion decorated the rooms and bowls of yellow roses were on each of the supper tables. Those assisting Mrs. Holt were Mrs. G. Brown, Miss Mary Bolton Miss Muriel Adams, Miss Hazel Hunt and Miss Elaine Cook.

Recital Given By Music Club

HASTINGS, June 14 (ENS) — A recital sponsored by St. Cecilia's Music Club was held Thursday evening in Hastings Town Hall.

Margaret Baker, Theresa Mulholland, Catherine Walsh and Gertrude Petticrew sang "June Roses." Other vocal numbers included "Noon of the Springtime" by Ruth Ball and Mary Rose Fanning; "Blue Danube" was rendered by Jacqueline Rogers and "On Wings of Song" by Barbara Davey.

Violin numbers were played by Don Cleary and Dan Lonqouer. Guest violinist, Kevin Leahy, accompanied by Bernice Greennan, played "Souvenir" and "The Bells of St. Mary's" and an encore "Ave Maria." Piano solos were rendered by Joan Walsh, Carole Baker and Audrey O'Shea. Piano duets were played by Mary Collins and Shirley Keogan; Marguerite Lamey and Mrs. T. Daily, and Madge Jones and Mrs. Daily.

A talk on the value of music was given by Barbara Lloyd.

Confederation Area Cold to Council Plan

People of the Confederation School Neighborhood Council area are not enthusiastic over the formation of the Council, results a recent survey of the area show. Mrs. K. E. Pilkington said that few people had offered their leadership either being tied down by other activities or indifferent about the Council. Mrs. C. Porter in agreeing with Mrs. Pilkington said that the people will turn out to social activities but do not want to underake any duies.

James Goldie suggested that opportunities for fly and bait casting, horse shoes, and a miniature golf course would tend to bring the families closer together.

Plans are to open the playground with a party at which there will be fireworks, games, and refreshments. These will be discussed at next Monday night's meeting.

Leo Belanger, Dixon Neighborhood Council, told the members of the Council of the activities and experiences of the Dixon House Council.

Those present at the meeting were Stanley Purser, Kenneth Whatley, Mr. Belanger, Joseph Barnard, Mr. Goldie, Jack Dane, Mrs. Pilkington, Mrs. Porter, and Mrs. L. A. Monk.

Careless Driving

Robert E. Bird of Bowmanville who was involved in an accident at the corner of Stewart St. and Chemong Highway Friday was fined $15 and $2.50 costs by Magistrate W. R. Philp, K.C., today at city police court when he pleaded guilty to careless driving.

When Bird's car crashed into Roy Sanderson's car both vehicles were smashed. Damage to Mr. Sanderson's car was estimated at around $400, Constable Vern O'Donoghue told the court.

IN ONTARIO'S SUN PARLOUR

Do you know that the southernmost part of Ontario is farther south than the northern part of sunny California? If you're a sun worshipper, write the Windsor Board of Trade, Windsor, Ont., for details of where to go. You'll have every opportunity for sport, amusement, or just a restful vacation in Essex and Kent counties. On an early-summer holiday you'll find the sunshine is well ahead of time. And if you plan a late-fall trip, travel the sportsman's road to Pelee Island for the famed annual pheasant shoot. Here also is duck, grouse, partridge and wild geese hunting, in season. Scenic highways No. 2, 3, 18, 39, skirt the many beaches and fishing places on the shores of Lake Erie and St. Clair. Visit historic Fort Malden, John Brown's house. And for the nature-lover, Jack Miner's famed Bird Sanctuary well repays a visit.

Canada Prepares Forces For Part In Atlantic Pact

OTTAWA, June 14 (CP) —The government has given no indication of what Canadian obligations will be under the Atlantic Pact but, quietly and steadily, the country's regular forces are building up their strength to fit into any possible commitment.

The regular army, air force and navy have boosted total manpower from 35,000 in May, 1948, to more than 42,000 in May, 1949, a 20-per-cent increase and no hard and fast ceiling has been laid down.

The tempo around defence headquarters has increased in the past 12 months, pivoting on army plans for its airborne brigade, air force plans for a framework of fighter defence and navy plans for improved anti-submarine facilities.

A spokesman said recently headquarters planning envisages the possibilities of war anytime from tomorrow on into the indefinite future. But, generally speaking, it has not thought in terms of an early war.

Hits Peak

Recruiting hit a peak in March with an influx of 1,200 new men but now is running below 900 a month, in line with a not-unusual summer slump.

The services have been taking men just about as fast as they can handle them. They can increase their absorptive capacity but consider the average rate is quite satisfactory. Since September when a recruiting campaign was launched, recruiting has been running 60 per cent ahead of the same period a year before.

Probably for the first time since the war, the navy has had to inform men in certain categories that they are acceptable but will have to await a call.

Current strengths stand at better than 19,000 for the army, 15,000 for the air force and 8,000 for the navy.

Jobs Open

Twenty seats in the Senate—worth $12,000 a year each—still are open two weeks before the June 27 election and there is a chance that some of them won't be filled before the ballots are counted.

If Prime Minister St. Laurent leaves some of them unfilled it will be a rare, if not unprecedented move. The usual thing is for the Prime Minister to make sure the Upper Chamber is as full as possible of his supporters in case some other party wins the election and, with it, the right to name new Senators.

But it is regarded as certain that there will be some Senate appointments before the election, chiefly affecting former Liberal members of parliament or provincial legislatures.

Charges Song Insult

VANCOUVER, June 14—(CP)—Singing of the "Red Flag" at a CCF election rally here Saturday was "an insult to Canada and to British Columbia," Attorney-General Gordon Wismer said Monday. "I am ashamed of any body of people who will sing the 'Internationale' at a public meeting," Mr. Wismer told an election meeting. But the CCF provincial president, Mrs. Dorothy G. Steeves, said the playing of the "Red Flag" was not authorized by the CCF. She said an "irresponsible employee of the auditorium told the organist to play it."

Give Canadian Touch To Exhibition Show

TORONTO, June 14 — (CP) — Col. K. R. Marshall, chairman of the Canadian National Exhibition, said Monday the finale of the Olsen and Johnson show at the CNE grandstand this autumn will be a "Canadian theme" with as many Canadians included "as possible."

Speaking at a board of control meeting, he answered charges by Controller Allan Lamport that Canadian talent was being kept out of the CNE show. He said the directors hope to stage an all-Canadian show but that "we don't think we have reached that point yet."

He said that Olsen and Johnson were signed last Jan. 4 in New York. They have an option to earn $130,000 in cash or 50 per cent of the gross receipts of evening performances. If receipts exceed $250,000, the pair would take the 50 per cent option.

Silver Dollar May be Struck

OTTAWA, June 14 — (CP)— The government is considering striking a new silver dollar to commemorate the entry of Newfoundland into Confederation, it was learned today.

While no order-in-council has been passed, it was considered likely that the cabinet will be asked within the next week or two to approve a design now being worked out by the Royal Canadian mint.

It was expected that once cabinet approval has been obtained, the Mint would proceed with the production of about 1,500,000 coins. About 1,200,000 silver dollars were struck in 1939 on the occassion of the visit of the King and Queen to Canada.

Union Sends Men to Finish Secret Job

Aluminum Strikers "Glad To Help" On Defence Order

KINGSTON, June 15 (CP) — A crew of workers today entered the strikebound Aluminum Company of Canada plant here to operate a hammer in the forge shop where "a highly-technical, secret government order" is being filled.

Works manager M. N. Hay said the company is operating a smaller hammer to complete "a highly-technical, secret government order in the interests of national defence." He gave no further details.

Robert Black, president of the striking Local 343, United Steelworkers of America (CIO), said he was "only too glad to send a crew of men into the plant to complete the job."

"We realize that a strong nation is the best guarantee against war, and we do not want to interfere with the defence of Canada under any conditions."

Didn't Know of Job

Mr. Black added that the union "had not been informed by the company of this vital project."

Negotiations between the company and the union, broken off when the strike started Sunday night, are scheduled to resume at 2:30 p.m. EDT today.

A company official termed this "a concession" on the company's part.

"The usual procedure is to resume work and then to negotiate. However, we see no reason to stand on formalities."

An estimated 1,100 Aluminum Company workers left their jobs to enforce demands for a 15-cent hourly pay increase, checkoff of union dues, increased holidays and shift bonus.

Walks Away From Wreckage

HENSALL, Ont., June 15—(CP)—Flight Cadet Gerald H. Knight of Moose Jaw, Sask. walked away from the wreck of his Harvard trainer early today after he crash-landed the plane when it was caught in a brief but violent rainstorm.

He made his way unaided to the farmhouse of Andrew Dougall, half a mile away, where he was given first aid for a gashed nose and facial cuts. Later he was taken to Centralia RCAF station hospital where he is under observation to determine if he suffered other injuries.

Knight was on a routine night flight when the summer storm struck suddenly.

Doomed Berries Doom Festivals

"The strawberry crop is ruined," Norman Moncrief of North Monaghan said today in a rueful summary of the June drought's damage to his acres of bushes.

"Rain would help the late berries, if we got it right away, but the early fruit is just about a complete loss."

Strawberries are one of the crops that have been hit by the prolonged lack of rain in this area. Some of the Clarkson berries are coming into Peterborough, but the delivery is light, and the season is almost ended after the briefest fruiting in many a year.

Naional Grocers hear there is still a chance for late berries providing rain comes soon. Generally, however, the strawberry business has just been "terrible". Apparently the weather will cancel any strawberry festivals that may have been carded for social affairs in his district. There is nothing to be festive about or with.

No festivals, no strawberry pie and mighty scant helpings of strawberry shortcake! And as for domestic preserving it has already vanished from that old fashioned economy of the household.

Wounds Friend, Kills Self In Jealous Rage

MONTREAL, June 15 — (CP) —A shooting in the Laurentians in which one man was killed and another was wounded was labelled by police today as suicide and attempted suicide.

Police said that Wilfrid LeBel, 30-year-old son of a club owner at Morgan Lake in the Rawdon district 52 miles north of Montreal, wounded his friend, Donald Williamson, and killed himself in a fit of jealousy over a girl.

LeBel was a son of Joseph I. LeBel, wealthy Montreal lumber merchant and owner of the private fishing club where the shooting occurred.

Hilaire Beauregarde, deputy provincial police director, described the case as a "sordid" one.

He said the shooting occurred early Tuesday when LeBel fired three shots at Miss Joyce Bevin and missed. He then fired two more shots at Williamson, wounding him. A few minutes later LeBel turned the gun on himself.

Ports Strike-Free After 6-week Siege

BRISTOL, June 15—(Reuters) —Ports throughout Britain today became strike-free for the first time in six weeks when dockers at Bristol and Avonmouth, in the west of England, resumed work.

The disputes arose out of the clash between two Canadian seamen's unions. The trouble began April 1 when the Canadian Seamen's Union (TLC) called a world-wide strike of its members and the Seafarers International Union (AFL) stepped in and signed a contract with teh employers.

The strike collapsed Tuesday when the strikers' leader, Joe Doody, said they were beaten by the government's refusal to allow troops to load the Montreal City and the owners' decision that she would remain idle until the strikers returned to work.

Report Allies and Russia Nearing Trade Agreement

PARIS, June 15—(AP)—A scheduled meeting of the Big Four Foreign Ministers was called off at the last minute today when Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky of Russia asked for "more time".

American sources said Vishinsky was not prepared for the meeting with western foreign ministers. Vishinsky had been expected to bring in the Kremlin's answer to western proposals for a transport-trade agreement on Germany.

Russia and the west are reported near agreement on these proposals.

Western sources agree that the proposed commercial accord would be restricted to economic essentials necessary to keep trade and transport moving. They say it would not attempt to settle the complex political problems involved in Germany.

The situation was worsened Tuesday when Berlin's anti-Communist rail strikers turned down a four-power formula for ending the strike.

Western observers said the proposed East-West commercial accord involves two main factors.

1 Establishment of a four-power commission to supervise an all-German economic board dedicated to promoting East-West trade. This commission would in effect replace the wrecked Allied Control Council.

2. Russian guarantees of free transport rights into Berlin from the West in return for an agreed rate of exchange for East and West marks to facilitate trade.

Persons in touch with Tuesday's two-part session said Vishinsky made some proposals at the first meeting on Berlin and German economic issues.

During the two-hour intermission which followed, the Western ministers were reported to have studied Vishinsky's statement. While they were doing this the Russian minister was said to have been in touch with Moscow.

The Western response was delivered to Vishinsky at the second half of the meeting and he was reported to have consulted Moscow again at the close of the session.

Made $12,000 On RCAF Kits

BRAMPTON, June 15 (CP) — Murray Hundert of Toronto told a General Sessions jury Tuesday that he had made a profit of $12,000 by selling surplus RCAF tool kits to the Chinese government after paying only $85 for them.

Hundert employee of the Aircraft Parts and Accessories Company in Toronto, appeared as a defence witness during the trial of Henry Hansen, 27, of Guelph, who is charged with theft of RCAF tools and equipment from storage hangars at Toronto's Malton Airport. Value of the stolen goods is listed at $1,000.

During his testimony, Hundert said he had purchased 167 Merlin engine tool kits for a total of $85 and sold them through De Havilland to the Chinese government for $75 each.

Hansen, arrested last July, told the court "everybody else took them, so I couldn't see any harm in taking some."

Describes Struggle For Rifle in Slaying

SUDBURY, June 15— (CP). — Mrs. Rose McRoberts, owner of a Sudbury boarding-house, Tuesday described a struggle which she said occurred when she tried to take a rifle from Gerard Chretian, 23, former resident of Clarence Creek, near Ottawa.

The youth is charged with the murder of William Wilson, brother-in-law of Mrs. McRoberts. He also faces a second charge of attempted murder in connection with the alleged assault of the woman. Chretian pleaded innocent to the murder charge on Tuesday.

Mrs. McRoberts told the court Chretien struck her with the butt of a rifle and shot her twice as she lay on the floor after she had tried to prevent the youth from annoying Gertrude Lamothe her 17-year-old domestic servant.

Talks Broken Off

LAKE SUCCESS, NY, June 15 (CP). — Delegates to the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission to-day broke off discussion of world atomic control until the big five powers and Canada decide there is a basis for agreement.

There was indication that the six powers would meet soon after the close of the present session of the Council of Foreign Ministers in Paris. Canada and the big five, Great Britain, the United States, Russia, France and China, are directed to report to the UN General Assembly in September.

Britain, Argentine To Sign Trade Pact, Ignore US

BUENOS AIRES, June 15—(Reuters) — Britain's new trade pact with the Argentine will be signed next Tuesday, it was officially confirmed here by Juan Bramuglia, Argentine foreign minister.

Experts of both countries worked at top pressure here Tuesday to compile the text of the new agreement, which is for five years and replaces the Andes agreement.

Under the new pact Britain undertakes to make available to the Argentine specific quantities of liquid and solid fuels, but Argentine is not obliged to buy all of them, the British sources added.

Have Objections

WASHINGTON, June 15—(AP) — State Undersecretary James Webb said today the United States hopes Britain and Argentina will carefully consider United States objections before they sign a newly-negotiated five-year trade agreement.

At a press conference, Webb said the American government has objected to the agreement on the grounds of (1) its five-year duration, (2) its effect on free international trade and (3) its impact on trade between the United States and Argentina.

Furthermore, he said, Britain has been told that the United States considers the proposed pact inconsistent with a general agreement on tariffs and trade to which both the United States and Britain belong.

State department officials believe that the agreement would cause a virtual shutting off of American trade with Argentina in such important fields as oil and farm machinery.

Man Killed, 13 Injured During Blaze

Damage Over Million As Lumber Yards, Plants Fall To Flames

VANCOUVER, June 15 (CP) — Thirteen persons were injured early today in a four-alarm fire which raged uncontrolled for nearly two hours through a main industrial section of east-central Vancouver that covered five blocks.

An early estimate of damage by Fire Chief R. M. MacDonald was "easily more than $1,000,000."

The fire broke out at 5.18 a.m., and was declared under control at 7 a.m. It had razed or partially destroyed:

Two fuel companies, a refractory plant, as asbestos plant, two paper stock companies, two lumber yards, a cafe, a war salvage firm, a stone-cutting plant, a welding shop, a pier, an unknown number of small boats and a private home.

Three of the 13 fire casualties are in hospital.

They are:

John Erickson, 63, who suffered multiple burns and other injuries when he was trapped in this flaming houseboat, one of 14 moored in the fire area.

George Ingram, 24, ambulance driver, recovering from shock suffered when he dived into the waters of False Creek to rescue Erickson.

Capt. C. Madison, who suffered a punctured foot while fighting the blaze.

In addition, 10 firemen are reported suffering from minor injuries. They were not held in hospital.

A 30-mile-an-hour east wind lifted the fire at one point across Main Street to endanger additional industrial buildings worth millions of dollars. The advance was checked quickly however.

500 Firemen On Duty

Chief MacDonald said about 500 firemen — every available man, including those off duty—fought the blaze. All equipment available was being used.

A district chief described the blaze as one of the most serious and spectacular in the city's history.

Cause of the fire is unknown although reports said an explosion preceded it.

The Vancouver fire boat played streams of water on a small dock which was burned completely.

Numerous small fires created by the wind-whipped sparks dotted the immediate area but were either immediately snuffed out or fell in harmless spots.

The wind was so strong at times that fire ladders tumbled.

Asbestos Proposals Rejected By Strikers

THETFORD MINES, Que., June 15 (CP)—Proposals for three Asbestos mining concerns here for settlement of the Asbestos strike were rejected Tuesday night by 2,000 striking employees, it was announced by a union official.

Jean Marchand, secretary of the Canadian Catholic Confederation of Labor, reported some 1,200 strikers took a secret vote on the company proposals. Ninety-two per cent voted against accepting the company terms.

Boar Has Spree

SONTHOFEN, Germany, June 16—(Reuters)—A wild June 15—(Reuters)—A wild boar in a bar here yesterday did everything the bull did to the china shop before it was killed and rationed out to Sonthofen citizens. The boar, estimated to weigh more than 1,000 pounds, crashed through the plate glass window of a bar, upsetting tables and scattering burghers and United States troops. It crashed through another window with scores of beer drinkers in pursuit, and for a short time spread confusion along the cobblestone streets before it was cornered and killed.

Phillies' Star Eddie Waitkus Shot At Hotel

CHICAGO, June 15 (AP)—Eddie Waitkus, 29, Philadelphia Phillies' star first baseman, was shot and severely wounded early today in the hotel room of a 19-year-old girl.

The girl was identified by police as Ruth Ann Steinhagen of Chicago after she earlier had given a fictitious name and Boston address. Police Capt. John T. Warren said in a statement she admitted shooting the ball player after he accepted her invitation to come to her room at the Edgewater Beach Hotel.

In her statement to police, Miss Steinhagen said she greeted Waitkus on arrival at her room by saying: "I have a surprise for you."

Then, police said she told them, she went to a closet, got a .22 calibre rifle and shot Waitkus. He was shot under the heart and did not regain consciousness at the Illinois Masonic Hospital for more than two hours. Three stitches were taken in the right side of his chest to close the entry wound. But it was reported his condition was too poor to permit probing for the pellet.

Capt. Warren quoted her as telling him: "I'm a fit case for a psychiatrist."

Wanted To Kill

Miss Steinhagen, a typist, told reporters she shot Waitkus because "the tension has been building up within me and I thought killing someone would relieve it." But, she added, the shooting failed to relieve the "tension."

She said she did not remember when she first thought of killing Waitkus, whom she did not know. She said she had developed admiration for him since she first saw him play ball three years ago.

"He reminds me of everybody, especially my father," she said.

Miss Steinhagen calmly told reporters she first had an "urge" to kill somebody two years ago.

"The urge kept nagging at me and the tension built up," she added.

Waitkus, who is single, is playing his fourth year of major league baseball and his first with the Phillies. The Phillies, who came to Chicago Tuesday for a series with the Chicago Cubs, are staying at the Edgewater Beach Hotel.

Warren said the girl in her statement related: "I tried to stab him first, but he was too fast. I wanted to kill myself, too."

Find Quebec Boy's Body In Farm Swamp Only 2 Miles From Home

Police Report Exhaustion Kills Small Child On Night He Lost Way, Walks In Opposite Direction From House

EASTMAN, Que., June 15—(CP)—A swamp less than two miles from his farm home Tuesday gave up the body of Michel Fontaine, ending the greatest child-hunt in the history of Quebec's Eastern townships. After an autopsy of the body, Dr. Jean-Marie Roussel, Provincial Medico-Legal expert, said Tuesday night the frail six-year-old boy died from exhaustion and exposure. This ruled out the possibility of foul play investigated by Provincial Police when they took over the hunt several days ago.

The tragic ending to the search, confused at times because of the number of false clues and reports that were circulated, will be formally written today at an inquest here.

Provincial police discovered the body partly buried in a bog at the southern extremity of Long Pond.

The position of the body, partly submerged in the swamp thi small head resting against a tree stump indicated Michel had collapsed from exhaustion, police said. Decomposition had set in.

Died May 30

It was believed Michel died during the night of May 30. On that evening he had been sent home from a pasture by his brothers who were out to round up the cows.

To reach the pond, the boy apparently walked away from his home, through dense bushland on the Fontaine farm, set in the mountain backwoods some four miles from this village.

It was recalled that on the night Michel disappeared Gerald Hobbs at Magog, reported he had heard a child's cries. Hobbs and his niece were at Hobbs' summer cottage at the time, but they though: the cries came from a child with a fishing party.

Police deducted that Michel tried to skirt the pond, guiding himself by the light in Hobbs' cottage in his attempt to reach safety.

During the hunt for Michel, which brought 3,000 to the area the first week-end of the boy's disappearance, the search was concentrated mostly in the densely-wooded acres of bush on the farm of Charles Fontaine.

Coal Industry Ready To Bargain With Lewis

PITTSBURGH, June 15—(AP) —The coal industry in the United States may soon bargain with John L. Lewis on an industry-wide basis.

If the northern coal operators have their way an industry coordinator will sit down with Lewis and his United Mine Workers Union to thrash out contract problems.

The scuttlebut is that Lewis favors the idea.

Northern operators disclosed Tuesday that what they would like is a man to bring "order" and dignity into labor relations."

The man they want is Harry M. Moses of Pittsburgh. He is president of H. C. Frick Coke Company, the United States Steel Corporation's coal producing subsidiary.

Has 8 Winners In King's Plate Giddings Dies

TORONTO, June 15 — (CP) — Harry Giddings, outstanding Canadian race horse owner, trainer and breeder, died today. He was admitted to hospital Sunday with a heart condition.

In the King's Plate, blue-ribbon event of Canadian racing, he sent eight winners to the post. The first seven he had trained for others but finally he won for himself in 1942 with Ten to Ace.

A familiar figure around Woodbine Park and other tracks on the Ontario circuit, he had planned to retire this fall. He intended to sell his farm and home at Oakville, 20 miles west of Toronto, and move to California for his health.

In the King's Plate his triumphs started with four winners he trained for his father. They were St. Bass in 1911, Hearts of Oak in 1913, Beehive in 1914 and St. Paul in 1920.

In 1931 and '32 he sent R. W. R. Cowie's Frothblower and Queensway to win the 50 guineas donated by the King annually for the historic race. Two years later he gained Col. R. S. McLaughlin his first plate victory with the Great Horometer.

Surviving are his widow, his mother and five sisters.

Floods Slowing Chinese Reds

CANTON, June 15—(AP)—The Communist southbound offensive was reported bogged down today by floods that have taken 20,000 lives in China's "rice bowl."

The death toll was reported by the Nationalists' official Central News Agency. It gave no source for the report which was not confirmed elsewhere.

Central News said the flood victims were in the Hengyang area about 270 air miles north of this refugee capital on the Canton-Hankhow railway. Hengyang is in Hunan province, one of China's richest rice-producing areas.

Nationalist military sources reported jubilantly that floods were holding up the Red drive to the south. They said high water had damaged roads around Nanchang in Northern Kiangsi province where the Reds have heavy troop concentrations. Nanchang is 400 miles northeast of Canton.

Coroner's Jury Rules Cook's Death Suicide

LOS ANGELES, June 15 (CP)— A coroner's jury ruled today that the death of Terve Beauchesne, 49, Canadian ship's cook whose body was found in the harbor here June 6, was accidental or suicidal.

Beauchesne of Montreal, belonged to the Canadian Seamen's Union whose members are on strike in Canada and in many foreign ports.

(In London, members of the CSU on strike in Britain yesterday picketed Canada House bearing posters saying "Mourn Murdered Canadian Seamen" and "More Canadian Martyrs for Unionism." They referred to death of Beauchesne and another Canadian seaman whose bodies were found in Los Angeles harbor.

At the inquest, John Fraser, third mate aboard Beauchesne's ship, the Argibec, and Roland Plamondon, second mate, testified that the cook seemed homesick and depressed the day before his body was found.

Bevan Wins 2nd Hospital Battle Round

Convinces Cripps Demand For Reduction of Costs Must Be Modified

LONDON, June 15 — (CP)— Health Minister Aneurin Bevan, who would like to be generous but has to be frugal, has apparently won round two in Britain's battle over hospital services.

He has convinced Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer, that a government demand for reduced hospital costs must be modified. The result is a letter, circulated to hospital managements this week, which in effect asks them to take another look at their budgets.

Round one was fought early this year. Under strong pressure from the treasury, Bevan decided in February that hospital maintenance costs should be pared by 10 per cent. This would have meant an over-all reduction of £9,500,000 ($38,000,000) for the 2,688 hospitals, 191 clinics and 147 convalescent homes in England and Wales which the state took over last July.

Hospitals Protest

The hospitals protested. The chairman of one of the 14 regional boards which administer the state hospital service said the proposed economies would set the service back 20 to 30 years.

When the 10-per-cent cut was announced in February, many boards said they would have to close hundreds of beds to meet the demand.

Bevan replied in the Commons that the economies must be made without closing beds. His latest letter again stresses that point. It says the minister "recognizes" the need to provide funds for "developments now in hand."

A Sheffield board official said it is clear from the letter that Bevan is "winning his long tussle" with Sir Stafford for more money for hospitals.

Meanwhile Bevan remains under fire for alleged wastefulness in other parts of the state-run health service. Opponents of the scheme say too much money is being spent on free wigs, spectacles, dentures and even corsets.

Unofficial estimates show that some 6,000 wigs have been supplied since last July at an average cost of £12 a wig.

Ottawa Says Drought Worst Ever

Showers Little Help To Dry Farmland, Need Heavy Rains

TORONTO, June 15 (CP) — Widely scattered thunderstorms were forecast today to give patchy relief to southern Ontario's dry farms and pasture lands. But heavy rain was not in order.

Weather officials said Tuesday night that light falls of rain were recorded in the southwestern counties of Middlesex and Huron and north to Bruce county.

But farmers say the rain has not yet been heavy enough to cure results of the 19-day drought, that reaches from Kingston in the east to Windsor in the west.

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics said in Otawa Tuesday night that Ontario is suffering the worst drought on record and crops were damaged by wide swings in temperature.

Rain also fell in Toronto and suburban communities, to end the four-day heat wave with forecasts of 10 to 12-degree cooler weather.

Taps Go Dry

In suburban Etobicoke taps ran dry Tuesday. Officials blamed the shortage on afternoon lawn sprinklers and said some 3,500,000 gallons a day were being pumped through the water supply.

Throughout the southern section of the Province generally little relief is expected from the heat wave. Temperatures that ranged in the high 80s Tuesday were expected to slip to about 80 degrees today.

Area reports showed that rain falls from .05 inches in Windsor to 1.40 inches in Trenton were recorded Tuesday.

Meanwhile, Goderich, in western Ontario, reported a heavy downpour. But it was not enough to change results of the drought. The hay is expected to be about 50 per cent of normal.

Rains helped the potato and tomato crops but were too light to give much relief to the strawberry crop. Prospects of a fair raspberry crop are better.

In the province's northern bushland intermittent rains with temperatures remaining at about 74 degrees was forecast for today.

Call Inquiry June 29

WINDSOR, June 15 (CP) — Tentative date for resumption of the Royal Commission inquiry into administration of Windsor's Metropolitan Hospital has been set at June 29 and may last for two days, city solicitor Lorne R. Cumming said Tuesday after hearing 30 witnesses the probe was adjourned earlier this month.

Vicious Cycle Faces Canadians S.C. Leader Says

By The Canadian Press.

Canadians, says the Social Credit party, are in the midst of the "same old vicious cycle". That's the cycle which produced the "social and economic chaos" of the depression.

That election campaign view came Tuesday night from Premier Manning of Alberta, the only province with a Social Credit government. He delivered a broadcast address from Edmonton as the campaign for the June 27 general election moved towards the stretch drive.

In the east, Prime Minister St. Laurent stepped back into the campaign after a week on the sidelines with laryngitis and made a speech-making tour of Montreal district. George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, spoke in industrial Hamilton while M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader, campaigned the west coast.

Mr. Manning said Canada's present economic position is "a certain and inevitable result of the national monetary policies advocated and supported by Liberals and Conservatives alike." As for the CCF they were playing up "the fallacy that state ownership can insure the complete and equitable distribution of all production."

Aim To Please

Mr. St. Laurent said one of the Liberal government's foremost aims is to "please the public."

"We have a democratic regime here in Canada," he said, "and things are done to please the elector. We propose to continue to serve the electors in a way that suits them."

Mr. St. Laurent told Montrealers his government was "social-minded" instead of "socialist," as its Progressive Conservative opponents charged.

He said the Progressive Conservatives evidently had in mind the government's social measures such as family alowances when they talk of the "supposed socialism of the Liberal."

The Liberal party stood for personal freedom and private enterprise and was opposed to any form of government seeking complete state control. It was equally opposed to "reactionary Toryism," he said.

The Prime Minister challenged the Progressive Conservatives to say what they meant by their accusations of socialism. He also challenged Progressive Conservative Leader George Drew to back up with details a reported charge that Liberals and C.C.F. supported each other in certain counties.

Drew Heckled

Mr. Drew told a noisy political rally there is one parade he would like to see and that is a "parade of every Communist back to Russia."

He made the statement as he was subjected to the heaviest barrage of booing and heckling of his five-week cross-country Federal election campaign tour. The heckling was fairly continuous through a 40-minute speech.

Mr. Drew was repeating his criticism of Defence Minister Claxton and the use of the North Star aircraft by the defence forces when a heckler shouted:

"Secondary issues."

"Defence is not a secondary issue," Mr. Drew replied. "Those who would like to have us believe that it is, are the Communists who are traitors to Canada."

He promised that a Progressive Conservative government would amend the criminal code to give the courts power to deal with traitors.

Duplessis Alliance

There was slight booing when Mr. Drew said that the Liberals will not be able to form a majority government in the election and a small cheer when he said they could do so only with the aid of the CCF.

The alternative to a Liberal-CCF government was a Progressive Conservative administration with a clear majority. That majority could be obtained if all who believed in responsible government go out and vote.

At this point in his speech, a heckler asked: "What about Duplessis (Premier Duplessis of Quebec)?"

"I am glad you mentioned that because I was just going to speak about it," said Mr. Drew. "Some people seem to forget that Mr. Duplessis won 82 out of 92 seats in the Quebec Legislature last summer and it is the duty of all governments to deal with a man so overwhelmingly supported by the people of his own province."

Contending that the Canadian Pacific Railway has for generations been influencing the federal government, Mr. Coldwell said that as a result there is no real competition between the CPR and CNR.

Mr. Coldwell said there is evidence of this influence in the freight rate situation in the Rockies. Despite the fact that it cost the CPR more to move freight across the mountains, the rates of the privately-owned corporation were the same as for the government-operated CNR.

This lack of competition was unfair to the people of Canada because it provided no incentive for giving the people better service. It permitted the railroads to stand together in their requests for increased freight rates in the face of demands from seven provinces for elimination of the freight rate discrimination.

Prices Climb Slowly In Light Trading

TORONTO, June 15— (CP).—Prices climbed slowly in very light trading here to-day to continue Tuesday's slight recovery movement of Monday's losses. A wide list of industrial issues showed gradually lengthening gains and base metals brightened quietly. Golds were practically at a standstill, but the few issues trading edged upwards.

Papers continued to slide in industrials while a wide list stocks scattered throughout the other groups climbed. Utilities, refining oils, liquors, steels and foods were among the better groups. Gains were held to fractions while the few losses ranged to a full point.

Recall Burning Of Ft. Ste. Marie

MIDLAND, June 15 (CP) — The burning of the Fort Ste. Marie as a scorched earth measure 300 years ago was commemorated Tuesday at a ceremony on the site of the Fort on the Wye River two miles from here.

Behind the priests, government officials and educationists on the speakers' platform rose restored sections of the Fort, said to look much as they did when Jesuit Priests put it to torch June 14, 1649, to prevent it from falling into the hands of marauding Iroquois.

Among the crowd gathered for the ceremonies were descendants of the Indians who played a part in the tribal wars which ended in the Fort's destruction and the temporary banishment of the Jesuit missionaries from the area. From St. Joseph's School at Spanish, Ont., near Sudbury, 39 Indian boys and girls descended from the Hurons of 300 years ago, made the trip to Fort Ste. Marie.

Very Rev. John L. Swain, Jesuit Provincial for Canada, said he saw a lesson in the restoration of the old Fort. Recent events in Communist areas of China had followed a parallel with happenings of 300 years ago in this district.

"When the Fort was burned and its inhabitants fled, it seemed like a defeat. Yet we know there is no defeat for the human spirit as long as it remains united with God.

"For Fort Ste. Marie rose again, through efforts of persons interested in its restoration. Human defeats of today likewise would be overcome as long as materialism was not allowed to govern education and life."

Scattered thunderstorms which occurred again Tuesday night over Southern Ontario resulted in light rainfalls in many localities. General rains fell in Northern Ontario as a storm centre intensified and moved rapidly northward over northern regions during the night. As a result of the development of this storm centre cooler drier air from the west will spread into Southern Ontario today. Frequent thunderstorms will occur along the leading edge of the cooler air which is forecast to reach Toronto this evening. Skies will be sunny over most of the province Thursday with cooler temperatures in Southern Ontario and continuing cool in northern regions.

Lake Ontario, Niagara, Northeastern Georgian Bay and Haliburton regions: Variable cloudiness becoming overcast with scattered showers and thunderstorms beginning late this afternoon, clearing Thursday forenoon. May Hydro Peak 16,000 Kws.

At 16,000 kilowatts Peterborough's peak of electricity for May was slightly less than the 17,000 kw. a year ago, R. J. Dobbin reported to the Utilities Commission Tuesday. The power is bought from the Hydro-Electric Commission.

"During the month work was continued on the new circuits to supply the housing units of Rose Ave. A new secondary line was constructed on St. Luke's St., on Montrose Ave. and Weller St. to supply new houses. Rebuilding was in progress on Park Hill Road between George St. and Armour Road. A new transformer stand was constructed at the Examiner office, necessitated by extension of the building. The old one was removed.

An extensive and costly rebuilding job was done on Water St. from King to Sherbrooke Streets at the request of city council, in order to permit widening of pavement.

During the month there were 111 three-wire services built, and 24 two-wire services. Seventy-seven electric meters were placed in new locations, all three-wire type. There were 84 new electric flat rate water heaters connected to the system, making a total of 4,393, with a load of 3,000 horsepower. Six rural consumers were added on new primary lines, and 24 on existing lines."

The election slogan of the local Conservative candidate is "Vote For Fraser and Play Safe." Play safe — for what?

For Mr. Fraser and Little Tory Peterborough, I guess. For the rest of the city there is nothing to be gained and much to be lost by sending a Conservative to Ottawa from Peterborough West.

For nine long years Mr. Fraser has sat on the Opposition side of the House of Commons, powerless to do anything for the constituency which elected him. He is asking you to send him back for five more powerless years — and the local Conservatives and the Conservative party in Canada expect that you will do it.

Let's give them the surprise of their lives! Vote for me on June 27 and send a man to Ottawa to support the Government of the day!

Demand Action To Keep Ferry In Operation

COBOURG, June 15 (ENS) — Announcement at Monday night's Town Council meeting that the Cobourg to Rochester car ferry service was in danger of being discontinued, caused considerable scurrying about at local headquarters for the two political candidates. A resolution passed at the meeting called upon the candidates to get assurance from their respective parties that the ferry system would not be abandoned.

From the headquarters of R. Earle Drope, Progressive Conservative candidate, came the statement that Mr. Drope would do everything in his power to see that the ferries continued to operate out of Cobourg.

Headquarters of Dr. Fred G. Robertson, Liberal candidate, contacted the head office of the car ferry company at Montreal and was advised there that the report was only a rumor and not authentic.

"Where there is smoke there's fire," was Mayor Joe Smith's observation. The mayor commented that the town wanted more than an assurance from the political candidates that they would do all they could to prevent abandonment of the service.

'What we want is an assurance from the party itself that it will not permit the ferry route from here to Rochester to be closed," said the Mayor.

Following was the wording of the resolution:

Many Dependent

"Moved by Mayor Joseph Smith and seconded by Reeve Roy Dodge that, whereas it has come to the attention of the mayor, who has reported to the council that there is to be a withdrawal of the CNR car ferry service between Cobourg and Rochester, and whereas at least fifty families depend on their living from these ferries and whereas the summer excursions, run daily by these ferries, bring a heavy revenue to our merchants and whereas the longer rail haul will raise the price of coal not only to Cobourg, but to all the district served by Cobourg dealers, and whereas the CNR operating with the Baltimore and Ohio railways are owned and controlled by the Government of Canada:

"Now be it resolved that the Council, to allay fear and apprehension, ask that the respective candidates request that their respective parties firmly and unequivocably and immediately state that the ferry system plying between Cobourg and Rochester will not be abandoned.'

The ferry system was inaugurated around 1907 with one car ferry in service and later a sister ship was added.

Temporary Bleachers Erected On Diamond

CAMPBELLFORD, June 15—(ENS)—Largely through the efforts of Russell Ayrhart, temporary bleachers have been constructed at the ball diamond on the High School grounds.

The project was financed by a grant of $100 from the Town Council, $15 from Seymour Council, $100 from the Rotary Club; $25 from the Kinsmen Club, and $200 was contributed by the public.

The wedding will take place in the Westwood Community Methodist Church in Los Angeles. After a Florida honemoon, the couple will live in the Governor's Mansion, Tallahassee.

Toronto Man Convicted On Theft Counts

COBOURG, June 15.—(ENS).—Clinton Grassi of Toronto, remanded until yesterday on two charges of theft of scrap iron, was found guilty by Magistrate R. B. Baxter and remanded until Friday for sentence. Last week, Fred Moore of Toronto, who told the court that he was to blame and not Grassi, as the latter only drove the truck and knew nothing of the theft, was sentenced to six months in the reformatory.

"It is hard to understand why Moore came down here and took the blame, but I think you knew all about what was going on, even though you say you only rented him the truck. You were there when it was stolen, and to my mind you knew all about it. I therefore find you guilty on both charges," said the magistrate.

Ross Lamore of Trenton, age 22, was remanded until June 20 on bail of $500 on a charge of theft of a coat, the property of Charlotte Gagne of Brighton.

To Send Gifts To English WI

BETHANY, June 15.—(ENS).—The monthly meeting of the Bethany Women's Institute was held in the form of a picnic at the home of Mrs. T. J. Jackson Monday afternoon. A letter of thanks was read from the adopted British institute, "Bewcastle Bailey," for a parcel of canned goods sent from the Bethany branch. It was decided to send another parcel next month and members were requested to leave donations at the home of Mrs. Jackson.

A message from the federation president, Mrs. Futcher, regarding future institute programs was read, including her version of "An Ideal Institute Member." Mrs. William Phillips and Mrs. W. R. Price were appointed a committee to arrange for repairs to the institute cistern, located at the United Church parsonage, which is the emergency source of water supply in case of fire.

Mrs. Jackson, district delegate, gave a report of the convention held at Garden Hill.

Mrs. A. H. Monk gave a reading, "The Family of Seven," and Mrs. Challice read "A Wedding."

The picnic lunch was served on the lawn by the hostess and Mrs. Challice, Mrs. G. Mulligan and Mrs. W. Cavano.

There will be no meetings during July and August.

Ab. Hulse, writing in The New Market Era and Express, has the following to say about Mr. Simmons:

"Never a great athlete himself, Mr. Simmons in the 30's took over a wobbling Aurora softball club and made them into a fighting quad in the York-Simcoe circuit. He also gave a hand with girls' softball. Later he turned to his first love, baseball, and organized a minor ball club. He also organized minor hockey teams.

"Countless of his friends and associates in business and sport will be pulling for the proverbials pot of gold to await Leonard at the end of the Campbellford rainbow. The old town park and Aurora will seem mighty strange without Simmons."

LAMBERT

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 15, 1949

Peterborough West, 1841; St. John's West, 1949

We do not say that Newfoundland is a hundred years behind the rest of Canada in its social and political life, although there are many indications of a time gap. Some of the assumed progress in this part of the country may be retrogression. We cite, for instance, election customs and atmosphere.

* * *

Nomination day was Monday last. In Peterborough the Returning Officer sat for two constitutionally-ordained hours in a large rented hall waiting for nominations, crowds, speeches, tirades by one candidate against another. He had but three visitors: the Conservative candidate, the president of the riding's Liberal Association, and a sparrow. The three candidates had filed their papers long before, together with their deposits. There was no excitement, no speech-making: merely a lonely returning officer with a sparrow which flew in the window to twitter with him ten minutes before nominations closed.

* * *

We contrast this calm with the election here in 1841, the first after the union of Upper and Lower Canada, and compare it with the present federal campaign in Newfoundland, the first since union.

* * *

Dr. Gilchrist was the Reform (Liberal) candidate. Voting extended over several days, and votes were recorded in a poll book, and were not cast by ballot. It early became evident that Dr. Gilchrist was going to win. Election headquarters were in White's Hotel, on the south side of Sherbrooke just east of George. Friends of the opposing candidates determined to steal the poll book and thus destroy all record of the voting. They entered the crowded room, caused an uproar (with some connivance from a constable who did not favour Dr. Gilchrist) but did not get the poll book. The Returning Officer sensed what they were after, and hid it in his jacket. Dr. Gilchrist received a blow on the head, but he recovered speedily. That evening another attempt was made to seize the poll book, and the Returning Officer's room was broken into while he was dining. His valise was cut open, but the alert Returning Officer had taken the precious document with him. We contrast this with the calm, mild duties of the Returning Officer last Monday . . . . Incidentally, Dr. Gilchrist was elected.

* * *

The hurly-burly of election time may have disappeared from the nine provinces, but there seems to be some old-time vitality in the new tenth province. Four summonses have been issued against the Premier, Mr. Joseph Smallwood, at the behest of the Progressive Conservative candidate in the riding of St. John's West. This candidate, who resigned as a district court judge to enter the contest, claims that Mr. Smallwood "did by himself directly commit the corrupt practice of undue influence by practising intimidation of four voters." So Mr. Smallwood has been summonsed. The Conservative candidate wanted him arrested, but the magistrate demurred. That would be going too far, it seems.

* * *

Good old times? Bad old times? At least there is more excitement in St. John's West than in Peterborough West in this election year. In Peterborough a sparrow twitters in the nomination hall, and the heat is physical, not electoral.

Thirty Years Ago Today

It was thirty years ago today, on June 15, 1919, that Alcock and Brown made the first non-stop flight across the Atlantic and ushered in the present age of air travel. They used a Vickers Vimy twin-engined bomber which had been converted in such a way that it could carry enough fuel for the flight. The machine is now in the Science Museum in London. The capacity of their plane was 12,500 pounds, and when they took off from St. John's, Newfoundland, they were overloaded by 1,000 pounds. They landed at Clifden, in County Galway, Ireland, having travelled 1,890 miles. They made the flight in 15 hours and 57 minutes, and their average speed was 118.5 miles an hour.

Their journey has since become commonplace and thousands of people undertake it every year without a thought. But modern planes fly much higher than theirs, and have now an efficient method of understanding and meeting the weather conditions over the stormy North Atlantic. Alcock and Brown set out into the unknown. Courage and skilful navigation brought them through in safety.

Both men were Englishmen. Both were knighted for their feat, and they shared a prize of $40,000 which the London Daily Mail had offered for the first non-stop flight of the Atlantic. Alcock was killed later in an air accident in France; Sir Arthur Whitten-Brown now lives in retirement at Swansea.

Every age brings its own chances for men of adventurous mind. The roster of great navigators is a long one. Alcock and Brown had the good fortune and the courage to write their names very near the head of the list of the great navigators of the air.

Indications Of Contaminated Peterborough Waters

Periodically through the summer bacteriological examination is made of samples of water taken from the Otonabee river and other open water in the city district. Although residents of Peterborough need no scientific indication to realize that the water in the central parts of the city and south of it is polluted, Provincial Laboratory tests such as those made last week support the evidence of eye and nose. The tests show that all river water from the C.P.R. bridge south to Wallace's Point is so contaminated that it is unhealthy for swimmers.

Canal water and the Otonabee from Lakefield south to Hunter street is relatively pure. Nowhere is the bacteria count more than 25 per cubic centimetre. At Lakefield it is four, at Inverlea sixteen, at the Lions' Club beach twelve. Off the George Street wharf the count is 336 bacteria per cubic foot. The organisms counted are colon bacilli, which are present in excreta, both human and animal. There is no scientific way to distinguish between the two in these water tests. The human organisms are very much more dangerous.

The figures are not accurate representations of the degree of pollution; they are indications that pollution exists to a greater or less degree. A small count in a strong current may be indicative of more serious contamination than a count twenty points higher in still water. This explains why the count in a sample taken from the river at the Lansdowne Street bridge was only 16. A little momentary eddy of fresh water may make the count surprisingly low, as it was at the Crescent street dock—a count of 6. However, surveys made over the last several years and several times each summer indicate beyond doubt that any river water from the Canada Packers plant as far south as Wallace's Point is unhealthy.

Last week's figures are a fair and alarming indication: 336 organisms in one cubic centimetre of water taken at the George Street wharf; 168 in a sample taken from the river a mile south of the city; 116 in a sample taken three miles south, and even nine miles away, at Wallace's Point, the count was 47 bacteria in one cubic centimetre. (A centimetre is little more than a third of an inch.) There is no definite point at which the number of bacteria in water can be considered proof that the water is dangerous for drinking or for swimming. However, the average count in open water in other cities in North America is approximately ten per cubic centimetre.

If there are 336 colon bacilli in only one cubic centimetre of water at George Street wharf, and 116 in one cubic centimetre three miles from it, there are a million million more bacteria in Peterborough waters than is healthy. Dare we any longer talk about Peterborough as "this fair city"?

NOTE AND COMMENT

A rabbit, we read, is making its home in the council chamber at Kincardine. Attracted, no doubt, by the fact that so many councillors begin their speeches with "Let us . . . "

A note from Washington tells us that the British Embassy there took a half-holiday to celebrate King George's birthday; the Embassy from India, however, took a whole holiday. Let's see, didn't we hear something about a republic down there?

Canadian Political Situation

By W. R. GIVENS
(Part 2)

IT is unfortunate, too, that Mr. Drew, his escutcheon somewhat tarnished in his personal defeat in Toronto in the provincial election, has latterly been predicting Conservative victory—suggestive of the smug, complacent, contented Republicans in the last federal election in the United States who, feeling sure victory was "in the bag", sat back on their haunches and let Mr. Truman, practically alone, score the greatest political upset in the history of the United States. Over-confidence is a dangerous commodity and certainly the results of the recent Newfoundland provincial elections should have given Mr. Drew pause.

AS A further interesting fact in this connection it is to be noted that in this coming Parliament the voters must elect a membership of 262 as compared with 245 in the 20th Parliament—7 from the new Province of Newfoundland, which leaned strongly to the Liberals in the recent provincial election, and another 10 resulting from the increase in the number of constituencies provided for by legislation in 1947. Surely Mr. Drew can scarcely hope to corral all these seats!

Apart from this, there is another objection to Mr. Drew's campaign and that is, that in his swings around the political circle it is to be regretted that he has as yet failed to take notice of the accomplishments of the present Government, formerly headed by Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King, its brilliant leader for an unparalleled period and acclaimed the world over, and now with Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent at its head. This is the more unfortunate, for the reason that Mr. Drew seems not to realize that when he was merely premier of Ontario anything he said scarce crossed the borders of the province whereas, now, as leader in the House of Commons, of one of the great political parties of the Dominion, his words wing their way into far flung places and because of his diatribes, oftentimes printed in American and British newspapers, carry the impression that Canada has failed its partners in the Commonwealth and, as well, has made a sorry mess of its own domestic affairs. His resurrection (already referred to) of the Hong Kong episode, at the very outset of his leadership in the Commons, present election campaign, is a case in point; while his attack on the North Star airplane and the Canadair Company is another—a company that has just issued a signed official statement that is it proving its ability to meet urgent delivery requirement by completing aircraft on all current orders months ahead of exceptionally fast scedules. In fact, if one is to judge Mr. Drew's remarks, uttered, first behind a kind of wailing wall, which he seemed to have established in the House of Commons for his special benefit, and now used repeatedly on the hustings, Canada has cut a sorry figure all through the King and St. Laurent administration. It has always been the finger of scorn that has been pointed by Mr. Drew at the Dominion and no word of praise—all too often a barb or a wordy harpoon—thrown in the direction of a member of the Cabinet and the prime minister who, like many good men in other governments, are sacrificing or have sacrificed their health in the service of their country.

For instance, reading what Mr. Drew has had to say in this campaign one would never know or little realize these facts:

Canada in recent years has become a nation, free and unfettered and recognized as such everywnere in the world and as a real power for good;

Has played an important part in the world's burdens and responsibilities in war and peace;

Has not only loaned $1,250,000,000 to the United Kingdom but has extended that loan;

◇ ◇ ◇

HAS added a new province to the Dominion by the admission of Newfoundland, to the terms of which admission Mr. Drew has taken exception, for some mysterious reasons apparently known only to himself—clearly a futile gesture;

Has put into effect the Family Allowance legislation that has given new life, hope and relief to every mother and child in the Dominion;

Has paid in cash on the barrel head for everything we got from the United States when lend lease was in effect;

Has increased our trade manifold with the United States—the increase in exports alone to that country by over $25,000,000 in April alone.

◇ ◇ ◇

HAS managed despite the shortage of dollars to keep our heads well above water;

Has greatly reduced the national debt;

Has passed a budget lifting taxation off the shoulders of thousands of Canadians in the lower categories;

Has increased old age pensions and established greater social security, including unemployment insurance and old age pensions;

Has a higher standard of living than any other country in the world;

◇ ◇ ◇

HAS been one of the leaders in the North Atlantic Pact;

Has put into effect a Canadian Citizenship Act, establishing and recognizing Canadian citizens;

Has kept Canada on an even keel, and played our full part as a nation, winning admiration and respect of all our allies;

Has drawn closer and closer the ties of friendship with the great republic to the south of us;

And finally, in bringing all this about, has not had a single scandal nor even the whisper of a scandal.

Surely all this is a record that cannot be lightly passed aside and that our people will not ignore or soon forget!

A Pretty Poser

Congressman Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., was born in Canada, at Campobello, NB. The United States constitution says only native-born citizens of the United States can become president. Should he ever aspire to that position, he will pose a pretty problem for constitutional lawyers. It would be the constitution versus common sense.—Windsor Star.

THE DUD

Hats A Good One!

(OTTAWA CITIZEN)

THE arbitrary judgement of the British trade journal, Men's Wear, whose editors profess to read a man's character from the slant of his hat, will no doubt prove unacceptable to a majority of men. The magazine thinks a hat worn dead straight denotes lack of imagination; too much on the back of the head, a yokel; too much over the nose, a prig; too much on side, a character with an overdose of bounce. None of these conclusions need be true.

It is probably correct to suggest that as often as not both men and women wear their hats according to a passing whim. Worn on the back of the head the hat might mean a reflective mood rather than an absence of urbanity. On the side of the head, it might mean a belligerence wholly temporary. Worn over the nose it might mean simply that the hat is a little too large. When worn straight, it might easily mean, not a lack of imagination, but only that the wearer is sulking.

In the haberdashery business, both men's and women's, it not infrequently occurs that the entrepreneurs concerned make sweeping generalizations that will not bear rigid examination. It is perhaps, understandable that they should be interested in the social aspects of their trade. In a sense they are artists, and besides being in business to earn a livelihood, they like to see their customers looking beautiful. But they must learn to make exceptions, to take into account the vagaries to which human behavior is subject. Right here in Ottawa there will probably be many men who will feel that they do not lack imagination because they wear their hats straight. It can merely mean a sensible way of making the rain drip evenly around one's shoulders.

Letter To The Editor

A METHOD OF FINANCING HOSPITALS

Sir: Nearly every hospital in Canada is in need of financial help. In fact that word "nearly" is superfluous.

Our hospitals everywhere do a wonderful and very necessary work. What the average person does not realize sufficiently, is that they supply a service twenty-four hours a day for seven days a week—year in, year out.

It costs money to run a hospital—in fact the managing of a hospital is "big business". But unlike any other business if one department shows a loss, that department cannot be closed—all are necessary for the efficiency of the whole. And I very much doubt if there is even one department in any hospital which shows a profit or so much as "breaks even".

Years ago our wealthy men in Canada contributed their thousands of dollars each year to the various hospitals. They gave generously and gladly. Today they cannot do so for the simple reason the Dominion Government takes a huge slice of their income. Again the average person does not realize just how little money a wealthy man has left after paying his income tax. The genial current of a generous soul is almost frozen—at least it runs very slowly now.

The above statements are facts. Somebody has said, "facts are stubborn things". Is there any way to remedy this state of affairs? Is there any corn in Egypt? Yes, brothers, yes. The stream runs fast
The rapids are near—but the daylight is NOT past.

Briefly here is one solution to the problem. If anyone has a better solution let him advance it—as Shakespeare has said, "good reasons must give way to better".

Let our Dominion Government hold four lotteries a year. Let every Post Office sell tickets at two dollars a ticket and let it be understood that these lotteries will be honestly conducted. Let there be no large prizes of fifty or one hundred thousand dollars, but let there be say

100	prizes of	$10,000
200	prizes of	5,000
1,000	prizes of	1,000
2,000	prizes of	500
5,000	prizes of	100

This makes 8,300 prizes for a total of $4,500,000. The number of prizes can be increased as time goes on.

At first the sale of tickets would net at least ten million dollars from Canadians and at least twenty million from our neighbours to the south. Soon we would have money pouring in from all over the world.

Then let the government give the money, over and above the prizes, to the hospitals. In a very short time the members of our hospital boards would be wearing smiles instead of worried frowns.

Of course, Mr. Editor, the "unco good" will raise a howl that the government is promoting gambling. Let it be clearly understood, here and now, that the government can neither promote nor destroy gambling. The gambling instinct is born in every one of us—even in the "unco good". Take a walk down George St. and buy a ticket on an automobile.

Mr. Editor, you said once that you liked to receive "Letters to the Editor". If you print this I'm sure you'll receive many.

Yours very truly,
C. J. DAVIS.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. . . .

Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. (Matt. 7: 16, 17, 20.)

Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: but God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty. (1 Cor. 1: 20, 26, 27.)

◇ ◇ ◇

For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. . . .

But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. (1 Cor. 2: 11, 14.)

Air Power Not Everything

Aircraft has revolutionized warfare, but it has not replaced the infantry or the men of the sea. As was demonstrated in Great Britain during the Second World War, cities and towns can be almost pulverized by bombs and still not succumb to the enemy, unless enemy land forces are able to invade the country. The infantryman must fight it out street by street and house by house before the battle is won.

Right Of Free Speech

The right of the community to protect itself is superior to the individual's right to free speech. But there are ways other than the denial of freedom to secure this protection. The best way is to enforce the laws against slander, libel, and sedition, and to provide adequate police protection to ensure that a meeting will not be intimidated into silence by a show of hostile force. Free speech should be curbed only when its unbridled expression constitutes a danger that is clear, immediate, and above all, unprovoked.—Winnipeg Free Press.

Falsely Drew Benefits Unemployment

Arthur Huggins, 185 King St., Peterborough, pleaded guilty before Magistrate W. R. Philp, KC, Tuesday on two charges of falsely representing that he was entitled to receive benefits under the Unemployment Insurance Act for which he was not eligible. He was fined a total of $45 and costs of $2.50, in default of payment of which he will spend one month in jail. He was also ordered to repay the balance of overpayment outstanding, $37.30.

The first charge was that on July 22, 1948, he falsely stated to an official of the Unemployment Insurance Commission that he was unemployed on July 19, 20 and 21, 1948. The second offense charged was that for each of the weeks between February 13, 1948, and July 21, 1948, he drew additional benefits for his wife after falsely representing on Feb. 13, 1948, that she was a dependent. Huggins admitted in court that his wife was not dependent upon him during this time.

There were 21 counts in the second charge, one for each of the weeks during which he drew unemployment insurance for his wife at a time when she was not dependent on him.

Prosecution was conducted by W. D. Muirhead of the legal department of the Unemployment Insurance Commission, Toronto, and the accused had no counsel.

Under section 67 of the Unemployment Insurance Act, there is provided a fine of not less than $15 or more than $100 for such offenses or imprisonment not exceeding three months with or without hard labor, or a magistrate can impose both a fine and a prison term.

Government Survives

HELSINKI, Finland, June 15— (AP).— Finland's Moderate Social Democratic government last night survived an attack by the Agrarian Opposition in Parliament by a narrow margin of 94 votes to 92. It was Premier Kari August Fagerholm's second two-vote victory this year on a question of confidence in his government. Conservatives backed the Social Democrats against a critical report by Parliament's Appropriation's Committee, which was supported by the Agrarians.

Frost Says Charitable Bill Was Suggested Year Ago

TORONTO, June 15 (CP) — Premier Frost said in a statement Tuesday that the Ontario Treasury Department did not begin its study of charitable gifts, leading to enactment of the Ontario Charitable Gifts Act, until "about a year ago."

He was commenting on a statement made in an election campaign address Monday night by David Croll, Liberal member of the last Commons for Toronto Spadina, that the Act had been "conceived almost three years before it was passed."

Mr. Croll said its introduction was delayed until the death of J. E. Atkinson, Toronto publisher, whose will established a Charity Foundation for the Toronto Daily Star and the Star Weekly.

The Act, passed at the last session of the Ontario Legislature, provides that Charity Trusts may not hold more than 10 per cent of any business. Its opponents said it was aimed at overthrowing Mr. Atkinson's will.

Mr. Frost said:

"No policy was settled upon until long after Mr. Drew (George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader) had left the provincial scene. The Act was designed by the treasury department . . . for the purpose of protecting the public and preventing charitable trusts having control of great wealth which they could use for other than charitable purposes."

Do you know this neighbour of yours?

PROBABLY you've seen him many times. But you might not always recognize him, for he appears in several different roles.

At home, he is a typical father. And this role helps him understand the problems that other fathers face — especially in trying to provide financial security for their families.

In his spare time he's usually active in community affairs. Red Cross, Big Brother Movement, municipal committees — wherever there's a worthy cause to be served you're likely to find him in the thick of it, doing his fair share. For such organizations just naturally attract a man whose job is helping others to achieve better living through financial independence.

He's something of a student, too. Many are the hours he spends absorbing information about tax changes, beneficiary laws and other subjects related to your plans for retirement and the protection of your dependents.

Who is this man?

He is the typical modern life insurance agent. A man who's trained for his job. A good citizen. And a good neighbour.

More than a million Canadian families have benefited by his experience and advice. And he's always glad to be of service to you!

A helpful citizen in your community

When your agent sells you life insurance, he also helps to improve your community. For a large part of each life insurance dollar is put to work, through investments, to build schools, bridges, highways, industrial plants and many other projects that create jobs and make for better living.

You share in these improvements, made possible through the efforts of your helpful fellow-citizen — the modern life insurance agent!

Westenders Take 9-4 Juvenile Victory

Cashing in on five miscues, four wild pitches and seven hits the west-end juveniles took the second game of the City Baseball League from the south-enders 9-4 on Tuesday night in Riverside. Bill Dorris pitched steady ball for the west-end team, allowing five scattered hits. Batchelor for the southerners went well until the fourth inning when they collected four runs on four hits. Two wild pitches and an error did not help matters any. The southerners ran into trouble in the sixth as two walks and a hit batter with three stolen bases an an error added two more runs to the west-end tally. Sam Murphy replaced Batchelor on the mound to finish the game.

Harris for the victors hit two for three with Halliday having two for four. Douglas for the southenders hit two for three. Killingbeck appeared at the plate four times, being walked each time.

In the second inning Allen caught Dorris' pop fly and threw to first to catch Harris who had got on with a hit down the third base line. Grainger for the west-enders in the sixth after stealing two bases was trapped between home and third. Five players hemmed him in. After seconds of dodging the ball was thrown wild out into left field, allowing two runs to cross. Both pitchers, Batchelor and Dorris, hit one batter.

The line-ups:

West-enders — Grainger cf, Conroy 3b, Halliday rf, Killingbeck lf, Grafstein 1b; Taylor 2b, Morrisey c, Harris ss, Dorris p.

Southenders— Jenson cf, Allen ss, Douglas 3b, Grant 1b, Jones 2b, Robinson rf, Bigford c, Young lf, Batchelor, p, Murphy p.

Knights Climb To Second In City League

Knights of Columbus climbed into second place in the City Softball League last night as they dumped the Credit Jewellers deeper into the cellar with an 8-2 thump at the Bowl. With Ken Guilfoyle pitching five-hit ball and fanning seven, the Knights hit the ball hard for four homers and four doubles to get a comfortable lead halfway through. Killingbeck struck out eight, but was reached for 13 safe hits in a fairly fast fray. Skeeter O'Heron was the big clouter with a homer, two doubles and a single in five tries, Leether hitting one homer and Woods two. Pagett had two hits for four for the Jewellers and Byrnes banged out a homer. Legrow had a nice catch in left.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Don't forget the big OLA senior "A" game at 8.45 tonight in Miller Bowl when St. Catharines Athletics tangle with the Petes for the first time this season. It promises to be a hot joust and rates a big crowd, if the weather is okay. Some of the St. Kitts' guys are peeved at Peterborough for being one of the clubs to vote against 'em on several suspended Athletics. They'll be even more perturbed if Goalie Whitey Frick is used again by the Creighton crew, since St. Catharines, according to their scribe, turned down applications by Frick and Ralph Speck to transfer here. The Saints, incidentally, have not been burning up the loop so far this semester, either.

* * * * * *

But here's the item from the Standard: "After mature thought and debate, A's executive turned down pleas for release of Bill Frick and Ralph Speck to Peterborough Petes. Saints figured they could not strengthen rival teams in the OLA just to boost other club gates, when they have only won three starts themselves. Speck does not want to play junior and both boys are dead keen to make the jump to the eastern liftlock city for experience sake. The Frick boys get around in lacrosse. We brought up Don and Bill here, and now Al plays junior and the fourth son, young Peter, is a budding prospect." Their dad, Ab Frick, hails from Peterborough.

Golf Clubs Competing

Golfers of the Kawartha and Peterborough Clubs will be in stiff competition this Saturday on the latter links when the annual play for the Glover-Dobbin Trophy will be staged. On Thursday, June 23, the Jewellery Travellers Association hold their annual tourney at the Peterborough Golf Club, and June 25-26 sees the qualifying round for the club championship, all players being eligible. First round for the Kawartha Cup at the Kawartha Club is to be completed by June 26, and same applies for the President's Cup. Qualifying round in the club championship for the Durland Cup there is June 18 to July 3. And Canadian Open is coming up in Toronto.

Leading swim clubs of the province, under leadership of Gus Ryder and Bev Lewis of the Lakeshore Club are sponsoring a big aquatic meet at Oakwood Stadium, Toronto, on June 22. This is to honor Alex Duff, dean of swimming and diving in Canada, and coach of Dolphinettes, who is now quite ill. Cliff Bennett of Bennett Trophies in that city is donating all trophies. The local Ornamental Club of girls will be on hand to help out, staging synchonized exhibitions, under direction of Pansy Forbes, and possibly Al Clark will have some YM swimmers there, as well. These swim clubs show a good spirit in such cases.

Where Males Cavort

Two snappy scraps in the men's loop at the Bowl last evening, even with a 10-minute miserly sprinkle of rain thrown in. We can stand a lot of rain right now. Greenlaw and Parsons both pitched well in the opener which Uniteds took 5-3 to go into top spot by themselves. Nightcap saw Guilfoyle in good form to give Knights an 8-2 win o'er the Jewellers. The umps kept the boys hustling and the twin bill finished ere 10 bells. Uniteds now have eight wins and three losses, being half a game up on Knights, who are half a game in front of Cosmos with seven and four. Outlaws have won but three in 10, being two in front of Jewellers. Tilts tomorrow are: Cosmos vs. Jewellers, and Outlaws vs. K. of C.

Juvenile lacrosse prospects should attend an open drill at seven tomorrow evening in Miller Bowl. Three juvenile teams have been picked but players will be added to their rosters. Walt Murphy advises that there are also four midget and four bantam teams, while the peewees and tadpoles will be chosen early next week. They hope to have Jack Foote available one night a week, as well as through the days, to coach each club along with the regular coaches. Leo Teatero will handle one of the minor teams and probably several other senior players will lend a hand. Schedules should be drawn up and started next week. The big minor setup here is affiliated with the OLA.

Here and There In Sport

By The Canadian Press

The Canadian Lawn Tennis Association at Montreal Tuesday announced that H. Gordon MacNeil, former Canadian doubles champion and Davis Cup player in 1947, will be non-playing captain of the 1949 Canadian Davis Cup team.

Selection chairman Laird Watt picked a veteran in competitive athletics. MacNeil has been a star not only in the courts but in prewar days was a standout hockey player for the old Montreal Victorias in the Quebec Senior league.

Coincident with his appointment as non-playing captain, his tournament committee announced a list of events across Canada sanctioned by the Association. They include:

Ontario Provincial Senior Open —June 18-25 at Toronto LTC.

Ottawa City and District Senior Open—June 18-25 at Ottawa LTC.

Northern Ontario Junior—July 4-9 at Bigwin Island TC.

The first Canadian Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Union playoffs may take place within two years.

The national conference of Canadian Universities at Halifax Monday approved in principle a report recommending formation of a Dominion-wide CIAAU and only approval of the governing bodies of the 30 member universities is needed. The union is expected to be operating by the fall of 1950.

At Leeds, Yorkshire, the New Zealand cricket team needed 299 runs in 150 minutes for a victory over England in the season's first test cricket match. But they failed to make it and the three-day match ended in a draw.

The English eleven, batting first, rolled up a first-inning tally of 372. New Zealand responded with 341. In the second innings England declared at 267 for four wickets.

When stumps were drawn, the visitors had scored 195 for two in their second innings.

Jaroslav Drobny is just a bourgeois bum to one Communist sports editor at Prague.

Drobny, Czechoslovakia's tennis champion for 10 years, lives too comfortable a life and packs too much weight to be in condition, writes Miroslav Hladky, sports editor of the Communist Youth newspaper, Mlada Fronta. It was the sharpest attack yet made on the chunky, left-handed ace who is one of the world's best tennis players but who bowed to Marcel Bernard of France in the decisive match of the France-Czechoslovakia Davis Cup play the other day in Paris.

Charles B. (Uncle Charley) Moran, 70, former National league baseball umpire, died Tuesday in Kentucky. He retired in 1939 as a National League umpire after spending 23 years in that job. He always took great pride in the umpiring profession and was noted for his famous expression: It ain't nothing until I call it."

Uniteds Move Into First With 5-3 Win

The Uniteds (East City Motors and Babe's Place) vaulted into first place in the City Softball League at the Bowl last night as they edged Cosmopolitan Club, 5-3, dropping Cosmos into third spot. The game was held up 10 minutes in the eighth for a brief shower, but a good-sized crowd remained. Bob Greenlaw and Tom Parsons each threw six-hit ball, but Bob fanned more and had timely and lengthy hitting behind him, despite more errors by his side. A four-run drive in the seventh clinched it for the Uniteds. White led the hitters with a homer and double in three, as Harrison hit a triple and single. Mackness led the losers with a double and single in three.

Quakers Win 8-5 In Fastball Fixture

Quakers won 8-5 from Woollens in a fastball fixture last night on the Quaker diamond. They got two runs each the first two frames and won it with three in the eighth and another in the last heat. Woollens counted three in the fourth and one next time up. Smith was in great form for Quakers to throw four-hit ball and whiff 14. Armstrong and Snow saw slab action of Woollens and gave up but seven hits, each having several strikeouts. The fielding was just fair. Teams:

Crescents Whip Hamilton 19-6 Tie For Second

OWEN SOUND, June 15 (CP)—Owen Sound Crescents moved into a second-place tie with Hamilton Tigers in the Ontario Lacrosse Association senior race by defeating them 19-6 Tuesday.

The Crescents were never in trouble as they drove into a 5-0 lead in the first quarter, held a 10-3 edge at half time, and made it 12-6 in the third quarter.

Russ Slater paced the winners with four goals, while Don Ashbee and Bun White had three each. Don McWhirter and Don Campbell with two and Jack Mason, Grant Gillespie, Arnold Smith Harry Hazarian and Marlow Woods with singletons were the other Owen Sound marksmen.

For Hamilton, Russ Black, Tony Capula, Blain McDonald, Jack Gair, Barney Welch and Ron Jamieson scored.

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press.

Johnny Vandemeer, Cincinnati southpaw, became the first pitcher in big league history to hurl two consecutive no-hit, no-run games 11 years ago tonight. His first came when Cincinnati shut out the Boston Braves June 11 and the second victims were the Dodgers on their home lot and in Brooklyn's introduction to night baseball.

Tigers Blank Athletics Yanks Shellack Pale Hose

By JOE REICHLER,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

Virgil (Fire) Trucks, Detroit's strong-armed righthander, is challenging New York's Vic Raschi for American League pitching honors.

Trucks is even outshining Hal Newhouser, his illustrious southpaw mate. With the season only one-third gone, the 30-year-old Alabaman already has won nine games against three losses. Only Raschi with 10, has won more. Newhouser has won seven.

Trucks gave further indication last night that he was out to make this his greatest year when he limited Philadelphia to one hit as the Tigers blanked the Athletics 4-0. Only a fifth-inning single by Hank Majeski prevented him from hurling the season's first no-run, no-hit game. Elmer Valo, who walked in the second, was the only other Mack-man to reach base.

Raschi notched his tenth triumph against one defeat without much trouble as the Yankees shellacked Chicago White Sox 15-3. An eight-run sixth inning at the expense of loser Bill Wight, Allen Gettel and Marino Pieretti changed a tight pitching duel into a rout. The Sox got all their runs in the fourth on a couple of hits, a pair of walks and two errors by first baseman Jack Phillips. Tommy Henrich back after a five-day layoff, hit his 12th home run for the Yankees.

Indians Triumph

Cleveland Indians vaulted from sixth to fourth place in the American League after trouncing the Red Sox in Boston, 10-5. A six-run first frame against Joe Dobson followed by a three-run second against Tex Hughson, made it no contest. A crowd of 34,137, largest for a night game in Boston history, saw the Red Sox slip into a fifth-place tie.

Bob Feller, who had lost his last five starts, went all the way for the Indians to gain his second victory of the season, both at the Red Sox' expense.

Joe Gordon struck the most damaging blow, a grand-slam home run in the first inning against Dobson. Manager Lou Boudreau, who played first base for the first time in his career, was struck on the left elbow by Dobson after Gordon's blow. He advanced toward the mound, and almost started a free-for-all when players from both benches swarmed out on the field. No blows were struck and order was restored immediately.

St. Louis Browns finally beat Washington 7-2, after losing eight straight decisions to the Senators. Lefty Joe Ostrowsky pitched six hit ball to gain his first victory of the year.

Brooklyn increased its National League lead to three games over the Cardinals with a 7-2 triumph over St. Louis. Preacher Roe, who shut out the Redbirds earlier this season, beat them again with a 10-hit effort for the Dodgers' eighth straight triumph.

Pee Wee Reese led a 16-hit attack against Howie Pollet and three relief pitchers with three hits. The Dodgers gave Roe perfect field support, coming up with four double plays. The Cards, too, came up with a fielding gem—a triple play—only the second in the majors this year. After Jackie Robinson had singled in two runs in the first inning for Brooklyn, Gil Hodges lined to Marty Marion who threw to Red Schoendienst to catch Carl Furillo at second. A fast relay to Nippy Jones got Robinson off first for the triple killing.

Wally Westlake climaxed a round the clock batting day by rapping a ninth-inning double to drive in the tying and winning runs in Pittsburgh's 4-3 victory over the Boston Braves. Westlake previously had hit a homer, triple and single.

Larry Jansen registered his first shutout of the year as the New York Giants defeated the Reds in Cincinnati, 2-0.

Philadelphia Phillies ruined Frankie Frisch's debut as manager of the Cubs. They walloped Chicago 9-2 in the only afternoon clash in the majors.

The Thousand Islands Bridge was opened in August 1938.

Westclox Edge Rays

Westclox pulled out a 5-4 Industrial Fastball League win over Raybestos last night at Brinton Field. With the count 4-3 for Big Bens, Quigley poled a long triple to score McMasters and clinch the contest. Quigley got three hits in four tries as well as relieving McElroy on the slab in the seventh to fan six of the eight batters he faced. Raybesos had four costly errors, Mayo pitching seven-hit ball to make it close. Stewart at first fielded and hit well for the Rays. Teams:

Westclox—Trennum rf, Heffernan 1b, McElroy 2b, p; Casey 2b, 3b; McMasters, lf; Quigley, rf; Guerin, c; O'Donoghue, ss; Shearer, cf; Miller, 3b.

Raybestos—Crompton, Aldren, Simpson, Maudsley Giles, Stewart, Nickels, O'Toole Crary, Parsons Mayo.

Giants Sweep 5-3 Game From Leaf Team

By The Associated Press

Bob Hooper, 27-year-old righthander who couldn't make the International League with Jersey City in 1947, is one of the main reasons Buffalo Bisons today top the circuit.

Hooper, born at Leamington, Ont., but now a resident of South Orange, NJ, has won six games without incurring a setback.

The former New York Giant farmhand won five games in relief roles and Manager Paul Richards rewarded his fine work by giving him his second shot at a starting role last night after Clem Hausmann shut out Newark 7-0 in the first game of a twin bill.

Hooper responded with a brilliant 6-1, four-hit triumph. The lone Newark run came in the fourth inning when Lou Novikoff belted his ninth homer of the season.

The twin triumphs boosted the Bisons' lead to a game and a half over second-place Jersey City and third-place Toronto Maple Leafs. The Giants beat the Leafs 5-3 to take over the runner-up slot from the Leafs by six percentage points.

Negro righthander Ford Smith limited Toronto to four hits in besting Lou Possehl who allowed all of the Giants' 11 hits and runs.

Turn Back Orioles

The fourth place Montreal Royals turned back the Orioles 8-6 in Baltimore before 25,206 fans who turned out for an Inter-faith Charity night.

LAWN BOWLING

By HERB MARTIN

Will the members who would like to bowl in the annual club singles competition, scheduled for next Monday night, please contact Dave Grant at once.

On Friday night we are expecting a big crowd for the men's doubles. Choose your own partner, yes, but the committee would prefer that skips hook up with leads, and vices with seconds.

Up till late last night the open tournament committee had received 48 paid entries for the big Lift Lock open doubles for Wednesday, July 13. That's half of the required number needed for a full draw. Don't leave it too late, you local bowlers.

Today's thought:

Mrs. N. Currer Wins First Round In Tourney

BRANTFORD, June 15 (CP) — Mrs. N. E. Currer of Toronto, blazed back in the last seven holes Tuesday to advance to the second round of match play in the Ontario ladies' golf championship here.

Down six strokes to Mrs. John Stubbs of Toronto at the 12th hole, Mrs. Currer set her pace after she sank a 25-foot chip shot for a birdie two. She won the round one up.

Two previous winners of the title, Mrs. C. E. Gooderham and Mrs. J. A. MacDougald, sisters from the Toronto Golf Club, won their matches with ease.

Mrs. Gooderham defeated Mrs. Nelson Carlson of Toronto 5 and 4 and Mrs. MacDougald defeated Mrs. C. M. McKenzie of Toronto 8 and 7.

BACK IN HARNESS—H. H. Stevens, three times a cabinet minister in Conservative governments before he broke with the Bennett government to form his own Reconstruction party, will fight his first electoral battle since 1940 as Progressive Conservative standard-bearer in Vancouver Centre in the June 27 federal election. A member of parliament continuously from 1911 to 1940, Mr. Stevens will be opposed by Liberal and CCF candidates.

Paper Finds Way To Make It Rain

MIDLAND, June 15 (CP)—The weekly Midland Free Press-Herald claims discovery of a new and effective way to break a drought.

This week the paper is publishing a special agricultural issue. Publication day is today, but to meet press arrangements the farm section was run off Monday with a drought story on the section's front page.

You guessed it. It rained hard Monday night across North Simcoe from Coldwater to Nottawasaga Bay. Tuesday night more rain drenched the area, ending the dry spell throughout the area served by the Free Press-Herald.

It's too late now to change that from section front page And executives of the paper say that, even if they could change it, they'd probably leave it the way it is and chalk it up as a rainmaker.

Cribbing Charges Rile Toronto Board

TORONTO, June 15—(CP)—A. J. Skeans, chairman of the Toronto Board of Education, said Tuesday that a recent story appearing in Canadian High News, a high school newspaper, which said that two of every three students cheat during examinations, was a "defamatory libel on our students and should be placed in the hands of the Crown Attorney."

A special meeting of the board decided to request the publisher of the paper, William H. Torgis, to make a public apology for the story.

25-Year Park Plan

TORONTO, June 15 (CP)—An extensive 25-year plan for development of parks and recreational facilities in Toronto, at an estimated cost to the city of $41,000,000, was presented to the Civic Parks Committee Tuesday by the department of parks and recreation. The committee referred the scheme to the planning department to be incorporated into the over-all city development project.

Radio Hams Plan Nation-Wide Drill

The Peterborough Amateur Radio Club, an enthusiastic group of local radio amateurs, will take part in a nation-wide drill of disaster communications networks this week-end by setting up a portable radio station three-quarters of a mile west of Jackson Park. Sponsored by the "hams" national association, the 24-hour event will test operating skills and the portable equipments of the club group, and will thus prepare them to render better service in case any communication emergency should strike this area.

Jack Stacey, in charge of the local club's field day group, said that there would be about 15 club members taking part in this exhaustive test. The transmitting equipment will probably be kept on the air continuously for the 24-hour period, in order to make as many contacts as possible with other field day stations all over the country. The conditions under which the station will operate, and the types of messages handled, will simulate conditions experienced in an actual communications emergency.

The nation's hams are always ready to serve when disaster strikes, regardless of its nature. With battery or gas-driven generators powering their equipment, they are able to carry on communications even when commercial power failures have crippled all other facilities.

The local group, according to Oliver Brailley, has every intention of making this year's test most successful.

KEEP this TRIED and TRAINED CREW PULLING FOR YOU

ON JUNE 27th, the people of Canada will elect a new Parliament. The party that wins a majority in that Parliament will form the new Government, with its leader as Prime Minister.

The Prime Minister will then appoint his Cabinet of Ministers. Each Minister will be responsible for an important phase of our nation's life and destiny.

Canada needs a strong, experienced Cabinet of Ministers for the uncertain years ahead. The only party that can give such sound leadership is the Liberal party. It has a tried and trained crew of administrators, ready for the big job of building a better, more prosperous Canada.

The Liberal cabinet is a well-balanced fusion of mature experience and youthful, capable, vigorous drive. It contains men from every region in Canada — men from farms, from the ranks of labour, from the professions, and from business.

No other party could produce such a truly all-Canadian cabinet . . . representing all classes . . . all creeds . . . all provinces.

When you vote, remember — Canada needs the smooth-working, experienced Liberal cabinet — NOT a headstrong "one-man band", beating a tune called by forces outside of Parliament — NOT a group of starry-eyed theorists eager to make Socialistic guinea pigs of 13,000,000 Canadians . . . including you.

Vote LIBERAL for the kind of leadership that has made Canada prosperous . . . and can make it more prosperous still.

Suggest Advertising For University Jobs

HALIFAX, June 15 (CP). — Advertisement of academic positions on a national and international basis featured a discussion of international university relations at Tuesday's session of the National Conference of Canadian Universities.

The conference approved a resolution that "appropriate international agencies" be set up to handle advertisements and appointed a committee to examine the possibility of establishing such agencies to handle "exchanges of specially skilled persons with other countries."

Delegates felt that this would help in promoting the understanding that advertising is normal and not something used to fill uninviting positions.

During the day the 130 delegates, representing 30 universities, heard committee reports on finance, engineering education, film activities, graduate studies, joint services education, music, scholarships and pensions and annuities.

School Pupils For Summer Jobs Some Get Them

Sixty-five students of the Peterborough Collegiate and Vocational School have already received summer employment through the National Employment Service. As in previous years the Employment officers visited the school where with the help of the Vocational Guidance Department 55 boys and 75 girls were registered with the local office. Last year nearly all those registered received employment nearly immediately on the farms, in factories, at summer resorts and on construction jobs.

This year, James Sharpe of the Employment office said many employers who have been in the habit of taking on a number of students have changed their policy and are interested in permanent help only. He added that they explained that the jobs in which these students could be placed require considerable training. In many instances they find that when the student becomes really proficient he leaves for school again. Mr. Sharpe said that many of the boys are under 16 years old. This automatically bars them from employment in most plants, due to their rules.

Of the girls registered for summer employment six are 20 years old or more, six are 19, eight are 18, 20 are 17 years, 15 are 16 years and 18 are under 16 years. The types of work for which the girls registered are office, sales, factory, waitress, cabin girls, miscellaneous summer work, aide ward, playground, laboratory work, usherette. The greatest number of the students wanted employment in sales.

Twenty-five girls reported previous experience in summer resort work, 22 in sales and 10 in factories.

35 Girls Placed

Of the 65 students placed 35 are girls. Of the 35 girls, 27 of them have been placed in summer resort work. Employment officials say that orders for summer resorts and other help are still being received. They to place as many as last year. The other eight girls have received employment in offices, factories and stores.

Of the 55 boys applying for jobs only 30 have been placed, 10 at summer resorts, others on construction jobs. Orders are still being received and employment possibilities are still being explored with the expectation of placing most of the boys.

Howard Moebus, head of the Vocational Guidance Department at PCVS, reports that a number of girls and boys have been sent directly to summer positions from the school. Many of the students never consult the two employment agencies but go job-seeking. Most of these students usually arrive at one of the agencies before the summer is half over, due to unemployment.

Egyptian Merchant Has Gift For Viscount

TORONTO, June 15 (CP) — Fouad Mirshak, 46-year-old Egyptian merchant who works metal as a hobby, has a gift for Viscount Alexander, a memento of the battle of El Alamein.

It is a brass gong fashioned from a shell casing used in the battle. Inlaid with copper and silver, it bears the word "victory" in Egyptian heiroglyphics.

Mr. Mirshak exhibited $3,500 of his hand-worked trinkets at the recent Canadian International Trade Fair here—inlaid trays, metallic cloth and jewelry—and now he has an appointment with the Governor-General in Ottawa Saturday. He'll make the presentation then.

RCMP, 15-year-old Eskimo Waiting Break-up In Arctic

By H. DENT HODGSON

OTTAWA, June 15 — (CP). — A strange party made up of an RCMP constable, a 15-year-old Eskimo, and the strangled body of an Eskimo woman is somewhere inside the Arctic Circle, awaiting the summer break-up, it was learned Tuesday.

The mountie, Constable D. Mead of Busby, Alta., was last reported, toward the end of April, in the vicinity of Spence Bay, about 750 miles due north of Churchill, Man. His job is to bring his "man" and the body about 300 miles east to the Arctic outpost of Cambridge Bay, on the south-eastern edge of Victoria Island.

RCMP officials, anxiously awaiting word from him for nearly two months, expect he will abandon a previous plan to make the trek across the Arctic straits by dog-team and await transportation by boat or airplane.

The spring break-up may not come until mid-July in these 69-degree latitudes and meanwhile, so far as is known here, Constable Mead, with his corpse and captor, his huskies and possibly a few Eskimo assistants, is waiting it out.

The 15-year-old Eskimo—Ishakak—is jointly charged with an Eskimo named Eerkiyoot, aged 20, of murdering Eerkiyoot's 44-year-old mother, Nakashook.

Two Mounties were asigned to the job, and Eerkiyoot, the son, already is at Cambridge Bay awaiting trial.

Paper To Pay $5,000 Damages In Alberta Suit

EDMONTON, June 15 (CP) — Charles B. Hill, superintendent of the Alberta Child Welfare branch, Tuesday was awarded $5,000 damages on conclusion of the Supreme Court trial of his $25,000 damage action against the Calgary Herald.

Mr. Hill launched the action following publication of a series of articles on child welfare in the newspaper two years ago. He claimed two of the articles were defamatory to his character and position.

In ruling for the plaintiff, Mr. Justice C. C. McLaurin said Mr. Hill had clearly been defamed by a story which appeared May 28, 1947.

"Mr. Hill is entitled to damages of $5,000 and the costs of his action," Mr. Justice McLaurin said. He conducted the trial without a jury.

Although the Herald said in this article it could uphold statements that there had been an irregular adoption, the alleged facts had since been proven wrong, the Judge asserted.

Stating he hoped "this would be the last of the welfare business," Mr. McLaurin said the extravagant terms used had "clearly been defamatory to Mr. Hill."

Defendant's stand of "qualified privilege" had not been substantiated," he concluded.

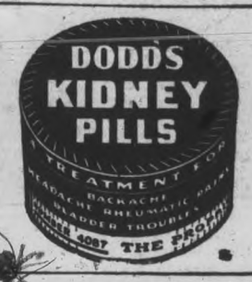
College Attendance Doubled In 5 Years



HALIFAX, June 15—(CP)—Dr. Watson Kirkconnell, president of Acadia University, Wolfville, N.S., and a member of the Association of American Colleges, said Tuesday that the population of American universities—now about 2,000,000—probably will be doubled by the mid-1950's.

Speaking during a round-table discussion of the National Conference of Canadian Universities, Dr. Kirkconnell warned Canadian universities not to relax their standards.

Dr. Kirkconnell discussed the responsibility of the university for student guidance and methods of providing this for academic problems. Prof. W. Line of the University of Toronto spoke on the vocational problems of the subject and principal R. C. Wallace of Queen's University on personal problems.

Details of projects undertaken during the last year were given Tuesday to 1,000 women attending meetings of the women's societies of the Baptist convention of Ontario and Quebec.

Reports presented said that incoming boats and trains bearing immigrants are met by society representatives, lessons in English and citizenship are given and special services held. Ministers of various denominations assist in the work.

Home mission societies in eastern and western Ontario and Quebec number 693. The 15,393 members include those in senior circles, young women's circles, Canadian Girls In Training and mission bands.

Falls Under Truck Sarnia Fireman Killed

SARNIA, June 15—(CP) — A call to a blaze caused by lightning in an old private garage Tuesday night brought death to 50-year-old city fireman Howard (Barney) McRae when he fell under the wheels of a fire truck.

McRae, a veteran of 26 years' service on the force, was dead on admittance to hospital. Fire Chief J. J. Anderson said it was the department's first fatality on duty in more than 30 years.

The fire truck was backing to make a turn at a corner when the firefighter slipped from the step at the rear of the vehicle and was crushed under the back wheel.

McRae is survived by his widow and five children.

Wait Two Years In England For a New Car

A visitor from Peterborough England, Ernest Elmer, called on Mayor M. J. Swanston Tuesday bringing "kindest regards" for the citizens of this city from Mayor E. V. Martin of the English city.

Mr. Elmer arrived in Toronto to visit his brother, John Elmer, June 1, but he is still amazed by the vast quantities of food and other evidence of Canada's well being. He said he ate a week's English ration of meat every time he sat down to a meal here.

You can say I like Canada very much, Mr. Elmer said. What I like about this city and the other Canadian cities I have is the way they are laid out on the square the Englishman observed.

Before he returned to Toronto in the evening, he had a chance to see the whole city. Mayor Swanston arranged to have Mr. Elmer and his brother who accompanied him to Peterborough, make a tour of the city and see it all. Later in the afternoon the two brothers visited the Silver Cross Lawn Tea. Mayor Swanston then took them to the South Beach Hotel for dinner.

Mr. Elmer especially thanked the mayor for the set of football uniforms this city supplied the Peterborough United football team in 1946. "We appreciated them very much," he said.

Prominent on the list of things he has especially noted are the Canadian cars. He thought he would create a sensation if he took one back with him to Peterborough, England. People in England have to wait about two years for a new car and then they are not sure of getting it.

Peterborough's counterpart in England has a population of about 60,000. This city in much better laid out than his in England, Mr Elmer commented.

Prostitution Alarms Officials

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP) — Commercialized prostitution is returning in many United States cities and towns, especially smaller ones, says the journal of social hygiene.

Brought under fairly good control during the war, the record now is the worst in the last nine years, adds the report by the American Social Hygiene Association.

More than half of 213 communities in 42 states and Alaka studied last year were "unsatisfactory with relation to prostitution," it said. Most of them were close to military bases and "unsatisfactory conditions are found, it is in the main in the small communities—from 5,000 to 100,000 population—where facilities and public backing are less available."

The report adds that "the situation does not present any difficulties that cannot be solved by prompt, vigorous community action."

There have been vast improvements over 20 and 40 years ago.

"Extensive red light districts have been eliminated. Brothels formerly harbored 10 to 20 inmates. Today they seldom have more than five, often only two, in many instances but one."

"Streetwalkers are far less numerous and much more clandestine in their operations. The modern counterparts of the sexually promiscuous females who paraded their activities in the saloons of pre-war days and in the speakeasies of the prohibition era, work in a more covert manner now."

Soldier Given Year Suspended Sentence

An Army captain testified as to the good conduct of Private Francis Booth in city police court Tuesday when Booth faced charges of breaking into Wm. Barrie's farm in Belmont Township and stealing tools and roofing and of theft of a truck battery from Bruce Parker.

After Provincial Constable George Stevens gave evidence of the offences, the Army officer said that Booth, who had joined the Service after committing the offences, was a good worker and fitted into Army life well.

Booth, who admitted two previous convictions and pleaded guilty to both charges, was placed on suspended sentence for a year. The magistrate said he was giving the youth an opportunity to make good in his newly chosen career.

Fined As Vagrant

Crown Attorney John Bradshaw told Magistrate W. R. Philp K. C. at city police court Monday that police had to chase Gordon Smith, 374½ George St. from the roof of a George St. building Sunday. Smith was fined $10 with $2.50 costs on a charge of vagrancy, to which he pleaded guilty.

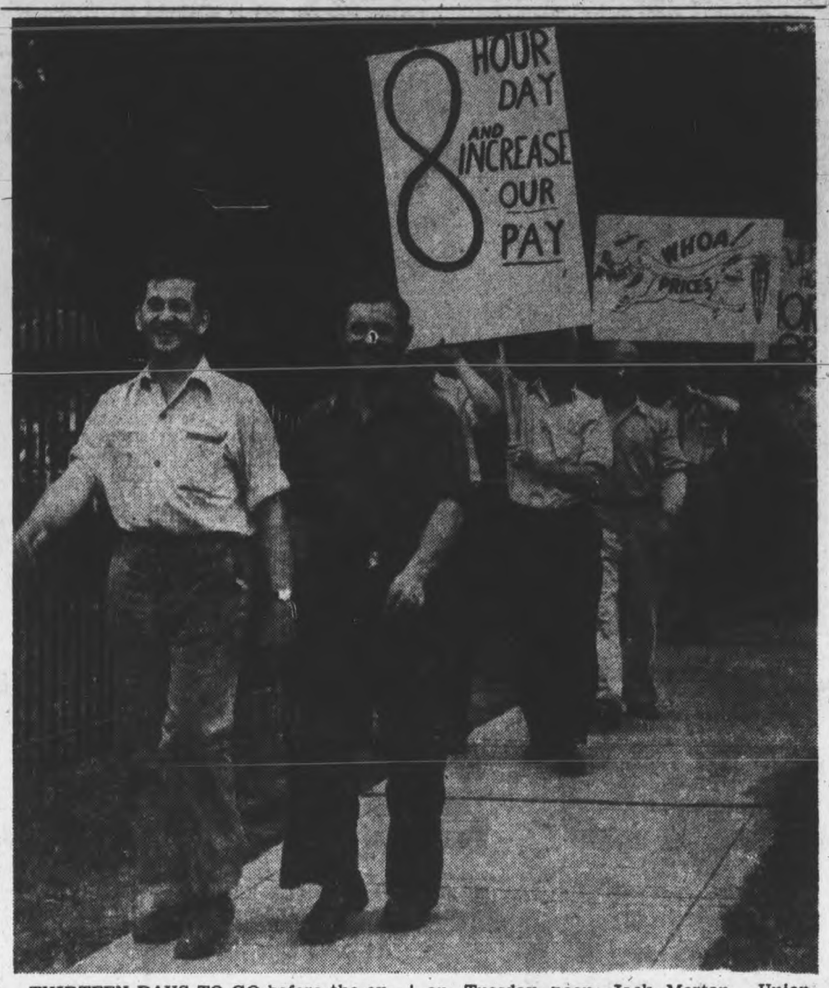
Floating Bridge At Gannon's Also Doomed?

The days of the floating bridge at Gannon's Narrows, between Pidgeon and Buckhorn Lakes, are numbered according to County Engineer J. D. Kean. On the spring tour of inspection the Road Committee and the Engineer found the old floating span badly waterlogged,, and ever under water in several places.

They conducted this investigation after Reeve Gale Elliott of Harvey reported at the last session of County Council that the bridge was dilapidated to the point of being unsafe.

In his report to the council today Mr. Kean stated that besides being waterlogged the wooden structure needs extensive deck repairs and replacements for several rotting timbers.

Repair Costs Heavy



Cost of deck repairs alone would be $1,500, he estimated, and if some of the floats were replaced an additional $3,500 would be needed. Problem of finding the right timber would have to be faced as well as the fact that it would only be a temporary patching.

"Even with these major costs the present structure would survive a short time only and would have to be closed in the interest of the travelling public's safety," he said.

Cost of rock fill for Gannon's Narrows similar to that laid at the Chemong Causeway would be $80,000, he estimated. And that is based on the assumption the Department of Transport would construct a swing span in place of the present floating span.

There were several other imminent projects outlined to council.

Party Patforms Outlined At Joint Rally

The three candidates in Peterborough West took the unusual course Tuesday evening of expounding their party programs from the same platform.

Gordon K. Fraser, Progressive Conservative; Dit Clapper, Liberal and Clayton Fee, speaking on behalf of J. Howard Miles, CCF, addressed more than 100 women and a small number of men in the Y.W.C.A. at the invitation of the Y.W.C.A. public affairs committee.

Mr. Fee told the meeting that Mr. Miles had already accepted another engagement when invited to speak at the Y.W.C.A.

Mr. Fraser Spoke First

Mr. Fraser, the first to address the meeting, urged his listeners to "Make sure you vote for the person who will represent you best so that our young people will not have to go to the States for advancement as they have in the past.'

When asked why he persisted in criticising the Film Board, Mr. Fraser said that his criticisms had resulted in better films being produced by the Board. He said he had been asked by several ministers of the Crown to continue his criticism.

Claiming that a Conservative government would dispense with the radio license, Mr. Fraser said that one way of earning revenue would be to "break down some of the controls and have more commercials."

"In other words we would get more corn and fewer good programs" interjected a member of the audience.

"No", declared Mr. Fraser. "we would get better programs."

Advocating development of the Dominion's resources, Mr. Fraser said the Conservative Party was opposed to any form of socialism. Under the Party's plan the Government would assist private enterprise with large scale plant building projects which were considered beneficial to the economy of the country.

Mr. Fraser also outlined the main policy of the Conservatives as already published by the Party.

Each speaker was allotted 15 minutes only and Mrs. Paige Rowell, past president of the Y.W.C.A., presided.

Dit Clapper, the Liberal candidate and second speaker, claimed credit for the Liberal Government, whose planning had resulted in Canada now being at the height of her prosperity.

Sixty-two and one-half per cent. of the people who had money in the bank were young people with $5000 or less, which indicated that wealth was evenly distributed.

Everyone had expected a depression after the war but owing to the careful planning of the Liberal Government this had not happened.

Old age pensions were now being given to 252,000 men and women and four million children were receiving the benefit of family allowances.

CCF Slogan

Production for humanity, not for greed was one of the CCF slogans used by Mr. Fee when he spoke on behalf of Mr. Miles.

"Under the capitalist system there has to be alternatively boom and bust" said Mr. Fee, who cited history over the past 200 years to substantiate the statement.

The C.C.F. was formed in 1932 when Canada was passing through a depression. There had been food in the west, but the east had none; there were clothes in Ontario but people had to go without and there were plenty of houses and yet people were on the streets.

The country was promised a health scheme in 1945 but was still waiting.

The C.C.F. believed that price controls should have been retained after the war. Canadians were better off in 1944 than at the present time.

Criticising the present housing situation, Mr. Fee declared that houses were being built on the Chemong Rd. at the present time for a selling price of $8,500. There were very few people who could afford to pay that price, however. What was needed were homes at low rentals with Government subsidy.

If a man lost his job while he was buying one of the $8,500 houses, he would lose the $2,000 down payment and anything else he had paid in addition to losing the house.

BUYING TRUCK.

Utilities Commission decided on Tuesday to buy a new truck from Lillico Motors. Three bids were received, only a few dollars apart. The Commission also wished to distribuate its business as fairly as possible and because of the general aspect of equality the decision was made by lot, probably the first time the Commission had ever adopted that method of purchase.

Don Duncan, Camp Director of the Y's Men's Club Boys', Camp, reports that 130 boys have applied to go to camp, making a total of 304 camping weeks already booked. There are 76 applicants from Peterborough, 27 from Lindsay, five from Cobourg, one from Port Hope and the rest are from Toronto, Winnipeg and Nobel. All July weeks are fully booked. There are still a few openings in August.

CLOSE CALL

A child aged about five came close to drowning at Inverlea Park last night The lad had stepped off the cement wall which is in the water and floundered. Ed. Nicholls, lifeguard, happened to be there, even though his regulation day's work had ended in the afternoon. He saw the child and pulled him out quickly. The youngster had swallowed a couple of mouthfuls of water and was retching and frightened; otherwise he was all right.

No Warning Signal Given When About To Make Turn; Man Suffers Fractured Skull

BOWMANVILLE, June 15 (ENS)—John Lawrence Cryderman, 47, of R. R. No. 4, Bowmanville, died in hospital here yesterday of a fractured skull after the bicycle on which he was riding on No. 2 Highway was struck by two cars three miles east of this town. The accident occurred while the victim was on the way from his work in the orchard of Garnett Rickard to the latter's farmhouse for lunch.

Cryderman sustained his fatal injuries when he made a left turn into Mr. Rickard's driveway, apparently without giving any warning signal to two cars which were coming up behind him. Both drivers tried to avoid striking him. The first car driven by Ernest Raye West of Orono, caught the bicycle by the car's right rear fender, knocking it and Cryderman to the road.

The second car, driven by John William Gillespie of East Hartford, Connecticut, U.S.A., was unable to avoid hitting the cyclist and its rider, which were caught in the car's undergear and dragged several feet. It is believed that it was in this second collision that the victim received his most serious injuries, which also consisted of extensive cuts and bruises.

Cryderman was rushed to hospital by ambulance and he was treated by Dr. Charles J. Austen of Bowmanville. Dr. Austen is also coroner for the district and he ruled death was accidental, with no inquest necessary The accident was investigated by Provincial Constable Albert L. Kitchen of the Provincial Police, Bowmanville.

TO MOVE BUREAU

The Junior Chamber of Commerce is now making plans for the opening of the Peterborough Tourist Bureau which will be in operation by June 24. It has been decided to move it from its present location on No. 28 Highway to the junction of Nos. 7 and 28 Highways and 5-mile turn. The building will also get a new coat of paint. This year there will be a full-time paid operator in charge, with the Jaycees providing relief during evenings and week-ends.

Lay Water Main Across Lake To Aid Pressure

Another step toward boosting the city's water pressure was in prospect at the Utilities Commission meeting Tuesday. A letter was received from Gorr and Storrie, Toronto, indicating an approximate cost of laying a water main across the river from Burnham's Point to McDonald's Point parallel with the sewer crossing which the city has planned.

The two pipe lines are to be laid at the same time. Commission decided to confirm the council's undertaking that the Commission assume the joint job, and charge part of it to the council. A question of cost was also to be referred to the council.

This is one of the projects both bodies have laid down for this season. A problem of floating a dredge from the Trent is involved because this accommodation was not available from the Canal Department and other sources. Soundings at the Burnham's Point narrows indicate heavy clay almost a hardpan condition of the soil in the bed of the river.

Gore and Storrie are the consulting engineers engaged by the city council.

Somebody Drank Much 'Hot' Pop

Clifford Harding, 450 Mark St., is finding this hot weather surprisingly unprofitable for his soft drinks business. On several occasions cases of orange crush and lime rickey have been stolen from his beverage truck which he invariably leaves loaded with beverages, by his house

When three cases of orange and three of lime were taken from the truck Saturday night Mr Harding decided it was time to call the law to his aid.

Keeping an eye on thirst quenchers will be just one more job for city police.

Merger of Three Bus Lines Unites All District Buses

TORONTO, June 15—(CP)—Colonial Coach Lines of Ottawa, a subsidiary of Provincial Transport Company, Ltd., today announced purchase of Collacutt Coach Lines and Kawartha Coach Lines, both Oshawa companies. The price paid was not announced.

D. G. Cunningham, solicitor for Colonial Coach Lines, said merger of the three lines gives Colonial a network of routes covering Eastern Ontario.

He said immediate effect of the deal will be that passengers in the Gananoque-Toronto and Peterborough-Toronto areas will have greater frequency of service made available.

Tickets of all three companies will be honored by the new company until the changeover is complete. Collacutt Coach Lines was owned by S. J. Collacutt of Oshawa and Kawartha Coach Lines by Lloyd Collacutt of Oshawa. Colonial takes over the services at midnight tonight.

Franchise Now Complete

By acquiring the Collacutt and Kawartha coach lines, Colonial Coach has extended and completed its franchise east and west from Peterborough. This purchase is the realization of Colonial plans that were rather vaguely mentioned when the company first began operation through this city between Ottawa and Toronto.

Colonial Coach tickets are now good for the intermediate service between Peterborough and Toronto by way of Port Hope and also by way of Port Perry, which has been included in the franchises of Collacutt and Kawartha lines. There is no special change on eastbound traffic except that Colonial tickets are now good to Kingston by way of No. 7 Highway.

The Colonial extension was announced by the Examiner two weeks ago.

BACK TO DRY CITY

Mayor Eddie Sargent of Owen Sound visited Peterborough on Wednesday, but is rushing home to be present when Owen Sounders vote whether or not to bring beer parlors, a warehouse, and a liquor store into his city. Mayor Sargent said he thought the city would get the warehouse and the liquor store.

Laughton Acts For Veterans In U.S. Hospital

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, June 15 (AP)—Charles Laughton lumbered into a room marked "tumor board" and faced a dozen veterans, at least one of whom has only a few weeks to live.

"I guess I came to the right place with this tumor," he smiled, holding his massive belly.

The men and women laughed and he introduced himself to each of them. To one wheel-chaired woman named Jenny he recited the poem "Jenny Kissed Me" and then kissed her. This was the face that launched the Mutiny on the Bounty.

Laughton took a book from under his arm and read a scene from "Midsummer Night's Dream."

"Did you know Shakespeare was less than 30 years old when he wrote this?" he asked.

Patients Participate

He did another scene from the play with one of the women patients. Then he had a six-foot former flier enact Lady Macbeth to his Macbeth.

For a finish, the actor recited two scenes from "Julius Caesar." For 25 minutes the hospital rang with the words of Brutus, Gassius, Marc Antony and other Roman citizens.

As one of the veterans filed out of the room, he commented to a buddy, "that's the first time Shakespeare made any sense to me."

Laughton has long made a practice of reading the bard and the Bible to veterans, but this was the first time he allowed a member of the press along. A naturally shy person, he sighed afterwards, "I suppose after doing this sort of thing for years, I'm not afraid of anybody."

FJORD BOUNDARY

The Portland Canal, a fjord 60 miles long, forms the boundary between British Columbia and Alaska.

SEEK BC SEATS—Mrs. Grace MacInnis, left, and Mrs. Dorothy Steeves are the only women candidates in British Columbia in the June 27 federal election. Both are running on the CCF ticket. Mrs. MacInnis, wife of Angus MacInnis, is seeking re-election in Vancouver East, is contesting Vancouver South constituency while Mrs. Steeves, a veteran of BC politics, is making her bid in Burnaby-Richmond.

Urges Baptists Support LDA

TORONTO, June 15—(CP)—A suggestion that Baptists contribute funds to pay for efforts to curb violations of the Lord's Day Act was raised Tuesday at the Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec.

Dr. George T. Webb put forward the idea after the convention passed a resolution protesting against the number of violations. Said he:

"We have been rather laggard in the matter. Other denominations are giving financial assistance."

The report of the Church Edifice Board said that more loans for church construction were made during the last year than in any year in the church's history.

"This has been made possible through the increased incomes from the churches, the exceptionally large repayments on principal and the ever-increasing interest returns," the report added.

The Foreign Missions Board's report told of progress in missionary work in India and Bolivia.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 15 — (CP). — Frank C. Nixon of Sudbury was re-elected president of the Ontario Optometrical Association at the 40th annual convention here.

Tourist Month Every Month Urges Speaker

"We have got to face the fact that there is room in the tourist trade for a longer season," Douglas Vaisey, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday night told the Optimists Club.

"Scrapping of the many hidebound traditions about May to August and September will open up the beginning of an extended season," he said.

Mr. Vaisey contended that Canadians should realize that every month of the year could be a tourist month.

Such a step, the speaker stated, would put Canada (and the Kawartha district in particular) a step ahead of other competitors for the patronage of the vacationing public and sportsmen.

The Jaycee president entitled his address "Vacations for Export" and enlarged on this by stating it was a profitable operation because there was no cost of shipment beyond Canada's borders.

Invisible Export

"It is in fact an invisible export industry," he said. "It is business of selling goods inside the Canadian border to people from other nations who through visits to our country become consumers."

In 1947 authorities thought they had a bumper year when $241,000,000 was spent by tourists; but a year later the figure had risen 12 per cent to $282,000,000. This year vacationists are expected spend even more.

Three projects should be concentrated on so Canada can meet the competition from the United States, South America, Mexico, Central America and the British Isles. These, the speaker stated, were better roads, restaurants and accommodation.

Militating against making the industry an even greater success are "slovenly" tourist operators, unsanitary conditions, and the outlook of the "backward proprietors."

"Progress is an essential requisite of a good sound, buoyant and profitable tourist trade," he said. We must take aggressive action in stamping out the things that drag the trade down, and one of the main curses is the attitude 'let's make it do.'"

Mr. Vaisey advocated that all local residents become ambassadors for Peterborough and the Kawartha Lakes district.

Report Pressure Improved In Water Mains

"The citizens are to be commended for their co-op ation," said G. A. MacDonald at the Utilities Commission meeting Tuesday, in a reference to the temporary regulation suspending the watering of gardens and lawns from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. daily.

"And, we ask them to continue the good work," said G. S. Matthews, chairman.

The significance of this response by the public will be appreciated from one of the comments that toward last week end some householders on the higher levels of the city were not getting enough water, in late afternoon and early evening, to flush toilets. Pressures were satisfactory Monday evening, according to telephone reports, an immediate result of leaving water ing of gardens and lawns to late at night.

At least one exception is being made to the Commission's concentration of present work on the completion of the 24-inch main. A letter from City Clerk Outram, with an importunate accent, asking for the usual "splendid co-operation" which the council had received from the Commission, requested extension of the two-high water main through Civic Arena to its west end for the installation of the new ice-making plant for next fall and winter.

Fred Hills smiled broadly at the ingratiating approach. Mr. Matthews said "we are giving them the water service for nothing".

The upshot was that Mr. Dobbin was instructed "to see what they want done, and help them out." Mr. Dobbin remarked that two-inch pipe was rather scarce at present.

The following summary of the waterworks department for May is quoted from Mr. Dobbin's review: "The pumpage for May was 142,153,000 gallons, as compared with 117,410,000 last May. The increase was nearly 800,000 gallons a day, and it is interesting to note that the total pumpage was twice what it was in 1940 The heaviest day's pumpage was on the 17th when 5,600,000 gallons were delivered to the city. The exceptionally dry and hot weather has resulted in a great increase in water consumption. The average temperature for the month was 54.2 degrees as compared with 52.75 for May of last year.

The total precipitation was 1.73 inches as compared with 3.07 inches in May of 1948.

During the month 971 feet of 8" main were laid on Western Avenue and one fire hydrant set.

One Cionsilla Avenue, between Sherbrooke Street and the City boundary, we laid 2,085 feet of 6" main and set 2 fire hydrants.

On Sherbrooke Street between George and Water Sts. and on Water Street between King and Sherbrooke Sts. we laid 484 feet of 6" main. This was done on account of paving.

The 24" main was started again, and during the month 372 feet were laid.

31 new water serivces were laid on Rose and Wilson Avenues.

"Wets" Lose Vote

WATERFORD, Ont., June 15—(CP)—"Wet" forces failed to gain sufficient votes to change a "dry" decision in a recount Tuesday of ballots cast May 28 in a plebiscite on the legal sale of wine and beer in a licensed hotel in this Norfolk County centre.

Wiping Out Coyotes

EDMONTON, June 15 (CP).—John Harvie, Alberta's Deputy Minister of Lands and Forests, reported Tuesday that the aerial war against coyotes in the province is proving successful in curbing their activities. Coyote-hunting from airplanes is more effective than efforts to encourage hunting of animals through bounty payments, Mr. Harvie said.

Reserve Decision

TORONTO, June 15 (CP)—The Ontario Labor Relations Board Tuesday reserved decision on an application by the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (A.F.L.) to represent 42 electricians at the Hollinger Consolidated Gold Mines near Timmins, Ont. The application was opposed by a Canadian Congress of Labor union which claimed to represent a majority of the electrical workers.

Reject Overlordship

HALIFAX, June 15 —(CP)—Prof. D. B. Silk Screen Prints Hung In Local Bank

As a result of arrangements made with the National Gallery of Canada by the Bank of Montreal to purchase quantities of the gallery's silk screen prints, a selection of the pictures is now on display at the bank's Peterborough office.

Among the nine impressive prints adorning the walls, the most striking is "'Wild Geese," an original design for the silk screen process by the well-known Canadian artist, Thoreau MacDonald. Two attractive landscapes, "'Windswept" and "'Silver Stream," are the work of L. A. C. Panton, RCA. In contrast, the late J. E. Samoson's "'Veterans of the Sea" is a human interest story, and "'North and Barrington Streets, Halifax," by Leonard Brooks, ARCA, depicts a stormy, wartime scene which will be familiar to many ex-naval men. Charles F. Comfort's "Bon Echo" mirrors nature in a tranquil mood. Landscapes by Arthur Lismer and Yvonne McK. Housser, are also included in the selection. Last, but by no means least, is Albert Cloutier's "Sugar Time, Quebec," showing a traditional springtime activity which occurs in many rural areas of Eastern Canada.

Discuss Air Training

TRENTON, June 15 —(CP)—Some 30 military representatives from three nations met behind closed doors Tuesday with a view of remoulding the air training pattern of Canada, Britain and the United States. Convened under the auspices of the Canadian government, the conference is the third held since the end of the Second World War.

Deserving Poor In County Get Bequest

Peterborough County Council has received a request from the estate of the late Joseph Tooley Green, similar to that which the city received. According to the will the money must go to "the deserving poor."

The County Clerk and Treasurer has already received a cheque from the Victoria Trust and Savings Co. amounting to $1,036.80. Hereafter the amount will be approximately $100 a year.

In Finance Committee Reeve Rork Ferguson of Norwood and Reeve James Gifford moved that the money be divided equally among the municipalities and that a statement on the expenditure be received from each of them at the end of the year. An amendment proposing that the annual bequest be distributed according to population was defeated by Council, and the original motion carried.

Council also approved a motion by Reeve Peter Pearson of Galway and Reeve Ross Barrons of Belmont-Methuen that the charitable gift be distributed at the rate of $300 a year until the large initial amount is expended.

Hospital Request Rejected

A request from Campbellford Hospital for financial aid to pay the bill for an indigent patient, a former resident of Dummer, was also heard. Reeve Ferguson and Robert Tully of Smith moved that no action be taken.

It was pointed out to Council that the Campbellford hospital is a private one and, therefore, does not come under the Public Hospitals Act which the County Council works under.

Warden William Darling, Reeve of Dummer, stated he had made enquiries and found the man able to work.

IRON MAN—Andrew Dana, oldest bachelor in Houston, Tex., considers himself a lucky man as he lights up a pipeful. He has reached the age of 104 despite being run over by a train and hit by a car when he was a "younger" 100 years old.

Asks Television Thrown Open

ST. ANDREWS-BY-THE-SEA, NB, June 15 — (CP). — All private or public agencies with the resources and the desire to provide television service in Canada should be allowed to do so immediately, Stewart Finlayson of Montreal told the Canadian Association of Broadcasters in annual meeting here Tuesday.

Finlayson, general manager of the Canadian Marconi Company, said television is not just another medium of entertainment but is a medium of mass communication of tremendous import to all.

"Canada needs television to stimulate its economy and to enable us to maintain and expand present levels of employment and to assist us to retain in Canada artists, technicians, and others who may be attracted away if they are unable to find at home proper employment in this new field."

He considered impractical the government suggestion that private applicants for television licences should co-operate to operate stations on a regional basis.

Mr. Finlayson suggested that private applicants should be licensed to operate television stations in major markets such as Montreal and Toronto, and that the CBC should set up its initial stations in such points as Winnipeg, Vancouver and Halifax.

Under this plan the operations of the CBC and private capital would not overlap but the CBC could reserve to itself channels in the metropolitan areas for their future needs.

Find Gold Fever Cooling Off Now

ERFDEEL, South Africa, June 15—(CP)—A gold strike June 3 on a maize farm here still is generating excitement in this scrub-dotted Orange Free State district near Johannesburg. But a new discovery in the same area is cooling the gold fever on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange.

Shares of the two companies primarily concerned with the original Erfdeel find slumped Tuesday on the market following announcement of another strike only a few feet away and less than 1/200 as rich. Free State gold mine shares fell to just where they were on the eve of June 3, before word came that Erfdeel had produced the richest borehole result in the history of South African gold mining.

The effect of the market drop on development of the Erfdeel field has yet to be seen. Nevertheless, the story of the area already forms a romantic chapter in the annals of African gold-hunting.

Erfdeel 188, the thorny maize farm on which the June 3 strike was made, was originally bartered for a saddle and a bridle in the days of the pioneering Voortrekkers. It passed into the hands of the father of the present owner, J. J. J. (Hans van Rensburg.

Try To Simplify Travel, Trade Barriers

By FORBES RHUDE.
Canadian Press Business Editor.

The International Chamber of Commerce, now meeting in Quebec, proposes a fresh effort to simplify administrative procedures which it feels are presenting "invisible barriers" to trade and travel.

As Dr. D. A. Delprat of the Netherlands put it at a meeting on Tuesday:

"Governments are constantly calling on the exporter to increase his business, but when he sees the administrative complications of opening up some promising new line of trade, he is practically compelled to abandon his project."

Now, subject to approval at Friday's final plenary session, ICC proposes to approach governments at the national and international level. They suggest that each government set up an independent committee consisting of both government officials and business men to scrutinize existing procedures and practices.

These committees would submit a report each year to the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations, or whatever international body may seem appropriate.

At the same time, an international independent committee of experts, similarly composed, would be appointed under the auspices of the United Nations to start work on a program of international simplification and standardization.

Never Discussed Post With Howe-Phillips

TORONTO, June 15 — (CP) — Lt.-Col. W. E. Phillips, industrialist and chairman of the University of Toronto's board of governors, said today in a statement he "was not requested or persuaded, directly or indirectly" by Trade Minister Howe to join the board of directors of Canadair, Ltd., and "at no time have Mr. Howe and I ever discussed Canadair or its affairs."

He was commenting on the reported statement at Fort William June 8 by Progressive Conservative Leader George Drew that Mr. Howe "persuaded some outstanding and highly reputable Canadian business men to go on the board of Canadair, along with representatives of the Electric Boat Company."

Col. Phillips, president of Duplate Canada, Ltd. and Fiberglass Canada, Ltd., at Oshawa, said he ws invited to join the Canadair board by Jay Hopkins, president of Electric Boat Company, and "accepted the invitation because I was interested in the establishment of an aircraft industry in Canada."

Early Polls Available To Commercial Men

Advance polls in Peterborough for the June 27 election will be open only for commercial travellers whose work makes it impossible for them to get to their polling station election day. Some readers of a story on the advance poll in Tuesday's Examiner have incorrectly assumed that any voter whose work takes him out of town election day may vote at the advance poll.

Returning officer Arthur J. McClellan said the law stipulates that commerical fishermen, railwaymen and voters classified as commercial travellers may vote at the advance poll. As far as Peterborough West is concerned this applies almost exclusively to commercial travellers, who will have the opportunity of voting the Thursday, Friday and Saturday before election day.

Makarachuk was the fifth man to escape from the reformatory in the last two weeks. The others are still at large.

Charge Rancher Failed To Care For His Horses

COBOURG, June 15.—(ENS).—Ralph Nelson, operator of a dude ranch in Haldimand Township, was charged before Magistrate Baxter yesterday with failing to look after his horses properly, and after the evidence was in, the magistrate reserved his decision until June 17. Inspector C. W. Morris of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, testified that he visited the ranch on May 29 and found thirteen saddle horses with sores. He said that the sores were caused by the fact that the accused did not keep the underside of the saddles clean and because he used jute bagging for saddle pads. He said that while the charge had nothing to do with the condition of the stables, they were not in satisfactory condition.

Dr. G. H. Jones, Trenton veterinary, said that he examined the horses and found that they had saddle sores, some of them being partly healed and some raw. The jute burlap was not good material for saddle pads, he said. The sores ordinarily would heal up in from ten days to two weeks, but there was evidence of continued irritation. Provincial Constable H. Woolrich of Cobourg gave corroboratory evidence.

Nelson testified that he operated a riding school and did not saddle all the horses himself. He said that he did not saddle any with sores, and horses which had sores were put to pasture to heal up after applying medication.

MURRAY ROSENBURGH, (son) of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rosenburgh, 559 Division street, was graduated recently from the University of Toronto. He received his Honor degree Bachelor of Arts. A lieutenant, he is spending his third summer training with the C.O.T.C. and is stationed at Currie Barracks, Calgary, with a tank unit.

Both Lads At Circus Back In Family Fold

Both lads who lost all thought of home when the circus came to the city Monday, spent Tuesday night safely at home with their parents. Cecil La France, aged 15, was located in Belleville with the circus the morning after the performance at Peterborough, was brought back by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. La France, 741 Chamberlain St.

Donald Martin, 16, of 91 Park St., left for the circus Monday evening, but did not arrive home until Tuesday afternoon. He said he had been working with the circus throughout the night following the performance and had spent Tuesday looking for a "job."

CAMPBELLFORD, June 15—(ENS)—Lightning, striking a transformer on Market St. early Tuesday morning, caused slight damage to Mason's service station. The glass top was blown off the fuel-oil pump and several fuses and connections were burnt out.

Frank Short Dies

YONKERS, NY, June 15 (AP)—Frank Lea Short, 75, former actor, director and president of the American Theatre Association, died yesterday. During his acting career he appeared with such stars as John Drew, Nazimova, and Mrs. Minnie Maddern Fiske. Later he was stage manager for the late Leslie Howard and Helen Hayes.

Oldsters Sparkle Lindsay Team

LINDSAY, June 15—A couple of "oldsters" whose combined ages add up to 109 years, are currently belying their years as members of Lindsay's senior soccer team.

The pair are 55-year-old Reginald A. Cox and Victor Barbe, 54, defense partners on the Lindsay team, which is operating in a four-team Central Ontario group.

Despite their years, at ages when most ex-soccer performers have long since been content to confine themselves to spectator activity, Cox and Barbe cavort just as enthusiastically and play just as "heads-up" soccer as many of the younger men on the team.

"It's just the best game there is," Cox says. "Vic and I plan to play until we're 60 . . . then I guess we'll retire."

Cox has been a key man behind the recent revival of soccer in Lindsay and was instrumental in introducing the game to the town before the First World War. Four years ago he helped reorganize the Lindsay senior team and campaigned to have soccer played in the schools.

"We're not having much luck with the students to date," he admits, "But with a little co-operation from the Lindsay Recreation Committee, we could get a fine program under way. We claim that soccer is just as much a body-builder and healthy sport for youngsters as any other game.

Cox played as a boy at Ipswich, England, and played for Toronto and Collingwood teams before moving to Lindsay. He was a member of Collingwood's Western Ontario championship team.

Barbe is also a native of England, taking to the game as a lad in Guernsey. He played with Hamilton teams before taking up residence here.

The racket was discovered recently when two St. Catharines citizens who bought one of the cars applied for a change of the car's registration and were told it was a stolen car. Ralph Johnston Wed in Toronto

A wedding of interest here took place in Deer Park United Church Chapel, Toronto, on Saturday of Ethelind Maie Nunns and Ralph Hamil Johnston of Toronto. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Johnston of Chatham and formerly of Peterborough. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Nunns, Beaverton. The Rev. Dr. Gordon Sisco performed the ceremony and Ted Edwards of Windsor played the organ.

The bride was in a gown of heavy petal white satin with centre panel of floral English lace which curved over the shoulder line to form the lace panelled back. The waistline was enhanced by a stiffened peplum of satin edged with finely pleated ruching from which the full flared skirt swept into s light train. She carried white roses. Her attendant, Miss Audrey Woollings, Toronto, chose orchid marquisette over taffeta styled with decollete asymmetric neckline framed by a deep cape collar caught softly at one side with a large butterfly bow and full skirt flared gracefully from a pointed waistline. Her bouquet was sweetpeas in tones of orchid.

Mr. Gordon Johnston of Sault Ste. Marie was groomsman. Ushers were Tom Tisdale and John Graveley, Toronto.

After the reception in the Royal York Hotel the couple left for New York and Atlantic City, the bride wearing beige gabardine suit and British Tan accessories. They will live in Toronto.

Honey-Beige Tone Called "Caleche" New Fashion Color

MONTREAL, June 15 —(CP)— Fashion folk of New York may be promoting navy as the current color in women's clothes but in Canada the new color is "caleche."

Betty Koren, executive director of the Montreal Fashion Institute describes it as honey-beige tones going into brown, sulphur yellow to the darkest brown.

Montreal, of course, is a good place to talk about "caleche" because it's the home of the horse drawn caleches that take sightseers up Mount Royal.

As fashion week moved into its second day fashion writers spun their stories around Parisian pockets which funnel from shoulder to waist; a "licorice stick" silhouette in taupe and black wool crepe suit-dress; a scarf-panel frock in nutria satin with cuffed portrait neckline and a scarf-panel spilling from belt to hemline.

So far as accessories go Miss Koren said scarves will spill out of pockets in suits and dresses by fall and the girls can look forward to big collars and big buttons.

Silver Cross Gets Charter From National President

Peterborough Silver Cross wearers who have been organized with the National Chapter for almost a year received their charter Tuesday afternoon from the president for Canada, Mrs. W. H. Jacobs of Toronto.

To mark the occasion a Charter Tea was held on the grounds of Alderman and Mrs. Hurrell Dodds in Ashburnham, overlooking the Otonabee river. Mrs. A. E. Speakman of Hamilton, Provincial president, and 35 members of Toronto Chapters representing the three services came for the ceremony.

Mrs. Jacobs said that the one aim of the organization is to build up and keep alive a memorial to sons and husbands who gave their lives in the war—not something built for money, but a moral and spiritual memorial which gets strength from mothers and wives working together. Sixteen chapters have been organized in Ontario, Quebec and the Maritimes in one year.

Having a charter, she explained enables the Chapter to hold property in its own name and to form other chapters. The western provinces have still to be organized and some financial support is needed for this work.

The National executive of the Silver Cross Women is presently working to have the Federal government give pensions to mothers. Also they are asking that the credits which would have been collected on return from war service be given to parents of men who died overseas to enable them to go and visit the graves wherever they may be.

Peterborough Chapter was congratulated by Mrs. Jacobs on their plan to put a chapel in the new Civic Hospital in which there will be a plaque bearing names of the men for whom they wear Silver Crosses.

Mrs. B. W. Harvey, president of Peterborough Chapter, accepted the charter. In opening the ceremony she asked all to stand in silence for a minute and then join in repeating the Silver Cross motto.

The address was given by the Rev. V. E. R. Zufelt, ex-chaplain of overseas forces.

"We who served with those who fell were most profoundly struck and moved by their deaths" he said. "I can truly say that there was more reverence, respect and lasting tribute in the hearts of men who stood beside those graves than is shown at any burial ceremony here. Every one was individual and comrades returned to the spot time and time again to fix up the grave and place some mark of memory on it."

Answering the thought that is brought to minds of bereaved friends by fictional stories of the war, Mr. Zufelt explained the careful system of checking identities and gave the details which caused the only two errors he knew of, which were corrected even before notifications went out.

"The greatest horror of war is that it takes the best of everything we have" he said. "War would be a good thing if it destroyed only the bad. It is a fact that seeing the best men in the line fall gave the others determination to win. The sacrifice you have made is the finest contribution of all toward world peace."

In conclusion Mr. Zufelt said "As chaplains we were trying to give these men the message of the Gospel, but we knew what touched them most was saying farewell to loved ones. We relayed as many details as we could to you, but what really counts was the thought in their hearts which you will understand some day when you re-unite with them."

Lieut. Col. M. E. Clarke thanked the Rev. Mr. Zufelt and gave corroboration of his remarks in regard to close checking of identities. The Rev. E. C. Moore introduced the speaker, and also led in prayer.

Youngman-Olan

MILLBROOK, June 15 (ENS) —The wedding was solemnized in Pontypool United Church, Saturday by the Rev. Mr. Honey of Kathleen Olan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Olan and Frederick William Youngman son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Youngman, Pontypool.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore white brocaded moire with an over-skirt of white net, and floor length veil falling from a halo of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of red roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Doris Stinson was dressed in pale blue taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groomsman for his brother was Mr. Ernest Youngman.

The bride's mother chose a flowered jersey dress with grey background, white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother wore a rose dress with navy accessories and corsage of white carnations.

The reception was held in the basement of the church, which was beautifully decorated with peonies, iris and orange blossoms.

For her going away outfit the bride wore a two-piece rose-pink crepe dress with white accessories and blue shortie coat. After the honeymoon spent in Toronto, St. Catharines and points in the U.S.A. the bride and groom will make their home in Pontypool.

Of Interest to Women

DOROTHY DIX

Hard Cash Only Obligation For 15 Years "Friendship?"

DEAR MISS DIX—What is a married man's duty to the "other woman" in a case like mine? Two years after marriage I became infatuated with a single girl. This has lasted for 15 years. The girl has built her life around mine, has refused to marry, has never worked and has accompanied me all over the country. I have provided for her and her widowed mother with every comfort. But during all of these years my wife has been first in my heart and now I long to wipe the slate clean and come back to her.

Dorothy Dix

She loves me and has stood by me loyally through it all. I have given her every luxury and every kindness except fidelity, and now I would gladly give her that if I didn't have the other woman on my conscience.

The other woman will always be provided for by me. Have I any other obligations to her now?

BUSINESS MAN.

ANSWER — As between your duty to your wife and the "other woman," I should say that your greatest obligation is to the woman you took a solemn oath before God and man to love and cherish. And the fact that you have defaulted on your part of the contract for fifteen years does not make it any the less a debt of honor. It only gives you a lot of back payment to make up to the woman you have neglected and defrauded of her rights so long.

One may be sorry too for the "other woman" if she loves you, but she is a love pirate, and is operating without the law. She knows that she is robbing a woman of her husband and taking the love and money that belongs by rights to the wife. She is accessory to the crime of disloyalty even when she does not instigate it.

Sad But True

For it is only too sadly true that there are innumerable young girls who set themselves deliberately to flatter and cajole married men, and appeal to them by every wile of sex, to get them away from their wives and into their toils. There are plenty of men who would never find out that their wives had grown old and fat or that their wives didn't understand them if some girl didn't see in them a sugar papa and entice them away from their homes and duty.

Judging by the fact that your mistress' mother has lived on her daughter's ill-gotten gains all of these years and has countenanced her daughter's mode of life, I should say that you can doubtless heal any hurt in the girl's heart with a poultice of greenbacks. But don't go back to your wife until you have washed your slate clean, and until you are certain that you are going to run straight in the future.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX—I know that it is impossible for me to ever have any children and I am longing to adopt a baby, but my husband will not agree to it. If I bring a stray cat or dog home, he lets it stay and buys it food, but he won't give a little baby a chance. I am eating my heart out for a little one and I know I would give a baby a real mother's love and a good home. Don't you think my husband should agree to my adopting a child?

MATERNAL.

ANSWER—I do, indeed, if you feel that way about it, but, of course, you must look at your husband's point of view, too, and remember that you are asking him not only to support the child but to divide you with it. While a man is willing to do that for his own child, he has to be very unselfish to be willing to do it for a strange child.

There is no other sport so fascinating as watching a little child's mind unfold. There is something new and funny and touching and appealing in its every act, and when it puts its little arms around necks and cuddles down into the hollow of our shoulders we get a thrill that nothing else in life affords. So I am sure that your husband, who takes in stray cats and dogs, would find great joy in an adopted child.

Probably he dreads the thought of breaking up the pleasant routine of your home, and feels a little jealousy against bringing a strange child into it. So why don't you borrow a baby for six months and agree to give it up if at the end of that time he doesn't want you to keep it? And take my word for it that once he has gotten used to the child and felt its little fingers clinging to his he will never let go.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX — Will you please tell me how to become a brilliant conversationalist?

WAITING.

ANSWER—Nobody in the world can tell you that. There is no recipe for making wit and wisdom and sparkling repartee as there is for making a sponge cake. Wisecracking comes by inspiration and not by study.

But you can become an interesting conversationalist by reading and keeping yourself well informed so that you can discuss any topic intelligently. And you can keep yourself from becoming a bore by not talking about yourself, by not arguing and by not talking too much. Best of all, you can make yourself a good listener, and good listeners are far more in demand than are brilliant conversationalists. And much, much more popular.

Baptist Women Church Pioneers

TORONTO, June 15 (CP) — Women can do much to advance the work of churches, says Mrs. Leslie Swain, one of three women who have served as president of the Northern Baptist Convention of the United States.

Mrs. Swain, here for the Diamond Jubilee Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec and only woman on the executive of the World Council of Churches, said in an interview that she looks upon Baptist women as pioneers in many phases of church work.

"But even in the Baptist church, it is hard for ordained women ministers to get any church except in the country," she said. "They are told it is unseemly for a woman to be a minister and that it runs contrary to custom.

"It isn't so much discrimination against women but is more the fact that the clergy like to keep hold of what they have got. Lay men and women now are taking a bigger part in church work and women's opportunities in the church really depend on whether it is run by the clergy or by the laity."

Mrs. St. Laurent Finds Politics Reduce Leisure

OTTAWA, June 15 (CP)—One of Louis St. Laurent's most devoted admirers is a little woman with lustrous brown eyes which fairly glow with pride when talk gets around to the prime minister of Canada.

Jeanne Renault St. Laurent leaves the politics, and all the speech-making that goes with it, to her husband. She has said several times that her career is simply that of a housewife and mother.

But while she seldom steps on a platform to take any personal bows, Mrs. St. Laurent usually is standing, proudly, somewhere nearby when her husband is the centre of attention. Her quiet charm and gentle manner of themselves are a drawing card, and in the few short months since she was thrust into public life, as wife of the prime minister, she has won a multitude of friends.

"Not enough time," has been her chief complaint about the new job. She used to like to cook, and to do a bit of needlework but with so many other duties, she now seldom has time for them in the daily routine.

Had anyone told Mrs. St. Laurent a few years ago that one day she would be living in an apartment in Ottawa, she probably would have said she didn't believe it; didn't want it.

She was happy in the big home in Quebec City, where the five St. Laurent children and their 12 grandchildren could come at will. And in Ottawa she was bound to miss those family Sundays.

Followed Commons

But when her husband was named leader of the Liberal party Mrs. St. Laurent remained as always during their 41 years of married life—at his side.

During the last session of parliament she could be seen almost any hour of the day or evening, sitting in the Senate gallery of the Commons, watching her husband at work on the floor of the House. She followed every word of the debates although, as she once confessed, she occasionally had trouble understanding the English.

Then came the election campaign. Travelling at best is a rugged ordeal, but Mrs. St. Laurent has accompanied her husband on most of his trips.

With unflagging zeal and enthusiasm, she has been on hand to greet supporters. Each new town, each new person, is an opportunity to learn more of Canada, to make new friends.

Into the bargain, she has managed to turn the prime minister's private railway coach into a home, always keeping an affectionate, watchful eye on her husband, supervising his meals and seeing that he gets enough rest.

And when he gets up to speak always she is there, with what one newspaper writer describes as that "happy and radiant look" which bespeaks her affection and the great pride she has in her husband.

Milk Bottle Caps Or Leaflets To Say 'Vote'

Further arrangements for the "Get Out the Vote" campaign to be sponsored locally by the Peterborough Chamber of Commerce, the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and the Canadian Legion, were made at a meeting of the executive of the Chamber of Commerce last night. It was decided to provide some money for it from the Chamber's funds. Details are now being worked out with the other two organizations.

It is expected that the drive will take the form of distributing door to door leaflets or by means of special milk bottle caps. The idea for the campaign was initiated originally by the national organizations of the Chamber of Commerce and Canadian Legion, whose executives feel that apathy on the part of the Canadian electorate has grown to such proportions that it threatens democratic stability in the Dominion.

The Chamber of Commerce executive decided to postpone publication of the proposed new Peterborough and district tourist booklet until the fall, as it was felt that there is not sufficient time remaining to get out a satisfactory booklet for this year's tourist season. It is now planned to distribute copies next winter throughout Canada and the United States with a view to building up the 1950 tourist trade in the Kawarthas.

J. E. Girven, assistant works manager at the CGE, tendered his resignation as vice-president of the Chamber due to pressure of business, although he will continue as a director. P. D. Scollard, barrister, was named to fill out the balance of the vice-president's term.

Mr. Wannamaker died in hospital on Sunday following a short illness. He was born in Grafton, Ont., son of the late Henry Wannamaker and Mary Easton. Before coming to Peterborough four years ago, he had lived in Madoc. His wife, the former Minnie Broadworth, predeceased him.

Floating Bridge

New Road Building

Preliminary survey work has been done and actual construction is expected to start within a couple of weeks on the five-and-a-half miles of County Road between Hall's Glen and Clarina, running through Gilchrist Park.

The county has entered into an agreement with the Department of Highways to make this stretch a Development Road. County will suply a 66 - foot right-of-way throughout and will build a new bridge over the river at Gilchrist Park financed by the 1949 road appropriation.

Two bridges are to be built this year and two others extended. To be built are the Molyneaux bridge in Galway and McKeivor bridge in Smith. The county's men and equipment will be used to extend two concrete bridges on the Buckhorn Rd. for the Suburban Commission and the Department of Highways.

Mr. Kean said the crushing plant for gravel started operating about a month ago and the new three-quarter yard shovel is proving satisfactory. A good day's output is now about 480 cubic yards as compared to 410 last year. A new steel bin for the crusher was delivered this week and with added unit production is expected to rise to 500 cu. yds.

No offers have been received to buy the half-yard shovel so it has been put to work with the two trucks cutting hills and banks on County Roads and has also been hired out to townships on an hourly rate for the same type of work.

The county's weed spraying program is prepared, and spraying will commence about the first of July, said Mr. Kean.

LESSONS UNDER WAY.

Boys from the Public Schools in the YMCA's annual "learn to swim" program have had four lessons. Eighteen of the 70 boys can now swim the length of the pool. Most of the other boys can swim across the pool. There are two more instruction periods before the course ends.

Giants Sweep

Chuck Connors paced Montreal's 12-hit attack against a trio of Oriole pitchers with a homer, double and single. Pat McGlothin, with help from Clarence Podbielan, picked up his fourth victory.

The fifth-place Rochester Red Wings divided a twin bill with the sixth-place Syracuse Chiefs, winning the opener 3-2 but losing the finale 11-5.

Dave Thomas gained credit for the first-game victory. Towering lefthander Hank Perkowski scattered 10 hits and socked a homer to breeze home in the nightcap.

Says Steel Labor On Defensive

NEW YORK, June 15—(AP)—Steel labor is more on the defensive than it has been in years in contract negotiations, The Iron Age, metal-working trade weekly, says today.

The publication says management is determined to make no concessions that will raise the price of steel, increase over-all costs or further depress the declining steel market.

The present outlook in the industry, says The Iron Age, "is nothing to make either steel or labor people happy." Operations were placed at 86.5 per cent of capacity, down 2½ points this week. Incoming business is off considerably and cancellations are increasing.

Discussing the coal tie-up, the trade weekly says that "it now looks like the steel industry could easily weather a complete coal shut down for two months before any drastic steel cutbacks would come. By that time lack of steel business might be doing more than lack of coal to keep output down."

In the scrap market, it reported business dull and prices lower. Declines of 75 cents a ton at Chicago and $1.50 at Philadelphia for No. 1 heavy melting grade were credited with depressing the iron age steel scrap composite to $20.92 a gross ton. This is a drop of $22.08 a ton from the year's high.

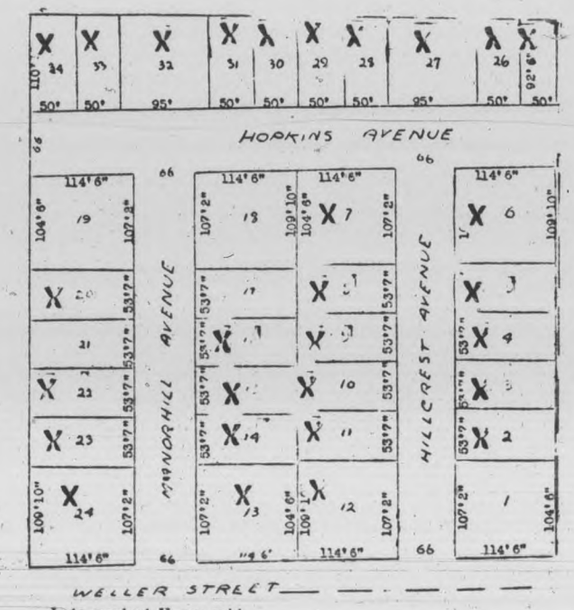
Church Woman's Funeral At Centreville

MILLBROOK, June 15 (ENS)—Funeral services for Mrs. Effie Robinson Hall, 71, late wife of A. Stewart Hall, were held in Centreville Presbyterian Church, Friday, June 3, Rev. W. Patterson officiating. Interment was in Centreville cemetery.

Born in South Monaghan township in 1878, the daughter of William Robinson and Elizabeth Perrin, she spent her whole life in the district, living on a farm on concession five, Cavan, and in Millbrook.

Mrs. Hall took an active part in Presbyterian church work. At various times she was president of the Ladies' Aid, treasurer of the Women's Missionary Society, and a Sunday School teacher.

Surviving are her husband, three children, Mrs. Franklin Bannister (Dorothy), Willis and Clifford; and six grandchildren.



Pall-bearers were Stuart Donaldson, James Might, Lionel Perrin, Walter Lord, David Fowler and Stuart McGill. Flower bearers were Jay Whittington, Ronald Isbister, Harold Tate, George Berry, Percy Stewart and H. A. Kerr.

Want To Keep Date

TORONTO, June 15 —(CP)—Three civic department heads advised the Board of Control Tuesday to refrain from changing the traditional Jan. 1 date for the civic elections this year. The representatives said an earlier date would entail heavy additional expenses in preparing the voters' list and the assessment rolls. Earlier Mayor Hiram McCallum had suggested a Dec. 5 election day when voters would be asked if they favored the date as a permanent change.

Colorful Stage Coaches Lure Tourists In London

By DON GILBERT

LONDON, June 15 (CP)—It's tally ho again along Piccadilly and the Strand.

Through the west end streets crowded with double-decked buses and honking taxis, red-coated drivers manoeuvre Pickwickian stage-coaches drawn by four springly horses.

The idea is to earn dollars by showing tourists London's sights from the lofty perch of a coach-and-four.

A pair of enterprising Welshmen, Ivor Evans and Bill Parry-Jones, thought up the plan.

Great commotion attends the thrice-daily departure of the tourist-laden coaches. Outside a Kensington hotel appropriately named Milestone, crowds gape as grooms garbed in grey toppers and scarlet jackets scurry about making ready the century-old coaches.

For all the world they might be setting out for a dangerous passage of the highwayman-ridden Brighton Post Road. But the sightseers' journey is less than 10 miles.

The coaches accommodate 12 passengers on top and four in the enclosed compartment. A long portable iron ladder aids topside passengers to their seats. The ladies, particularly, note how inappropiate is modern dress to the travel mode of a past age.

The tolypoly driver mounts the box, gathers up the reins, flourishes his whip. At the rear, the footman precariously leaning out from his perch lifts to his lips a five-foot long silver posh-horn.

The venerable coach groans and jolts, then rattles away at a full four miles an hour.

At traffic intersections, the London "bobbies" smile tolerantly as they wave the contraption on through Hyde Park, along Piccadilly, past Trafalgar Square, The Houses of Parliament, Westminster Abbey, Buckingham Palace.

Although the art of coaching is fast dying out, Evans and Parry-Jones have rounded up a group who know their stuff. These leather-faced veterans retain much of the scrappiness that in the heyday of coaching made them the fighting cocks of the open road.

11 Freight Cars Derailed At Findley Station Main Toronto Line Blocked

Train Travels 10 Miles After Hitting Car Before Going Off Track, Police Find 2 Men Unconscious Near Ditch

KINGSTON, June 16—(CP)— Eleven derailed freight cars, scattered along the C.N.R. tracks at Findley Station, 16 miles north east of Kingston, blocked all traffic on the Toronto to Montreal main double track line early this morning. C.N.R. officials said they expected the first train would go through on the line shortly after noon today. Some re-routing was done during the night.

The derailment occurred about 1 a.m. after the train had wrecked a Model A Ford in which Lloyd Graham, 24, Kingston Mills, and Harold Chase, 27, R.R. 3, Joyceville, were riding, injuring both.

Both men are receiving treatment in the Kingston General Hospital. Graham suffered abrasions about the face and neck. Chase has fractures of the right arm and left leg. Both were conscious this morning.

Peculiar Accident

The derailment is one of the strangest in railroading history, because the train travelled nearly 10 miles from Rideau station, east of Kingston Mills, where it shattered the car, to a point east of Findley before the middle cars left the track. The derailment occurred when part of the auto wreckage fouled the wheels of one of the freight cars.

So badly wrecked was the car and so widely scattered its fragments that police had difficulty in reconstructing the accident. Both men were unconscious and could offer no explanation. Chase and Graham were taken to Kingston General Hospital in an ambulance.

When Provincial Constable Silas W. Moore and city constable Leo White arrived, Chase was lying on the matted wreckage of the car body. He was gashed deeply on the face and was bleeding profusely from his chest near the shoulder, observers said. Graham was huddled several yards away in a ditch between a fence and the railway track.

Before dawn, sectionmen began to converge on the derailment scene to put the track in operating condition. An auxiliary crew in a work train from Belleville, arrived about 8 a.m. today. Another was expected from Montreal during the day.

PREMIER BYRON JOHNSON'S coalition government swept the B.C. provincial election, Wednesday when they won 40 out of 48 seats. The CCF drive for power was smashed.

C.C.F. Loses Five Seats In Election

Johnson Party Takes 40 Of 48 Seats In Hard-Fought Drive

VANCOUVER, June 16 (CP)— A major CCF bid for power in British Columbia was shattered Wednesday as the Coalition Government—a fusion of Liberals and Progressive Conservatives—were wheeled into power for the third consecutive term— and with an increased majority in a record vote.

In an election described during the campaign as a battle between Socialism and free enterprise, the CCF Opposition of 11 in the last Legislature was cut to six.

Lone uncertain seat was Cranbrook where CCF candidate Leo Nimsick nursed a slim 54-vote lead over Clifford Swan who sought election on the Coalition ticket. Two polls of 19 remain unheard from.

Barring a reverse in Cranbrook this picture was assured, compared to the 1945 standing:

	1949	1945
Coalition	40	37
CCF	6	10
Labor	1	1
Independent	1	—
Total	48	48

The Coalition re-election was reported by The Canadian Press only 1 hour 20 minutes after the polls closed.

Repeat Performance

Premier Byron Johnson, repeating his 1945 performance, was elected first in the province in winning New Westminster while Finance Minister, Progressive Conservative Leader, Herbert Anscomb, swept Oak Bay soon afterward. The full Cabinet was returned excepting Agriculture Minister Frank Putnam who resigned prior to the election because of his age.

Only Lands Minister R. C. Macdonald appeared pressed as CCF Opposition William Hartley chased him hard to the finish.

CCF Leader Harold Winch and his 70-year-old father, E. F. Winch, were re-elected but the Party Whip, Herbert Gargrave went down to defeat.

Of the 14 women seeking election among the 138 candidates, only two were successful. Both Nancy Hodges in Victoria and Mrs. Tilly Rolston in Vancouver Point-Grey will sit again with the Coalition.

Neither the Social Credit Party with 16 candidates nor its offshoot, the Union of Electors with 12, elected a candidate.

The Coalition force, which broke down into 21 Liberals and 15 Progressive Conservatives at prorogation, stands now unofficially at 23 Liberals, 14 Conservatives and three straight Coalitionists with no previous party affiliation.

The elected Independent, James Mowatt, who failed to obtain the Coalition nomination in Alberni, sat as a Coalitionist in the last Legislature.

Premier Johnson's post-election comment bore out his five-week-long campaign in which he had stressed a claim that a Socialist government in control at this time would hinder a province facing tremendous expansion. He termed the victory "a great one for free enterprise," and was heartily seconded by Mr. Anscomb.

DUMMER BUSH FIRE, three miles east of Warsaw, of unknown origin, started Wednesday afternoon. About 100 men fought it, during the evening and 25 fighters are on hand today. It was estimated to be under control if the wind does not change in the slash-piled bush. —Examiner Staff Photo

Wets Short Few Votes In Havelock

Both Questions Fail To Secure Two-Third Vote Cast

HAVELOCK, June 16 (ENS) — Havelock failed to go wet by a narrow margin in a vote held Wednesday. Vote for a liquor store fell 26 short of the necessary 60 per cent and a vote for establishment of a beer warehouse was 33 votes less than the required percentage.

Of a possible vote of 760, 647 were cast. On both questions, the liquor store and the beer warehouse, the wets had a majority. The tally on the liquor store was 364 yes and 270 votes no. There were 357 votes in favor of the beer warehouse and 275 votes against it. Several ballots were spoiled.

As a result of the vote Havelock remains under the Ontario Temperance Act as it has been for the past 40 years.

Here are the results in detail:

Question: Are you in favor of the establishment of government stores for the sale of beer only for residents' consumption?

Advance Poll—yes 34, no 10.
East Ward, Poll I—yes 107, no 82; Poll II—yes 62, no 40.
West Ward, Poll I—yes 92, no 87; Poll II—yes 62, no 56.
Total—yes 357 and no 275.

Second Question: Are you in favor of the establishment of government stores for the sale of liquor?

Advance Poll—yes 35, no 9.
East Ward, Poll I—yes 116, no 73; Poll II—yes 58, no 44.
West Ward, Poll I—yes 94, no 86; Poll II—yes 61, no 58.
Total—yes 364 and no 270.

In both the advance polls and the regular polls the "wets" received a majority, but it fell short of the required 60 per cent.

Reserve Decision On Charges Against Premier

ST. JOHN'S Nfld., June 16 — (CP).— Magistrate Hugh O'Neill to-day reserved until an unspecified date his decision in the case of Premier Smallwood charged with using undue influence and intimidation of voters.

Four summonses were issued against the new province's Liberal Premier Tuesday at the request of W. J. Browne, a former District Court Judge who resigned to become Progressive Conservative candidate for the June 27 Federal election in St. John's West.

Magistrate O'Neill adjourned the hearing after listening to argument by counsel for the Premier and Mr. Browne.

Argument of counsel dealt largely with the extent to which Canadian laws apply now in the new province.

P. D. Lewis, acting for Mr. Smallwood, said the Canadian Criminal Code has not been proclaimed in Newfoundland and therefore there is no mechanism to enforce penalties under the Dominion Elections Act. The Act was proclaimed the day following Confederation, two and a half months ago.

Mr. Lewis said he wished to make it clear this argument was advanced solely from a legal point of view and that his client has no fear of inability to disprove the charges against him.

Isaac Mercer, chief counsel for Mr. Browne, said such a state of affairs would be "ridiculous." He cited a recent alimony case here in which Newfoundland's Mr. Justice Brian Dunfield ruled that "if there is a right there must be a remedy—if there is a law in a country there must be machinery to enforce it." The principles of law said that it must be "sensible" and have "effect."

He asked for a decision from the magistrate as soon as possible because 18 witnesses had left their homes to testify for the prosecution.

Fire Threatens Woodlands In Dummer Twp.

Fire raging through five acres of heavily wooded bush about three miles east of Warsaw was brought under control last night, but threatened to burst into flames any moment a good strong wind began.

At noon today, hot white ashes, coughing drifts of acrid smoke, lay waiting for a wind which would fan them into blazing life and send them raging through five miles of powder dry slash and undergrowth.

"We're praying for rain," one weary firefighter said. No one knows how the fire began but it was first discovered about 4 p.m. Wednesday afternoon. Soon, about 75 farmers from miles around were labouring with shovels and pails of water trying to check the blaze.

Water was brought in twenty-five and thirty gallon cans three miles away, In all the trucks made about 10 trips.

The fire was on the farm of Gerald Ivey, lot 12, between concessions four and five. Farms on all sides owned by Wm. Darling, Stuart Clysdale, Reg. Bolton and Alfred Little were threatened. The fire jumped the road and started at two points on Mr. Little's farm but it was soon discovered and put out.

A wind was blowing from the southeast and the fire was stopped to a large extent by swale along the west side. But the wind swirled about so much the flames got help in travelling against the

Belleville Girl Poisoned Dies On Day of Wedding

BELLEVILLE, June 16—Ptomaine poisoning, contracted through food eaten in a Toronto restaurant, is believed to have been the cause of death of Miss Myrtle Alberta Vermilyea, 26, in Belleville General Hospital Wednesday morning.

Doctors who attended her said Miss Vermilyea was never in a rational enough condition to indicate what or where she had eaten. She complained of feeling ill shortly after the meal and became progressively worse, and was rushed to hospital last Friday.

Wednesday, the day on which she was to have been married, her condition improved and there was hope for her recovery.

It has not been decided whether an inquest will be held. Indications were that authrities are satisfied cause of death has been established.

Kingston Union Ends Strike

KINGSTON, June 16 (CP) — The strike at the Kingston plant of the Aluminum Company of Canada is over, ended by a compromise on production workers' demands for higher wages and additional paid holidays.

Picket lines which had surrounded the plant since midnight Sunday were withdrawn Wednesday night after members of the United Steel Workers of America (CIO) voted to accept a company offer. The compromise was reached in conferences between representatives of the company and of the union.

More than 1,100 production workers struck to enforce demands for a 15-cent hourly increase to bring starting pay to 95 cents an hour, eight paid holidays in place of four a year and checkoff of union dues.

Agreement Terms

The compromise provides for a minimum wage of 90 cents an hour, six paid holidays a year and the dues checkoff. Other union demands concerning an increase in the shift bonus will be discussed later.

In addition to the production workers, 300 plant employees were made idle by the strike. They were members of the International Association of Machinists (AFL) who reported for work at regular shift hours but made no attempt to cross the CIO picket lines. Only 600 office workers and foremen, not involved in the strike, remained on the job.

Strikes Gunman Man 84 Beaten

OWEN SOUND, June 16 (CP)— Beaten over the head when he knocked a gun from the hand of a masked gunman in his home at Williamsford, 15 miles south of here, 84-year-old Thomas Moore was robbed of $68 from his pockets and was left unconscious by the gunman and his companion.

The holdup occurred early Wednesday morning but Provincial Police Corporal J. R. Brown and Constable John Barker, both of Owen Sound, kept it a secret until Thursday morning to facilitate their investigation.

They arrested Ernest Schopf, 21, and Gilbert Monk, 26, of nearby Sullivan and Holland Townships respectively, Wednesday night.

Nine stitches were required to close cuts in Moore's face after he regained consciousness and made his way across the street to a store where he telephoned police. Police said the robbers entered the home where the old man lives alone and demanded money. Moore, who walks with a heavy cane, struck the gun from one of them, believed to have been Monk.

The money was recovered.

Britain Heading For New Economic Crisis

LONDON, June 16 (CP)—The New York Times says today some of the best economic brains in Britain believe the country is heading for another economic crisis.

In a dispatch from Michael L. Hoffman, the newspaper says "deep pessimism in the current outlook" was reflected in Sir Stafford Cripps warnings to the Labor party conference that the "economic barometers are certainly not rising."

The Times quoted sources close to the Chancellor of the Exchequer.

"When Sir Stafford spoke he undoubtedly knew, though the public does not yet, that the figures showed changes in Britain's dollar and gold position during the second quarter of 1949 indicate a serious deterioration on this vital economic front," the Times says.

The Times says there is little disagreement that the cause of the impending crisis is that even with Marshall-Plan aid, Britain and the sterling area as a whole are not earning enough dollars to cover their dollar requirements at the current level of imports.

The paper adds:

"To an increasing extent, British economists believe the crisis will lead to an ultimate test of strength between the government and the trade unions, a foretaste of which is already given by the unrest among the railway and dock workers."

Big Four Begin Final Discussion

PARIS, June 16—(CP)—The Big Four Foreign Ministers this afternoon went into a closed meeting which is expected to be the last session of their Paris conference.

The western ministers expected to receive the Russian reply to their latest counter-proposals for a temporary east-west truce in Europe, which were put forward Wednesday.

Delegation circles said they believed the ministers will remain in session until they resolve their present differences.

British and French officials said they would make every effort to wind up their work by tonight, but American and Russian sources expressed doubt the talks would end before Saturday.

Britain, Tito Preparing 5-year Trade Pact

LONDON, June 16 ((P)—Britain is near agreement with Marshal Tito on a five-year trade pact Sir Charles Peake, British Ambassador to Belgrade, said today.

It has been estimated unofficially the pact would cover about £200,000,00 ($800,000,000) worth of goods.

Britain would give Tito, who is feuding with Russia and its satellite states, manufactured goods in exchange for timber, grain and food.

The 12-month pact calls for swapping of £15,000,000 ($60,000,000) of British machinery for a similar amount of Yugoslav raw materials and food.

Waitkus Reported A Little Improved

CHICAGO, June 16 ((P) — Eddie Waitkus, popular Philadelphia Phillies first baseman who was shot by a 19-year-old girl admirer, was reported "a bit improved" today.

The assailant who said she was secretly in love with him was summoned into Felony Court on a charge of assault with intent to murder the star player, who was shot near the heart by a .22-calibre rifle bullet.

Hospital authorities, who termed his condition "fair to poor" Wednesday, said this morning that he was better.

Think Communists Begin To Feel More On Defensive

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, June 16 (AP) —State Department officials today found evidence that even the Communists feel they now are on the defensive in the cold war in Europe.

The clue to what may be a radical turn in Communist leadership estimates of the east-west conflict came in a bulletin of the Communist International Information Bureau.

As reported from Bucharest where it is published, the Bulletin said it now is the "cardinal task" of Communists to block the spread of Americanism.

Officials here took an interested look at the defensive nature of this declaration. They said that this, coupled with the charge that the United States is trying to "poison" working classes with American ideas, indicates the Soviet-led Coninform is deeply concerned over the west's success to date in fighting Communism.

They speculated that this concern now dominates top Communist thinking in contrast with an earlier Communist preoccupation with expansion of their own power and influence. If this analysis is correct, it may mark a switch in Communist tactics in Europe—from primary emphasis on expansion westward to a new stress on holding the line in Eastern Europe.

This view of what the Communists themselves may believe is in accord with official American estimates of the cold war struggle. According to these, the next phase of the battle between western influences and Soviet Communism—apart from Germany—may well lie in Eastern Europe, with Yugoslavia providing the initial testing ground.

Alycidon Wins Ascot Cup Race

ASCOT, Berkshire, England, June 16 (AP) — Lord Derby's Alycidon today won the 2½ mile Ascot Gold Cop race, defeating the American-bred favorite, Black Tarquin, from the English stables of William Woodward.

Alycidon scored by five lengths over Black Tarquin, winner of the St. Leger Stakes last fall.

Heron Bridge, an Irish entry, finished third, 10 lengths behind Black Tarquin. The Irish horse started at 25 to 1.

Alycidon started as second second choice at 5 to 4. Black Tarquin was the favorite at 11 to 10.

The race was worth £10,540 ($42,160) and to the winner also went a £500 gold cup.

Bomber Pilot Kills 128 Million Of Enemy

WORLAND, Wyo., June 16 (AP) —Affable Archie Geiser, who rassled a lot of C-54 transports over the hump during the war, went on a bombing mission and killed 128,000,000 of the enemy.

His victims were grasshoppers. His bomb load was 7,350 pounds of poison bran. In 25 minutes over the target area he wiped out enough of the vicious insects to reach end-to-end from New York to Los Angeles.

This happened on a single flight Wednesday. Archie is making about eight a day and will continue this schedule for 30 days.

Geiser pilots a C-47 which is the spearhead in the government's air war to head off a new grasshopper invasion of the grain belt. About 25 other smaller planes are being used.

The 128,000,000 is a theoretical but conservative figure. Ground investigations after previous flights have shown a kill of 90 to 95 per cent of the hoppers in the area pelted with poison.

Crew Takes To Dories After Race With Fire

MONHEGAN ISLAND, Me., June 16 (AP)—The charred hull of the Gloucester, Mass., dragger St. Christopher today lay on a bleak head-land here.

Owner-captain Philip Filetto beached his craft Wednesday night after a desperate, 30-mile race with the flames. He and his seven crew members escaped in dories. The Coast Guard said the dragger would be a total loss. Filetto said the craft was worth $75,000 to $80,000.

Diplomat Fails To Impress Port Credit Police Chief

TORONTO, June 16 (CP) — Police Chief Joe Nelson of suburban Port Credit today stood firm in his determination to prosecute Caio de Lima Cavacanti, commercial counsellor of the Brazilian Ambassador at Ottawa, on a charge of speeding.

The case, which has developed into a legal tangle, is scheduled to come before the court in two weeks unless the magistrate rules Cavacanti is exempt through his diplomatic standing.

Chief Nelson recently refused a request from the External Affairs Department that the charge be dropped on the ground that the commercial counsellor is entitled to "diplomatic immunity."

"The department will have to cite some authority before the court if they want the benefit of this special claim," the police official said today.

Cavacanti is charged with speeding through a Port Credit school area as a "clocked time" of 42 miles an hour over a "measured distance" of one-tenth of a mile.

Meanwhile, a prominent Toronto lawyer, R. A. Reid, said today he believes immunity of an ambassador from the local criminal jurisdiction is recognized universally by all sovereign states as a branch of international law. However, he qualified his statement by saying that diplomats are expected to observe rules and regulations of the country and can be made answerable if the nature of their offence is "very grave."

Staid Bath Clubbers Fear Bad Reputation

OXFORD, England, June 16 — (CP). — At Oxford University, there is a bath club for the "wild types" and a bath club for the serious-minded. And it is all quite confusing.

Members of the newly-formed bath club—a conservative society —are wondering if they will be mistaken for members of a very different bath club that already exists at Oxford.

The original bath club, formed before the war, is for men who have had a bath in one of the women's colleges.

"It is an act requiring great fortitude," one member solemnly said. "Those who qualify are awarded the club colors—a dark tie embroidered with silver taps.

It's tricky enough to sneak into a girls' [illegible] and slip into a bath when no one is looking. Slipping out again is even trickier.

Liberals Pledge Continued Farm Stability

By The Canadian Press.

Two diversified subjects—agriculture and television — headlined the general election campaign Wednesday night.

Prime Minister St. Laurent, touring Eastern Ontario's farming communities, promised that floor prices enacted by the Liberals will ensure that "never again will farm products be given away for ridiculously low prices."

CCF Leader M. J. Coldwell, moving into wheat and hog-producing Alberta, charged that the Liberal Government has moved agriculture back into the era of "uncontrolled markets and prices, on which speculators thrive, farmers go broke, and the consumers starve."

Television was injected into the campaign by George Drew, Progressive Conservative Leader, who suggested at London, that private interests be allowed to give the Canadian people television if they want to do so. At present, it is to be developed only by the CBC.

Farm Stability

At Pembroke Prime Minister St. Laurent argued that Liberal policies have given Canadian agriculture an unprecedented stability and promise permanent assurance of a "decent standard of living" for the farmer.

In the armory at Renfrew, he said floor-prices legislation already enacted will prevent any return to depression conditions which reduced agricultural products prices to "ridiculous" levels. Here, he made agriculture a central theme of his third address of the day and maintained that government action has "prevented a collapse in farm prosperity such as was experienced after the First World War."

Mr. St. Laurent said wartime subsidies and other stabilization measures brought farmers out of the war in a better position than ever before. Net farm income in Ontario jumped more than three times between 1938 and 1948.

Since the war, Canada had extended credits to her traditional but war-torn customers, negotiated food contracts with Britain and kept in effect the agricultural prices support act, a statute of "tremendous advantage" to the farmer.

Would Abolish Fee

Mr. Drew said that if private interests want to give Canadians television they should be allowed to do so. They would be able to provide television without costs to the taxpayer.

He criticized the present policy under which the government insisted that the CBC develop it at the taxpayers' expense.

He reiterated taht a Progressive Conservative government would abolish the $2.50 radio licence fee and establish an independent body to supervise radio in Canada.

Earlier, at Galt, Mr. Drew proposed that taxes be reduced to the amount actually needed to cover governmental expenditure and accused the Liberal administration of over-taxing the people to the extent of $1,500,000,000 in the last three years.

Untold Harm

The Liberal government has done "untold harm" to the agricultural industry and has made export marketing much more difficult for the future, Mr. Coldwell said.

Only a planned and stabilized organizations, "can enjoy a con- by the CCF party and by farm organizations, "ca nenjoy a continuously high level of exports."

The administration had destroyed Canada's export market for bacon. For many Canadian farmers, hog production had become a doubtful proposition because the government had so completely abandoned its wartime policies of the "stabilization of agriculture."

The heavy drop in the exports of bacon and hams this year was not due to lack of markets.

In the first three months of 1949, Canada sent to Britain fewer than 14,000,000 pounds of bacon, though the contract for the full year called for the Dominion to supply 160,000,000 pounds.

Slightly Firmer Trend On Toronto Exchange

TORONTO, June 16 (CP) — A slightly firmer trend continued here today in slow trading. Early gains were the best in industrials with many advances pared as the session progressed. Gold edged ahead slowly while base metals weakened from early strength.

Papers led the upturn in the dustrials as gains ranged from fractions to more than a point. Abitibi was strong following announcement that the company would redeem the prior preferred stock on Aug. 1. Several steels continued Wednesday's gains.

Utilities and refining oils brightened. Many gains were whittled down as trading slackened.

Small advances continued to appear in the recovering base metal list. Some mid-session selling pulled several issues into the minus column.

Senior golds added fractions and junior producers showed gains ranging up to 20 cents. Advances widened out as the session progressed.

Still No Rain Predicted To Ease Drought

TORONTO, June 16 (CP) — Southern Ontarios' parched farm and pasture land still is in dire need of a heavy rainfall today.

Only relief predicted by weather officials today was in cooler air settling over the province. But the much-needed rain still is not in sight.

Wednesday night forecasts called for scattered thundershowers throughout the province, as far east as Kingston to Windsor in the west. Temperatures were expected to slip another 10 degrees—to about 76 degrees—to alleviate the five-day heat wave in the southern section.

Although the light rains have helped many crops, it came too late to save the hay and strawberry harvest. Almost total ruin of the strawberry crop is reported by agricultural officials and 75 per cent decrease in the yield of hay.

Hardest hit by the drought, considered the worst in Ontario's history, is the Hamilton area where the latest rain reported was 24 days ago. Total rainfall there since April 15 was 1.85 inches.

Goderich Lucky

In the Huron County town of Goderich, considerable rain fell Wednesday forcing cancellation of the 77th annual field day. But farmers didn't mind. They just grinned and ran for cover under the grandstand.

In Kent county a record strawberry crop is being harvested, officials said, while Niagara Peninsula farmers are preparing for a good cherry crop.

Conditions are worst in Central Ontario, however. In Bradford, early lettuce crops have been all but destroyed by the drought, while frost has been equally damaging. Although a shortage is predicted in the lettuce crop, farmers report the quality will be the same as in previous years.

Allow Deduction Of Union Dues

OTTAWA, June 16 (CP)—Mr. Justice E. R. Angers of the Exchequer Court ruled Wednesday that Joseph Cooper, a Winnipeg movie projectionist, may deduct his 1945 union dues from his income tax for that year.

Cooper claimed it was necessary for him to pay the $35 union dues before he could work as a projectionist. The decision followed a similar ruling by Mr. Justice J. T. Thorson, president of the court, several years ago that fees paid by lawyers in a law society were deductible from income tax.

But income tax officials expect few persons to be affected by the judgment. An amendment to the Income Tax Act passed in 1948 eliminated such deductions and tax now must be paid on the individual's entire income.

The case came before the exchequer court after Mr. Cooper appealed the disallowance of the deduction by the Income Tax Department, claiming the dues as expenditures for the purpose of earning his income.

Lodge Owner Gets 3 Sentences

BARRIE, June 16 (CP)—Gordon Barrett, owner of a summer lodge at nearby Wasaga Beach where police found an estimated $300,000 worth of stolen goods, today pleaded guilty to three more charges of receiving stolen property. He was sentenced to three terms of two years each, to run concurrently with a previous four-year sentence.

In all, Barrett has been convicted to a total of 35 charges of receiving and received a total sentence of 81 years. However, he will actually serve only a four-year term since all the sentences are concurrent.

Injunction Granted Against Factory

TORONTO, June 16 (CP) — An injunction was granted Wednesday effective Nov. 1 restraining McKinnon Industries Limited of St. Catharines, from discharging into the air any matter that would cause annoyance or damage to William W. Walker of the same city until further order of the court.

Walker, a horticulturist, is suing the firm for damages alleged to have been caused by emission of smoke, noxious fumes and gases from its plant which manufactures steel and iron products.

Chief Justice J. C. McRuer issued the injunction and referred the suit to the County Judge of Lincoln County to ascertain and assess damages from 1945 to Nov. 1.

King's Own Class Hostesses At Outdoor Tea

Lawn tea guests of the King's Own Bible Class Wednesday were indeed fortunate that their hostess was Mrs. W. K. Sloane, for grounds around her home at 81 Crescent St. are ideally situated for a hot weather event.

Breezes from a westerly direction fanned those who chose tables at the rear of the house, and ladies sitting on the eastern side breahed air that had been cooled many degrees in coming across Little Lake.

In fact, the wind played havoc with some arrangements and beautiful flowers that had been gathered for the tea table had to be laid aside in favor of short-stemmed lupines and peonies. Small tables placed under the trees with background of shrubbery had to have the pretty covers pinned on.

Mrs. G. Pearson, class president, and Mrs. Sloane greeted the guests as they arrived and Mrs. G. Harris entered their names in a guest register. The attendance was augmented by friends now living in other parts of the city who like to keep up their connection with the Class.

Mrs. F. W. Craik and Mrs. H. F. Doig were presiding at the tea table. The refreshments were served by Mrs. Eric Hunter, Mrs. J. Herr, Mrs. Wm. Carter, Mrs. J. Finnie, Mrs. C. Murduff, Mrs. R. Hocking and Mrs. L. Gibson. Mrs. L. Bristow, Mrs. W. F. Stanbury, Mrs. B. W. Pitchford, Mrs. H. Ball and Mrs. A. W. Clark were keeping plates and teapots filled. Mrs. R. J. Burnside, general convener of the tea was in charge.

Will Not Be Freed

VIENNA, June 16 (AP) — Theodore Cardinal Innitzer, Archbishop of Vienna, on Wednesday termed "completely without foundation" reports that Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty is slated for release from imprisonment in Hungary. The published reports quoted Roman Catholic sources here as saying the Communist-led Hungarian regime is willing to release Cardinal Mindszenty or permit him to be an exile in the west.

general direction of the wind. Not until the flames had died down with the wind about nine p.m., were the firefighters able to get close enough to clear back the slash which had been lying there about five years.

By one a.m. the firefighters decided it would be safe enough to leave the fire while they got some sleep. But first thing this morning about 25 were back to be ready for any rise in the wind which would send the flames soaring again.

Men will have to be posted at least for another week to watch for any outbreaks. Farmers say the fire will be smoldering all summer underground in the roots and stumps.

The cedar trees which are still standing have been killed and are liable to fall at any time. A few white birches and elm were included in the area. The piles of slash were mostly pine and spruce.

COMMON SENSE ABOUT COMMUNISM

DIT CLAPPER

The Conservative party seems to be all stewed up about Communism. Well, Communism is a serious thing, it's true. But Mr. Drew's plan seems to be to chase the Communists with a butterfly net. I know a better way to keep Communism out of Canada.

My way is to give every boy and girl in the country a square deal — Family Allowances to help with food, clothes and medical care and the program of the Department of Health and Welfare to give Canada's young people every chance to enjoy sports and intelligent recreation. The Liberal party has the best plans for helping the young people of the country, and that's the first reason why I am a Liberal.

The greatest interest in my life is young people. I'm in politics for them. A vote for me on June 27 is a vote for the best youth program this country has ever had.

Theatre Group Preparing Fortune My Foe

With the opening date of the first production of the Peterborough Summer Theatre on June 25, the work of transforming the stage of Queen Mary school into an adequate professional stage has already begun.

About a dozen young people are crawling through the ropes on, above, and under the stage wielding paint brushes, hammers and any other tool which might come in handy. But missing from this group are the actors. The reason is not, as might be thought, that they are trying to avoid hard work. They are in Toronto hard at it. This morning, the first play of the season, Fortune My Foe, went into rehearsal. This play written by Robertson Davies, is being directed by the author himself for its first Peterborough showing.

Cast in one of the leading roles is Robert Christie, well-known Canadian actor in stage and radio plays. When Mr. Davies wrote the play, one part was devised especially for Mr. Christie, but this will be his first chance to play the role. He was unable to take it last summer in Kingston when Fortune My Foe had its first professional production.

The other leading part will be brought to life by Michael Lynd, a young English actor who has appeared in the last three of Sir Laurence Olivier's productions for the Old Vic company. His latest part was that of the newspaperman in Born Yesterday.

Cast in other leading parts in the production are Wm. Needles and Anna Cameron of Toronto, John Primm of Montreal and Brenda Davies, Peterborough.

After the initial Toronto rehearsals, the entire cast will come to Peterborough, June 22, for final rehearsals on the Queen Mary auditorium stage.

Burial was in Little Lake Cemetery.

Mrs. Carr was born in Douro Township 45 years ago, daughter of Joseph Moher and Julia Dwyer, and has lived in the city for the past 29 years. She is survived by her husband, Vergil, second assistant chief of the Peterborough fire department; three brothers, Harold, Harry and Joseph Moher, and two sisters, the Misses Bessie and Beatrice Moher, all of the city.

Following this, everyone enjoyed round and square dancnig.

Lunch was served by a committee of women including Mrs. R. Whalon, Mrs. Floyd Curtis, Mrs. Tinney and Mrs. Tom McQuigge. Decorations were by the same committee.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of an engraved silver cup to Mr. Earl A. Schwanz, winner of the bowling tournament.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Fraser, Ald. and Mrs. Hurrell Dodds, Mr. and Mrs. Sim Gledhill, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Pritchard.

Her husband, Nathan McIlmoyle predeceased her several years ago. She leaves to mourn two daughters and one son, Mrs. M. Godfrey, Peterborough; Mrs. Alex Downey, Toronto; and Wm. John of Peterborough. A sister Mrs. Carey Downer and a brother Charles Clark also survive. Ven. Archdeacon C. W. Balfour of St. John's Anglican Church officiated at the services.

Does No One Swim Before July 1st?

If we judge only from the provisions made at city beaches, summer does not come officially until July 1st. On July 1st two qualified lifeguards, various swimming instructors and a dozen helpers will be on duty at Inverlea Park and Riverside Park beaches. They will begin their summer supervision and instruction then. That is the schedule; they will be on duty whether the river freezes over and the grass is covered with snow on July 1st. In mid-June, however, even if the thermometer is in the 80's, even if most of the Collegiate pupils are out of school, even if a thousand youngsters troop to the riverside for a swim after four o'clock, there is no supervision at the swimming places.

* * *

There have been a few deviations from schedule, or the schedule has made some provision for hot weather and swimmers seeking cool water in June. One life-guard has been on duty at Inverlea since last Saturday, during the day but not in the evenings. The protective booms have been put in place and, wonderful to relate, the dressing house was opened on Monday. Last Saturday and Sunday, and in the preceding hot fortnight, people undressed behind bushes if they could find bushes; if not, they undressed behind a blade of gress.

* * *

We are not perturbed about the dressers; we are alarmed about the lack of supervision in June. If some child had drowned this month at Inverlea or Riverside Park, would the Recreation Commission, the Parks Committee, or the City Council have been entirely blameless? There is no use in saying: "The beaches are not open until July 1st". Adults as well as children will swim whether or not the season has officially been recognized. As a matter of fact, the beaches have not been declared out-of-bounds. Even had they been, more men would have been required to enforce the rule than to guard the swimmers.

* * *

There should be adequate supervision of the public beaches now. The dressing houses should have been opened weeks ago. In this matter of swimming the plans should keep up with the season, for certainly the season does not time its arrival to suit the planners. There has obviously been very bad timing on the part of officials, if not gross mismanagement. Who is to blame—the Recreation Commission, the Parks Committee or the City Council?

The Curious Case Of The Black Basso

Now and then, when we have five minutes which we can spend in an easy chair, pretending to be a great detective or a great psychiatrist, we ponder on the strange case of Paul Robeson. Mr. Robeson has one of the world's great bass voices, and he has had a great career as a concert singer; he has also made a lesser, but still enviable, name for himself as an actor; he and his wife have likewise done a good deal to reduce the prejudice which exists in some parts of the world against Negroes—a work in which Roland Hayes, Marion Anderson, Portia White, Dorothy Maynor and Todd Duncan have also assisted with conspicuous success. But whereas these fine artists seem well pleased with their work, Mr. Robeson seems to be disgruntled. His discontent shows itself in a constant flirting with communism and kindred subversive doctrines, which he drags into his concerts.

At present Mr. Robeson is in Russia. At his first concert in Moscow he sang a tendentious song called Scandalize My Name, which he announced was dedicated to "the so-called free Western Press". Apparently whatever it is which is griping Mr. Robeson is more troublesome than ever.

Yet when has the press of the Western world ever denied Mr. Robeson his full desert as an artist? And did it not, for as long as possible, close its eyes to his provocative and coat-dragging behaviour in his concerts? It looks to us as though the press of the Western World had done rather well by Mr. Robeson.

Mr. Robeson, like all Negroes, meets with special difficulties in the western world. But he is himself a proof that those difficulties can be overcome by men of ability. We wish that it were possible to ask him if he thinks that a man of superior abilities but of unpopular race could rise so high in the U.S.S.R.? Or if a singer who was an avowed capitalist would have lasted so long in the U.S.S.R. as he has done in the western world? His answer might do something to dissolve the dense cloud of mystery and unreason which surrounds his doings of the last ten years.

Growling At Gallup

The "Canadian Institute of Public Opinion", otherwise known as the Canadian branch of the Gallup Poll, continues like the parent American poll to make predictions. It has suffered some of the disparagement given Dr. Gallup's American pollsters when they unequivocally predicted a Dewey victory over Truman in the last Presidential elections. So the pollsters now equivocate. This prefatory remark headed the report on the most recent poll of Canadian voters' opinion:

NOTE: The following should be read against the background of these cautionary facts. First, the percentages are in terms of popular vote, NOT seats; second, they represent attitudes a full month before the election, and opinion can fluctuate sharply in the closing days of the campaign. Third, they are subject to normal sampling errors. In the 1945 election, Institute's final prediction differed from the actual vote by an average of 2.1 percentage points.

Then followed an analysis which seems to have got Mr. Drew's goat. The Institute's pollsters have determined that since January public sentiment favouring the Liberals has gone up from 31 per cent to 40 per cent, and sentiment favouring the Conservatives has gone down one per cent from 25 to 24. Mr. Drew told Carleton County Conservatives on Monday that he would appoint, if elected, a parliamentary committee to investigate Gallup Poll methods. Does Mr. Drew feel that the pollsters are crooked, and in the pay of some political party other than the Conservative? Or does he merely fear the predictions, as if they were a witch's brew?

Why should he fear the predictions? Did President Truman fear, when the Gallup people found for Mr. Dewey and lost? Judging from last autumn's American election forecasts, Mr. Drew should be very happy that the Gallup poll now points to a Liberal victory. And surely Mr. Drew, a man acquainted, with business, could not believe that the pollsters would deliberately cook their figures? They will do their utmost this time to make their predictions accurate; that is the only way they can avoid cooking their own goose.

Perhaps the Drew growls at Gallup were the result of heat and not of peevishness at pollsters.

Magnificent Grounding

It was hardly a magnificent achievement for Canada's largest warship and our only capital ship, the Magnificent, to have run aground fifty yards from land in daylight. Canadians will be relieved that an official inquiry will be held. Perhaps it will relieve the humiliation. Grounding a ship in unfamiliar waters in war-time under battle conditions was a risk that sometimes had to be run. Conditions on the Saturday evening off Halifax were different. There may be some very good reasons for the grounding, discreditable neither to the Canadian navy nor to the ship and its staff. The inquiry should reveal it.

Since 1945 our enlarged peace-time navy has had several unfortunate mishaps and there have been rumblings that all is not as well as it could be on ships or at naval headquarters. Has the time come for a thorough housecleaning, from the top down? Is the navy barnacle-clogged? Is anyone climbing to preference merely on name and seniority?

NOTE AND COMMENT

A Hollywood actor complains that at his recent wedding his wife got all the publicity. His turn will come with the divorce.

An Indianapolis undertaker recently inherited a Scottish castle and a title, but passed up his right to both. We understand that he fears if he gives up his work he may find things a bit dead.

We read with dismay that dustless anthracite is now being sprayed with something which gives it the fragrance of violets. In future we'll put on our garden hat before going down to stoke the cellar monster.

Problems of Italy's Former Colonies

By WICKHAM STEED

FEW tougher questions have come before the Assembly of the United Nations than that of the treatment of Italy's former colonies. It is not a question to be settled in the light of past history alone. Nor can it be decided solely in accordance with the alleged but problematical wishes of the inhabitants, be they Somalis, Eritreans or Arabs. The Allies—mainly British and Commonwealth troops—in the war of 1939-45 who conquered Italian Somaliland, Eritrea, Cyrenaica and Tripolitania and helped the Emperor of Abyssinia to regain his country and his throne, have a special right to be hedrd. But has post-Fascist Italy, now a signatory of the Atlantic Pact and an important member of a Western European Union, no claim to argue that the sins of Mussolini and his Black Shirts ought not in equity to be visited upon her? Can she not make out a plausible case in favour of the assignment to her, as a trustee for the United Nations, of some portions of her pre-Fascist colonial empire?

❖ ❖ ❖

NOR are these the only considerations. The world is not yet so peaceful that the strategy of eventual defence against an aggressive war can be entirely ignored. Were it not so the Alantic Pact would hardly have come into being. Now, control of Tripolitania and Cyrenaica might conceivably become a factor in the defensive strategy of Western Europe and the Middle East; and Britain, in particular, is bound by a formal undertaking to the Senussi Arabs of Cyrenaica that they shall not again be subjected to Italian rule. On the whole and with the history of Italian colonial enterprise present in my mind, I find it difficult to adopt any hard and fast principle as a guide to a decision.

❖ ❖ ❖

ROUGHLY, the settlement most favoured in London would return Italian Somaliland to Italian trusteeship; it would link all Eritrea except the Western Province with Abyssinia; it would give Britain trusteeship of Cyrenaica and the disposal of Tripolitania would be left on one side, for the time being, for further consideration. I do not think that inhabitants of any of these regions will be fit for 'independence' within a calculable future, strongly though I feel that their welfare must be the first consideration in any system of Government that may be devised for them.

❖ ❖ ❖

ITALIAN Somaliland was, I believe, administered quite as well as were British and French Somaliland between 1905 and 1940. There is no reason to suppose that an Italian trusteeship would be unwelcome to the inhabitants. In Cyrenaica and to a lesser extent in Tripolitania, Italian rule became detestable, especially under the lieutenants of Mussolini. It was in Cyrenaica that the "Butcher" Graziani earned his name by sending Senussi chieftains up in aeroplanes and casting them out over their villages. Such memories live long in Arab minds; and Britain is under a moral bond not to permit the return of Italian rule in any shape or form. In Tripolitania the position may be different, although the persistence there of Fascist tendencies among the Italian settlers renders some caution expedient even in regard to the assignment to Italy of a share in an international trusteeship.

❖ ❖ ❖

NO MAN with a knowledge of modern European history can suppose that any allocation of former Italian territories will be regarded by Italy without heart-burnings. Ever since her unification in 1870, Italy has aspired to colonial possessions. Until 1881 she looked upon Tunisia as her predestined inheritance. The French, prompted by Bismarck who wished to estrange Italy from France, took it instead. Italian resentment drove Italy a year later into an anti-French alliance with Austria and Germany. France took her revenge by helping Abyssinia to defeat Italy in 1896.

❖ ❖ ❖

ITALIAN hopes then centred on the Turkish province of Tripoli and Cyrenaica. An opportunity to seize them was found or created in September, 1911, lest Germany contrive to get hold of them. The Italo-Turkish war of 1911-12 ensue. The Balkan States took advantage of it to ally themselves against the Turks whom they defeated severely in the first Balkan war of 1912. Out of the Austrian alarm at the Serbian victory over Turkey in that war, and over Bulgaria in the second Balkan war of 1913, grew the resolve of Austria to crush Serbia at all costs in 1914. Thus the Italian seizure of Tripoli was among the indirect causes of the first world war.

❖ ❖ ❖

THE Italian desire for colonies was not inspired solely by "imperialism". It sprang also from the search for a solution of Italy's gravest problem—how to find room for the increasing surplus of her population. Only a partial solution was found. Then, Mussolini aimed at the creation of a new "Roman Empire" by the conquest of Tunisia and Egypt in addition to Abyssinia. This megalomaniac dream cost Italy all her colonies. But the fundamental Italian problem remains. Drastic land reform in Italy may help to solve it in time. Yet it is a problem to which the United Nations should pay some heed during debates on the future of former Italian colonies.

Disappearance Of The Plow

Turning the soil with a team and walking plow is an art, almost a lost art. Two or three generations ago it was the key to farming, and a man was judged by the straightness of his furrow, the smoothness of the plowed ground and the thoroughness with which the stubble was covered. The annual plowing match was the year's greatest festive occasion, on a par with today's community baseball tournament or stampede.

Then the sulky and gang plows came along and the farmer rode instead of walked. Tractors supplanted horses, and no one was on the plow at all. Now the one-way disc has supplanted the plow almost 100 per cent., and except for breaking sod the plow is an obsolete implement. In fact it is hard to find one anywhere in most prairie communities.

NEW LAND LORD

Letter To The Editor

ODE TO THE OTONABEE

Sir:
Poling down the river,
On a summer afternoon
You can always tell, by the awful smell
You'll be in South City soon.

❖ ❖ ❖

It's like an open sewer
It almost makes me swoon,
Poling down the river on a summer afternoon.
The city fathers never think
Of cleaning up the creek,
I'd like to make them walk the plank
And wallow in the reek.
We hear a lot of prattle
About another park
They could fertilize a thousand
If you scraped my plimsoll mark.

Yours,
G. A. B.

SEWAGE IN HOT WEATHER

Sir: May I follow up, what the excellent cartoon in Monday's issue of the Examiner so ably expressed and voice my own and my neighbours deep concern about the situation regarding the sewage disposal.

During the hot weather it is impossible for us to have our windows open because of the unholy perfume emanating from the plant. We are a community mostly of young people with young families and it is causing deep concern among us.

There is a deep conviction that the plant is not and hasn't been, for some time back, adequate, to carry the load of a growing city such as we have.

It is rapidly becoming a menace to ourselves and our children. Having lived in the south-end all my life I can reasonably say that twenty-five years ago when we were a much smaller community than we are now the condition was the same and with the growing population it certainly hasn't improved.

Because we believe in Peterborough as a place to live in and rear our young families we would like to see some immediate action taken to improve this horrible condition.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Henwood, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. A. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. W. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. A. Howarth, Harold McLarnon, Mr. and Mrs. F. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. L. Monk, Mr. and Mrs. C. Porter

COMPLAINS OF WORKING WOMEN

Sir: I would like to make a few comments on the labour situation in Peterborough at the present.

I work in a large district plant and am seeing girls coming and going from our service. Those that are going are single girls and the married women are leaving their homes to work for that almighty dollar.

They are not only causing unemployment of single girls who need help; but needless to say are causing trouble and letting their houses go filthy. Are our men allowing such or do they like eating out of a can and living for the day when he can come home to a badly needed vitamin dinner?

You will notice yourself, married men walking the streets now and more to come.

We have a Minister of Labour; isn't he doing his job.

The good parents who have sent their children to school and paid for it will soon see that there will be no jobs available for them as married women are grabbing for every cent they can take. I am sure that if married women would serve the purpose that God made them for; most of our unemployment would be settled to a great extent.

J. C.

50,000 Tractors In Alberta

The tractor has changed the face of the countryside in many respects, and it has changed the tempo of farm work so that one man can do the work of two or three.

Here in Alberta, for instance, we have some 89,000 farms, down about 6,000 from the peak number some 15 years ago. On those farms there are today 50,000 tractors at work. With less farmers and more tractors our production is higher on the average than ever it was when horses were the chief source of power.

It is said that, now that power implements have taken over across Canada, the machinery on farms runs up to a bill around $700,000,000. Farming is still the largest single industry in Canada.—Lethbridge Herald.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee. (Jer. 31: 3.)

❖ ❖ ❖

This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot, do the things that ye would. (Gal. 5: 16, 17.)

❖ ❖ ❖

I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me. For I delight in the law of God after the inward man: but I see another law in my members, warning against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. (Rom. 7: 21-23.)

❖ ❖ ❖

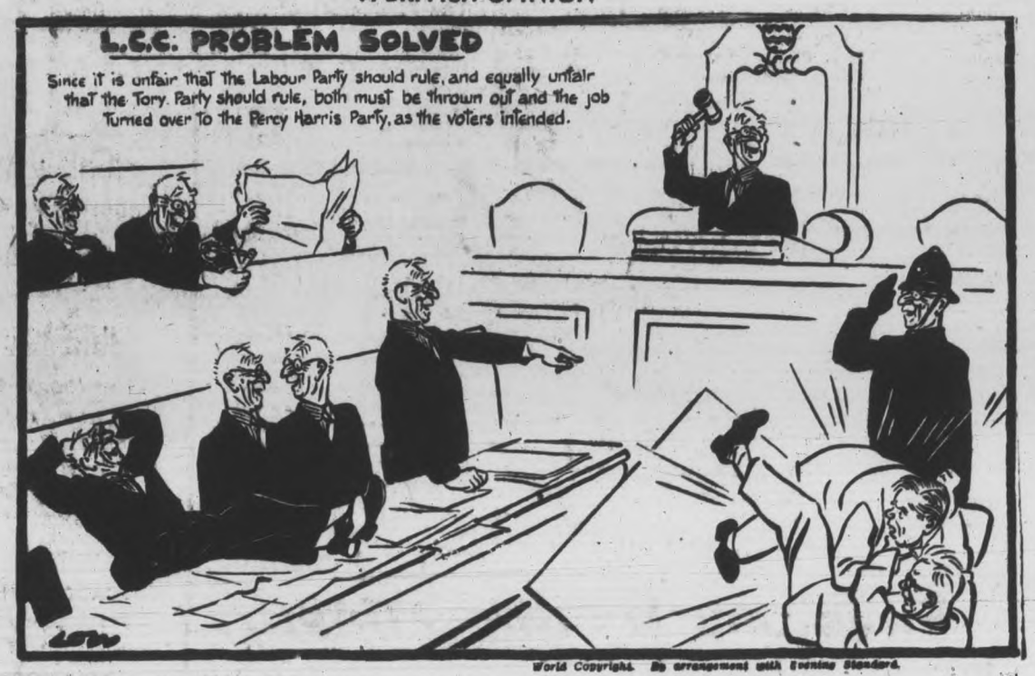
Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you.

Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness. (Rom. 6: 16-18.)

Sentenced To Be Hanged

A 16-year-old farm boy in Alberta has been convicted of the brutal murder of his employer's wife and has been sentenced to be hanged. The Calgary Albertan says to carry out the sentence would be "a revolting act of barbarism", calls the mere fact of his sentence "a serious defect in the Canadian Criminal Code".

It will be surprising if in this case the law is permitted to take its course. Almost certainly mercy will be shown, and the sentence commuted to life imprisonment.



Hanging of anybody, as the Albertan remarks, "is a terrible thing"—but so is murder. That newspaper sets out various reasons why this young murderer should not be hanged—too young to vote, forbiden by law to buy or consume liquor, just a year beyond the compulsory school age, and so on—but it has not a word of sympathy for the woman who was killed, or for her family.

That is too often the case. Humanitarians shed tears for the poor misguided criminal and want him given another chance; they blame Society for his misdeeds, claim his environment was bad, his early training neglected, or his community didn't provide him with adequate organized recreation. But the innocent victim of his crime usually is overlooked when sympathy is being handed out. That victim, when murder is done, is dead and buried.

That Alberta farm-wife wanted to live, too!

The accused—George Smyth, 24, John Graham, 22, and Russell Parker, 22—are charged with robbing Bernard Hart of Farran's Point Ont., of $825 and attempting to extort an additional $1,875 by threatening to involve him in divorce proceedings against Smyth's estranged wife, Marjory.

Hart testified the three men walked into a Montreal hotel room armed with a revolver and a blackjack. He said they took him to Cornwall where he turned over the money to Smyth.

The three men were arrested near Morrisburg Jan. 6.

Hungry For Green Fields Of Native England Tired Woman Of 90 Heading Home To Die

NEW YORK, June 16 (AP) — A tired old woman, her aged heart hungry for the green fields of her native England, has given up trying to be an American. Today she heads back across the sea to die.

"I'm going back to England to finish my life," 90 year old Mrs. Eliza Slack said Wednesday night. "I came here to finish it, but I have become too homesick."

Mrs. Slack came here Christmas Day, 1947, to spend the rest of her days with a son in Minneapolis, Archibald Slack, 53. She had not seen him in 42 years.

"My son and daughter-in-law did their best to make me happy, but they couldn't succeed," she said. 'My son loves it here, but for me to change countries after 89 years is too much.

"I like America. The people are very kind and hospitable and I am charmed with them.

"But this old woman will not be happy until she gets home."

Her home is at Leigh-on-Sea, Essex.

Howe Prepares Drew Answer

ESTEVAN, Sask., June 16 (CP) —Trade Minister Howe said Wednesday that charges made against the Canadair Company by Progressive Conservative Leader George Drew "will be answered when I get back to the head of the lakes next week."

Addressing a political rally, he said charges made earlier by Mr. Drew were without foundation and added, "the sale of Canada's is a transaction I would be happy to have investigated by any tribunal or Royal Commission."

Reviewing Canada's trade position, he said the Dominion is on "the oasis of prosperity in a very troubled world."

"I don't know of any country in the world that has been able to expand its production and add to it as had Canada."

Exports last year were the greatest in history. Prairie output has been sold for this year, as well as pork products, eggs and cheese, lumber and "all the salmon we expect to produce," in addition to all surplus tobacco."

He will be taken to Hull today where Crown Attorney Avila Labelle will decide if any charges will be laid.

Petes Beat St. Catharines By 11-10 In Senior Fray

Edging out St. Catharines Athletics here last night 11-10, the Petes hung up their first home OLA senior "A" victory of the season, and their second win since stepping up. A fair-sized crowd at Miller Bowl saw a tight tussle, with the Creighton crew having a good margin on play the first half, fade in the third, and then hang on grimly in the final 15 minutes for the close triumph.

Plenty of slashing was seen in spots as each side tried hard for the win and the referees were a bit lenient. The score was 4-2 the first quarter for the Petes and 10-4 for them at the half. Athletics came on then to tally four without a return in the third and they had a 2-1 margin in the fourth but couldn't quite tie it up. The win still leaves the Petes in bottom spot with St. Catharines still in the fifth slot.

Added Help

Bolstered by Goalie Whitney Frick of St. Catharines and Wendell Lewis of Hamilton—along with other 1949 additions like Les Digby, Jim McNulty, Leo Teatero and Jack Howse — the Armstrong outfit turned it on to really dominate play for two quarters. But Athletics fought back hard the last half to make it too close for comfort. They were led by Croft with three goals, and Hildebrand, Don Frick and Macdonald with two each, as D'Amico got the other.

With the assists well scattered around, Leo Teatero, Les Digby, Jack Howse and Jim McNulty led the local attack with two markers each, as Dootch Vitarelli, Em Creighton and Jack Foote got one apiece. McNulty scored the smartest goal of the night. Whitey Frick stood out in goal in a fine effort. The whole team turned in a smart showing, but for a let-down in the third heat.

The teams:

St. Catharines: Goal, Whittaker; defence, Madsen and Cove; centre, Smith; wings, Whitely and D. Frick; rover, Croft; alternates, Fitzgerald, Urquhart, O'Heron, Bradshaw, D'Amico, Hildebrand and MacDonald.

Petes: Goal, W. Frick; defence, Horton and Digby; centre, Creighton; wings, L. Vitarelli and Foote; rover, D. Vitarelli; alternates, Warren, Magee, McNulty, Teatero, Dugan, Howse, and Lewis.

Referees: J. Murphy and L. Vipond.

Whip And Pat Winners In Final Bout

By FRED MAYBE

Ever popular Whipper Watson and Pat Flanagan teamed up to defeat Wee Willie Davis and Hi Lee last night at the Brock, in the feature attraction as wrestling reached its summer recess, to be resumed in September.

Davis at 280 and the towering Lee at 297 looked formidable facing the Whip and Pat whom they outweighed by 121 pounds, but speed and science counted to more than offset that advantage —not to mentioned virtue. Lee punished Flanagan with a series of leg spreads and elbow smashes for several minutes and as Davis crept in to aid his partner, Watson and he took over. Action galore ensued and Referee Dunlop found himself busy protecting himself and the winners against the rough tactics of Davis outside the ring and his giant aide whenever opportunity afforded.

At the 25 minute mark, Flanagan floored Lee with a drop-kick after sending Davis sprawling with a series of elbow smashes. Dunlop was out temporarily with an accidental knee from Davis and an elbow to the chin.

Hung Him Up

Watson followed up a series of headlocks with a terrific flying tackle to knock Davis through the ropes where he hung with a hangman's knot around his left ankle as he reversed the ropes in falling. Flanagan then felled Lee and also Davis as he returned to action, with a hefty elbow smash and Davis conceded the fall at 28 minutes. The latter was unable to continue, due to a possible pulled cartilage and Hi Lee engaged his two opponents single-handed for the second fall. His attempt was short-lived as the Whip and Pat softened up the big fellow who finally fell at the seven minute mark when Flanagan pinned him with a neat body slam and front scissors.

Bill Stack took the only fall in the prelim at the 22 minute mark following a remarkable exhibition of speed and science on the part of both men with a great aeroplane spin and body slam. The two had wrestled on even terms featuring some fine work, head scissors, armlocks and toe holds. The fall occurred following a speedy off the ropes charging attack when Stack caught his smaller opponent off balance.

Towering Mike Sharpe disposed of Al Lovelock in 15 minutes of the second event with a beautiful flying scissors in mid-ring as he also used the ropes to outwit his less experienced opponent, first ducking under his legs and on the second attempt catching him amidships on the comeback. Lovelock was aggressive and played it rough too, but Sharpe proved more than equal to his task. It was a great night and a fitting climax to a fine wrestling season.

Batting—Nippy Jones, Cards—Smashed a home run, double and two singles, and drove in six runs to lead the Cards to a 9-5 victory over Brooklyn Dodgers.

Pitching — Rae Scarborough, Senators—Allowed only two hits as Washington shut out St. Louis Browns 9-0.

OLD HANDS—Luke Appling takes a lesson in how to play position from Willie Hoppe. Appling is 40, but Hoppe, still the three-cushion billiard titleholder, was a world champion before the White Sox shortstop was born. Hoppe won his first world crown in 1906.

Johnny Russelle recently returned from a visit in New York City and he brought back an official program and scorecard for the Giants' game with St. Louis at the Polo Grounds. Musial of the Cards hit two homers that day, and Johnny was parked just back of the boxes near first base. Admission was $1.75, parking space 75 cents and program a dime. You can pay up to $2.50, but generally the prices haven't risen too steeply in big league ball parks in recent years. More than a decade ago, we used to pay $1.50 for grandstand seats back of first in Briggs Stadium, Detroit. It is an interesting program, even though it does show a full-page picture of Manager Lippy Durocher.

Three girls' softball games last e'en, Westclox winning 8-3 in Lindsay, as Lock Co. defeated CGE 13-3 and Ashby's won 12-5 from Marines at the Bowl. Some good and bad ball seen and pretty fair crowds both here and in the Sougog centre. A year or so ago you wouldn't be expecting Ashby's to beat Marines or Lock Co. colleens to triumph over Electrics, but teams do improve, and some keen competition is being served up by most of the clubs in this loop this season. It makes for a better race all around. Games at the Bowl tomorrow night are: Lock Co. vs. Ashby's, and Marines vs. Westclox.

Downing St. Kitts

A thousand or so fans in Miller Bowl last p.m. saw the Petes take an 11-10 OLA senior "A" win over St. Catharines Athletics. (This will be a bad day for Scribe Clayt Browne of St. Kitts.) The Creighton crew went like a house afire the first half to hold a 10-4 edge, then sagged in the third to be blanked 4-0, but they fought doggedly in the even fourth frame and squeezed out the verdict. A dandy dish to take, their first home win and second victory of the young season. They rate a big crowd out on Friday when Mimico is here at 8.45, the Petes then travelling to St. Catharines on Saturday to wind up a real busy week.

* * * * * *

Goalie Whitey Frick, who obtained his release, turned aside a lot of hot shots in the Petes' cage, looking good all the way. The other newcomers are going well, too, and the rest of the squad battled in fine fashion, but for a weaker showing in the third. Digby, Teatero, McNulty and Howse had two goals each, with Dootch Vitarelli, Creighton and Foote counting one apiece. A lot of assists in there, also. Curly Warren was cut on the head and had to leave. Plenty of slashing seen in the rather rugged scrap. If the Petes can just maintain this pace they'll win their share of games and slip into a playoff spot yet. Watch them go here on the morrow.

Wrestlers Wind Up

Not many more than a corporal's guard—unless he was an extra rambunctious two-striper—at the pro mat matches in the Brock last evening. Too hot for indoor sports these days, so the grapplers won't be back till the cool of mid-autumn arrives. Yet, despite warmth and the few fans on hand, the matman staged a dandy show. Whipper Billy Watson and Pat Flanagan teamed up in the main bout to defeat two huge villains in Hi Lee and Wee Willie Davis. With Referee Bunny Dunlop a busy man, indeed. Semi-final saw Mike Sharpe prove too smart for Al Lovelock, while the prelim was taken by Bill Stack over Irish Tom Collins. Bill thought it'd be suitable weather to down a Tom Collins, heh, heh.

Up at Cobourg-by-the-lake last twilight, the Young Petes absorbed the slimmer side of an 8-4 Lakeshore Baseball League fixture. Campbell threw a six-hitter and had okay backing. Corkery and Wade trod the mound in turn for the pack piloted by Art Pagett and George Masters. Menzies, Pagett and Floyd went well for the losers, who suffered their first reverse in a couple of weeks or more. Apparently they are now under McInnis sponsorship. The Young Petes are off to play tomorrow eve in Port Hope, and are idle then till next Wednesday when Lindsay comes here.

Mrs. H. Beatty Captures Duffus Trophy

By HERB MARTIN.

Playing under a blistering sun the Peterborough Ladies' Lawn Bowling Club held the annual open tournament for the J. J. Duffus Trophy on Wednesday, and the honor of winning this cup went to Mrs. H. Beatty's rink. The other three-game winners were Mrs. C. Renaud, and Mrs. H. Northrop. Mrs. Cross, Belleville came in for two wins and Mrs. H. Wilson was the high one-game winner. Each rink played three 12-end games and the tournament was over in good time.

While it was an open tournament the response from outside clubs was a disappointment. The local club did well by entering 18 rinks. Between the first and second games the committee served tea to the ladies.

Tourney Winners

Peterborough—Duffus Trophy, and each a purse—Mrs. C. Jeffrey, Mrs. K. McVeety, Miss E. Murphy, Mrs. H. Beatty, skip.

Cobourg Victorious Against Young Petes

Cobourg defeated McInnis' Young Petes there 8-4 last night as Fred Campbell limited his rivals to six hits and received good support from his mates afield. The loss was the first since May 28 for Art Pagett's hustling squad.

Corkery started for Petes and Wade relieved in the fourth, each allowing four runs. Cobourg counted three in the third and sixth innings, to salt the game away after Peterborough had notched three in the first. The hitting of Quigley and F. Goody each with two stood out for Cobourg, while for Peterborough, Menzies, Pagett and Floyd played well, the latter featuring with a remarkable catch of a long drive on the backward run in the fourth, to rob the hitter of a probable homer. The teams:

Cobourg — G. Campbell, cf; Quigley, lf; Hogan, ss; F. Goody, 1b; McMillan, 3b; D. Goody, rf; Shorey, c; Kendy, 2b; F. Campbell, p.

P of W Victors In Final Over Central

Prince of Wales defeated Central 9-5 at Riverside to win the senior championship of the Public School Softball League. They got three runs in the third, two each of the next two innings and one apiece in the sixth and seventh. Central counted all five in the second when Downer relieved Buott to hold them in check. Delahaye took over for Foster of Central at the end of the fourth. Strikeouts Buott 1, Downer 3, Foster 5 and Delahaye 4, with Buott giving up four walks and Downer and Foster two each. Buott allowed but two hits and Downer one, while Foster was nicked for seven and Delahaye six. Downer was the winning pitcher and Foster the loser. Holbrook led the hitters with three in four. Teams

MAY LOSE GLAMOR

Unless many American "name" golfers get cracking on entry forms, the 40th Canadian Open Golf championship at Toronto St. George's Club June 22-25 will lose much of its glamor of former years. There's a big entry list so far—177—but it doesn't show a Locke, Snead or Middlecoff in the lot.

"Final" closing date for entries was set at June 13, but the list will be kept open until a day before the tee-off in the hope that Slammin' Sam, three-times open winner and always a favorite with Canadians, or Cary Middlecoff, the Memphis dentist who won the 49th U.S. Open at Chicago last week, will put their signatures on entry blanks.

Westclox Girls Gain Win From Lindsay

Westclox continued to win in the Girls' Softball League last night, taking an 8-3 triumph in Lindsay. A good-sized crowd saw a fair fray, with the Clockers having a bit more punch at the plate and an edge in the hurling department. M. Downer gave up nine hits and fanned five, while M. Owen was reached for 15 safeties as she struck none out. The fielding was about even with A. Anderson, M. Hawthorne, D. Hunter and P. Richards best. Lindsay had a double play.

J. Vass came through at bat for Westclox with a triple, double and single in five, M. Hawthorne and M. Downer each having three singles. P. Richards led Lindsay at bat with a double and two singles, while H. Deyell clouted out a two-bagger and a single.

The teams:

Westclox—J. Vass, 3b; B. Morrow, ss; A. Anderson, cf; N. Whetung, 1b; M. Hawthorne, c; J. Hardy, rf; I. Clarke, lf; M. Downer, p; M. Miles, 2b.

Mimico Hands Weston Setback

By The Canadian Press.

Mimico Mountaineers climbed into a three-way deadlock for second place in the Ontario Lacrosse Association senior series by handing the sixth-place Weston Lions a 12-9 setback at Mimico. The Mountaineers are tied with Hamilton Tigers and Owen Sound Crescents, with 10 points apiece.

At Mimico, the Mountaineers drove from behind an 11-5 count going into the last quarter to gain their victory.

Gord Gair paced the winners with three goals, while Ken Dixon, Jack Williams, and Doc McKay each tallied two. For the Lions, Jesse James played a steady game, notching two goals. Harold Downer, Jay Hill, and Howard Venner also went well for the losers.

OUTBOARD VICTOR—Victor Scott of Levittown, New York, flashes across the finish line to win the grand prize and Class F first prize in the annual Albany to New York outboard race. He covered the 96 miles in 3 hours, 28 minutes, 14 seconds. Scott also copped top honors in 1947.

Plan To Have New Weigh-In

DETROIT, June 16 — (AP) — To avoid the threat of an international boxing incident, both middleweight champion Marcel Cedran of French Morocco and challenger Jake La Motta of New York will weight in again to-day for to-night's once-postponed title bout at Briggs Stadium.

Long after the Michigan State Boxing Commission first ruled that no new weigh-in was necessary, the two managers got together and agreed to let their boys step on the scales a second time.

Jo Longman, the excitable Parisian who manages Cerdan, talked about an "international incident" and the danger of losing the title to a "light-heavyweight" when it appeared that Jake and Marcel would not have to weigh in after the postponement.

La Motta hit 159½ Wednesday noon and it was agreed he would have trouble getting under the 160-pound class limit again today. For that matter, Cerdan, too, will have difficulty, although he got in comfortably at 158 on Wednesday. Both ate well, thinking no second weigh-in would be necessary

Church Softball

In Church Softball League playoffs, now nearing the end of the string, George St. Seniors won 23-13 from their opponents—not listed on the card—while St. James edged All Saints 26-25 and the All Saints peewees pulled out a 15-14 tilt against St. Andrew's. All were slugfests, with two as tight as the scores would indicate. The senior joust was loose throughout with each side guilty of half a dozen errors and many cheap hits going.

A midget semi-final playoff between Keene and George St. is listed for tonight at Central, winner to meet St. George's for the title. St. George's and Keene juniors are billed to go this evening at King Edward School. Fourth, if necessary, bantam final was slated for tonight at the Oval between St. James and All Saints. No other playoffs have been arranged att his writing.

Ashby's Take Easy Win Over Marines

Ashby's took a 12-5 victory over Marines last night at the Bowl in a Girls' Softball League encounter. Play was slow and rather ragged at times before a good crowd. The Outboards appeared disorganized, while the Ashby girls played good ball to earn the verdict. They had a little edge hitting, fielding and pitching, with Doris McFadden having eight strikeouts against three.

D. Callan and J. Dunk looked good in the field for the winners this game, while M. Behan and V. Mitchell were best for Marines. J. Reynolds and D. Callan were top batters for Ashby's with three hits apiece. For Marines, M. Behan was the main sticker with a homer, double and two singles in five attempts at the plate.

The teams:

Ashby's—E. McFadden, 2b; J. Reynolds, c; D. Callan, cf; L. Jordan, ss; M. Freeman, 1b; J. Dunk, 3b; R. Gilmour, lf; J. Coombs, rf; D. McFadden, p.

Marines—A. LaPointe, 2b; V. Mitchell, 3b; E. Whittaker, ss, lf; M. Behan, 1b; S. Curtis, c; A. Lawless, lf, ss; M. Walling, cf; H. White, rf; P. Smith, rf; M. Hill, p.

Big Ball Deal Has Failed To Materialize

NEW YORK, June 16 (CP). — The deadline for major league deals passed at midnight Wednesday night, but the "big eal" never came off.

Nobody was sure what the "big deal" would be. But anybody who put any stock in the hundreds of rumors that were floating around must be surprised to find so few changes.

These were the deals completed in the final hours:

Pittsburg bought outfielder Ed Sauer from St. Louis Cardinals and then peddled him to the Boston Braves for catcher Phil Masi. The Pirates promised the Cards a minor league player at the end of the season and tossed in considerable cash in the Boston transaction.

Cincinnati and Chicago Cubs swapped four outfielders. Hank Sauer, older brother of Ed, and Frankie Baumholtz, went to the Cubs in exchange for Harry Walker and Harry Lowrey.

Pittsburg also sold infielder Bobby Rhawn to Chicago White Sox for the $10,000 waiver price.

The only American League deal of the closing days was completed Monday when Boston sent outfielder Sam Mele and pitcher Mickey Harris to Washington for pitcher Walter Masterson.

Also on Monday the Reds sent catcher Ray Mueller to New York Giants for catcher Walker Cooper. The next day the Giants sold another catcher, Mickey Livingston, to the Braves for the $10,000 waiver price.

From now until August 31 the only way one major league team can send a player to another major league team is via the waiver route. This means that the player must be offered to each club in the league for $10,000. The offer is made in the order the clubs stand in the league—the bottom teams getting the first pick.

Bisons Smack Newark 13-5

By The Associated Press.

Buffalo Bisons are setting a hot pace for the rest of the International League teams.

Riding high on a six-game winning streak, the Bisons are in first place enjoying a game and a half margin over the runner-up Jersey City Giants.

They won their sixth in a row Wednesday night, knocking off Newark Bears for the third straight time, 3-5. A pair of six-run innings, the second and the seventh, made Ernie Silverman's path to his eighth victory of the season a breeze. Ray Coleman hit his seventh homer with two on in the second.

Andy Tomasic won his fourth game against one defeat, pitching the little Giants to a 3-1 victory over Toronto. He allowed only four hits.

Ray Gerken paced the Giants' seven hit attack against Jocko Thompson with a single and home run. He scored two runs and drove in one.

Rochester got 20 bases out of 12 hits to whip Syracuse 10-5. Dick Cole, Ed Mierkowicz, Steve Bilko and Don Richmond clouted home runs to highlight the Red Wing barrage.

Dan Bankhead won his sixth game against one defeat, pitching Montreal Royals to a 9-4 victory over Baltimore. Chuck Connors, with three hits, paced the Royals' nine-hit attack.

Phillies Sweep Twin Bill Trail Brooks By 3 Games

By JOE REICHLER,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

"Win for Waitkus" has become the new battle cry for the "fight-Phillies" of Philadelphia.

Shocked by the shooting of Eddie Waitkus, the star Philly first baseman, his teammates were determined today to aid the stricken athlete in a way he would appreciate most. Waitkus was shot and seriously wounded by a girl fan in a hotel room early Wednesday.

The Phillies wasted no time in carrying out their promise. They went out and swept a doubleheader from the Chicago Cubs, 4-1 and 3-0, to move into a virtual tie with Boston for the third place in the tight National League race.

The twin triumph gave the Phils a four-game winning streak and a record of 10 victories in their last 13 games. The Phils now trail the front-running Brooklyn Dodgers by only three games.

Needs Help

Ken Heintzelman won his seventh game in the opener and Borowy notched his sixth in the nightcap. Borowy, however, needed help in the ninth, and got it from Robin Roberts.

Dick Sisler, subbing for Waitkus, collected three of the eight hits off loser Bob Rush and Emil Kush in the opener.

Brooklyn's eight game winning streak came to an end last night when St. Louis Cardinals whipped them 9-5 to cut their first place margin over the Redbirds to two games. First baseman Nippy Jones smashed a home run, two singles and a double to bat in six runs and almost beat Brooklyn singlehandedly.

A crowd of 32,131—largest of the year at Sportsman's Park — saw Gerry Staley come to the aid of faltering Al Brazle in the fifth and pitch shutout ball the rest of the way to earn his fourth victory. Paul Minner, who replaced Ralph Branca in the second was charged with the defeat.

Pittsburgh's Pirates duplicated Tuesday's feat by coming from behind with a four-run rally in the last of the ninth to nip the Braves 8-7. Danny Murhaugh's single off Bobby Hogue drove in the tying and winning runs with two out in the ninth.

Doing Well

Dino Restelli, who joined the Pirates Tuesday night from San Francisco of the Pacific Coast League, hammered two homers and a single.

The American League leading New York Yankees opened up a four-game lead over Detroit, whipping Chicago White Sox 9-4 while the Tigers were losing a 2-1 game to Philadelphia. Cleveland shoved Boston Red Sox deeper into a rut, drubbing the Sox 8-5, and Washington stayed in fifth place shutting out the St. Louis Browns 9-0.

Yogi Berra and Bobby Brown paced a 12-hit Yankee attack against Randy Gumpert and Allen Gettel with home runs. Yogi's came with two on and featured a four-run fifth which sewed up the game.

Rookie Ray Boone, who has replaced manager Lou Boudreau at shortstop, clouted his first two major league home runs to lead the Indians to their second straight victory over the Red Sox.

Eddie Joost's 14th home run won for the A's. The blow came off Ted Gray in the fifth. Dick Fowler scattered six hits for his fifth win, his fourth in a row. Vic Wertz homered for the lone Tigers' run.

Rae Scarborough allowed only two hits in shutting out the Browns. The Nats collected 15 hits off Bill Kennedy and Karl Drews.

The scheduled National League game between New York and Cincinnati was rained out.

Lock Co. Wins By 13-3 Over Electrics

Lock Co. copped a 13-3 Girls' Softball League victory over Electrics at the Bowl last night. The losers had three costly errors, and an injury to a player, but they were outhit, too, and the Lock lasses rated the triumph. It was a good game till Lock Co. broke out in a rash of base hits in the seventh to score five runs, adding seven next inning, and that was that. Play lasted little more than an hour.

B. Ayotte and E. Simmonds stood out defensively for the victors, with Mary and Marg Perrin the pick of the losers. C. Michard, R. Roberts, B. Ayotte, D. Westlake and P. Williams all had three hits apiece for Lock Co., with the latter getting a homer, as D. Westlake and B. Ayotte hit a triple apiece. R. Boyce of CGE hit safely three times and Marg Perrin belted out a three-bagger.

Co-Ops Come Through

Co-Ops won 2-1 over J. K. Hughes at King Edward last night in a nifty Civic Softball League tussle. The seven-inning game went just 40 minutes with each side collecting just three hits. A homer by the Co-Ops in the seventh won it. Doris pitched for Co-Ops with Dyer going for Hughes. Trennum and Meraw umpiring. Grant and Loucks won their game in Ashburnham 15-10 over the Police with Castle and Moher the umpires. On Friday, Co-Ops play Duffus, as Bus Drivers meet the Bankers.

At London, Ont., defending champion Gil Walker of London Hunt Club and Jerry Kesselring of Kitchener shot even 145's Wednesday to divide the honors in the London Hunt Invitation Golf Tournament.

Kesselring shot a 72 going out on the first 18, and couldn't do better than a 73 coming back Walker was out in the first 18 in 73, but shot terrific golf in the last 18 to go one under par and come home in a 72.

There is no playoff in the tournament, so the choice of the Willingdon nominee now is up to the Ontario Golf Association.

Epic, winner of the King's Plate at Toronto May 28, finished out of the money in the 22nd running of the $20,000 added Shevlin Stakes over a mile and a sixteenth at New York's Aqueduct race track Wednesday. Epic, three-year-old brown colt owned by E. P. Taylor of Toronto, led for the first seven furlongs, but faded in the stretch.

At Toronto, the favorite Valdina Herman ran a close second in the featured sixth race at Thorncliffe Park Wednesday, his first race in the blue-and-white of the NHL Toronto Maple Leafs.

Owned by Max Bentley, Maple Leaf centre, the three-year-old was unable to overtake Samanad, who won the $1,400 allowance feature.

The horse was given to Bentley by Charlie Hemstead of Toronto after Max scored a goal in an NHL game last winter.

Infielder Lou Klein is the first St. Louis Cardinal who jumped to the Mexican league to sign a new contract, it was announced Wednesday night at St. Louis. Fred M. Saigh, president of the Redbirds, said Klein signed the contract in the club's office Wednesday evening. Sagih said Klein signed for the same salary he had when he went to Mexico, in 1946 —$6,500.

At Ascot, Berkshire, England, Ascot was made truly royal this afternoon by the victory of the King's filly, Avila, in the Coronation stakes for three-year-old fillies run over the mile. The King and Queen and members of the Royal Family who had earlier driven down the course in state saw Avila, a daughter of Hyperion, race to a comfortable three-length victory in the hands of Irish-born jockey Michael Beary.

W. L. (Lindy) Fraser, owner-trainer-driver of Dr. Stanton, top money winner of the 1948 season, has accepted an invitation to enter the National Pacing Derby, June 7. For the Forest, Ont., reinsman, it will be a second attempt to capture the $25,000 race, under the lights at Roosevelt Raceway, near New York.

Newcastle United, first division club of the English Football League, defeated Sweden 4-0 at Toronto Wednesday night in one of the best games ever seen in Canada. Mrs. W. Moynes of the Federated Board, conducted the election with Mrs. Moore of Lakefield as secretary.

Mrs. Moynes was the guest speaker at the morning session and brought greetings from the Provincial Board. The reports all showed that the branches had been exceptionally active, she said.

Mrs. Moynes reported on the conference held in Guelph and said interest and enthusiasm were running high in all the W. I. branches. Higher citizenship is the essential need of today, she said. She gave an outline of the new handbook which was on display.

Mrs. Moynes spoke on the Women's Institute scholarship fund which she said should be made a special project. Each district or area is asked to sponsor a drive through its branches to raise money for this fund, and any district or area raising $3,000 in one amount or in several donations will be assured of an annual scholarship for a girl in that district or area, and the scholarship may be named for anyone whom the district wishes to honor.

The scholarship, she said, would be awarded in recognition of achievement and accomplishment in Homemaking Club project work over a period of time, of growth and development on the part of the girl; and in recognition of traits of leadership, co-operation and dependability, as well as having acquired knowledge. The award is open only to rural girls at least 16 years of age who have completed successfully six or more Homemaking Club projects, or who are completing the sixth project in the current year in which the award is made.

The winner shall be selected by the staff of the Women's Institute branch and home economics service in conjunction with the scholarship committee of the Provincial Board of the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario. The type of course selected by the winner or winners shall be subject to the approval of the aforementioned bodies and shall be a course that in their opinion is of sufficient length and high standard that will definitely benefit the winners. The scholarship awards will be made regional, if and when there is sufficient money available, with a possibility of one or more awards being made ni each of the following regions: East, west, north, central, and at large.

The scholarship committee recommended to the board of directors that a request go to the minister of agriculture asking for the establishment at Guelph and Kemptville of girls' courses of varying lengths (2 to 12 weeks). The Ontario Women's Institute scholarship fund will be left open indefinitely, but scholarships will be established and awarded as soon as funds warrant. Mrs. Moynes said a generous donation of $3,000 toward this fund has been definitely promised the FWIO by September 1, 1949, by Miss Katharine McCallum, Perth County, when this donation can be applied to this scholarship fund, a scholarship will be set up known as the Katharine McCallum Ontario Women's Institute scholarship.

Mrs. F. E. Birdsall of Birdsall conducted both sessions in the absence, owing to illness, of the president, Mrs. Harry Mann.

The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Charles Ellis, president oft he Belmont Women's Institute. Mrs. Sam Southward, vice-president of Havelock Institute, replied and extended an invitation to hold the district annual meeting in Havelock next year, which was accepted.

A welcome was extended to the newly organized branch at Brookdale, of which Mrs. W. Swayne is president.

The president's report by Mrs. Mann was read by Mrs. H. Shearer. During the year Mrs. Mann visited Westwood and Havelock branches and attended the conference in Norwood. The oratorical contest last fall was a real success, she reported, and is self-supporting by the generous donations from the various industries of Peterborough.

The financial statement for East Peterborough district showed receipts as $329.15 and expenditures of $251.24, leaving a balance on hand of $77.91.

The report of agriculture and Canadian industry was given by Mrs. Ralph Hamilton of Lakefield. She reported Buckhorn and Chandos branches had studied gardening.

Chandos studied wild life and found that unless our game laws are enforced some of our wild animals will soon be extinct. Warsaw took up the manufacture and treatment of woollens right through to the finished product. Trent River branch studied the discovery and making of cheese. Buckhorn W.I. studied uses of peat moss.

Report of Historical Research was given by Mrs. Victor Tanner, of Chandos.

The names of the following departed members were read and one minutes silence observed: Mrs. Alfred Watt, Honorary President of Associated Country Women of the World; Mrs. A. Smith, Buckhorn; Miss Hattie Sexsmith, Belmont; Mrs. Fred Richardson, Lakefield; Mrs. R. McNeely, Trent River; Mrs. Joseph Tucker, Apsley; Mrs. Sam McGee, Norwood.

A resolution was presented by Mrs. F. E. Birdsall and passed by the meeting, which called for a column in the Peterborough Examiner relating to the activities of W.I. branches in the district.

Miss Barbara Broadfoot of Toronto of the Food and Nutrition department of Home Economics Service was the speaker at the afternoon session. She outlined the aims of the Women's Institute.

"Health Before and After Forty", was the course chosen to be put on in two centres, Havelock and Lakefield.

The newly elected president, Mrs. Shearer, announced a quilt competition would be held next year and asked each branch to enter a quilt in the exhibit. The quilts are to be patch-work, to be made of all cotton, with a two-pound batt, and there must be at least four quilters whose names are to be signed to entry. CALVERT 1622 Famous Families OGDEN 1783

Isaac Ogden, New England-born Empire Loyalist, came to Montreal in 1783. He was appointed Judge of the Admiralty Court and later Judge of the Superior Court. His son, Charles Richard, a lawyer, was Attorney-General for Lower Canada from 1833 to 1842. Another son, Peter Skene, associate of fur trader John Jacob Astor, was a partner in the North West Company and, on its amalgamation with the Hudson's Bay Company, became Chief Factor at Fort St. James. Truly a distinguished Canadian family.

Great Families Create Great Nations

CALVERT, head of the famous Calvert family, distinguished English statesman and Secretary of State to King James I, founded pioneer colonies in Newfoundland and Maryland early in the 17th Century.

In the New World, Calvert's descendants advocated friendly trade relations with the Indians. They also fostered principles of democratic freedom and religious tolerance among their settlers. These Calvert ideals were perpetuated down through the succeeding generations of the Calvert family.

The family is the corner-stone upon which great nations are built. Let each of us strive to promote within the great Canadian family the same concepts of freedom and tolerance pioneered by the Calvert family over three hundred years ago.

The Calvert family encourage trade with the Indians.

Birth of a $52,000 Baby Shows Hospital Plan Gaps

By ALAN HARVEY.

LONDON, June 16 (CP)—Birth of Britain's £13,000 ($52,000) baby, Lynette Rees, was just what some doctors ordered.

They said it proved them right in opposing government moves for more economy in the operation of state hospitals.

Under pressure by the treasury, Health Minister Aneurin Bevan asked last February that hospitals cut their budgets by £9,500,000 this year. Regional hospital boards said it couldn't be done without closing wards.

Now Bevan, who was believed reluctant to order the cuts, has persuaded Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer, that the demand for an apropriations cut must be modified.

The case of Lynette Rees, born at Emsworth, Hampshire, illustrates what happens when hospital economies become necessary, doctors said.

Lynette was born in northlands Maternity Home, which cost £3,000 to buy and £10,000 to remodel. Mrs. Rees arrived April 9, just after the home was officially opened and just before it closed. The order came too late to move the mother, so for two weeks Mrs. Rees and Lynette had two nurses, a housekeeper, a gardener and 11 beds all to themselves.

Lynette was called the £13,000 baby because she was the only child born in northlands' brief existence as a maternity home.

Internal Criticism

Doctors wrote indignant letters, protesting the closing. The regional board replied that it couldn't maintain Northlands and save money too.

Criticism came from labor's own side of the political fence. The Socialist Medical Association, which has 2,000 members, passed an emergency resolution saying the reductions were likely to result in lower standards of treatment and closing of beds in some areas.

Dr. H. Loules, Vice-President, said he was "amazed" that the northwest regional hospital board, 200 hospitals and 33,000 beds, was to be cut nearly £1,000,000. The board later said it would send a delegation to ask the minister how the saving could be made without closing 500 beds.

The British Medical Journal termed the cuts "arbitrary" and suggested that hospital financing is out of hand.

"If the Treasury and Health Minister now find themselves unable to meet the bill," it commented, "Mr. Bevan may find is necessary to start hospital flag tag days again."

New 'Gold' Rush Launched Across Northern Arizona

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., June 16—(AP)—Atomic-age prospectors, armed with geiger counters and picks axes, have launched a new gold rush in northern Arizona.

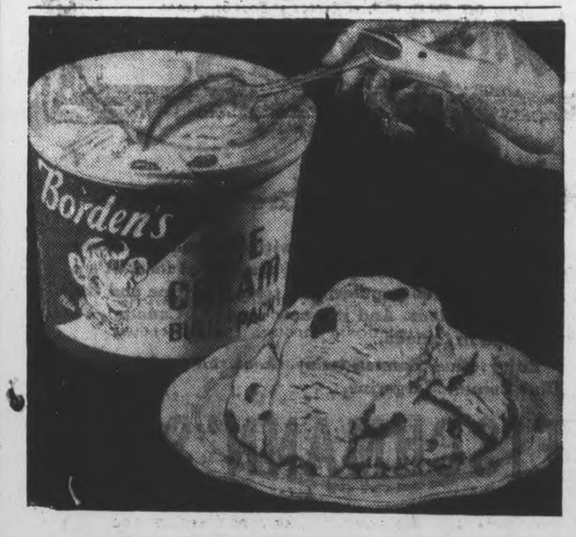
This time the "gold" is uranium.

Prospectors are swaring in droves over canyons and arroyos pointing their counters at anything that resembles carnotite. This is one of about 100 mineral ores containing uranium.

In its purest state carnotite contains 60 per cent uranium and 20 per cent vanadium, the Arizona Department of Mineral Resources reported.

Charles H. Dunning, director of the department, said the rush resulted from publicity given recent strikes.

"The possibilities of finding and developing uranium sources in northern Arizona are enormous," Dunning says.



Already the towns of Ashfork, Seligman, Williams, Flagstaff, Winslow and Holbrook have noted the influx of prospectors ranging from grizzled experienced sourdoughs to college students on vacation.

The uranium "field" in Arizona extends from almost the eastern edge of the Grand Canyon east through parts of the Navajo Indian Reservation.

Strikes if importance have been made in the state's northern counties.

Most publicized of these is the Maggie Riley claim. A few months ago Mrs. Riley stumbled on some petrified logs. They were flaky and apparently not what she wanted in the way of specimens to polish and sell to tourists.

However, she mailed samples to the mineral resources department and discovered her find was worth $40,000.

GEORGE ST.

Finds Election So Quiet Only Three Sure Voters

By OLD GUIDE AND TRAPPER

Me and the Old Woman was down to Peterborough on Saturday moochin' around the market, her shoppin' and me wonderin' when I could get a chance to slip into a pub for a 'foam and amber', when finally my big moment came when Mrs. Sykes from out the sixth line comes along (that's Clem's wife, Clem plays the zither kinda smart-like and gets himself invited around a bit and in spite of a cracked lip and a sour stomach, he does all right for hisself.)

Well, as I was sayin', Clem's wife comes along and her and the Old Woman gets to chawin' about curtain goods and things then they decide to sashay off and do some store snoopin'. That was my big moment so I just casually-like runs right to the nearest purveyor of beer and wine under the liquor license act. I'm sittin' there doing nothin' but bend the elbow and a couple of fellows is sitting beside me doin' the same and not sayin' anything, so I try to make with a little conversation like. So I offers somethin' like this. "Well, who's going to win the election."

They both looked at me as if I was something too low to speak to, like a disc jockey or reporter. Finally one of them says "Dick Raine, I guess". "But", I says Dick ain't runnin'. So the other bloke says something bright like, "Well, he should be, he always does." I could see that I was runnin' down a blind alley so I tried to enlighten them. They listened for a while and then picked up their beer and went to another table. I wasn't slighted at all, but I thought to myself "I guess I should have taken a bath last night after all." Well, by and by along comes a couple more guys (I'd say it was four beers later) and I approached them in a little different way. "Doin' a bit of scrutineerin', friend." I said. "What's your opinion on the election.?"

He picked up the salt shaker and stared into his glass for a while and then asked "You mean with 'Dit' and Fraser."

"That's right." I told him. "And Miles too."

"I don't care who gets in," he answered. "Long as Hearst ain't runnin', he cut off our beer once. Fergie ain't much better either with his darned four point four." Well, I could see that this guy gave up votin' after the last referendum so I knew it was no use talkin' to him. Then I says to myself, "Maybe the Old Woman is wrong after all, maybe there ain't goin' to be any election."

ONE WORKING MINER—As the 450,000 United Mine Workers walked out for a week-long "stabilizing" work stoppage, UMW President John L. Lewis went to work. Lewis (left) conferred with Harry M. Moses, representative of the Frick Coal and Coke Co., in Philadelphia. The two discussed the miners' contract, expiring June 30.

Like To See Liberals Keep Word–CCF

PORT ARTHUR, June 16 (CP)—If the Liberal party is "fated" to remain in power, it would be a welcome change to have it keep its word and respect public opinion, E. B. Jolliffe, Ontario CCF leader, said in a political address here Wednesday night.

He charged both "old line parties" with promising social security measures during the election campaign only because of their "hunger for office and fear of the CCF."

The record showed the Liberals had never kept their pledges when they had a clear majority, he said. After the clear majority given them in 1945, they broke their most important promise—to roll back prices to the 1941 level.

Mr. Jolliffe said that Progressive Conservative leader George Drew's "new-found" interest in housing would last only until election day, June 27.

Mr. Drew's appeal to the "victims of the housing shortage" came from a leader whose government, while he was a Premier of Ontario, had not built a single house, Mr. Jolliffe added.

Call Off Walkout

DETROIT, June 16 (AP)—The Union ordered 115 truck drivers Wednesday to call off a walkout at Briggs Manufacturing Company which has made idle some 23,000 automobile workers. The drivers, members of Local 212, United Automobile Workers (C-IO), walked out Tuesday. They claimed Briggs employees were throwing objects at them from plant windows during a union election.

Causeway Work Be Completed By Opening Day

Work on the Chemong Causeway is almost completed, County Engineer J. D. Kean told the County Council Wednesday.

County machinery is busy putting on pit-run gravel and crushed gravel and shaping the road surface. Only items remaining are the cutting the tops off the guide rail posts and the painting of the beam guide rail itself.

Asphalt planks on the swing span and the electrical apparatus for working it will be completed in time for the June 22 celebration, according to the Trent Canal executives.

The contract with Thompson Construction Co. for the rock fill and top dressing is also nearly completed.

Reeve James Gifford of Ennismore expressed pleasure at the cost of the filling operation. The exactness of the estimate had confounded the "sidewalk critics" who said the cost would be two or three times as much as it was. And he claimed that if the whole job were to be done over again even that amount could be scaled down.

A careful program for June 22 has been worked out.

Outboard Races, 2.-2.15; Parachute Jump (1st) 2.15-2.30; Water Skiers, 2.30-2.45; Outbroad Races, 2.45-3; Dedication Ceremony, 3.-3.30; Ornamental Swimmers, 3.30-3.50; Parachute Jump (2nd), 3.50-4; Special Event, 4.-4.10; Outboard races, 4.15-4.30; Parachute Jump (3rd), 4.30.

Following are committee members in charge of sports and entertainment at the opening of the Causeway

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 16—(AP)—A white-robed mob dragged a navy veteran from his home at midnight Tuesday and lashed him 20 times with a leather belt. Their victim was Billy Guyton Stovall, 31, white factory worker described by neighbors as a good husband and father. Stovall would not discuss the case with reporters.

Claims Driving Worse In Kingston or Oshawa

"I'd rather drive four days in Peterborough than 40 minutes in Oshawa or Kingston," said Chief Constable Garnet Samis of Lakefield today. "And Kingston has a traffic squad."

Chief Samis says the quality of driving here is far better than in some of the cities he has been through. He agreed that there was bound to be some careless people behind Peterborough steering wheels, but on the whole there were more thoughtful and considerate people driving here than in most places. Chief Samis said there appeared to be more respect for traffic regulations here, and particularly in comparison with Oshawa and Kingston.

Raps Liberals On Communism

MONTREAL, June 16 (CP) — Mayor Camillien Houde charged in a political speech here Wednesday night that Prime Minister St. Laurent had tolerated growth and development of Communism and has never signified his intention to act against it.

Speaking in French to a crowded hall with a capacity of 1,500 in Montreal Papineau riding where he is running an an Independent candidate in the Federal election, the Mayor attacked the motives of Mr. St. Laurent in relation to the majority population in Quebec.

He told his audience that it is "more advantageous for the majority population of Quebec to have as Prime Minister an English-speaking Protestant who will safeguard their rights than to have a French-speaking Roman Catholic who is willing to betray them."

Mr. Houde said that Mr. St. Laurent "knew there were 25,000 avowed Communists in Canada and 500,000 fellow travellers."

Betty Grable Nearly Retires

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, June 16 (AP)—Now it can be told—about how Betty Grable almost retired after her last picture.

The beautiful blonde told me she almost quit the movie business after her recent western. The reason: "a behind-scense feud with triple-threat genius Preston Sturges.

"I was so mad I left the set after the last scene of the picture without even saying goodbye to anybody in the crew," she said.

"That's the first time I've done that since I've been in the business."

It seems that Grable and Sturges disagreed on the story and almost everything. Betty, who has usually placed her film fate entirely in studio hands, carried her beef to proudction boss Darryl Zanuck.

She's a happy gal again. She's now doing "Wabash Avenue," which is the kind of thing Grable fans like. In fact, it's her "Coney Island" vehicle with the locale switched to Chicago at the time of the 1893 World Fair.

It's another costume picture, but this time Betty isn't wearing corsets.

"They were hurting my back," she said. "So I took off some weight in the right places and now I don't have to wear them."

Teach Birth-Control

LONDON, June 16 — (AP) — The government soon will be asked to teach birth-control methods to low-income groups in Britain's growing population. The request, it was said reliably Wednesday night, will be in the report of the Royal Commission on population. The Royal Commission, an informant said, is concerned over the high birth rate of low-income groups, and the fall in the birth rate of the middle classes.

17 Ontario Cities Now Collect Poll Tax

Order Watering Of Lawns Be Suspended

In a further appeal to the community spirit of Peterborough, the Utilities Commission is directing that the watering of lawns and gardens be completely suspended. The reason for this restriction is that water pressures are dangerously low on the higher levels of the city.

"On the Ashburnham heights they are barely getting ten pounds a sq. inch pressure," R. L. Dobbin explained today. "That becomes an alarming condition and it can only be corrected for the present by the co-operation of all the householders and other water users in suspending the hosing of their gardens and lawns until we get some rain."

The extreme dry spell, according to Utilities officials, has opened almost every tap in the city. Gardens are parched, lawns are seared beyond the water limit, sidewalks are superheated, and everybody brings out the garden hose and flushes the whole works. The result is a concentrated attack on the pressure, everybody drawing off water at the same time and for outdoor uses, when many citizens on the rim of Peterborough find that nothing happens when they turn their taps. Just a gesture of futility for the time being.

"The Commission has reluctantly decided to prohibit all lawn and garden watering," Mr. Dobbin said. "The pressure all over the city has been reduced to an alarming extent in the day time as well as the evening."

Involved in these circumstances are the idea of equal sharing of the water supply for the necessary domestic uses. If the people on the higher levels are to get the water they need in their homes, the others in the lower sections will have to keep their lawn and garden taps shut.

At least until we get enough rain to relieve the demand for lawns and gardens," Mr. Dobbin said. "Quite a number of communities in the province have adopted this regulating order. Utilities Commission have been putting off this action from day to day hoping rains would come. Apparently the restriction during the hours from 4 to 9 p.m. resulted in a heavy increase in the use of hose during the remaining hours of the day.

"Just as soon as circumstances become favorable, and that calls for a heavy rain, this appeal to the citizens will terminate," Mr. Dobbin said.

"For the present we are asking for the co-operation of the citizens to a little further extent than recently. It may be that before the end of the week there will be ample rain. At any rate lawns and gardens are not going to suffer much for a short time."

Provincial Help Sought By City To Buy Machine

Peterborough's Board of Health is unable to afford the $1,600 fogging machine required to decontaminate dumps and parks in the city during the summer. Provincial assistance in purchasing a machine is being sought, but in the meantime, the Board hopes to be able to rent a machine for use in parks and dumps for two days this summer.

The necessity of fogging certain areas during the hot weather was discussed at the Board of Health's monthly meeting in the City Building Wednesday.

Resumes Duties

Dr. R. A. Kelly, Medical Officer of Health, reported Dr. Harold Worton had resumed his duties as a full-time member of the Department of Health staff. During the past year Dr. Worton has had leave of absence to study for the Diploma in Veterinary Health which he has now obtained.

Communicable diseases were comparatively few during the month of May, Dr. Kelly reported there being 66 cases of chickenpox and one of measles.

Twelve child hygiene clinics were held during the month and were attended by 308. This figure showed an increase in the April attendance, although 14 clinics were held during that month.

R. M. MacPherson, Sanitary Inspector, told the Board he had dealt with a number of complaints concerning animals, fowl, dwellings, rodents and insects and had taken steps to have the causes of justifiable complaints removed.

The Public Health nurses' report on work in Separate Schools during May, signed by I. Gibson, R. Aiken, V. O'Leary and F. Stewart, stated that three children had been referred to the Kinsmen for assistance in obtaining glasses.

The nurses also reported on medical examinations and defects detected among school children.

Gene Clark, supervisor of Public Health nurses reported 219 homes visited for the first time.

Meetings will not be held during July and August.

A LINDSAY PROBLEM

Lindsay estimates at $250,000 cost of an incinerator and sewage disposal plant for both primary and secondary treatment of sewage. Annual payment of principal and interest would probably be $14,000 a year for 20 years, equivalent to two mills in the tax rate. The neighboring town is feeling growing pains in its municipal system.

Two Boys Held For Ring Theft

Two youths were arrested by city police Wednesday night after theft of a $250 diamond ring from Ostrander's jewellers had been discovered.

When Frank Thomas, 16, of 47 Lafayette Ave., and Robert Young, 18, of 41 Jackson Ave. appeared before Magistrate W. R. Philp, K. C., at city police court today, Thomas pleaded guilty and Young not guilty to a charge of stealing the ring. Young was remanded until Monday on $1,000 bail and Thomas was remanded for sentence on the same day.

POLICE HAVEN

Although policemen devote most of their time to maintaining law and order, those men who walk miles round the city streets are not always bringing people to order and reprimanding for misdeeds.

Around 7 a.m. Wednesday an elderly man walked into the police station and asked Sgt. Leo Murphy if he could rest there a while. He had neither eaten nor slept for two days and nights.

As the sergeant and the elderly man got talking it transpired that the tired, hungry man was called Alec. He had lived in Ontario since 1913 when he came to this country from Russia, and has been earning his living as a farm labourer.

After a good morning's rest and a hearty meal Alec was feeling much brighter by noon time and ready to go on his way to look for work.—H.P.

Dozens of Houses Going Up Under Veterans' Own Hands

Many veterans of the Second Great War are proving themselves to be capable house builders, judging by the number of dwellings which have gone up in the Peterborough area during the past year on a self-contract basis. A total of thirty attractive new homes have been built by veterans themselves under the terms of the Veterans' Land Act during this period within a ten-mile radius of Peterborough.

The act was amended about a year ago to permit veterans needing homes to take their own contracts, and a considerable number of them have been quick to take advantage of this concession. About thirty more have made application to construct their own homes in this district during the coming year. However, local V.L.A. administrators feel sure that more than this figure would be underway or planned if the veterans were better posted on the act's provisions. Ex-service men are coming into the D.V.A. office in the Barrie building almost every day seeking information on the terms of the V.L.A. It appears that a large number of veterans are unaware that their housing problems can be solved in this way. Interest in the Veterans Land Act has mounted noticeably in recent months as news has spread of the success achieved by many veterans in their house-building efforts.

Warsaw Road Houses

Biggest development in this area is that on the Warsaw road in Douro Township, just east of the city, where two parcels of former farm land have been taken over for this purpose. In the first sub-division about 15 homes are already constructed, with 2 or 3 more building. Recently a second sub-division was opened up a little further along on the other side of the road, where one house has been completed and foundations dug for two or three more.

These houses are "self-help" enterprises. Most are being built by veterans who are expert in one trade or another, such as carpentering, painting, plumbing, electric wiring and bricklaying. There are many cases where there have been interchanges of work between veterans qualified in one or the other of these trades. For instance, J. M. Humphries, now on the staff of the local V. L. A. office, is a former carpenter who built the one house thus far completed in the second Warsaw subdivision. The electric wiring in Mr. Humphries' house was installed by another veteran for whom Mr. Humphries installed hardwood floors.

More on Lakefield Rd.

Another good-sized subdivision called "Maples", has lately been opened on the outskirts of Lakefield in Smith Township. One house is practically completed and five more are at the foundation stage. The remainder of the homes built by veterans themselves in the past year have been constructed on individual plots of land in various parts of Peterborough county. In addition some 30 homes have been constructed by veterans who let out their contracts to private contractors.

Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation co-operates in the scheme by supplying sets of plans of four suggested homes at only $10 per set. The V.L.A. authorities are now preparing a booklet containing 25 suggested house plans which will be issued shortly.

The V.L.A. developments on the Warsaw road have now got to the point where the veterans are beginning to feel the need of construction of a school for their children, who now have to travel about two miles to the nearest one.

The houses are mostly of the storey and a half type, with only a few two-storey homes being built. V.L.A. officials keep close tabs on the houses as they are going up to ensure that none are jerry-built and they insist on a proper plan being used. In charge of inspection work in this area is W. Theobald of Lindsay, construction supervisor, who has jurisdiction over Peterborough, Haliburton, and Victoria counties.

Besides Mr. Humphries, others who have built homes themselves or are starting to build in the Warsaw sub-division include: Lyle Black, Daniel E. Flint, E. M. Gladwin, M. I. Northey, E. T. H. Davis, J. E. Meldrum, J. E. Heffernan, and Paul Lavictoire.

Without Home Children Put In Boarding House

A particularly sad story of how the present acute housing shortage is affecting her five young children, the oldest 13 and the youngest 5, was told to the Examiner today by Mrs. Norman Fuller, a practical nurse who lives at RR No. 5, Peterborough. Mrs. Fuller said that recently her husband left to take a job in Alberta and because they could not find a home she was forced to place her children in a boarding home operated by Mrs. Jean Callahan at Pontypool.

Mrs. Fuller thought that this would solve her children's housing problem, at least for the time being, but an incident occurred last Sunday which she said made it necessary for her to remove the children to the home of friends nearer Peterborough. While visiting the children, one of whom was ill, an altercation occurred between Mrs. Fuller and another woman living in the house, with the result that Mrs. Fuller had to be treated for an injured eye. Mrs. Fuller said she has laid a charge of assault against her alleged assailant and that the case would come up for trial on June 27 at Port Hope.

Provincial police authorities at Orono were called in to investigate the matter, but all they would say was that it was "still under investigation."

Only Five Cities of 22 Querried By City Clerk Do Not Levy This Head Tax

By HARRY THEOBALD

Poll tax is levied and collected in 17 off 22 Ontario cities from which City Clerk Outram recently obtained replies to a query on this subject. This tax in most of the municipalities was $5 a year. Sudbury took $10 amounting to $16,000 contribution to the city treasury for the maintenance of police protection, sidewalks, streets, and and all the other services which the poll-taxers should appreciate just as much as the property owners.

Sault Ste. Marie also charges $10, Oshawa $7.50, Port Arthur and Sarnia $6 each. Oshawa collects $9,000, second to Sudbury. Brantford takes $6,800, Fort William $6,815.

Peterborough is down the list for $4,000. Its council is occasionally criticized and set back on the defensive almost with apologies for imposing this head tax. It may be recalled, however, that when James Hamilton was mayor of this city, there was no pussyfooting attitude about the poll tax. He used to contend that property was bearing a disproportionate part of costs of government and the provision of all the municipal services and satisfactions the people demand, and are entitled to.

Oshawa apparently has a good opinion of the accommodation it affords to those who do not pay property taxes. Its collection of $9,000 a year is a fairly substantial amount.

The cities which consider that the wage-earning, able-bodied but property-less citizens should have full use of all the local facilities of streets and sewers and safety, etc., without paying a direct dollar for them are: Kingston, Chatham, Belleville, Cornwall, Brockville.

"The problem is for the assessor to locate all eligible males. Collecting pressure should be applied quickly before change of address or employment."

Some of the suggestions in the City Clerk's digest are: "Could be used as a good source of revenue if the name was changed to "municipal levy for non-municipal taxpayers". The male citizens from whom we collect wonder why the women are not charged.

It is felt that there is nothing wrong in principle with this tax. It is only a small contribution towards the convenience afforded by municipalities and used by all persons. It seems the method of collection is rather lax, but how to avoid this when dealing with the single population is rather difficult."

Galt is considering the doubling of their five dollar head tax, to move into the $10 company with Sudbury and Sault Ste. Marie.

It has been argued frequently that many young men who have the means to buy cars object to making any local payment toward the upkeep of streets and pavements.

In Peterborough there has been no expressed disposition of cancelling this tax or of doubling it.

Blame Dry Heat On High-Riding Moon, Sunspots

The present withering drought in southern Ontario may seem to have nothing to do with marriage rates in Europe, but an astronomer has found evidence to show they both may be influenced by the same thing. Sunspots is Dr. Ralph E. DeLury's explanation for the present difficulties.

Meteorologists, or weathermen, may not agree, but not only the sun, but the moon may be guilty. At the moment, the sun is losing the greatest number of sun spots ever observed; the moon is within a year of exerting its maximum influence. The effect of neither of these heavenly bodies has anything to do with superstition or astrology — it is purely an astronomical, scientific matter.

A theory of weather cycles corresponding to the sunspot cycle has been worked out by Dr. De Lury, now living in retirement at Manilla, a pleasant village west of Lindsay. About every ten years the sun acquires a rash of large sunspots. At times they are even visible to the naked eye if viewed through smoked glass. The high spot in the present cycle has just passed. The astronomer is sure rainfall charts would show there had been heavier rains in coastal areas and lighter rains inland.

Sun Spots and Rain

Dr. DeLury's theory begins with the fact that sunspots discharge intense ultra-violet radiation. These rays ionize, or electrify, dust particles in the earth's atmosphere. Moisture tends to collect quickly around these ionized particles and condenses more quickly into raindrops. This speeded-up process of rain-forming generally means that rain will fall soon after moisture has evaporated into the atmosphere, in other words it will take place in coastal areas. During the time of high sunspot activity, the moisture does not get a chance to drift inland. Instead it falls on the coast. That may be the explanation of the heat and drought in May and June inland.

The moon also contributes its influence. Dr. DeLury thinks the moon has more effect on the weather than merely controlling the tides. The moon's path is not a perfect circle around the earth. Its distance from the earth varies from 252,710 miles away to only 221,463 miles. The closer the moon comes to the earth, the greater is the influence of its weight and gravitation force. Right now, it's nearly as close as it's likely to be.

The earth is tilted at an angle of 23½ degrees. The path traced out by the moon around the earth is at an angle of five degrees from the path followed by the earth around the sun. Thus at one time the moon is 28½ degrees above a straight line from the sun to the earth. It takes only seven days for the moon to pass from a point on a level with the line from the sun to the earth to 28½ degrees above that line. What has this to do with weather?

If the moon pulls up tides in the ocean, it should follow it will pull up tides in the lighter and gaseous atmosphere that envelopes the earth. Dr. DeLury explains that through a combination of sun and moon influences, the moon could, as it rises higher into the northern sky, pull warm air upward from the equator toward the northern temperate zone.

High-Riding Moon

Significantly, the moon rode high in the sky a week ago. And there has been a lot of hot southwest wind. This may or may not account for the hot dry spell, and the losses of Southern Ontario farmers.

The astronomer can point to many factors which seem to prove his theory. Growth rings in trees, even of preglacial days, have been studied. Dr. DeLury believes the wide and narrow rings of growth coincide with the wax and wane of the sunspot cycle. He has studied the discharge of the Niagara river, cyclic increase and decrease in crops and game. He has even found evidence of sunspot influence on marriage rates in Europe.

He goes further. He believes the sunspots are the major influence upon our weather. Orthodox weather men, he believes, are concerned too with earthly influence in looking for causes of weather changes. The earth is the child of the sun, and Dr. DeLury is confident, sun radiations, or lack of them, produce weather changes and our drought and heat spells.

HORN-BLOWER FINED

John Smith, 546 Waterford St., told Magistrate R. B. Baxter of Port Hope, who presided at city police court today that he honked the horn of his car around Ashburnham Tuesday night because he thought it made a comical sound. Admitting that he had caused a disturbance, Smith was fined $2.50.

Tuesday night Constables Jack Morrow and Grant Gillespie chased Smith at Armour Hill. Crown Attorney John Bradshaw said Smith, who was accompanied in the car by Thomas O'Connor, 186 Edinburgh St., drove five times round a flower bed before he stopped for the police.

Regional Unions Said Heading To Bigger Things

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

QUEBEC, June 16 (CP)—Regional unions now forming will lead towards the economic union of all western Europe, Edmond unionof E—Dol ?bst e'sn$ohMa n Giscard d'Estaing told Wednesday's plenary session of the International Chamber of Commerce.

M. d'Estaing, Chairman of the French National Committee of the I.C.C., led a discussion of "Regional unions and the world economy."

He cited five groups of countries which are coming together Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, known as Benelux, the Union of South Africa with Southern Rhodesia; Norway with Sweden and Denmark; Columbia with Ecuador, Panama and Venezuela; France with Italy

"We are aware also of the significant effort represented by the Organization for European Economic Co-operation which now groups 19 nations.

"Finally, we must mention the trend towards European union born of a powerful movement of public opinion.

"The last stage of the evolution will be the economic union of western Europe, which will restore to the old countries of the west the broad framework they need for the full development of their enterprise, initiative and intelligence that remain as vigorous today as ever before."

Plan Discussions

TORONTO, June 16 — (CP) — Reconstruction Minister Winters Wednesday informed Mayor Hiram McCallum of Toronto in a letter that he would hold discussions with all provinces in the near future on a large-scale housing program. The mayor announced that he and the city's board of control would meet with Premier Frost "as soon as possible" to find out what action the province would take in view of Mr. Winters' statement.

BROADCASTERS CONFER — Leading figures in the broadcasting industry in the United States and Canada are attending the four-day annual meeting of the Canadian Association of Broadcasters at St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, June 13-16. Shown chatting during the meeting are, left to right: A. D. Dunton of Ottawa, chairman of the board of governors of the CBC; Judge Justine Miller of Washington, president of the US National Association of Broadcasters; and G. R. A. Rice of Edmonton, chairman of the board of directors of the CAB.

McCracken Urges Religious Zeal Used As Weapon Against Reds

TORONTO, June 16 (CP)—A former head of the Ontario-Quebec Baptist convention says religious zeal should be used as a leading weapon in the fight against Communism.

Rev. R. J. McCracken of New York's Riverside Church Wednesday night told a rally marking the end of a week-long convention:

"We must match the evangelistic passion of the Communists. We must pledge ourselves as unreservedly to the cause as they do to theirs. The Christian attitude must be a missionary attitude."

The former Hamilton clergyman earlier told convention delegates that he believes mass thinking is robbing Canadians of a healthy character. He said individuality of expression and independence of judgment are becoming lost arts.

In closing sessions of the convention, delegates approved plans to split between home extension and foreign mission work $300,000 to be sought in a financial campaign.

The executive decided the first $50,000 raised would be applied to the purchase of home church land and the balance would be split on a pro rata basis with $150,000 going to home extension and $100,000 for foreign extension. Earlier proposals which aroused widespread objection had suggested the home extension would have first call on money's obtained.

Approve Budget

Delegates also approved the Baptist budget for 1948-49. They agreed on a total expenditure of $225,000 for the year, an increase of $7,000 over last year and 22 per cent over 1947-48. The main item in the estimates was an increase in ministers salaries to a minimum of $1,800 with an additional $200 car allowance. Other church services gaining increases were the Baptist Young People's Association and the Home Missions Board.

The delegates joined the Eastern Canadian Baptist Conference in endorsing a Canada - wide evangelism campaign for October.

Rev. P. W. Zieman of Hamilton was installed as president of the convention for this year following his election yesterday. Other officers elected were also officially put on the platform.

Re-Mapping By Air

CANBERRA—(CP) — Australia is being re-mapped by the army and air force for the benefit of town-planners, farmers, pastoralists and the defence services. In the first five months of 1948, 100,000 square miles of remote mainland areas were photographed by air.

CARLING'S CONSERVATION CORNER

Woodpeckers protect trees by eating tree-killing insects. In addition, their discarded nests (woodpeckers make new nests every year) are used by tree-nesting ducks. These valuable game birds are likely to be scarce, where woodpeckers are scarce. Woodpeckers should be protected for the double role they play in keeping nature in balance.

Financial Drive For Rink Lags

COBOURG, June 16 (ENS)—The drive for funds for the new recreational centre is not making the desired progress. The objective is $100,000 by July 1 and another $50,000 by Sept. 1. Counting the town grant of $50,000, pledges and cash on hand, $80,000 has been collected to date.

"It is lagging," commented Mayor Joe Smith. "We are not doing as well in the Special Names Group as we should. Some people are more interested in investments producing financial returns than investing in the young people of the town."

Mayor Smith pointed out that of $12,279 in cash collected, of which $7,141.59 was cash on hand as of June 4, over half of it was from employees in industry, etc.

"We are getting the stoutest support from the working man. Some of the people who can well afford it, are not doing their share," the mayor said.

2,600 Visits Made By Staff Of VON

There were not enough members of the executive of the Victorian Order of Nurses to form a quorum for the June Board meeting called for Wednesday in the City Building. It was the last meeting before the two months summer recess and those present were chairman J. E. Girven, Wilson Gemmell, P. N. McCarroll, F. J. Overend, Mrs. Boyter and Miss Mary Ross, superintendent of nurses.

The only business transacted was to give instructions to Mr. Gemmell, treasurer, to look after money matters for the branch during the summer.

Miss Ross said that the branch had more patients under its care during the first six months of this year than in 1948. A total of 2,600 visits had been paid to 473 patients.

The case of an elderly pensioner who was visited by the nurses twice daily over a period of two months was recited to the Board by Miss Ross.

The ladies wish to thank all who helped in any way to make the sale a success.

Those Neckties Fatal Men Dress Coolly Like Girls

OTTAWA, June 16 (CP) —Hot, eh? Well, take a tip from the girls. They have it all over the men when it comes to knowing how to keep cool in warm weather.

That's the opinion of Dr. R. G. Ratz, chief of the Health Welfare Department's civil service health division. He said in an interview he was heartily in favor of open-necked dresses, shorts and no stockings.

"Clothing should be light and as non-constrictive as possible—and women follow that out," he said.

But men! those ties!

The neck-tie is "one of the worst offenders." Dr. Ratz looked down perspiringly, and accusingly, at his own dark blue number.

"A neck-tie," he said, "prevents circulation of air between the neck and the body."

Shirts, open at the neck, were the best.

As for physical exercise, he warned that persons getting on in years should be chary of hot weather activity.

For instance, "you'll find a lot of people playing tennis on the hottest day."

While this might not be harmful to the young ones, older persons should be careful—especially those not used to exertion.

"People more than 45 should not indulge in unaccustomed exercise particularly in hot weather," said Dr. Ratz.

Girl Faces Trial

ROME, June 16 (Reuters) — Laura Diaz, attractive 29-year-old Communist deputy, may be tried here on charges of insulting the Pope. Popularly known as the "Joan Crawford of the Italian Parliament" because of her good looks, she was stripped Wednesday of her parliamentary immunity by a sub-commission of the Chamber of Deputies. The politician is reported to have asserted in a speech at Ortona that the Pope had "blood on his hands."

ALL PRESENT — Clifford Hartley, a Mormon of Wigan, England, takes the roll call on arrival in New York with his wife and 11 of their 13 children aboard the liner Britannic, en route to Trindell, Utah (pop. 385) to be near two daughters who wed American GI's and are living in Salt Lake City. From left are: Mike, 5; Muriel, 8; Melvin, 9; Doris, 13; Gordon, 17; Marion, 19, and Mrs. Hartley holding twins, Carolyn and Dorothy, 1. Mrs. Hartley had been told before her marriage that she never could have children.

Sign Trade Pact

ROME, June 16—(AP)—Italy and Poland Wednesday signed a $50,000,000 trade agreement. Under it Italy will send Poland fruits and vegetables, machinery, zinc, tires and textiles. She will receive in exchange coal, cereals, chemicals and lumber.

Pool Equipment For Use On County Roads

Roads in Peterborough County are receiving extra attention this summer as both County Engineer J. D. Kean and E. F. Marston, District Municipal Engineer, have helpers. In addition the pooling of equipment is helping the townships to look after their roads.

As of May 1 Mr. Kean has had the assistance of a second-year Civil Engineering student from Varsity, Gerald Metcalfe of Hastings. And Mr. Marston had had the help of Wilfred Smith, a third-year engineer from Queen's University.

Mr. Marston told the council Wednesday that last year at this time there was only one grader available as pool equipment; now there are four power graders in operation with another one to be added soon. A small bulldozer is also forthcoming.

Both Reeves Melville Johnston of North Monaghan ad James Gifford of Ennismore paid tribute to the Department of Highways for organizing this pooling of road equipment. They stated that individual municipalities could not afford such equipment and could not operate it economically if they could do so.

Reeve Gifford recalled that the matter of pooling equipment was discussed when he attended the Good Roads Convention in 1936 as Warden of the County. It was not until now that the plan was carried out.

Unnecessar Roads

Just before adjournment Reeve Rork Ferguson of Norwood caused a brief flurry of excitement by criticizing the County Roads Committee for not "eliminating unnecessary County Roads."

"The time has come for some action," he stated, whether the committee be composed of three men or five.

Many of the County Roads run parallel to main highways and are an unnecessary expense, he contended. The remedy: abolish unnecessary County Roads and concentrate on feeder roads leading into the highways.

"In the 16 years I have been in the council there has never been so much activity as is going on at the present time," said Reeve Gifford coming to the defence of the Committee.

He stated there was much merit in Reeve Ferguson's suggestion, but added that the question had been raised before and, after all, was only one function of the Committee.

Several members rose to take issue with Mr. Ferguson and supported the work of the committee and reserved particular praise for Engineer Kean.

Noted Doctor Dead

LONDON, June 16 — (AP) — Sir James Purves-Stewart, 79, noted physician, died Wednesday night. He was formerly examiner in medicine at the universities of Aberdeen and Wales. Among the technical and other books he wrote was "A Physicain's Tour of Russia" in 1932.

Re-Elected President

OTTAWA, June 16 — (CP)—A. M. Church of Sundridge, Ont., and J. A. Soroptimists' Garden Party Increasingly Successful Golden Mile Club Assists

Soroptimists of Peterborough are thrilled with the increasing popularity of their annual garden party which was held Wednesday. The generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Miller in allowing a large crowd the freedom of their beautifully - kept grounds and home at 161 Douro St., is largely responsible. This gracious gesture was made for the third time this year as a favor to their sister, Miss Ethel Miller, retired member of the club.

Miss Grace Sargent, president, and Mrs. Miller stood on the pretty flag-stone path to greet the guests, who first had seen Miss Margaret Wolstenholme, the club treasurer, who was seated near the street.

Everyone stopped to admire the color and fragrance of American Beauty climbing roses on the house as they passed to a lower terrace at the rear. There they found bazaar tables laden with useful household articles, candy and baking, all home-made.

The Golden Mile Club, which is sponsored by the Soroptimists, displayed a pleasingly designed patchwork quilt which they were offering as a draw prize. Mrs. M. J. Swanston selected the winning ticket at the close and the quilt now belongs to Mrs. Oswald Ruth of R.R. 1, Omemee.

The older ladies had also made some very attractive sewing cases, fully epuipped with needles, thread and thimble, embroidered and crocheted holders and mats for hot plates, fancy aprons, and knitting cases. They operated a "touch and take" basket from which the customers got real bargains made possible by a liberal cash donation from a citizen who takes any opportunity to aid the Golden Mile Club because it has given a handicapped friend new interests and a happier time. Contents of these small parcels were concealed in blue and gold wrappings fastened with flower seals and the basket was very attractively covered.

Mrs. E. Sanders and Mrs. J. Seeney had charge of the "touch" basket. Mrs. R. Tyers and Mrs. E. Chatten sold the bazaar articles and raffle tickets.

Soroptimists Miss A. Robinson and Miss E. Bennett had charge of the baked goods, which included home-made bread that proved a best-seller. Miss Helen Gerrard sold candy in small and large quantities, and had a wide variety of kinds and flavors to please the taste. Miss Alice Curtis was in charge of surprise packages, all deceptively wrapped. Value of the articles within varied with the prices, but they were set much lower than actual cost.

Some leather articles made by the blind were also displayed for sale with a member of that society in attendance.

Between visits to the booths, guests relaxed in comfortable lawn chairs and a covered swing. Spray from the garden fountain sparkled in the sunlight and made a sound that was cool and soothing on such a hot day as it fell into the pool where tiny goldfish swam continually.

Fortune telling was an added attraction at this event and the "seers" did a nice business. One lady foretold the future by horoscopes and another read the messages of the tea leaves.

Tea was served on a screened porch, shaded with vines. A bouquet of cornflower, daisies and sweet William set in a deep blue bowl that was filled with velvet soft pansies centred the lace covered tea table. Mrs. F. S. Schneider and Miss Ada Miller, sisters of the host, assisted the Soroptimists to pour tea. Miss Florence Scott, general convener of the garden party, took charge of the tea room and club members helped her to serve throughout the afternoon and evening.

George St. WMS Entertains FairviewMembers

Baskets of spring flowers were lovely in the Board Room of George St. United Church Tuesday afternoon when the WMS intertained Fairview WMS. Mrs. W. H Morton, leader of District Four conducted a devotional service. Miss Mary Elliott read the Scripture lesson and Mrs. L. Milburn of airview offered prayer.

Highlight of the afternoon was an address by Mrs. H. Lewis of Fairview, who represented the WMS Presbyterial at the Provincial Temperance Federation convention in Toronto. She touched on some important subjects which were discussed by the outstanding speakers.

The Rev. M. J. Aiken of St. Andrew's United Church is president for another term. In his speech he reminded the deegates of the millions of dollars the Liquor intecests are spending to educate the people to drink; therefore Temperance people must spend money to educate the young regarding evils of liquor traffic. He said leadership must come from the churches. The only communication is prayer.

A short playlet entitled "Dollars and Cents" was ably presented by Mrs. J. Fanning, Mrs. Chas. Alen, Mrs. W. H. Morton and Mrs. C. J. Turnbull of District No. 4.

Mrs. E. Brown, president, presided for the business.

A cup of tea was served at the close, and a very pleasant time followed. Flowers which decorated the rooms were sent to sick members.

Met Girl On Route Postman to Wed

TORONTO, June 16 (CP)—A friendly postman Saturday will marry the girl he met on his mail route.

Walter Sills, who has a smile and a joke for all, saved his pleasantest greetings for the pretty young working girl he passed about the same time every morning. One smile led to another and they got to talking.

Walter, who soon learned her name was Audrey Cooper and she lived on his route, really got in solid when he left her a present in the mail-box at Christmas. After that, marriage was just a matter of time.

Folks along the route think it couldn't happen to a nicer couple. Already they've chipped in with such gifts as a radio, kitchen utensils and $50 in cash.

Trent River WI Honors Helen Hay

Miss Helen Hay ofT rent River who will marry Mr. Harold Fraser Oliver of Orangeville on Saturday was honored Wednesday at a miscellaneous shower at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ella Hay by the members of Trent River Women's Institute.

Mrs. Eric Little was in charge of the afternoon's entertainment, which consisted of a sing-song, quiz contests and an apron making bee. The contest, "What the Bride Might Wear," was won by Mrs. George Brownsell. Miss Hay won the "Cupid" contest and Mrs. Melville Wight got the prize for the best apron made from two paper dollies. Mrs. Earl Greenly presented the shower gifts.

A lap lunch was served by Mrs. Jack Stephens and Mrs. Alta Stewart, sisters of the bride-elect assisted by Institute members.

DOROTHY DIX

Girl May Wreck Two Lives Stealing Sister's Husband

DEAR MISS DIX: I am 17 and I think I am in love with my brother-in-law, who is 35. How can I be sure? When I am with him I can only see his good points, but when I am away from him I see his faults. He wants me to go away with him, but I know my sister would be heartbroken. There is no use to tell me to go out with young boys, because I think they are silly. If we went away, he could support both us and his wife in comfort, so I won't be depriving her of anything. Should I take my chances at happiness?

WORRIED GIRL.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Certainly you should take your chance at happiness, but it doesn't consist in eloping with your cad of a brother-in-law. You will never find anything but misery there. Your chance of happiness depends upon your doing the decent thing and getting as far as possible from this man, who is willing to take advantage of the unsophistication of a little 17-year-old girl to gratify his passing fancy.

Try to see how little and mean he is in taking advantage of your relationship to make love to you. See how dastardly he is in betraying your own sister and making you a party to it. Think how he would throw you over as little he is to be trusted, and that easily when he tired of you as he is throwing over his wife. And think how little honor a man has who will urge a girl half his age to elope with him when he cannot even offer her marriage.

Despicable Crime

A woman who steals another woman's husband is the most despicable of all thieves, but when a girl steals her sister's husband she adds to the blackness of her crime, and if you do this you will never know another minute's peace and conscience. Don't do this terrible thing, my child. You are too young to wreck your life for such a bounder.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: A group of us girls have been arguing about two wives we know. One is a model of virtue, a good housekeeper, faithful to the nth degree, but she has a fearful temper and a tongue like a two-edged sword. She quarrels with her neighbors, fights with her in-laws, whines and complains, bullies her family and is very disagreeable.

The other woman is a poor housekeeper, very attractive to men and indulges in mild flirtations, but her untidy house is full of cats and dogs and laughter and songs and peace. She is generous, tactful, a good sport, a gay companion, an angel of tenderness and sympathy to those in sickness or trouble, and she makes her husband and children perfectly happy.

Which do you think is the better wife and woman — the virtuous shrew, or the beloved sinner?

MARYBELLE.

ANSWER: It doesn't appear from your account that your sinner has really committed any sin. But anyway, if I had to live with either woman, I would certainly choose as a companion the one who occasionally stubs her toe because she is so busy helping others along the road that she doesn't watch her step as carefully as she should, to the woman who walks the straight and narrow path without ever holding out a hand to one in trouble.

Of course, it is a fine thing for a woman to be a good housekeeper, but it is not the most important virtue that a wife and mother can possess. Some of the most uncomfortable houses I have ever visited in were as clean as a pin and had excellently prepared meals, but the women at the head of them were naggers and scolds and were such slaves to order that no one dared move for fear of disturbing things.

And I have been in other homes where everything was at sixes and sevens and the food enough to poison an ostrich, but where the wives and mothers diffused such gayety and good nature that they made their homes a place of refuge to which their children flew from the world. But, fortunately, a woman can be both a good housekeeper and a jolly good fellow. You don't have to choose between one or the other.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am a lonely widow, 55 years old, my children all grown up and married. I have an offer of marrige from a man of another nationality. Would you advise me to marry him or go and live with one of my children?

WIDOW.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: If the man is fine and honorable and all that he should be, his nationality does not matter, unless he wishes to take you to his own country to live. Very few American women are ever happy in foreign countries where the ways, and particularly the ways of husbands with wives, are different from ours.

But if the man is at all eligible you will be happier with him than you will be living with your children. A woman who is used to her own home does not fit easily into her children's.

MISS RUTH FLORENCE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Florence, 301 Elias Ave., who received the Bachelor of Arts Degree at the University of Toronto last week.

St. John's WA Enjoy Supper

Afternoon Branch of St. John's Woman's Auxiliary met for supper in the parish hall on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. D. Eldred, convener, had the delicious food arranged in cafeteria style. Small tables were set up for convenience of the guests and each was centred with lovely flowers as were the serving tables. Showing of two interesting films was the after-supper entertainment arranged by Mrs. J. Cridland. Mrs. H. C. Sootheran, president, conducted a short business meeting after members gathered. Mrs. F. E. Hooper led the devotions and conveners gave short reports. Mrs. H. Kelsey, Dorcas convener, read letters from the matron of Prince Albert School thanking the WA for a bale, and from the Save the Children Society for clothing. There were also letters from England acknowledging food parcels. Mrs. T. H. Floyd reported on the closing meeting of the Girls' Auxiliary. The president praised Mrs. Floyd, Miss M. Stevenson and Miss M. McCulloch for the splendid work they are doing with the younger group.

Of Interest to Women

Mrs. Drew's Friendly Manner Important Asset to Leader

OTTAWA, June 16 (CP)—Mrs George Drew, wife of the Progressive Conservative leader, is accompanying her husband during his current general federal election campaign tour and is doing her bit to win support for the party.

Florenze Drew, a tall brunette with large brown eyes, a contagious smile, and a smooth, friendly way of speaking, already is well-known in many parts of Canada. She made cross-country junkets with her husband after he was selected to head his party at a national convention in October, 1948.

It was at the convention that Mrs. Drew began the conquest of many people who had never seen or heard much about her before. The reception she was given after a "thank you" speech following her husband's election almost equalled that given the new leader.

Mrs. Drew confesses she likes meeting people and says the personal contacts after meetings mean more to her than any speech she may make. In her speeches—she usually takes the floor after her husband—she calls for support of Progressive Conservative policies. But mostly she stresses the need for greater participation in politics by women.

"Women are a power because their voting number is so enormous," she said on one occasion. "Naturally, they have the responsibilities of citizenship, but it is not enough to get them out to vote. They must be informed.

"We all have to know what we are voting for, and what we want for our families growing up in this country."

Fluent Linguist

She speaks extemporaneously as a rule. When she has to use a prepared text she writes the speech herself. In 1945, when her husband was campaigning as premier of Ontario, she addressed a Sault Ste. Marie meeting in English, French and Italian.

She has been speaking the three languages fluently since she was a child.

Mrs. Drew was born 37 years ago in Florence, Italy, and was named for that city. She is the daughter of Edward Johnson, the famous Canadian tenor who became general manager of the Metropolitan Opera of New York, and of his wife, Beatrice, Viscountess O'Arneiro of Lisbon. They married while the Viscountess was in Paris studying music.

The Viscountess died when Florenze was eight and she came to this continent a few years later when her father joined the Chicago Opera Company. She went to school in Chicago and in Guelph, Ont., where her father's parents lived. She later attended Bishop Strachan School in Toronto and then went to Switzerland and Germany where she studied singing.

She gave up thoughts of a singing career when her father was appointed general manager of the Metropolitan and returned to New York to live with him.

One of her later trips took her to London and there she renewed a childhood acquaintanceship with George Drew. They were married in 1936.

The drews have two children Edward 10, and Sandra eight. Like their mother, the children are musical. Edward plays the violin and Sandra the piano.

On Monday, June 13th inst. The Pleasant Monday Afternoon Club of Oshawa held their annual outing in Peterborough and speaking for all attending had a very interesting and enjoyable trip to your fair city. We wish to express our thanks and appreciation to the Dominion Woollen Mills, the Silverwood Dairy, the Nashua Paper Co. and the Quaker Oats Co. guides for their time and courtesy in showing and explaining the intricate workings of their respective establishments which were a source of interest and pleasure to all taking the trip through these factories. Let us hope in the near future to have the opportunity of visiting other places of industry as was our pleasure in Monday's visit. Uniform Building Restrictions In County Asked By Warden

Two subjects which loom large on the agenda at the present session of the County Council are the possible appointment of valuator of buildings, and uniform Building Restriction By-Law.

This was indicated on Wednesday when Warden William Darling of Dummer delivered his address. No detailed explanation of either was given.

The Warden's remarks were: "Mr. Sparling, County Assessor, has been in close touch with the Assessors of the various municipalities in the County, and the work he is doing will undoubtedly be of great benefit in connection with the equalization of the assessments."

"I would ask consideration by the members of the Council as to the desirability of the appointment of a valuator of buildings to assist the County Assessor."

And on the proposed by-law: ". . .members of the Council (should consider) enacting a Building Restriction By-Law so as to make uniform the restrictions in the various municipalities of the County."

He gave unstinted praise to the measures taken by John McColl, chairman of the Reforestation Area Committee, and Caretaker Raymond Rodgers to put out the recent forest fire in Dummer. Through their actions a grave disaster was avoided, the Warden stated.

Members were again reminded that the formal opening of the Chemong Caueway would be June 22.

"This very important work has been long spoken of and its completion is a matter of extreme satisfaction to myself and to the members of the County Council," he said. "It will I feel sure bring the ratepayers of the township of Ennismore more closely in touch with the other ratepayers of the County of Peterborough."

He thanked the Council for its co-operation and the permanent County officials and their staffs as well. And he said he appreciated the assistance of the Ministers of Highways, Municipal Affairs, Lands and Forests.

Lt.-Col. Thomas Dalton Johnston who died in January filled a long time with both ability and faithfulness, said the Warden. His successor Stanley D. Johnston will fill the vacancy to the satisfaction of the community, he added.

BC Coalition Candidates Poll 62% of Record Vote

VANCOUVER, June 16 (CP)—Candidates of the Coalition Government polled 62 per cent of a record vote in British Columbia's provincial election Wednesday. In the 1945 election, the fusion of Liberals and Progressive Conservatives polled 56 per cent.

Tabulation by the Canadian Press of more than 88 per cent of the votes showed that CCF candidates received 35 per cent of the votes compared to 38 in 1945.

In the stalemate 1941 election which led to the Coalition, Liberals polled 33 per cent of the vote and Conservatives 31.

With 2,144 of 2,421 polls reported, the Canadian Press tabulation follows (members elected in brackets.)

Coalition: 1949, 398,664 (40): 1945, 261,147 (37); 1941, Nil.

CCF: 1949, 224,135 (6); 1945, 175,960 (10); 1941, 151,440 (14).

Liberal: 1949 Nil; 1945, 149,525 (20); 1941, Nil.

Conservative: 1949, Nil; 1945, Nil; 1941, 140,282 (12).

Others: 1949, 21,163 (2): 1945, 30,640 (10); 1941 12,646 (2).

Totals: 1949, 643,962 (48); 1945, 467,747 (48); 1941, 453,893 (48).

Drew's Courage And Honesty Hailed At Conservative Rally

"If there is anything Canadians want it is an honest government and the Liberals have not been an honest government," Miss Mary Skeans, Toronto, vice-pres. of the High Park Young Progressive Conservatives Association told a meeting of the local YPC Wednesday night.

In contrast to what the Liberals had to offer she said the Conservatives had George Drew, "a perfect example of courage and honesty."

"We must show people all over the world that we in Canada still believe in democracy, and can turn out a tired old government and put in a new and vigorous one," she stated.

Miss Skeans was one of three speakers who addressed the recently-organized Peterborough YPC on Wednesday night. The others were Robert Welch, St. Catharines, a graduate this year of McMaster University, and Gordon K. Fraser, member for Parliament.

John W. Corkery, president of Peterborough West in the last the local Association, attributed the small turnout of less than 50 persons to the torrid weather. He promised the speakers would be find a cooler place for the evening. And the three speakers gladbrief to allow the audience to ly complied.

Miss Skeans advised the young Tories to pay careful attention to their canvassing so that was one way to find out what the voters were really thinking.

Then she suggested a few talking points.

The answer to the CCF cry for free education, she said, was a PC plan whereby after voluntarily serving for a designated period in one of the armed services, a person would be eligible for university training, trade school or similar benefits.

"If a thing is offered to us free, we don't have the same regard for it."

Orders-in-Council

Several other criticisms of Liberal policy were then voiced by the speaker: 150,000 orders-in-council in the last 10 years, passed by as few as four cabinet ministers; treatment of the Japanese Canadians during the war, contrasted with the privileges extended to the five "pro-Nazi" Frenchmen; 53 trade agreements with Britain before the war, now only four.

On the last-mentioned point she stated: "Mr. Howe has'nt been able to give any good reason for that change." She tossed another barb at the Minister of Trade and Commerce by sying "Mr. Howe has as much control over Canadian industry today as Hitler did in Germany."

She warned against Socialism claiming it was the thin edge of a wedge leading to Communism. "In every country in Europe now under Communist control, the Communists have been preceded by a Socialist government."

"George Drew is a young man himself and he will see that youth is looked after," stated Gordon K. Fraser, who followed Miss Skeans.

Too many raw materials are being shepped out of the country for processing and manufacture elsewhere, he claimed. Asbestos was one example, and after processing in the United States was shipped back for use at Raybestos Company.

Pulpwood was another case in point. "When he was premier R. B. Bennett insisted that raw products be manufactured in Canada, but the Liberals threw that out when they were elected."

Universities are turning out technically skilled young men and women, said Mr. Fraser, but because they cannot get advancement in this country they are going to the United States.

"I know that when George Drew becomes Prime Minister they will not have to go over to the States to get advancement They will get it here."

Lower income taxes are also on the way if the PCs are elected, said Mr. Fraser. And he contended that the present government is taking four times as much in income tax as in 1939.

"This government has failed terribly in housing," he stated.

Last year it promised 100,000 houses and produced only 4,600. Housing projects at Sarnia and Windsor were bungled he claimed.

The Veterans' Land Act has so much "red tape" attached to it that applications in last March are still not through, said Mr. Fraser.

Motion Picture Pioneers Sponsor Film

A special advance midnight showing of Mother Was a Freshman starring Loretta Young, Van Johnston and Rudy Vallee will be featured by all the theatres of Peterborough Friday night to raise funds for Canadian Motion Picture Pioneers.

The picture will be sponsored by the Pioneers and proceeds will go into their benevolent fund to take care of Canadian old timers of the motion picture industry.

The purpose of the organization was to bring together in a fraternal spirit the pioneer men and women of the Canadian motion picture industry. From time to time they hold informal gatherings for the purpose of keeping alive the spirit of comradeship.

These get togethers are held annually, semi-annually and quarterly. Pioneers remember the beginnings of the feature productions, the building of real motion picture theatres, and the evolution of the "flicker" film to the smooth action films of today.

During World War II the pioneers became active in war services organizatons. Theatres collected millions of dollars worth of clothing, and food supplies.

All members of theatre staffs across Canada are co-operating by giving their services free in this special series of showings.

WHILE CANADA generally could do with a lot of rain right now, other places on this continent have been getting more than their share. Continuous thunderstorms have deluged the Dallas-Fort Worth area in Texas, causing drainage waters to back up. This bus was stalled on a flooded highway near Dallas. Passengers were able to wade to safety. Severe damage has been caused throughout the district.

Rotary Motto To Be Changed

NEW YORK, June 16.—(CP).—Normen G. Foster of Ottawa, sergeant-at-arms at Rotary International's annual convention here, Wednesday said he would have to be "unconscious" to take the job again.

That's what he said from the platform at the service organization's 40th annual meeting.

But later he told reporters:

"I have no trouble with people celebrating too much. Our crowd doesn't celebrate. I have yet to see, in the eight or 10 Rotary conventions I've attended, a man come into the meeting under the influence of liquor."

It was revealed at the convention today that Rotary International has dropped one of its two traditional mottoes.

The discarded slogan was "He profits most who serves best."

The Rotary board of directors abandoned the slogan because it was felt the word "profit" might be misconstrued.

That leaves Rotary with one motto: "Service above self."

Houlihan Rites Held

A large number of relatives and friends attended the funeral of Eugene Francis Houlihan, 238½ Simcoe St., which was held Wednesday morning from the Anglesey Funeral Home at 9.00 with Requiem High Mass in St. Peter's Cathedral. Mr. Houlihan died suddenly on Monday morning.

The mass was said by Rev. J. F. Houlihan, of Immaculate Conception Parish, nephew of the deceased. In the sanctuary were Rev. P. P. Butler, Rev. F. K. Malane, Rev. R. J. Garvey, and Rev. G. F. Gaughan.

Pallbearers were Joseph Ginene, Joseph Shine, Donald O'Connell, M. McNee, Frank McNee, and V. J. Garside.

Interment was in St. Luke's Cemetery, Downeyville. Graveside prayers were said by Rev. Father Houlihan, Garvey, and Gaughan.

Finds Election

So I beats it out to find her and get myself all straightened out on the question. After lookin' around a bit I comes up to her and told her about my survey and what I thought. "Elmer." She says, "There sure is going to be an election come this 27th., but the way folks is going around in this town sort of indifferent to things, you can only count on three guys doing any votin'."

So that's the way me and the Old Woman has got it figured out.

Well, I'm comin' into town again this week and I'm goin' to call around to see the candidates and find out what they got on their minds. I want to know if they just want a salaried position or a job. And then I'm goin' out on a crusade and let the folks in Peterborough know what it's all about and maybe I can stir up enough interest to get them out to vote. It's goin' to be some chore apparently, but I kinda feel that, what this town needs is a durn good shot in the arm or a kick in the pants. I can't figure it out at this point yet but will be reportin' later on the doin's, that is if there's anythin' doin'.

Taking Money Twice Fears BudgetWrecked

PEMBROKE, July 16 (CP) — Revenue Minister McCann said Wednesday night Progressive Conservative leader George Drew is promising Canadians both lower taxes and greater benefits from the Federal treasury and argued that an one who would say such things is "stark mad."

Introducing Prime Minister St. Laurent to an election meeting, Dr. McCann said Mr. Drew's proposed financial policies would lead this country down the road to economic disaster."

He said the recent budget, although not passed by parliament, is in effect by "tradition" and that its acceptance is one of the issues in the election.

Exhibition Park For Sports Use

Five ball clubs are practising and playing their games at Exhibition Park, G. A. Gillespie, manager, said Wednesday. Several of them are hard ball teams and the other softball.

The Harriers Club are using the track and the boxers have had one of the buildings all winter. They are just now moving out for the summer.

"The directors of the Exhibitions,' Mr. Gillespie said, "would like to see the playing field of the park used as much as possible, especially by the young people in the south end of the city.

"No one who has ever asked for the use of the grounds for these purposes has been refused and I know it is the wish of the president and members of the board and also of Morrow Trust that the park should be used extensively.

"There is a big grandstand there, the ground has been levelled and reseeded after the use by the government and we can say that good accommodation is right at hand."

Mr. Gillespie said that directors did not take a narrow and grasping view of things. Kinsmen Club lost money on a holiday program last year and the directors did not collect from them, "I suppose the Junior Chamber of Commerce lost money on May 14 last. It is not for me to comment about what may be the result in this case."

Investigate Before Investing Advice Given Lakefield Group

LAKEFIELD, June 16 (Staff)—Vice-president of the Association of Better Business Bureaux Incorporated, A. R. Haskell of Toronto, addressed a gathering of members of the Lakefield Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday evening, held at the Lakeview Hotel, Young's Point. He spoke of the work his Association is doing in revealing the operations of manifold rackets that the public are exposed to and warned everyone to investigate doubtful business practices before they invest in them, which is generally too late, if the opportunity is allowed to slip.

Mr. Haskell's subject matter was a long one and he was only able to touch briefly on its highlights. He told them of the ridiculous odds levied on players of pyramid clubs, the methods employed by shady characters in financial, charitable, missionary and bookselling rackets. Swindling transactions took place in early times and flourished to such an extent, in the present day, that his Association handle more than 2,000 inquiries and complaints each month, 70 per cent of them from women who control the country's purchasing power.

The small effort required for people to inquire into doubtful dealings pays them dividends, according to Mr. Haskell, at the rate of $300,000 a year in the revealing rackets. He blamed the public in large measure for not taking the trouble to inquire and warned them to "Shop before buying."

Chamber president C. J. Davis presided at the dinner and introduced the guest speaker. E. H. Northey moved a vote of thanks and this was seconded by vice-president Don Hendren. The latter pointed out that the speaker's advice should be a special warning to small-town business men whom he thought should tighten their vigilance on city-slicker operators. He explained how the town of Port Hope handled this particular problem in the issuance of trading permits to itinerant business men and thought their method could be adopted by Lakefield merchants.

Being ladies night, a total of 60 people enjoyed the evening, including ten from Buckhorn, headed by merchant T. Mason. They were welcomed by the Lakefield hosts and in a reply of thanks Mr. Mason said Buckhorn merchants were slightly disturbed about the pending highway construction program which, they thought, would hurt their summer business considerably. President Davis explained that tourist traffic would be diverted via Burleigh and the Oregon Trail to Buckhorn from the newly-established Lakefield Tourist Bureau. He hoped, further, that the 4,500 district tourist pamphlets issued by the Chamber of Commerce would increase tourist flow to the area considerably.

Drought End Still Not In Sight

Sudbury Area Gets Big Fall Of Rain In 4 Days

TORONTO, June 17 —(CP)— Ontario still needs rain to help relieve crop damage resulting from three weeks of drought.

Another hot, humid day is forecast for the dry areas of southern Ontario, with temperatures well into the 80s. The drenching rain for which farmers are hoping is not yet in sight.

A few scattered showers fell this week but they missed many of the worst drought sections, such as Hamilton, where no rain has been reported for 25 days. Hamilton has had less than two inches of rain since April 15 and farmers in that district are hauling water for their livestock.

In Ottawa J. L. Orr of Toronto, head of the low temperatures division of the National Research Council, said that man can force nature to produce rain but it was unknown whether enough of it could be produced to aid Ontario's parched crops. In an interview he said the council has completed 57 rain-making trials and got rain half the time.

Mr. Orr said that if any section of Ontario wanted the council to carry out rain making trials "we'd probably meet the request." There would be the question of payment and costs of flying aircraft and the dry ice used in the experiments but "it might be worth it to the farmers."

Consumers have been warned to wash strawberries, lettuce, radishes and similar garden products before eating them. The Brant County Health Unit said Thursday night that some growers in the Brantford district have to use river water to save their crops and he water may be contaminated.

Will Be Stunted

Fruit crops have suffered from the drought less than some other agricultural products. Fair yields are expected, but fruit will probably be stunted by lack of moisture.

The Ontario Agriculture Department estimates that the drought has already meant a loss to Ontario farmers of more than $100,000,000 in potential crops.

SUDBURY, June 17—(CP)— The steady rain that brought much-needed relief to Sudbury district farms in the last four days was the heaviest four-day drenching the district has had since last October. There were 1.94 inches recorded between Monday and Thursday by the Sudbury office of the Dominion Meteorological Bureau.

The heaviest fall was recorded Thursday, when .87 inches fell. Tuesday was next in line with .62 inches, Wednesday in third place with .39 inches and Monday last with only .06 inches.

Red In Disfavour

ZURICH, Switzerland, June 17 —(AP)—Ana Pauker, firebrand Communist who runs Romania's foreign affairs, is in disfavor with Moscow over money matters, the Swiss Weekly Weltwoche says today. The independent newspaper, one o fthe most widely-circulated in Switzerland, says Foreign Minister Pauker deposited funds of the Romanian Communist party in Swiss banks without advising the Cominform.

Power Workers Threaten Strike

LONDON, June 17 (CP)—Britain's labor situation improved today as locomotive crews agreed to call off their "Sundays only" strikes, but the threat of a power blackout darkened the scene for Londoners.

At a conference of the National Union of Railwaymen, the workers voted to call off their wildcat, 24-hour token strikes which for the last four weekends have paralyzed traffic in northeastern England and Scotland. This apparently paved the way for a resumption of talks on the railway employees' complaints about wages and working conditions.

The engineers and firemen staged their token walkouts in protest against a new summer schedule requiring them to spend some of their free time away from home. But the major claim of all the railway workers, represented by the NUR and the Associated Society of Locomotive Enginemen and Firemen, is asking a weekly wage increase of 10s ($2) weekly.

The vote today decided to end the token strike but directed the NUR executive to negotiate the "lodging turn" problem with a view to eliminate all unnecessary overnight stops away from home.

Meanwhile, the new cloud appeared on the industrial horizon with the threat of more than 8,000 power-station workers to stage an unofficial srike. This ness and stop electric-powered would plunge London into darktransportation.

Police Rescue Cobourg Boys

COBOURG, June 17 (ENS)— Adrift for an hour on Lake Ontario on an old raft used for diving, Jack Daignault and Hugh Stewart, two 14-year-old Coburg boys were rescued at 7.30 Thursday evening by Constable Homer Seale and Jack Gutteridge who brought the boys back in a rowboat.

Daignault and Stewart were swimming from the raft and didn't notice that an offshore breeze had sprung up until they were moving a considerable distance from shore. Stewart is not a strong swimmer so Daignault remained with him on the raft. Both expected to reach a point of land to the west but the wind blew them past and they continued westward and about a half mile out. They were spotted from shore and the police notified.

Seale and Gutteridge rowed out and brought them in just as Constable H. Pearse and Jack Lavis came along in another boat. The boys were in no particular danger but were glad to see their rescuers as they would have been out several hours before the wind would have changed.

Three Men Meet Death In Crash of Plane

FORT WILLIAM, June 17 — (CP). — Three men were killed in a plane crash at Nakina, Ont., approximately 160 miles northeast of here, according to reports reaching the Lakehead to-day.

Reported dead were Felix Cryderman, a well-known bush pilot; Sherman S. Scott, about 31, a timber cruiser; and Robert Scott, asistant timber cruiser. The two passengers, who are not related, were employed by the Long Lac Pulp and Paper Co.

Meagre information here said the plane crashed on a takeoff or burst into flames soon after it was aloft and crashed in shallow water. The three burned bodies were recovered, the reports said.

Czech Prelate Virtually Prisoner In Own Palace

PRAGUE, June 17—(AP)—Archbishop Joseph Beran, head of Czechoslovakia's 9,000,000 Roman Catholics, today was a virtual prisoner in his own palace, as the Communist government's war on the church appeared nearing a climax. A reliable informant described the Prague Archbishop's status as "house arrest".

Two priests from Archbishop Beran's Consistory have been arrested and taken away by police after a raid on the Consistory section of the Archbishop's Palace in which police tried to seize church records.

The customary armed guard stood outside Archbishop Beran's palace.

More significantly, the reception desk and telephone switchboard inside the palace gate were manned by secret police.

Two Associated Press correspondents who tried to see the Archbishop were told by personnel at the reception desk that "the Archbishop says 'No.' "

Archbishop Berans for some months has fought against a government campaign to take over schools and abolish clerical papers.

In recent weeks he has sent out a number of clerical letters breathing defiance of government decrees involving the church-state conflict. In one message he hinted that excommunication would be imposed against "collaborators."

Like Hungary?

VATICAN CITY, June 17 (AP) —An informed Vatican source today expressed the belief that Czechoslovakia is "ripe for events like those in Hungary."

He referred to reports of new pressure by the Communist government against the Roman Catholic Church and the reported house arrest of Monsignor Joseph Beran, Archbishop of Prague.

The Vatican informant said these events paralleled similar anti-church campaigns in Hungary shortly before the arrest, trial and life sentencing of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Primate of Hungary.

Refuse To Take Cargo Off Ship

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., June 17— (Reuters) — Longshoremen today refused to unload the Canadian freighter Seaboard Trader, the crew of which has been on strike for seven weeks. The ship's crew all are members of the Canadian Seamen's Union.

The decision not to handle the cargo of wheat and timber followed an informal dockside meeting today. A mass meeting of dock workers has been called for tonight to discuss the question.

The crew picketed the ship Thursday after chain lashings and deck cargo had been removed. The crew charged that the chains were removed by scab labor.

Rubber Plant Strike At Kitchener Ended

KITCHENER, June 17 (CP)—A dispute which started Wednesday with walkout of 18 pocket building workers and today had affected between 800 and 900 employees of the Dominion Rubber Company tire plant, ended at noon today.

President Carl Fitzgerald of Local 80 of the United Rubber Workers (C.I.O.) announced union officials met with the pocket builders, and that the latter had reached an "understanding" and would return to work at 7 a.m. Monday.

The trouble at the factory, normally employing 1,250, arose out of a grievance relating to seniority of one pocket builder. The mill, tube and shipping department workers were not on strike.

Unemployment Rising In U.S.

WASHINGTON, June 17 (AP) —Rising unemployment and swelling relief rolls have led five States to pass depression-style relief laws and at least seven cities in the United States to revive "work relief" projects.

But an Associated Press survey today suggested no national emergency. It found most States certain they could handle their relief load in stride.

It indicated joblessness has dwindled or stabilized in at least 10 States in recent weeks or months. It showed that, almost everywhere, unemployment insurance has been a "cushion" to keep most laid-off workers off "poor relief" until they found new jobs.

Not Crisis Yet

A government memorandum supports these findings. It says country-wide statistics "do not reflect the emergence of any new crisis." The report adds:

"The current relief situation does not appear to be one which requires (federal) action beyond that already recommended by the President."

President Truman has proposed federal grants for "home relief" to match State aid to payless families on the same basis as the federal funds now used for the blind, the aged, and dependent children. Officials say it would cost $230,000,000 a year, and more in bad times. tighʼened upagueceotionalLeNaa

Non-farm employment sagged another 280,000 in May, the Bureau of Labor Statistics announced today. It stood at 43,655,000 or 961,000 below a year ago.

Tents Only Home

TORONTO, June 17 (CP) Permission to erect tents as temporary accommodation has been given three evicted families by suburban Mimico town council. The three families have been living in the basement of the town hall since their eviction Monday.

Mayor A. Norriss said the council was "sticking its neck out" in making the offer since there was a by-law prohibiting tents in the municipality.

Increase of Seven Cents An Hour, 40-hour Week Asked by 15 Brotherhoods

Negotiating Committee Asks Conference With Railway Managements Before July 16

MONTREAL, June 17—(CP)—Fifteen International Brotherhoods, representing 100,000 Canadian rail workers, announced today that they have served notice on the railroads demanding a five-day, 40-hour week with the same take-home pay as for 48, plus a wage increase of seven cents an hour. Formal notice of the Unions' demands was served on the railways Thursday, a month before expiration of the agreement which brought more than 150,000 rail workers a 17-cents-an-hour wage increase last July 16.

There was no immediate comment from the railways on the submission.

The announcement was made by Frank H. Hall, vice-president of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks (A.F.L.) who is chairman of the Brotherhoods' Joint Negotiating Committee.

Under the current agreement average railroad wage is $1.09 an hour. The 48-hour work week prevails in nearly all branches except the locomotive shops where a 44-hour week is in force.

Although the 15 Brotherhoods affiliated with the American Federation of Labor announced a month ago that they intended to seek reduced working hours and higher wages, today's announcement was the first time they had made public their actual wage demands.

At the same time the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees (C.C.L.), which numbers 25,000 members, is preparing formal notice of its intention to seek revision of the present agreement with the railways.

The C.B.R.E., whose members work on the same terms as the A.F.L.-affiliated workers, also announced in May that it would seek the 40-hour week and a 30-per cent wage increase. The C.B.R.E. is expected to submit its formal notice in a few days.

Mr. Hall's announcement said: "The proposals require that the adjustment to a 40-hour week be made without reducing the amount to be paid for 40 straight-time hours below the compensation now paid for a 48-hour work week. It is proposed that the New work hours shall be made effective Sept. 1, 1949.

"Employees must have two consecutive days off duty each week, but if they are worked on these days must be paid at punitive rates not less than time and a half.

"The amount of wage increase requested is seven cents per hour, to be effective July 17, 1949."

Mr. Hall said the negotiating committee has asked for a conference with the railroads prior to next July 16.

Five Teen-age Boys Arrested in Lindsay

The five, Ron Gilmore 19, Gordon Walsh 17, Wiliam Kerr 18, Norman Howard 17, and Bill Burns 18, pleaded guilty and were remanded one week for sentence. The group were alleged to have been creating a disturbance and bothering the caretaker of a local casket company.

Five-months-old Baby Dies As Home Burns

CORNWALL, June 17 (CP)— Jimmie Mellon, five-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mellon of nearby Mille Roches, was burned to death to-day when fire of unknown origin destroyed the small frame home in which the family resided.

The 23-year-old father said he left the house early this morning to go to a neighbor's. On his arrival he was told his house was on fire.

"I ran right back, but the place was a mass of flames," Mellon said. "I tried to get in, but they held me back."

Mrs. Mellon said she had turned off the oil stove before leaving the house with a three-year-old son to go to a neighbor's house. The young victim had been left in a baby swing near a window to get the breeze.

"I was gone only a few minutes," she said. "When I started back I saw th house on fire and ran as fast as I could. The flames were so hit I could not get near my baby."

TCA Sunday Flights Over Toronto Stopped

TORONTO, June 17—(CP)— Officials of Trans-Canada Airlines announced today that all Sunday sightseeing flights over Toronto have been discontinued as of this week. They said the cancellation of the flights was the result of a letter received from representatives of the Lord's Day Alliance advising that action would be taken against the airline if it continued Sunday operations over the city.

The Ontario Attorney General's office informed T.C.A. earlier this week that it was liable to prosecution under the Lord's Day Act since the sightseeing flights were not for the purpose of transporting passengers to any given destination, airline officials said. Similar flights over Montreal will be continued.

St. Laurent States Liberals Plan To Help All Classes

By The Canadian Press.

Finance Minister Abbott says he's still against allowing mines to sell their gold on the so-called free world market. He told a political rally in Montreal Thursday night that Progressive Conservative proposals for the establishment of a free gold market are impractical. The free market could not absorb all of Canada's output and she would be faced with the problem of disposing of the remainder.

As the federal election campaign moved towards the June 27 voting date, 10 days away, party leaders continued their drive for ballots in widely-separated sections of the country.

Prime Minister St. Laurent moved into the Quebec countryside at Valleyfield, while Progressive Conservative leader George Drew rolled through western Ontario to the big industrial city of Windsor. M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader, addressed a meeting in Edmonton.

Says Canada Not 'Down At The Heels' Physically

SASKATOON, June 17—(CP) — Canada's youth is not "down at the heels", nor is the Dominion a C3 nation physically, the Canadian Medical Association was told today.

Surgical Captain Archie McCallum, medical Director-General of the Royal Canadian Navy, said "a bad piece of propaganda has been allowed to prevail" for nearly 10 years.

Early in the Second World War reports were published saying 46 per cent. of armed forces inductees were unfit for category "A". Since that time the impression has spread that young Canadians "have gone to the dogs physically," Capt. McCallum said.

Because the rejection statistics were not adequately interpreted they had left "a feeling of uneasiness throughout the country which is unjustified."

"A man could live forever if he only had flat feet," he said. "Many defects were remediable, like hernia, hemorrhoids, and varicose veins, which were correctible by surgery."

There were other causes for what appeared an abnormally high rejection rate. "One of the reasons was lack of medical officers to make a proper appraisal" the naval surgeon said.

Believe Foreign Ministers Near Agreement On German Trade Pact

Stretch Deadline Until Sunday Following Gruelling Series Of Sessions; Deadlocked On Austrian Treaty

PARIS, June 17—(AP)—The Big Four Foreign Ministers have stretched their unofficial deadline to make another stab at reaching accords on an independence treaty for Austria and a German Trade Pact. Deadlocked early today after a gruelling series of sessions, the ministers recessed until Sunday and set still another meeting for Monday. The parley had been expected to end Thursday night. Informed observers said agreement on the German question seems near. They said the issue has boiled down to east-west differences of principle. Hope for some sort of agreement was bolstered by the fact that the ministers extended their meetings.

The German question hinges on a trade-and-transport accord, over which the ministers have been wrangling for days. The situation has been complicated by the four-week Berlin rail strike.

Even if the ministers settle their Austrian differences, the pact would take some months to write. Probably it will not be ready for signature until fall, when the ministers are reported planning to reconvene in New York.

An Austrian treaty might widen the gulf between Russia and Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito. Tito's government has put forth several war claims on Austria, which Russia in the past has backed. If the treaty is signed, Russia will have withdrawn that backing.

The West believes this would move Tito closer towards them in an economic sense at least.

Furthermore, the Austrian treaty would help stabilize the overall European situation by relaxing tension. This would enable the countries of Western Europe to concentrate more on economic recovery than on military preparedness. The West thinks economic health is the best possible antidote to Communism.

Detective Faces Serious Charges

TORONTO, June 17 (CP)—Detective - Sergeant Arthur Keay will apear this forenoon before a special police commission meeting called to investigate charges against him. The officer was suspended from the force Tuesday.

Mayor Hiram E. McCallum, chairman of the police commission, said Thursday night that the charges against Keay, who has been attached to the headquarters detective squad, are of "a very serious nature." He declined to elaborate.

The mayor said he had signed subpoenas for about 50 witnesses. He hinted that other municipalities might enter into the inquiry.

Before being promoted to his present rank, Keay was active in prosecuting drug cases. With Alex Deans, who resigned from the force some time ago, he recovered several thousand dollars worth of bonds stolen from banks and buried by the thieves in farm land along a highway just west of the city.

Police Slayer Dies On Gallows

MONTREAL, June 17 (CP)—A faint breeze fanned the warm air in the yard of Bordeau jail shortly after midnight today as the hangman's noose was slipped around the neck of Douglas Perrault, convicted bank robber and police slayer.

Minutes later the jail bell tolled three times, announcing that 28-year-old Perrault had been executed for the murder of one of two policemen during a bank holdup last September. The trap was sprung at 12:39 and 14 minutes later Dr. Romeo Plouffe, jail physician pronounced Perrault dead.

He was the second of three men to die for the killing of Constables Paul-Emile Duranleau and Nelson Paquin. Noel Cloutier was hanged March 11 and Donald Perrault is under sentence to die July 8.

Students Roast At Exams; It's The Heat

Students of grade XIII at PCVS feel that Mother Nature is trying to make things just as hot for them this week as the Department of Education is doing. They are writing their departmental examinations. Eight examinations, each of two hours and a half duration, were written up to Thursday night.

Tuesday was the hottest day as far as the temperature was concerned, but many found the real sizzler to be the trigonmetry statistics examination Thursday morning.

Everything is being done to make the students comfortable in spite of the weather. Windows have been left open at night. The large intake fan system at the school has been left running all night to get the cooler night air into the school.

Classroom Temperatures

Classrooms on the northwest side of the school were used for two days. Tuesday afternoon the temperatures in the rooms were: Room 114, 88 degrees; room 117, 86 degrees; room III, 84 degrees, and room 105, 82 degrees.

Taking a cool look at these temperatures, Principal C. S. Browne decided to shift the writing rooms from the first floor rooms to the classrooms in the basement. This is the first year since Mr. Browne has been principal that the examination rooms have had to be changed. Although the basement rooms are three feet below the ground level, the temperature in one of these Thursday was 78 degrees.

Studying for the examinations has been a real sweat. Some students have put their books aside during the daylight heat and are studying after dark and late into the night instead.

"The examinations and the hot weather are sure helping me to lose weight," said one husky student.

to all the people and not exclusively to any one class or group." Canada's prosperity came not from "a policy of promises," but from " a policy of realization."

Mr. Drew told an audience at Chatham, that Premier Smallwood of Newfoundland had made a "cold blooded threat" to the electors of the new province when he reportedly said electors or Ferryland riding would not receive "one red cent" if they did not vote Liberal.

Mr. Coldwell, at Edmonton, promised that a CCF government would bring Canada's chartered banks under public ownership "to break the power of financial monopolies and bring currency and credit under the control of all the people whom it should serve."

Would Aid Farmers

Mr. Drew said that if he is called upon to form a federal government after June 27, he will help farmers build up marketing organizations. While he was Ontario premier, he said his administration co-operated with such farm organizations as the Ontario Sugar Beet Growers in working out marketing plans. Similar co-operation would be the policy of a federal government he headed.

In a speech later in Windsor, Mr. Drew criticized Health Minister Martin in the minister's hometown. He accused Mr. Martin of saying that Ontario and Quebec blocked any national health program for Canada. Prime Minister St. Laurent had said on two occasions that such a plan could not be undertaken at present because Canada's hospitals were unprepared for such a task as health insurance would place upon them, said Mr. Drew. Mr. St. Laurent had said it would be "dishonest" to launch such a scheme at this time.

Mr. St. Laurent singled Quebec out as the key province in the federal election and went to Valleyfield to campaign anew for votes in a province which he predicted will go "overwhelmingly" Liberal.

Valleyfield turned out in the thousands to greet Mr. St. Laurent even as a transcribed CBC national broadcast was carrying his prophesy that not only will the Liberals sweep Quebec, they also will make gains in Ontario.

In the national broadcast, his fourth of the campaign, the Prime Minister said it "would be very surprising if the Conservatives do nearly as well" in Ontario as in 1945 when they won 48 seats. But even if they held their own in Ontario he figured they would still need 90 per cent of Quebec's seats to form a majority government.

The Weather

Peterborough Temperatures:

Today:
Night low ..66 Noon ..75

Yesterday:
Highest....82 Lowest ..60

One Year Ago:
Highest....67 Lowest..50

Very warm and fairly humid air continues to dominate the southeastern part of the continent, extending as far north as Lake Superior and Central Quebec. Considerably cooler air covers the Canadian prairies but it looks as though the main flow of this air will be deep into the western United States rather than towards eastern Canada. Hence continuation of very warm weather is indicated for the week-end, at least for southern and central regions.

A few showers were reported from widely scattered localities Thursday night and there is little prospect for more than similar showers tonight and again Saturday night.

Forecasts:

Lake Erie, Lake Huron, Lake Ontario, Niagara, Halibu.ton and Georgian Bay regions: Variable cloudiness today, mostly clear Saturday. Continuing very warm. Winds southeast 15 today, light tonight, south 15 Saturday. Winning Battle With 'Hoppers

WINNIPEG, June 17 (CP) — Grasshoppers which yearly threaten to eat away grain grown on the Canadian prairies, are being fought successfully by Agriculture Department officials and farmers in all three provinces, a survey shows.

All are using either chlordane or poxophene chemicals to combat the 'hoppers. Some damage has been reported, but the officials say it is not extensive.

In Saskatchewan, the chief area is centred by Saskatoon. Saskatchewan officials say some damage has been done, but that a large number of the hoppers has been killed by chlordane, used both in bait and as a spray.

Widespread spraying with chemicals is being done. A mixture of from three-quarters to one pound of chemical and five gallons of water covers an acre of land.

In southwestern Manitoba, the situation seems well under control. Officials said grain is well advanced, and rain which has fallen over the infested areas has been helpful.

Join Hospital Dental Staff

Civic Hospital Board of Governors Thursday approved two applications from dentists to join the hospital staff on the service of dentistry.

The newly appointed dentists are Dr. B. R. Smyth, and Dr. W. X. Blackburn.

On the recommendation of the Medical and Surgical Advisory Committee of the hospital the Board decided to apply to the Department of Health for an electroshock machine. If the application is granted one machine can be used by both Civic and St. Joseph's Hospital, Dr. S. Y. Walsh said.

Acquisition of such a machine would not involve the hospital in any cost, the doctor told the Board.

Sunday Water For Dry Lawns

Utilities officials are so pleased with the co-operation they have had from water-users in response to the emergency regulation prohibiting all watering of lawns that they are giving the regulation a Sunday holiday. That means that on Sunday lawns and gardens can be hosed—Sunday only, unless the rains come.

Ross L. Dobbin, Utilities manager, reports that since the ban on using water for irrigation, the pressures have been much better, and water flow is more adequate for the prime use for which the water system was designed, that is for drinking and sanitation.

Perhaps the Sunday softening from the stern regulations has been caused partly by the parched, yellow pleading appearance of lawns and gardens themselves.

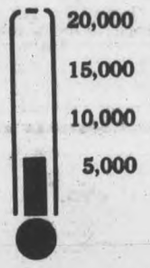
Peterborough Behind The Eight-Ball

DIT CLAPPER

For nine years Peterborough has been behind the eight-ball at Ottawa. We are still without our new Federal building. When air ports were being built during the war, Peterborough was passed over. Peterborough has no influence at Ottawa, and other cities have been getting the breaks. Why?



Because our Member of Parliament has been sitting on the Opposition benches. Because the voters of Little Tory Peterborough go to the polls, and the citizens of Big Peterborough sit at home, sucking their thumbs.

Do you want another five years behind the eight-ball. If so, Mr. Fraser's your man. If you want Peterborough to move out into the sun, vote for me on June 27. Big Peterborough, use your votes!

STANDING TO DATE

To all our Parishioners, and those outside the boundaries of our Parish who have been so generous, we the planning committee, wish to say thank you.

As you see by the above standing we are very far short of our objective.

We realize that this is a very big undertaking, and as such we take this means of approaching every one who is interested in our efforts, and request your assistance.

To those who have received letters from our committee and have not as yet mailed your contribution, we solicit your co-operation as soon as possible.

The growth of this section of the city is by leaps and bounds, and our church is inadequate, we have no facilities of any kind, it is not suited to cope with this growth. Our only alternative is a new building, it is a necessity.

This being a working man's Parish, means that we must go outside for assistance (your assistance). The manner in which our members have come to our assistance by cash donations and promissory notes in the form of post-dated cheques, is far beyond our expectations, but even this is not nearly sufficient to give us the necessary start.

Again we ask for your assistance, will you please send your donations to Mr. Walter Bannon, 443 King George St., Peterborough.

B.C. Election Proves CCF Slipping—Howe

EDMONTON, June 17 (CP) — Trade Minister Howe said Thursday that results of the British Columbia Provincial election demonstrated that the CCF party is losing strength in Canada.

He predicted the Liberal party will be returned to power in the Federal election with a "greatly increased majority."

Mitchell Says People Tired Of 'Bunkum'

WELLAND, June 17 (CP) — The Canadian people are tired of socialistic promises and "bunkum" and prefer free enterprise, Labor Minister Mitchell Thursday night told a political rally.

Free enterprise, he said, has worked best under Liberal administrations because the Liberal party has a "real regard" for the masses of the people. There was no legislating for a special class or vested interests.

"Invariably, you can trust the people to spot a good thing when they see it. That's why they're increasing their support of Liberal administration."

George Street Church Picnic

Children and adults raced, ate and drank under the hot early summer sun at Nicholls Oval Wednesday afternoon as George Street United Church's annual picnic. A perfect weight contest was introduced into the program of the picnic this year. Two weights were selected which seemed to be the perfect weight for men and for women. During the picnic all adults were weighed. Winners of the contest were Mrs. Ethel Magee and Roy Powell.

A public address system was used to run off the races and also provide musical entertainment. Lost children quickly found their mothers and dads with the help of the PA.

A fish pond was conducted by Mr. and Mrs. George Munro. Lloyd Gilmour and Frank Greatrix operated the booth. Supper committee was headed by Mrs. Percy Hetherington and Mrs. Wilbert Frise. The Rev. James Semple and Mrs. Semple, Mr. and Mrs. Quirt McKinney were hosts for the picnic.

Garnet Dainard won the hammock donated by Kingdon's Barrel Factory for the largest family at the picnic.

Assisting in the celebration, Knox United Church choir of Peterborough, conducted by W. R. Potter, presented a program of choir selections. An offering was taken for the building fund of the new Grace United Church in Peterborough.

The B.C. Vote

Political observers watched Wednesday's provincial elections in British Columbia with particular interest because in that province the two older parties have pooled their lures and resources in the face of C.C.F. opposition which had become so strong that neither Liberals nor Conservatives could alone hope to gain enough seats to form a government. B.C. has had coalition government since 1941. Supporters of the Government sat as either Conservatives or Liberals. Since 1945, however, they have sat as members of a Coalition party. In the elections of that year the C.C.F. secured ten seats and became the official Opposition. In Wednesday's elections the chief outside interest was in the show of strength the C.C.F. would make. If they gained seats, the Coalition party in B.C. might have become permanent, since Liberals and Conservatives could justly have concluded that they could never again hope to gain majorities separately. It might have foreshadowed a party pattern for the whole of Canada.

* * *

An hour after the polls closed a victory for the Coalition government was assured. When the final count was made, the C.C.F. were found to have lost four seats. In the new Legislature the Government will control 40 of the 48 seats, the six C.C.F. members will be so small a group that they might not be recognized or able to function as an Official Opposition. B.C. voters seem to have determined that not only do they not want a C.C.F. Government; they do not want, apparently, even a C.C.F. Opposition.

Trade Consequences Of Cheap Dollars

There are several advantages to be gained from the Conservative proposal to devalue the Canadian dollar. The chief one is that it would stimulate the gold-mining industry, which has been hard-pressed lately because companies are attempting to mine gold at mines where the cost of uncovering it is excessive. Some mines can be made to pay only if the gold recovered can be sold at higher rates, or unless the mining is subsidized. If the Canadian dollar were worth only ninety American cents, gold sold in the States for American dollars would give the companies more Canadian dollars since an American dollar bill would buy approximately $1.10 (Canadian). Cheapening the Canadian dollar would therefore make gold mining more profitable for the share-holders, and provide more employment in the mines. Another advantage would be that Canadian goods could be sold more cheaply on foreign markets, so long as the foreign countries did not increase tariffs to prevent Canada underselling in those markets.

The advantages are overwhelmed by the disadvantages. The most serious consequence of devaluing the dollar would be that the cost-of-living would rise sharply. That would happen because so much of what we need and use in Canada is imported. Canada would have to pay, at an approximate reckoning, $1.10 for every dollars' worth of goods imported. Last year Canada imported from the United States alone commodities valued at $1,959,800,000. At that rate of importation, and if the dollar were reduced by ten cents, the extra cost to Canadians would be about $200,000,000 a year. Can this country afford to pamper the gold mines to that extent? Can it afford such an increase in the cost of living as that figure represents?

Another serious consequence of devaluing the dollar would be the effect on British trade. It would tend to reduce rather than increase it, even though Britain would be able to buy our goods more cheaply. The difficulties of Anglo-Canadian trade now are not due to Canadian goods being too high. The fact is, Britain has not enough dollars to buy as much as she wants and needs from us. The only way she can get the dollars, apart from loans and E.R.P., is to sell her products on the Canadian market. The more she sells the more dollars she will have for buying Canadian goods. But if, because of a devalued dollar, the cost of British goods to Canadians goes up by ten per cent. are Canadians going to buy as much? British goods are already quite high in price. A further increase might price them right out of the Canadian market. Thus, British trade would decline, not increase.

That, it seems to us, is the pounds, dollars, and sense of the proposed devaluing of the Canadian dollar.

Ill-Fed Canadians

The Montreal Gazette the other day expressed editorial concern for 500 Ungava Eskimos "who are in a parlous state as regards food". It remarked that Canadians have occasion to chuckle over propaganda pieces from behind the Iron Curtain telling of starvation in America and that there is a wisp of truth in the propaganda, except that, according to the Gazette, the Russians probably do not know anything about these 500 ill-fed Eskimos. The Russians do not need to go that far north, or to fasten on a small group, in order to substantiate tales of starvation on this continent, even in Canada. According to an article by Ann Fromer in the current issue of Saturday Night, the majority of Canadian children today exist in a state of semi-starvation.

The kind of starvation they are suffering from is not caused by lack of food-stuffs; it is due to not being given proper food. There are deficiencies in their diet. The Saturday Night article states:

> In the nation's largest city, for example, a survey by the Montreal Council of Social Agencies of a cross-section of the 119,000 schoolchildren revealed that exactly 64 out of every thousand had diets which could be classed as "good". The diets of two out of three children were described as "poor" or "very poor."
>
> In a check of 15,000 of Canada's 2,000,000 schoolchildren aimed specifically at the causes of absenteeism, Dr. A. J. Phillips of the National Committee for School Health Research, found 80 per cent of all absenteeism due to medical reasons.

The nutritional starvation of children is not limited to large cities or to poorer sections of the populace, nor to children. A detailed study of adult and juvenile residents on a Nova Scotian island was made by the Nutrition Division of the Federal Department of Health. It revealed dietary inadequacy, riboflavin deficiency, underweight, past rickets, anaemia, subnormal serum ascorbic acid level, and deficiencies in vitamin A, protein, ascorbic acid, niacin and thiamine. At least one of these symptoms occurred 88 times among every 100 persons examined.

Ontario has the best record in nutrition surveys. Nevertheless a detailed study of one Ontario town revealed 52 diet deficiency indications for every hundred persons examined. In plain language, that means 52 persons out of every hundred in that specimen Ontario town were ill-fed, under-nourished, and in a partial state of starvation.

The refinements of civilization seem to have dulled our animal feeding sense. Perhaps it is our democratic right to starve ourselves to death in a land of plenty. The under-nourishment will continue as long as people continue to stuff themselves with fancy muck and to give it to their children. Five hundred starving Eskimos? Five million self-starved, foolishly-fed Canadians.

Strike Two

John L. Lewis has again told the 450,000 coal miners of his union to stay home from work. It is the second such order this year. He does not call these stoppages strikes, for the men cannot strike legally unless preliminary steps are taken which Mr. Lewis has not deigned to take. The first two-week strike, last March, was termed by him to be a "memorial period". This time the walk-out is arranged so that industry may "stabilize" itself. It is legally justified (by Mr. Lewis) as an exercise of the right of the individual to work only if he wants to, and to quit when he wants to.

Mr. Lewis has done much to better the wages and working conditions of American coal miners. But sometimes he carries his efforts so far that even other union leaders suspect that he is setting himself up as a tyrant over the American economy. Even Mr. James L. Petrillo, czar of the Musician's' Union and no mean dictator himself, is saying harsh things about Mr. Lewis. "John L. Lewis is nuts. I say he is not a faithful labour leader, and not faithful to America". These unkind words may mean no more than a mild falling-out between blood-brothers, but a Canadian observer may be pardoned for wondering if Mr. Lewis is swinging the big stick more often than is good for him, his miners and his country. This is strike two. The language of the ball diamond is, "Strike Two, foul ball. Strike Three, you're out."

Notes And Queries

By ALPHA

Questions are solicited for this column, particularly those relating to local lore and tradition.

SIR: I have been looking at a road map of southern Ontario put out by the Department of Highways for public distribution. Guess what: it lists some dump called Apsey, and not our village of Apsley. What about ticking the Hon. Harold Scott off about that?

ANSWER: Before you tick anybody off, blink a little right. I mean to the right of the map. Since you drew my attention to this, I looked at the map (1949 edition). On the left is an index of lakes, and Apsey Lake is about forty miles west of Sudbury, and very near Espanola. There is no village or town of Apsey. On the right of the map is an index of the cities, towns and villages, and lo! Apsley is among the A's.

Incidentally, there are 57 places in southern Ontario whose names begin with A, and not an Alpha among them. There are only three Y's—Yarker, 12 m. n-e of Napanee; York, which has some connection with Toronto, and Young's Point. There is one Z—Zurich, near Exeter and Lake Huron. Undoubtedly all the villagers speak Swiss.

DEAR ALPHA: Whatever becomes of all the new carburettors designed to give increased mileage? Some ten or fifteen years ago the whole front page of the Globe was devoted to an enthusiastic dissertation on more efficient carburization. Only recently I read of a Hull, P.Q. man who has invented a carburettor which will give 120 miles per gallon on an average car and which stood up to tests satisfactorily. Are these all hoaxes? Are they bought up? What does become of them? This is not a question asked in jest, nor have I an axe to grind. I am genuinely curious.

ANSWER: Big companies, or interlocking companies operating a cartel have been known to buy up patents, which, if used, might harm the sale of their products. It has been said, for instance, that artificial rubber processes were known to be practical for many years before they were used. New methods of recording have likewise been delayed. I do not suggest that the big oil companies have bought up all the new carburettor patents and, with the connivance of car manufacturers, have withheld them from the market. Had that been so, I suspect that during the war when petroleum oils were so necessary, and so costly and risky to transport overseas, governments would have forced owners of practicable gas-saving carburettor patents to release them, so that motor fuel could have been saved. Perhaps the miraculous new carburettors were not so wonderful after all. They might have been gas-savers but had fatal flaws.

All this is guess work. If any reader knows anything about this, I shall be glad to hear from him. Your question is an interesting one. Had I a large staff of trained investigators I should set them to work digging up the facts! But I have only my own limited time and ability. Further, I know so little about carburettors that I could not recognize the one on my own car. All I know is that it is an apparatus somewhere in the engine for mixing air with gasoline vapour, and that the name comes from the Latin "carbo", meaning charcoal.

SIR: What kind of hat is that which Mr. Fraser wears in all his campaign posters? Why campaign in a hat? Isn't it rather risky, since hats go out of fashion quickly, even men's hats. I was looking through an old photograph album of my mother's the other day, and all the hats were screamingly funny except a mortar board (with academic gown below). That mortar board was the only timeless hat of the lot.

ANSWER: It's not the hat that matters, but what's under it. And do you suggest that Mr. G. K. Fraser, Progressive-Conservative candidate and member for Peterborough West in the two last parliaments, should wear a mortar board? It would be novel, at least. What kind of hat? A fedora, of course, rimless, and fashionably tilted at the brim. The year of the fashion, or whose fashion I shall not guess. Who knows that one day Mr. Fraser's hats may become as famous as Queen Mary's?

ALPHA: Whence the phrase of Jack-of-all-trades?

ANSWER: The origin of the phrase is obscure, though I suppose that the nickname Jack being so common, the phrase slipped easily around the name: so "Jack of all trades and master of none". Jack is indeed common in sayings and lore—Jack and Jill, Jack and the Bean-Stalk, Jack Brag, Jack Horner, Jack-in-office, Jack-o'Lantern, Jack Robinson ('before you can say Jack Robinson'), Jack Sprat, Jack Straw, Jack the Giant Killer, and even Jack the Ripper.

The eighteenth century seemed to be full of Jacks of all trades, judging from the way some advertised themselves. Here is the way the famous Roger Giles described himself in handbill advertisement. (Note the clues his unsystematized spelling gives to the ways London people of his class pronounced their words e.g. "sarm" for "psalm", "hinforms" with its h.)

"Roger Giles, Imperceptible Penetrator, Surgin, Paroch Clarke, &c., Romford, Essex, hinforms Ladis and Gentlemen that he cuts their teeth and draws corn without waiten a moment. Blisturs on the lowest turns, and fysics at a penny a peace. Sells god-fathers cordial and strap-ile, and undertakes to keep any Ladies nales by the year and so on. Young Ladis and Gentlemen tort the heart of rideing, and the gramer language in the natest manner, also grate Kare takein to himprove there morals and spelling, sarm singing and whisseling. Teaches the jewsarp, and instructs young Ladis on the gar-tar, and plays the ho-boy (oboe). Shotish, poker and all other ruls tort at home and abroad. Perfumery in all its branches. Sells all sorts of stashionary, barth (bath) bricks and all other sorts of sweet-meats, including beeswax, postage stamps and lusifers (luciferss-matches); likewise taturs (potatoes), roobub, sossages and other garden stuffs, also fruits, such as hardbake, inguns, toothpicks, ile (ale) and tinware, and other eatsble. Sarve (salve), treacle, winegar, (his "W" is as authentic as Sam Weller's!) and all other hardware. Further in particular he has laid in a stock of tripe, china, epson salts, lollipops and other pickels, such as oysters, apples and table beer, also silk, satin and heartstones, and all kinds of kimistry, including wax-dolls, rasors, dutch clocks, and gridirons, and new laid eggs every day by me, Roger Giles. P. S.—I lecture on joggrefy".

ALPHA: How large is Algonquin Park?

ANSWER: I quote you the blurb in a tourist pamphlet about our vacation areas: "2,700 square miles of wilderness paradise, where deer eat out of your hand and camera fans will find a field unexcelled. See Joey Beaver at work. Bill Bruin ambling unconcernedly by! Fish a hundred rushing streams. This is a canoe country, nature's own preserve. Young people's camps, resorts. The beginning of the real north!" This fetching story does not mention black flies nor advise you to see Maizie Mosquito buzzing by, or diggin' in.

FOR THE RECORD: Dry heat. Until today the last time we had rain in this district which amounted to more than a thimbleful was on May 26th, unless I am mistaken. That was three weeks ago. My chief grief is that the strawberry crop is ruined, according to reports. This may mean no strawberry suppers at all, at all. Another worry: with the heat on in June, will it be off in July and August, as recompense? With rain off in June, will the full summer months be wringing, wretchedly wet?

RESTRICTED OUTLOOK

Ontario's Record-Breaking Drought

(OTTAWA CITIZEN)

A PROVINCE already conscious of the need to control spring floods is being sharply reminded of the damage that can be caused by drought. Although rain has fallen in some sections in the past day or two, much of southern Ontario has suffered from lack of rain for nearly three weeks, and in part of it the drought has lasted more than 40 days. The record of the dry spell in 1920 has been broken. Too make things worse, frosts have been severe. But a good augury for the future is the general recognition that not all the blame can be placed on that scapegoat, Nature. Man, by his wastefulness of tree and soil, has intensified the ill effects of natural calamity.

In earlier times, great forests with their web of roots through the good earth of centuries absorbed the melting snows and sudden rains. The slow release of water put a natural check on floods and provided moisture drought. But for generations men have been clearing the land and farming carelessly. Though it has been found that most streams have ceased to flow all year, the unprecedented dryness of many wells and water courses is the most alarming feature of the present drought. Southern Ontario's water table has fallen disastrously. Farmers are almost helpless as crop damages rises by $60,000,000 a day to a total already estimated in excess of $100,000,000. Grains, hay, tobacco, vegetables, small fruits and tree fruits, are all hard hit. Consumers are likely to feel the consequences in shortages and higher prices.

The provincial department of agriculture is giving emergency advice on the planting of midsummer crops. But its minister, Mr. T. L. Kennedy, knows from experience the need for long-term remedial measures. His own family farm, 145 years old, had eight inches of top soil on its slopes when he took it over nearly half a century ago. Now, with two or three inches left, he is putting part of the land into sod and planting orchards.

All over Ontario farmers are realizing the need for cover crops, contour ploughing, tree planting. Conservation projects like those on the Grand and the Nation are required for the larger rivers. As Dr. O. M. McConkey of the Ontario Agricultural College told the Merrickville Agricultural Society this week, China's poverty today shows the effects of misuse of lands and forests.

Ontario has had plenty of warning. Clearly an important task of government is to guide and help in saving and enriching the soil, restoring the woods, and conserving the waters. Evidently all that has so far been done in these respects is only a beginning.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet, and besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live. And Jesus went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him....

While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further? As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.

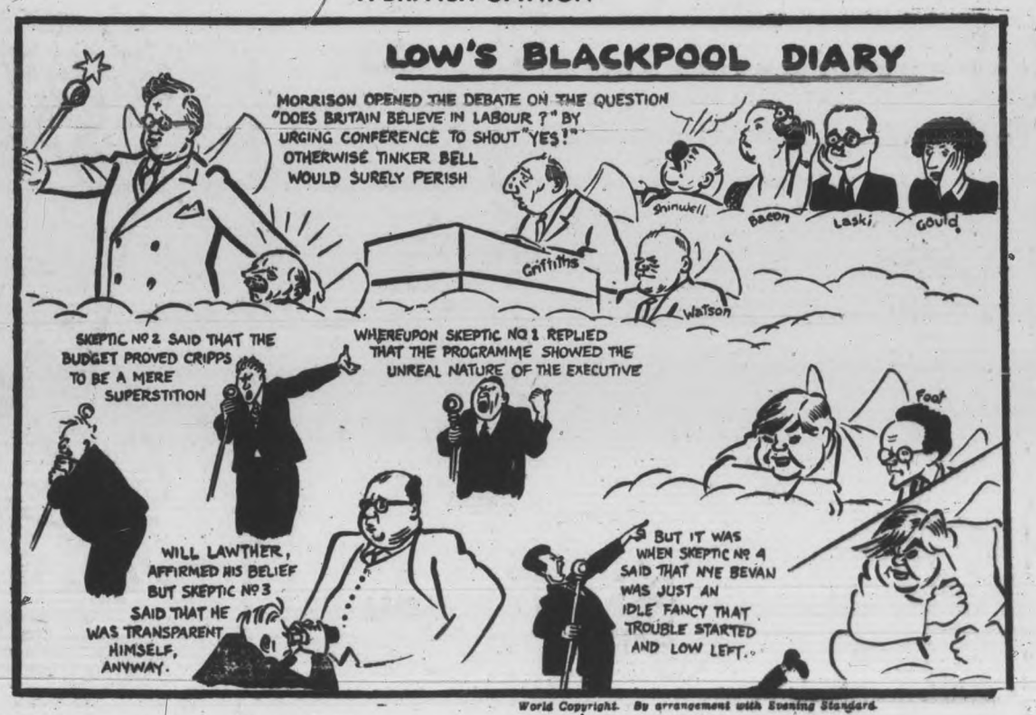
And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James. And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepth. And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise. And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment. (Mark 5: 22-24, 35-42.)

Don't Interfere

It is natural that everyone with humane instincts rushes to pick up baby birds that have fallen out of nests, and attempts to care for them until they are able to be released. But that's the one thing they should not do.



In all such cases, Lee S. Crandall, curator at the New York Zoo, advises that nothing be done. Parent birds find their young and care for them in case of accidents much better than any human, he says.

Of course, if a nest has been blown out of a tree it might be replaced, he continues, but it its occupants are well grown they will refuse to stay in it. But human intervention generally is unwise, even though this is prompted by the anxiety that a cat or dog may pounce upon the baby bird. This sometimes happens, but the bird parents generally miss the baby birds and take care of them before it is too late.

U.K. Boosts Apple Crop

Before the war Canada was a big exporter of apples to the United Kingdom. Of total imports of approximately 7 million hundredweights, Canada supplied almost a half. Now there is an embargo against us. But this did not mean that the people of the United Kingdom were doing without. Their own orchards, extensively enlarged before the war, are producing far more apples than ever before. True, these are largely of the cooking and cider type, but they are apples just the same.—Financial Post.

Stormy Weather Seen By Douglas

WINNIPEG, June 17 (CP) — Premier Douglas of Saskatchewan said Thursday night that "unemployment, layoffs and a fall in stocks" left no doubt the Canadian economy was heading into "stormy weather."

The Liberal government saw the storm signal and decided to get the election over with first, he said in a 15-minute political speech broadcast over a CBC national network.

"For three years," he said, "Canada has been selling its products to Great Britain for dollars made available under the Marshall Plan. But dollars are becoming short and already fruit growers are worried how they will dispose of their crops."

The Liberal Government policy was one of "do nothing" and "wait and see."

"The government stands condemned—not for what they have done, but for what hasn't been done."

The accident occurred in Oshawa when the automobile driven by Hawkins struck Mr. Blackburn as he was crossing a street.

Indians Beat Red Sox 6-3 Yanks Split With Chicago

By JOE REICHLER,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

Have the world champion Cleveland Indians awakened from their season-long lethargy and gone on the warpath? The answer should be forthcoming after their three-game series with the league leading New York Yankees which starts today.

Heartened by five straight victories over the Yankees and Boston Red Sox, the teams generally regarded as their toughest opposition, Cleveland followers today were certain that their favorites finally had straightened themselves out.

The Cleveland die-hards also pointed out that the tribe's vaunted pitching staff appeared to be coming around.

Rookie Mike Garcia gained his second decision in five days on Thursday when he pitched the Indians to a 6-3 triumph over the Red Sox. However, he needed help from Alton Benton in the seventh when he wilted from the intense heat. Benton allowed only one single in 2 2-3 innings after Garcia gave up seven in 6 1-3 It was Big Mike's sixth victory against two defeats.

Pick Up Half Game

The victory enabled the fourth-place Indians to pick up half a game on the Yankees, who were held to a split in their double-header with Chicago White Sox. A gap of 6½ games separates the clubs.

Fred Sanford, purchased from the St. Louis Browns for $100,000 last winter, went to the route for the first time this season as he pitched the Yankees to a 5-4 victory and a split with the White Sox. The Sox had won the opener 10-6, scoring nine runs in the first two innings against Tommy Byrne and Clarence Marshall.

Eddie Joost, Philadelphia's sensational shortstop, hammered his 15th home run, drove in two runs and scored three to lead the Athletics to a 7-3 triumph over Hal Newhouser and the Detroit Tigers. The victory moved the A's up to within a game of second-place Detroit and 5½ of the top. Lou Brissie allowed eight hits to register his sixth triumph.

Sid Hudson doled out five hits in pitching Washington Senators to a 5-0 victory over the Browns in the only night game in the majors. It was the Senators' second straight shutout win over St. Louis.

The National League tightened up when the second-place St. Louis Cardinals whipped Brooklyn Dodgers 6-2 while third-place Boston and fourth-place Philadelphia also won their games. The Cards now trail the Dodgers by one game. The Braves and Phils are two games off the pace.

Paired Out

New York's scheduled double-header with the Reds in Cincinnati was washed out by rain.

Chasing Lefty Hatten with a four-run barrage in the seventh inning, the Cards won the rubber contest on the three-game series with Brooklyn.

Lou Klein, the first of the Mexican League jumpers to appear in a big league box score, slammed a single while pinch hitting for winning pitcher Red Munger in the seventh to keep the rally alive.

Pete Reiser homered in the fifth to break a 2-2 tie and send the Braves on their way to a 7-2 victory over the Pirates in Pittsburgh. Vern Bickford spaced five hits for his eighth victory.

Relief pitcher Jim Konstanty singled across the run in the ninth inning to win his own game as the Phils nipped the Cubs in Chicago 4-3. It was their fifth straight victory, four of them coming at the expense of the Cubs, who now have dropped five straight.

Outlaws Take Close One From Knights

Outlaws won 11-10 from Knights at the Bowl last night to drop the latter into third slot in the City Softball League while moving themselves up a little in fourth place. A good sized crowd saw a lengthy tilt, full of arguments, but close all the way. Outlaws won it in the ninth when Anderson walked, took third on Cournyea's double and scored on a dropped fly. Elliott started, but Hunter took over in the second and finished neatly with 11 strikeouts. Harrison, Hinton and Guilfoyle saw slab service for the Knights. Kumpf led the winners at bat with three for four as O'Heron got three in six for the other side. Castle and Currie hit homers.

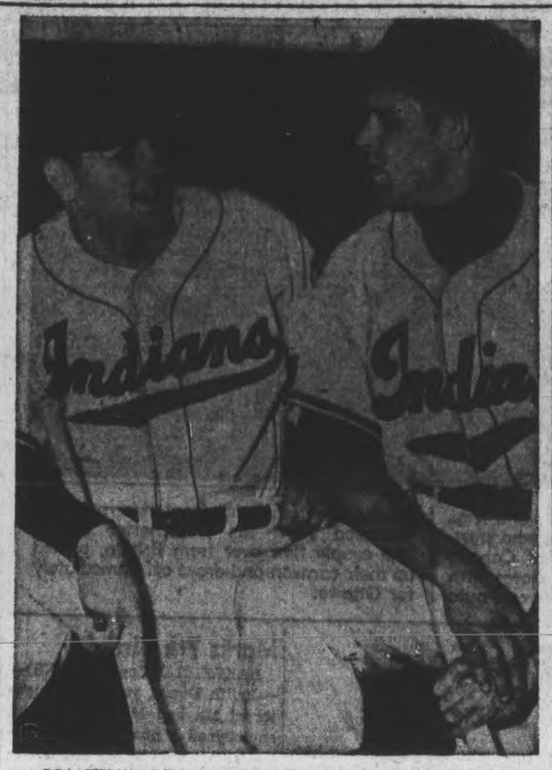
Southenders Win

Southend juveniles trounced northend 13 to 3 Thursday night in a City League baseball game in Morrow Park. Allowing northenders to score three runs in the first inning the boys from the south, behind steady seven-hit pitching of Sam ("Nothing Ball") Murphy, got to Nichols of the northend for 13 hits. The northerners also came through with five miscues to help the southend along. Both teams had trouble with the infield and the outfield, the ground being rough. Numerous hits went for extra bases.



Southenders had their big inning in the third when they collected six runs. Six hits, a base on bals and a miscue accounted for the runs. In the sixth on three hits and an error they collected three more to take a healthy lead.

Nichols of the northend and Young of the southend each had three for four. Douglas of the southend had three for five and Morgan of the northenders came through with two hits in four times at the plate. Murphy fanned seven. Lineups:

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

If Gunner Whitehill blows a lead, local civic authorities do not indicate he is a traitor to Peterborough. Nor does the federal government raise what-ho if Leafs should miss out on the Stanley Cup. But we see a Prague item where Jaroslav Drobny, plump and outstanding Czech tennis champion, who recently lost in France, is panned bitterly by the Communist youth paper, Mlada Fronta. The writer rants: "It is irresponsibility toward the whole nation. Drobny doesn't know what he wants, his life is without enthusiasm, without a clear relation toward current events, without a political standpoint." That benevolent Soviet influence, eh?

No game in the world has the international popularity of soccer—known as football in most countries. While it doesn't outdraw hockey, lacrosse or ball here, yet it packs in huge crowds in many nations. And it has a certain following locally. No doubt, many fans will be on hand at King Edward Park tomorrow along about three p.m. to see Toronto Davenports play CGE in the first of home-and-home games, goals counting, in inter-shop competition for a trophy. Scotty Rickard says it'll be an outstanding match and threatens to strip his Gaelic gears as he outlines the fitba' attraction. CGE Pipe Band will perform, also.

Clowns Of Kokomo

With first place in the COBL at stake, Ed Murphy's senior Petes are off for Oshawa on the morrow, as Brockville meets Batawa in Bella Vila. The Shoemen come here next Wednesday. But the night before, on Tuesday, the Kokomo Clowns have a repeat performance with the Petes at nine under their own lights, the clowning session starting about 8.30 or so. A New York sportsman bought the Kokomo (bal, grid and cage) franchise from Indiana interests and the Clowns average nearly 10 games a week as they tour continuously. A good show, at that. Tilt here is sponsored by the B'nai B'rith Club.

Rotary Club will use money raised from next Thursday's softball game for local services as in the past. It's a whopping attraction for softball followers, bringing in Toronto's famed Sunday Morning Class—girls who beat many men's teams—to play the local males, a City League all-star squad. An 8.30 exhibition, preceded by a 7.30 tilt betwixt the local Firemen and Policemen of the Civic Softball League, with "Y" weight-lifters performing at intervals. The SMC lasses don't bother to compete in the Sunnyside loop but tackle the best USA and Canadian clubs here and there in successful style and before crowds of 3,000 and up.

Howie's Big Night

Over at the Bowl last eve, Bigford pitched Cosmos to a 13-5 win o'er the Jewellers, whilst Dalton had a perfect night at bat. Other joust saw Outlaws edge the Knights 11-10 with Hunter good in a relief role for the winners. As many arguments as if it were a playoff number, but the goodly gallery enjoyed it despite the unseasonable beefs. Uniteds now lead the loop by half a game over Cosmos, while Knights are back of Cosmos by just half a game. Outlaws are fourth, three games behind the K. of C.-ers, and Jewellers are in the cellar. Two postponed frays listed for tomorrow night there, K. of C. vs. Uniteds, and Cosmos vs. Outlaws.

Major and minor lacrosse flourishes hereabouts these days. Mimico Mountaineers oppose the Petes in OLA senior "A" competition at 8.45 tonight in the Miller Bowl, whilst the locals trek to St. Kitts on the morrow. Tonight's tussle here should be another slambang affair. Minor gutted-stick guys go next week as PMLA schedules commence. Jack Foote again is head coach of this hefty setup which should pay off in future senior stars in a few years. The midget Americans have a June 19 workout at 10 a.m. in Miller Bowl with these chaps asked to attend: Bertram, Barker, Jones, Brioux, Seabrook, Farley, Galley and Doris.

Cosmos Move To Second With 13-5 Win

Cosmos climbed into second place in the City Softball League, half a game behind Uniteds, at the Bowl last night by dropping Jewellers 13-5 further into the cellar. Don Bigford threw six-hit ball, though he had wild streaks, and had the hitting behind him with six extra-base blows, as his side fielded a bit better than the Jewellers. Dalton was the big sticker with five for five, including a homer and two doubles, Walton getting three for five. Sanderson led the losers at bat with three in five tries, as Nicholls banged out a four-bagger.

Jake LaMotta Knocks Out Cerdan, Middleweight King

DETROIT, June 17 (AP) — The "new" Jake La Motta today holds the world middleweight boxing title he chased for eight years but he doesn't know when he can cash in on the prize.

Lamotta, winner on a 10th round knockout over Marcel Cerdan of Casablanca Thursday night at Briggs Stadium, has a bad hand to show for his trouble. Cerdan, the dethroned champ, has a pulled shoulder muscle.

That leaves the return match, a must according to the original contract, up in the air.

Jake must meet Marcel again with each receiving 30 per cent of the gate in his first defence. The site and date have yet to be determined.

Money In Escrow

Jake has to leave his money in escrow until he makes his defence. Cerdan had to do the same thing after beating Tony Zale for the crown last September. Lamotta's 15 per cent will be about cent or about $51,124 of the net $19,171. Marcel will get 40 per gate of $127,810 (gross $159,762.)

It was the first championship defence for the courageous, 32-year-old Frenchman who saw his title slip away after he suffered an injury to his shoulder in the opening round of the scheduled 15-round bout.

Cerdan was able to use his left only once or twice after the injury and he took a terrific beating before referee Johnny Webber finally halted the fight after the ninth round bell.

Webber was summoned to Cerdans' corner by the Frenchman's handlers who explained that their man was in acute pain.

Under Michigan rules, the fight was recorded as a 10th round knockout.

The sudden ending came as a surprise to the crowd of 22,182 fans who had seen Cerdan fight gamely for several rounds using only his right hand.

Advance indications were that it would be a slugging battle with both men standing in close and swinging away with both hands.

Two-Fisted

But after the first couple of minutes of the opening round, it became apparent that Lamotta was the only two-fisted fighter in the ring.

The faltering champion gave a tremendous exhibition of courage and staying power as he repeatedly took all the punches Lamotta could throw, meanwhile trying to work Jake into a corner in the hopes of throwing a knockout punch.

Cerdan, six years older than the challenger, just wasn't in the fight after the first round, but he stayed on his feet despite the pasting Jake gave him.

The Frenchman at 159¼ had a pound advantage over Jake, but that was about the only edge he had in the fight. Lamotta was an 8 to 5 underdog in pre-fight betting.

Ed Wright Hurls Maple Leafs To 2-0 Victory

By The Associated Press.

One of the reasons why Toronto is in third place in the International League today is the strong right arm of Ed Wright.

Wright, a former major leaguer with Boston Braves, hurled the Maple Leafs to a 2-0 victory over Syracuse Chiefs Thursday night. It was his eighth triumph of the season, his first shutout and seventh complete game. Only Baltimore's A. Widmar, with nine, has won more.

The 30-year-old righthander held the Chiefs to four hits and struck out five.

Until the ninth inning Ken Burkhart kept pace with Wright, both hurling eight scoreless frames. Then a single by Johnny Welaj and a brace of doubles by Ed Sanicki and Bill Glynn gave Wright the decision.

Rochester whipped Jersey City 7-2 to take the opener of their five-game series with the Giants.

Cloyde Boyer registered his fifth victory, limiting the Giants to nine hits. He fanned six. Wes Bailey, trying for his ninth win, was charged with his fourth defeat instead. Johnny Bucha homered for the Redwings, and Fred Culler hit four-bagers for the losers.

Newark's Bears climbed out of the cellar, knocking off Montreal Royals 8-6. Baltimore, rained out of its game with league-leading Buffalo, took over the cellar berth, a half-game behind the Bears.

The Bears overcame a 6-5 deficit with a three-run uprising against Omar Lown in the eighth.

LAWN BOWLING

By HERB MARTIN

We believe that last night's bowling was just about the best so far this season. Look at the scores. With one or two exceptions, the difference between winner and loser was only two or three points. In a couple of games the last bowl settled the issue. They'll not come any closer. Certainly they won't be any more exciting.

No for tonight—Men's doubles at 7.30 o'clock sharp.

Saturday evening, about 6.30 o'clock, we are entertaining 40 members of a Toronto club.

Monday night, Club singles.

Today's thought—The sticker seldom gets stuck.

Here and There In Sport

Lanky Bob Hamilton, former PGA champion, Thursday cashed in on his devastating short game as he fired an eight-under-par 63 to set a course record and grab an early lead in the $15,000 Motor City Open golf tournament.

Hamilton's 31-32—63 was achieved in large part by his accurate short irons, which consistently left him with putts less than eight feet.

Hamilton's performance gave him a three-stroke lead over Dr. Cary Middlecoff, who won the National Open tournament last week, and Henry Ranson of St. Andrew's, Ill.

The line-up for the semi-finals in the European zone's Davis Cup tennis eliminations was completed Thursday when Yugoslavia ousted Sweden, three matches to two, at Zagreb, Yugoslavia.

Drago Mitic, ace of the surprising Yugoslav team, polished off Lennart Bergelin, No. 1 Swedish star, 6-3, 10-8, 6-4, in the fifth and deciding match.

Yugoslavia now meets Italy and France plays Hungary in the semi-finals which must be completed by July 12. The ultimate winner will take on the winner of the American zone's competition for the right to challenge the United States to rthe trophy.

At Boston, welterweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson and his manager, George Gainsford, on Thursday night were suspended indefinitely by the Massachusetts Boxing Commission "for failure to fulfill contract, in co-operation with Texas."

There were no immediate details about the Texas incident.

At Seigniory Club, Que., Mrs. J. C. Whitelaw of Laval Sur-le-Lac Thursday won the Seigniory Club's 18th annual invitation golf tournament for the seventh time. She defied intense heat on both days of the tournament to turn in an 84 for Thursday's final round which coupled with her first round three over par-80 gave her loww gross honors with 164.

The New York Herald Tribune, in a dispatch from Cincinnati, says today Buck Walters will resign as manager of Cincinnati Reds within the next month. But the report was promptly denied by Warren Giles, president of the club.

"If Bucky plans to resign it's in his own mind," Giles said in Cincinnati, "but that is the most absurb rumor I ever have heard."

The Herald Tribune said Walters would quit because of ill health and would be replaced by Pepper Martin.

Walters shouted "there is absolutely nothing to it," when told of the story.

The Major League All-Star baseball game in Brooklyn July 12 will be broadcast in Canada and the United States over the Mutual Broadcasting System, it was announced Thursday at New York.

At Oklahoma City, a Dallas midget automobile driver was killed Thursday night before a crowd of 3,000 at the Fair Grounds Speedway, the victim was Leon Peavy, 38. His racer crashed through the rail.

At Fairmount Park, Ill., Lusty Song, a two-year-old brown mare who had won just one previous race in her career, Thursday night made a show of the eight-horse field in the divided $3,000 trot by winning both ends of the purse on the Grand Circuit card. Lusty Son, piloted by Doc Parshall, won as she pleased, both times by five length margins.

Westclox Men Win Over Quakers

Westclox beat Quakers 13-9 last night in a fastball game to take a two-game lead in the loop. Fielders had a tough time on rough terrain, kicking in with plenty of errors. New Barrymore Tries Acting

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, June 17 (AP)—Here's what the new John Barrymore is like.

He has just turned 17 and he has the good looks of his famed father. The profile is an amazing likeness. He talks softly, but when he warms up to a subject, you can hear the sonorous Barrymore tones.

His only acting lessons have been alone before a mirror, but he is an assured young man and his hand gestures are often actor-like. He smokes but does not drink. Romantically he is still playing the field.

He attends a private school in Hollywood. He likes all sports, including football, swimming, diving and gymnastics. One of his favorite pastimes is watching surgical operations, which he can describe in vivid detail.

He is a solid movie fan. His favorite actor now is Richard Widmark; next, Vincent Price. He has seen "The Three Musketeers" 19 times.

He decided he wanted to be an actor a couple of years ago, I asked him why.

"I guess it's because you always want the things that are denied you," he answered. "My mother (Dolores Costello) always wanted me to be a doctor or a lawyer or something like that. When I decided I wanted to be an actor, she told me 'it's a filthy business.' "

Barrymore, Jr. overcame his mother's objections and signed a contract with Alan Lemay and George Templeton. He'll get $7,500 for the first picture, "Thunder in the Dust," a western in which he, Robert Preston and Robert Sterling will play brothers. If He's a success, he gets $30,000 for the second film.

Find Back-Door Filibuster Delays Civil Rights Plan

By GEORGE RONALD

WASHINGTON, June 17 (CP) — What's happened to President Truman's civil rights program?

These controversial proposals, which split the Democratic party wide open at its convention last year, still are nothing but proposals. Congress has virtually ignored them and it now seems unlikely that any will be acted on at the current session.

Civil rights have suffered at least temporary defeat in the choking maze of the congressional committee set-up. In 5½ months, not one civil rights measure has jumped the committee huddle and been referred to the Senate or House of Representatives. Only one bill—to create a permanent commission on fair employment practices—has passed the sub-committee stage.

Other matters all but pigeonholed for the time being are Truman's request that the poll tax and lynching be outlawed, that racial segregation be banned in the armed service and in interstate travel, and that discrimination be ended in the National Guard.

With the Democrats holding a slim majority—and thereby controlling committees — much of the deliberate delay on civil rights legislation must be attributed to Democrats. Many of the party's members from southern states are avowed enemies of any move to apply federal authority to an issue they consider wholly the responsibility of individual state governments.

It was these southerners who, early this year, waged a successful fight to preserve their right to filibuster. This has always been their chief weapon against civil rights.

Since that time, the campaign has never let up, although it has been less conspicuous. The Republican party has called the "blockade by committees" a "back-door filibuster."

Administration leaders say they can't do anything until the sub-committees and committees act. Senator Scott W. Lucas of Illinois, majority leader in the Senate, pointed out recently that, since the attempt to end filibusters and pave the way for civil rights, no civil rights bill has been reported to the Senate calendar.

"But you may be assured," he said, "that the leadership has lost none of its determination to try again to obtain action on our program."

EVERYONE benefits from FAMILY ALLOWANCES

PARENTS—

• The monthly arrival of the Family Allowances cheque is a blessing in countless homes, enabling parents to provide extra milk, eggs, fruit and other nourishing foods for their children.

MERCHANTS—

• Food, clothing, shoe and all other types of retail stores reap a rich harvest of business through the millions put in circulation by Family Allowances.

BUSINESS—

• Every commercial and manufacturing enterprise in Canada, large and small, has benefited from the billion dollars already poured into circulation by this far-sighted Liberal measure.

LABOUR—

• Jobs are created in every type of industry — to produce the tremendous quantities of goods that Family Allowances buy every month.

FARMERS—

• More than any other single domestic factor, the extra purchasing power created by Family Allowances has helped build steady, profitable markets for farm products.

AND MOST OF ALL— Canada's Children!

INSERTED BY THE FEDERAL LIBERAL CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE FOR ONTARIO

• When a courageous Liberal Government started paying Family Allowances four years ago, Mr. Drew called it an "iniquitous bill" and said he opposed the "very principle" of paying money to the parents of Canada's children.

How short-sighted Mr. Drew was! Family Allowances mean much more than just monthly cheques to provide food, clothing, dental treatment, medical care, future university education and other benefits for our children. It means hundreds of millions of dollars in regular circulation . . . creating jobs and opportunity and profit for all citizens. In four years, more than a billion dollars has been distributed . . . keeping the wheels of industry turning . . . spreading prosperity across the land.

Now that an election is on, Mr. Drew changes his tune and says he is in favour of Family Allowances. But remember, in 1945 he threatened to do "everything in his power" to prevent Family Allowances. Don't give him the "power" now!

Vote LIBERAL on June 27 . . . for continued prosperity and social justice.

Here is the record of Family Allowance Payments:

Emily Assessor Missing Months

OMEMEE, June 17 (ENS) — Provincial police at Lindsay and members of the family of Thomas H. Rice, assessor of Emily Township, are still engaged in a search for Mr. Rice, who has been missing from his home, RR No. 4, Omemee since March 1 1949. The missing man is a veteran of The First Great War and has suffered from rheumatic fever, asthma, and bronchitis.

Mrs. Rice states that he was missing on one other occasion when, after an absence of two weeks, she found him in Lindsay where she had gone to shop. He told her at that time that sometimes he did not know where he was, as his nerves were bothering him.

He is described as being five feet, six inches tall and weighing 160 pounds.

TURNING THE PAGES OF "CANADA UNLIMITED"

Through swirling blizzards . . . along unmarked trails . . . the courrier des bois struggled across open country with a dispatch. He slept in a bed of pine boughs in the snow, and often went days without food. Early Canada had no postal services. Courriers were hired to carry letters for those who could afford it.

When the first Post Office opened in Halifax in 1755, regular mail service to England began. In 1763, post offices were opened in Montreal, Quebec and Three Rivers by Benjamin Franklin, then Deputy Postmaster-General of the British Colonies in America.

During the 1800's, roads opened up. Boats began regular trips along the St. Lawrence. Mail services expanded until, in 1852, the Canadian Post Office was handling 3,700,000 letters. And on Christmas Day, 1898—thanks to the efforts of Sir William Mulock—penny postage was born.

Today Canada leads the world—carrying mail by air between distant points of our country . . . at first-class rates! From paper-making to transportation, the industries that make the postal services possible have contributed to this growth . . . have increased opportunity. Yes, there's room to grow in Canada Unlimited!

Lumberman Charged With Failing To Feed Horse

George Kelly, Lumberman of Haultain, stood trial at city police court Thursday on a charge of causing unnecessary suffering to a horse by not providing sufficient nourishment and veternary care. After the case was heard by Magistrate W. R. Philp K. C. it was adjourned for judgment on June 23.

Earl Wilson, from whom Kelly hired a team of horses last fall for work during the winter, told the court that when the horses were returned one was "the poorest thing I have ever seen walking."

The horse was all skin and bone and in a very poor condition when it was brought back to him, Mr. Wilson said. The day after Mr. Kelly had returned the horse it had collapsed.

Mr. Wilson explained that shortly after hiring the horses to Mr. Kelly at the rate of $1 a day, Mr. Kelly had lost his contract and had told him he would be unable to pay the $1 a day. A new agreement was made whereby Mr. Kelly was to keep the horses for the winter and be responsible to Mr. Wilson only for feeding and caring for them.

Provincial Constable Bert Howden and Humane Society Inspector Gerald Dunsford, who visited Mr. Wilson's stables two days after the horse had been returned, also testified to its poor condition. The charge was laid by Mr. Dunford.

Horse Had Been Ill

Mr. Kelly said that the horse had been ill during the winter and he had diagnosed the trouble as pneumonia. It had recovered, however, by the time it was returned and he commented that Mr. Wilson had made no observations about the horse when he had helped him put it in his stable. It was not until the following day that he had noticed anything wrong.

Mr. Kelly said that the horse had done only half a day's work during the winter. He had kept a stallion and Mr. Wilson's two horses in a stable, watering and feeding them four times a day with 15-20 lbs. of feed to a meal. When he had been away from home his wife had cared for them and she gave evidence of having ted and watered them four times daily.

Poor Stable

Constable Howden criticised the stable in which the three horses had been kept saying that it was too small, measuring approximately 20x12 feet, had a low ceiling and was dark and poorly ventilated.

Both the Constable and Inspector Dunsford said that Mr. Kelly had told them he had not called a vet because he knew as much about horses as did a vet.

Mr. Kelly said that he now thought the horse must have suffered from tape worms because it had "gone down so quickly."

Mrs. Kelly said that the horse had had a sweeting condition for which Mr. Wilson had supplied powders to be given twice a week. This treatment had been carried out throughout the winter, she said.

Mr. Kelly admitted a conviction of cruelty in 1945.

MR. ARCHIE WILSON, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wilson, RR 4, Peterborough, who was recently graduated from the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph. Mr. Wilson has taken a position as assistant agricultural representative at Uxbridge.

Drought Causes Heavy Dumping

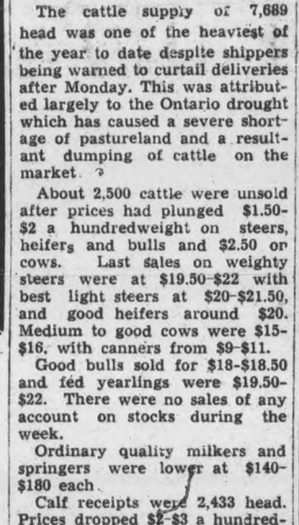
TORONTO, June 17 (CP). — The Toronto Livestock Market experienced its biggest price slump of the year this week as cattle prices dropped $1.25-$2.50 a hundredweight, the Dominion Marketing Service reported today. Calf prices followed the trend and were $3-$4 a hundredweight lower. Hogs dropped $2 and lambs were off $2-$3. Sheep were steady to 50 cents lower.

The cattle supply of 7,689 head was one of the heaviest of the year to date despite shippers being warned to curtail deliveries after Monday. This was attributed largely to the Ontario drought which has caused a severe shortage of pastureland and a resultant dumping of cattle on the market.

About 2,500 cattle were unsold after prices had plunged $1.50-$2 a hundredweight on steers, heifers and bulls and $2.50 on cows. Last sales on weighty steers were at $19.50-$22 with best light steers at $20-$21.50, and good heifers around $20. Medium to good cows were $15-$16, with canners from $9-$11.

Good bulls sold for $18-$18.50 and fed yearlings were $19.50-$22. There were no sales of any account on stocks during the week.

Ordinary quality milkers and springers were lower at $140-$180 each.



Calf receipts were 2,433 head. Prices dropped $2-$3 a hundredweight on top quality vealers, and up to $4 on other grades. Good to choice calves closed at $21-$23 with a few tops at $24. Plain to medium grades were from $15-$20 a hundredweight.

Sales Down

Hogs offered totalled 2,651 head. Opening sales were down $2 at $32 for Grade A and $31.60 for Grade B1. Sows were down $1 at $23 dressed. Closing bids for week-end deliveries were $1 lower.

Sheep and lambs totalled 1,147 head. Spring lambs, in increased numbers took a price drop of $2-$3 a hundredweight, closing at $28 for choice and others for $20-$26.50. Sheep sold mostly at $10-$12 a hundredweight for best ewes with a few at $13. Culls sold downward to $5.

Doctors Make Protest To Hospital Board

Objection to a new hospital by-law regulating use of the operating room at the new Civic Hospital was voiced by Dr. A. R. Atkinson and Dr. Herbert Young Thursday at a meeting of the Hospital Board of Governors. Dr. Atkinson claimed to represent the majority of Peterborough general practitioners when he told the Board that the bylaw was discriminatory against general practitioners.

The new regulation stipulates that only surgeons of the Surgical Service of the hospital or those acceptable to the Medical and Surgical Advisory Committee shall be given full operating room privileges. Other practitioners, with "partial" operating room privileges are required to enlist the assistance of a surgeon when operating at the hospital.

"Some surgeons have been trying to push this thing through, not for the benefit of medical practice so much as for their own benefits," Dr. Atkinson declared. He said some were trying ot keep the operating room in the new hospital for themselves.

"We feel we have been discriminated against by a certain section of the hospital staff who may be trying to guide the policy of the Board," Dr. Atkinson declared.

Reminded by the Board that the Medical and Advisory Committee, on which general practitioners are represented, had recommended the bylaw to the Board, Dr. Atkinson, who is a member of the committee, agreed that all sections of the profession had approved of the proposition at the time it was placed before the Board.

The Medical Service of the hospital did not realize all the implications of the regulation at that time, he said.

Since passing the bylaw three applications for full operating room privileges had been refused.

Discussing the doctors' complaints after the deputation had left the meeting, every member of the Board expressed full appreciation of the seriousness of the charges made. The regulations had been introduced to safeguard the patient, for whom the Hospital Board was responsible and had been welcomed by the Medical and Advisory Committee.

Some members of the Board expressed the view that the doctors would not have presented such a complaint to the Board unless they had had "something to kick about."

A fact finding committee of five governors with John R. Marshall, Board chairman, as an ex-officio member, was set up. After investigating it will report back to the main Board.

Asked Support Nursing Register

The Community Nursing Registry is endeavoring to raise $1,000 to carry it through the remaining six months of its first years' existence, Mr. Eva Brackenridge told the Civic Hospital Board of Governors Thursday.

The Registry is providing the community with a 365 day a year service by being able to locate doctors and nurses in the city at all times of emergency. The Registry records the whereabouts of nurses and doctors every hour of the day and is a service to both Civic and St. Joseph's Hospitals.

Mrs. Brackenridge told the Hospital Board that doctors and nurses paid into the Registry but in view of heavy expenses of buying furniture and starting the registry, there would be a deficit on the first year's activities of nearly $1,000. Next year, when more doctors and nurses had enrolled, the registry would be self supporting, she said.

The financial difficulties were introduced to the Hospital Board by Mrs. Brackenridge, who asked the Board for financial assistance.

While the Board of Governors appreciated the unquestioned advantages of having the Registry it felt it had no jurisdiction to vote money to this independent body, which served both hospitals. Mrs. Brackenridge was referred to the City Council and the Community Chest, it being felt generally, that the Registry was providing a community service.

Sprinkler Detectors' Zeal As Main-Layers Work Fast

Customers of the Utilities Commission became an unofficial and unorganized vigilance committee Thursday night scanning the whole city for offenders against the "no watering" regulation. Ross L. Dobbin, manager, said he could hardly get away from the telephone this morning, and last night at his home the phone was ringing so constantly that he fled the house. Gordon Matthews, Chairman of the Utilities Commission escaped the zeal of the infringement spotters by going to Chemong, and Fred Hills, another Commissioner, was out of town anyway.

Westenders lifted eyebrows last night at the sprinkling of the lawn bowling greens. Householders responding to the appeal of the Utilities Commission for the co-operation of the public, did not feel especially virtuous about their own dry taps, but they knew that everybody should fall in line.

Some people telephoned Mr. Dobbin about the CGE lawns getting water. Special circumstances attach to the CGE use of water, but to strengthen the Commission's hand, the management has decided to go dry with the rest of the folk.

Re-Use CGE Water

Mr. Dobbin explained that CGE was using on their lawns water that had already done one service or job in the plant. It was used in some cooling system or compressing system, or in some other operation but instead of being run off into the sewer at that stage, it was retained or repumped into the plant's pipe lines and thereby became available for the lawns.

Actually, CGE dampens its lawns with water that might otherwise have flowed off through the sewer lines to the river. This re-use of the water should commend itself, since the water supplied from the city and bought from the city is thus being put to several uses instead of one.

Any sensible citizen would accept that explanation and no doubt tell the company to keep that water spraying the lawn, but Mr. Dobbin reported that Mr. Ian F. McRae, works manager, decided to suspend watering for the time being.

Generally, it was surprising, probably edifying, to notice Thursday, along street after street, the suspended animation of the domestic lawn sprayers of all types.

New Main

It may be repeated that Utilities Commission decided several days ago to finish at once the 24-inch iron water main which they began during the war. It was built from the south end as far north as Bethune and Park Hill Road early in the war, but shortage of iron suspended further work.

The Commission immediately after the war continued its co-operation with the city council and private builders in the supply of new water mains and connections on streets that were filling up with new houses. A large part of this work was laid down by the city council in a five-year plan of sewer extension. in all the area south of Lansdowne St. westerly from the Locks bridge and the river, around to the west side in the Byersville section of what used to be Monaghan.

By that action, the Commission provided immediate and essential conveniences for a large number of families, but they also opened up a lot of additional taps, all combining to reduce the pressure in the system of mains. A result was recent extremely low pressures in the higher sections of the city, with complaints from those sources. So, for the present, the Commission is getting on with the big main.

Only 1,200 Ft. to Lay

The main is already laid from the south end as far north as Bethune street and Park Hill road. It is an 18-inch main that far. From the north Water St. pumping house south to Bennett St. bigger piping, 24 inches in diameter, is being laid. This north end main is already laid to as far south as the present Civic Hospital grounds.

The gap that exists, and which is now being closed as fast as possible, is from the hospital grounds to Park Hill road and Bethune. Work is going on at both the 18-inch main end at Bethune, and the 24-inch main end at the hospital. There are only about 1,200 feet to be laid before the gap is closed.

The main will follow, from north to south, Dumble, Barnardo, Bennett, Aylmer and Wolsley streets to the Bethune-Park Hill road end. Thursday 400 feet of 18-inch main were laid at this end.

Two difficulties have been encountered which are causing slight delays: marl at the 18-inch main end, which is bogging down the mechanical equipment, and non-delivery of the 24-inch piping. The iron works at Hamilton which is supplying the 24-inch piping has been weathering a strike, but Mr. Dobbin expects ample deliveries soon. He says that the delays are not serious, and when they wait for the 24-inch piping, all the Commission's equipment and man power are concentrated on laying the 18-inch sections of the main.

Mr. Dobbin said at noon today in an optimistic mood "If we don't have trouble the whole main should be completely laid in three weeks."

Make No Change In Equalizing Of Assessments

Equalized assessment in Peterborough County for 1950 will be the same as 1949, County Council decided on Thursday.

This summer the county assessor will concentrate on the proper valuation of summer properties in the various municipalities. A close check will also be kept on new building and next year it is expected there will be a substantial revision.

Total equalized assessment for the county is $11,093,493.

Following are the assessments for the individual municipalities: Asphodel, $1,068,717; Belmont and Methuen, $436,405; Burleigh and Anstruther, $172,327; Chandos, $127,691; Douro, $1,112,243; Dummer, $970,779; Ennismore, $346,125; Galway and Cavendish, $110,322; Harvey, $327,817; North Monaghan, $506,126; Otonabee, $2,275,266; Smith, $2,381,513; Lakefield, $546,100; Norwood, $351,739; and Havelock, $331,353.

Last year the local assessment was $9,699,937 for all municipalities with a total population of 17,646 and 8,952 ratepayers. When the standing committee on Equalization and Assessment brought in its report on Thursday afternoon the corresponding figures for 1950 were not available.

Chairman Melville Johnston of North Monaghan said the work of assessing the County was going ahead "very nicely," and that this summer there would be an intensive effort to obtain an estimate of summer properties.

"We are hopeful that every Reeve will co-operate with the assessor and get the required information while the people are still at their summer homes," he said.

"This year we recommend last year's equalization be carried through, but it will be different next year."

James Gifford, Reeve of Ennismore, said when the committee started to work there appeared to be considerable discrepancy in the methods of assessment of the various municipalities.

"A number of building permits had been issued and we were inclined to believe we weren't getting the benefit of the increased assssment," he said. "However, some municipalities with higher building were better in line than others, and an attempt to bring them into line would be unfair."

Use of Land Bylaw

He stated there should be a "use of land" by-law drawn up for the county. The assessor and a small committee could get together and draft one by next session. He conceded it would be difficult to get a by-law satisfactory to all—not only the municipalities but also the various Provincial Departments concerned.

Stewart Sparling, recently appointed County assessor, said he was satisfied to let the equalization stand this year but promised it would be different next time. He advocated a building by-law to maintain the standard of housing in the municipalities.

Reeve Glenn Nichols of Chandos said that 45 per cent of the assessment of his township was summer property and that it would be impossible for it to complete a valuation this summer.

Mood For An Assistant

Later he brought the subject up again and moved that a temporary assistant be hired to help the County Assessor carry out his summer project. Reeve Ross Barrons of Belmont and Methuen seconded the motion and said a similar situation to that of Chandos existed in his municipality.

When Reeves Norman Wilson of Burleigh-Anstruther and Peter Pearson of Galway Cavendish stated they were under the impression a uniform method of assessment would not be in operation until a lapse of about five years, and next year's revision might be too drastic, the Council seemed headed for deadlock.

Reeve Johnston then asked the mover and seconder to withdraw the motion for an assistant, and asked further that all Reeves stirve conscienciously to co-operate with the County Assessor.

Mr. Sparling said he did not want to insinuate that summer property generally was not being assessed properly, but there was "a very great discrepancy" in some cases.

When queried by the Councillors he said he did not expect to do the valuating himself, but he wanted to teach his system to the various municipal assessors so a "yard stick" with which to judge the value of property could be obtained.

Building up of county records as sent in by the various municipal assessors was a prime necessity, he stated

A motion passed as proposed by Reeves Gifford and Ferguson that the County Assessor, chairman of the County Equalization and Assessment Committee and the Warden be appointed to study the whole question of assessment and keep in close touch with the department on the subject.

Counties that employ an assessor should receive financial aid from the province, Mr. Gifford contended.

GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT of the Canadian General Electric Company, William Campbell English, died on Thursday in hospital. He had 33 years continuous service with his Company.

Wm. C. English Dies In Hospital

General superintendent of the Canadian General Electric Company, William Campbell English, 57, of 309 Margaret Ave., died early today in hospital following a lengthy illness. Member of their Quarter Century Club and CGE Foremen's Association, Mr. English joined the company in 1907 as apprentice in the Tool Design department. He was granted leave of absence from 1914 to 1918 to work in the Ross Rifle plant and later rejoined the CGE in the same department, at which time his length of service was established. In 1930 he was appointed supervisor of tool design, in 1936, mechanical superintendent and in January, 1949, general superintendent succeeding William Barnacal.

Mr. English's activities outside the CGE were varied. He was past-president of both the Peterborough Boy Scout Association and the Kiwanis Club, a former director and member of the Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Peterborough Sketch Club, many of his paintings being exhibited locally. Mr. English was a member of Corinthian Lodge AF and AM, No. 101 and of the Scottish Rite and Trinity United Church.

Born in this city, son of the late Samuel Lockington English and Lydia Lilley, he spent most of his life here. His father operated the English Canoe Company for many years. Besides his wife, the former Nellie Crawford Reid, he leaves one daughter, Miss Elizabeth Crawford English and a son James George English of Toronto.

Funeral service will be held on Monday at the Comstock Funeral Home at 2 p.m. The Rev. Dr. Bruce Gordon will officiate and burial will be at Little Lake Cemetery.

Marria, of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio.

HAS UNUSUAL ACCIDENT

Maurice Wood, RR No. 3, Peterborough, met with an unusual accident while driving a car on the Jackson Park road shortly after noon on Thursday. He had a load of laths in the car and one of them which was sticking out a window, broke off when a gust of wind caught it. The lath hit him in the face, causing Mr. Wood to lose control of the car which swerved in loose gravel and struck a telephone pole. He was unhurt, but the car sustained about $100 damage. Provincial Constable G. W. J. Stevens investigated.

GANNON'S NARROWS PROJECT

The question of replacement of the present floating bridge at Gannon's Narrows came up again before County Council adjourned early Thursday evening. Gale Elliott of Harvey proposed that the roads committee be empowered to interview the minister of lands and forests as well as officials of the Department of Highways and the Department of Transport regarding the possible construction of a causeway there. The committee will report back to Council at the next session.

Unusual Demand For Grain Seed To Restock Crop

Commercial seed grain bins are just about empty as farmers turn to late sowing for supplementary forage crops as substitute for the hay and grasses which have been stunted by a month's absence of rain.

"But, we can get supplies to fill the orders that are coming in," Harold J. Inman told the Examiner today with a note of assurance.

Other enquiries from Dewart Milling and Co-Op Services confirm reports that probably hundreds of farmers are resorting to emergency measures to make up the shortage of hay.

Mel McIntyre of Dewart's said demand for seed grain had been active this season, and most of the stocks on hand had been sold to farmers of the district. They are now turning to Sudan Grass, millet and corn.

Demand Quickened

Demand has quickened since the first of this month when it became apparent that the hayfields were suffering severely. R. M. Peirson of Co-Op amplified the general information that farmers are tackling the situation of emergency as indicated by their enquiries for seed suitable for planting now.

Stocks actually on hand are light. One farmer from the eastern section of the county said he could not get any seed at Hastings. W. J. Charlton of Lakefield had some corn but no Sudan, and generally little of anything, and also with few enquiries from farmers.

Frank Paterson, agricultural representative, was advising the planting of corn, Sudan Grass, if it could be obtained, and oats for fall forage. He suggested to one farmer that he take a chance on almost any sensible mixture, even if it did look strange to the neighbors.

CAN FIX FOUNTAIN

Permission has been given to the city by the County Council to replace or repair the present fountain in Victoria Park. At the March session a letter was received from the City Council requesting permission to either replace the present unused fountain or put it in working order. The county owns the property so long as it remains in use as a park.

Take Care Of Horses Society Requests

With the advent of hot weather, the Peterborough Humane Society is asking the owners and drivers of bread rigs and milk rigs to take good care of their animals. They request that the horses be given plenty of water, and an attempt made at all times to get the animals into the shade.

Mr. Gerald Dunford, Humane Society Inspector, will not be working Wednesday afternoons during the summer months, and the society requests that any calls that have to be made on that day be put in early in the morning.

The society also urges householders to take care of their pets by giving them lots of water and shade, and in the case of dogs, to take them out for a run on a leash often.

Claims Liberal Legislation Less Christian

OKA, Que., June 17 (CP) — Georges Heon, Progressive Conservative organizer in Quebec, told an election rally here Thursday night that Liberal legislation in recent years has shown a tendency away from Christianity.

"If the Progressive Conservatives are sent to Ottawa June 27 they will restore Christian principles to law," he said in this village 20 miles northwest of Montreal.

Mr. Heon referred to charges attributed to Prime Minister St. Laurent and Trade Minister Howe that the Progressive Conservatives and Union Nationale in Quebec "are composed of gangsters."

"They (Mr. St. Laurent and Mr. Howe) neglect to recall that these of the people in this province who last July elected 82 Union Nationale members to the Quebec House."

Owen Sound Decides Saturday If Retaining 43-Year Liquor Ban

OWEN SOUND, June 17—(CP)—This bustling Ontario city decides Saturday whether to retain its 43-year ban on sale of beer, wine and liquor. The decision will be made in a plebiscite first since 1913, on a local option by-law which forbids the sale and distribution of alcoholic beverages in this Grey county city of 16,500.

Situated on the southwest corner of Georgian Bay, Owen Sound was anything but dry in its early days. It had a reputation throughout Ontario as a "wide-open" town, due largely to illegall iquor sales which paralleled—and often exceeded—regular licensed sales.

But the irregular practices drew repercussions from temperance advocates and in 1903 an organization known as the Law and Order League was formed. Its campaign reached a climax Jan. 1, 1905, when the city voted into effect the local option section in Ontario's Liquor Licence Act. Since then, three abortive attempts at repeals have been made —in 1909, 1912 and 1913.

Didn't Change

Owen Sound did not change its stand on the local option issue when government liquor sales and sale of beer in hotel premises were introduced by the government during 1926-27.

Saturday the voters may answer five questions

"(1) Are you in favor of the establishment of government stores for the sale of liquor?

"(2) Are you in favor of the establishment of government stores for the sale of beer only for residence consumption?

"(3) Are you in favor of the sale of beer only under a public-house licence for consumption on licensed premises to which women are admitted?

"(4) Are you in favor of the sale of beer only under a public-house licence for consumption on licensed premises to which men are admitted?

"(5) Are you in favor of the sale of liquor under a dining-lounge licence for consumption with meals on licensed premises?"

Everyone eligible to vote in a provincial election may vote on the plebiscite, to be held under Ontario Liquor Laws. A 60-per-cent "yes" vote is required to end the dry law.

End Bootlegging

The "wets," under the Owen Sound committee for legal control, contend that establishment of legal liquor sales here wil end illegal transactions, boost trade and tourist traffic and protect minors.

The "drys," spearheaded by a committee appointed by the Owen Sound Temperance Federation, argue that legal sales will not halt bootlegging, but will harm merchants, undermine the city's youth and spoil the community's "clean progressive record" of 43 years under local option.

Both sides are waging active campaigns. They have established main street headquarters, hold periodic public meetings and advertise their platforms daily.

Make Strawberry Jam this Quick, Easy, Sure Way with CERTO

1 So Quick — So Easy. It takes no more time than to make a simple dessert. First, crush thoroughly 2 quarts fully ripe berries. (Use ripe fruit, not the under-ripe fruit called for in old-fashioned recipes.) Measure 4 cups crushed fruit and 7 cups sugar into large saucepan or kettle, mix well, bring to full, rolling boil over high heat.

2 Short Boil Keeps Fresh-Fruit Flavor, Color. Stir constantly before and while boiling. BOIL HARD ONE MINUTE ONLY (No long boiling to dull the natural color or spoil the luscious fresh-fruit taste.) Remove from heat, stir in half-bottle of Certo Fruit Pectin. Then stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes to cool slightly and prevent floating fruit.

3 50% More Jam! Because you don't have to "boil down" your juice to make it set, you'll have about 10 glasses to ladle and paraffin instead of the 6 to be expected from "long-boil" recipes. Certo helps all fruits to jell without tedious long boiling . . . averages 50% more jam or jelly from the same amount of fruit.

4 No Guesswork. As each fruit comes in season, use Certo to stock your cupboard with a variety of delicious jams and jellies. With each bottle of Certo you get a booklet of 78 Kitchen-Tested recipes . . . a different one for each fruit since different fruits need different handling. For sure results follow these recipes exactly.

Look for book of 78 Tested Recipes under label

A pound of jam or jelly made with Certo contains no more sugar than a pound made the old, long-boil way.

Certo is nothing but fruit pectin — the natural substance in fruit which makes jams "jam" and jellies "jell" — extracted and concentrated for easier, quicker, better jam and jelly making. The name "Certo" is a trade-mark.

1,100 Delegates At Convention

TORONTO, June 17.—In excess of 1,100 delegates, representative of all sections of Ontario, will convene at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, for the annual sessions of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, embracing the Grand Lodge of Ontario, Rebekah Assembly of Ontario, Grand Encampment of Ontario, and the Department Council of Patriachs Militant.

The sessions will commence Monday, June 19, and conclude Friday, June 24. Mayor Hiram McCallum will formally welcome the Odd Fellowship convention which is meeting in Toronto for the first time since 1946. Toronto has also been selected as the 1950 convention centre, and the 1951 meeting place will be chosen this year.

William E. Knox, Toronto, will preside during the 104th annual session of the Grand Lodge. The president of the Rebekah Assembly is Mrs. Aetna Bumstead, Meaford. Presiding during the grand encampment will be Grand Patriarch T. V. Ibbeton, Pt. Arthur, and Dept. Commander E. E. Wench, North Bay, will be in charge of Patriarchs Militant sessions. Mrs. Wench is President of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Patriarchs Militant which also meets during the sessional week.

The four groups will meet separately; Rebekahs and Encampment, Monday and Tuesday; the Patriachs Militant, Wednesday and Thursday, and the Grand Lodge will conclude the week-long program with busy sessions on Thursday and Friday.

Special reports detailing the fraternal and public service objectives of the associated groups will be presented. The Cancer, Poliomyletis and Tuberculosis Fund, spsonored by the Oddfellows and Rebekahs, is one of the important public service projects which since its establishment in 1947 has benefitted many humanitarian causes throughout Ontario. To date, approximately $120,000 has been collected from Odd Fellowship which is expended through clinic treatment, contributions to cancer research and special charitable causes, hospital bed units, and wheel chairs for indigent patients.

The hospital bed program originated six years ago by I.O.O.F. is expanding rapidly. Hospital beds for home use are provided without charge to deserving cases, and scores of beds provided by this committee are now in use throughout Ontario by the ill and infirm.

Bishop Challenges Women To Engender Patriotism At CWL Diocesan Session

Twenty-seventh annual Diocesan Convention of the Catholic Women's League at Campbellford Wednesday was the largest yet held. Delegates, numbering 168, represented the 20 sub-divisions of Bowmanville, Campbellford, Cobourg, Douro, Downeyville, Ennismore, Grafton, Hastings, Keene, Kinmount, Kirkfield, Lakefield, Lindsay, Norwood, Wooler and Peterborough under which there were members from St. Peter's, Sacred Heart, Immaculate Conception, St. John's and Assumption sub-divisions.

Trout Creek and Parry Sound members were unable to be present due to transportation difficulties, and the Junior CWL of Peterborough also did not report.

Miss Agnes Grant of Peterborough, Diocesan president, was re-elected to this position for a second term. She will be assisted by Mrs. A. Torpey, Indian River, first vice president; Mrs. George Smith, Campbellford, second vice president; Mrs. Healey, Douro, third vice president; Miss Anne Sullivan, Ennismore, recording secretary; Mrs. Jos. Collins, Hastings, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frank Callaghan, Lindsay, treasurer.

It was decided to appeal to the Federal Government to do something effective immediately in regard to housing for people in the lower income brackets. The League will continue with their approach to the problem of comics and salacious literature with endeavours to promote good literature.

Diocesan messages drafted for sending are to King George VI expressing a wish for complete recovery in health, and to Pope Pius XII offering congratulations on his Golden Jubilee.

The convention opened with celebration of mass at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church where the altar was superbly decorated for this occasion. The Most Rev. Gerald Berry, Bishop of Peterborough, said the mass. The Rev. J. C. Maloney, parish priest, delivered an eloquent sermon on the aims and ideals of the League and their motto "For God and Canada". "Object of this organization is to unite all women of the Roman Catholic faith in a bond of fellowship for the promotion of religion, intellectual interests, social and patriotic work," he explained. "The emblem, a cross inscribed in a circle, surrounded by maple leaves, symbolizes faith and charity."

Other clergymen attending the mass included the Rev. Fathers McFadden, McCarney, Garvey, Walsh, Richea, Collins, O'Sullivan and Corkery CSsr.

Miss Grant presided for meetings in the parish hall. She outlined the program followed during the past year when League members worked on the theme submitted at the Provincial convention, "Supernatural motivation to do all for the glory of God."

Messages to this assembly from Bishop Cody of London, National Director, Cardinal McGuigan, Mrs. Grace Durocher of Windsor, National president, and Mrs. Alexander Walker, of Toronto, Provincial president, were read. Mrs. George Smith, president of Campbellford sub-division, extended a welcome to the visitors.

Bishop Berry addressed the afternoon session, stressing the power for good which League members can inaugurate and the blessings enjoyed by Roman Catholics in Canada.

Urging patriotism to this country, the Bishop referred to the 1945 espionage trials calling the spys "ideological traitors." He said "Those men who were traitors to their own country were serving a country which they thought superior to this. They were highly educated men and were not acting as they did for money. They were being loyal to an idea which they felt was better, and though we believed such a thing could not happen here, it did happen."

"This shows a very serious condition of mind which is increasing. Women of Canada can do much to counteract it b yengendering the proper respect for religion and patriotism in children, and acting according to the principles themselves. If vigilance is kept in this regard no clique can gain control."

With this challenge to the women, the Bishop gave the keynot of the convention. He curtailed his address somewhat due to the intense heat, and remarked that the large number present in such warm weather showed that recent changes in the constitution had stimulated interest.

Profuse thanks was extended to the ladies of the hostess subdivision, and to their friends of the Anglican Auxiliary of Christ Church who prepared and served a sumptuous noon banquet.

Of Interest to Women

DOROTHY DIX

Should Woman Confess Sins Or Ignore Them as Men Do?

DEAR MISS DIX: Do you think it is possible for a wife to conceal her past from her husband and really be happy?

Do you think if her conscience doesn't bother her and she feels that she should tell the man she loves all about the affair before she is married?

Do you think she is taking a greater chance of losing his love by telling him all about herself, or by not telling him and living in fear that he will find out?

MAE.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: The wages of sin is death, and for every wrong we do we have to pay. That is an inexorable law from which there is no escape, and that is why I am always urging girls to so live that when they marry they will have no old score that they have run up with life hanging over their heads and so their doors.

For the problem of the girl who has a soiled past and who is about to marry is one that cannot be settled happily. If she tells her prospective husband that she has dragged her skirts through the mire, he very likely will refuse to marry her and, even if he is in love with her so much at the time that he goes on and marries her, she has put into his hands a weapon with which he will stab her in every family quarrel.

Broadminded

When a man boasts that he is broad-minded about such matters he means it only for his own sins and those of women in whom he is not particularly interested. This broad-mindedness does not include his wife's follies. Every man wants his own wife to be like Caesar's, above reproach. He wants to be able to trust her implicitly, and when he cannot, the knowledge of her weakness rankles like a thorn in his heart.

So there she is, and anyway she turns she is bound to pay the piper for her dance, and whether she shall pay on the spot or put off the evil day as long as she can no one can say with certainty.

Men do not confess their pasts to their wives before they marry and probably women do well to follow their example. But one thing is certain, if they are ever going to tell, it should be before marriage, not afterward. For a wife to wreck her husband's faith in her by confessions that do no good and that make him miserable is a criminal weakness. It is buying relief for her own conscience at the price of an innocent man's happiness.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: How far should a woman trust her intuitions? I have received a number of anonymous letters, most of them written by the same person, warning me that my husband was philandering, but somehow or other I have a strong feeling of trust in him. He has plenty of chances to lead a double life if he chooses to, but I have faith that he doesn't do it. Despite the realization that I can't compete with youth, charm or physical beauty, I have an inward conviction that he is playing the game fair and square. Am I a perfect fool? Am I living in a fool's paradise and storing up trouble for myself?

BARBARA JEANNE.

ANSWER: I think you are a wise woman to play your hunch about your husband and pay no attention to the anonymous letters. People who write anonymous letters are cowards and sneaks who are afraid to sign their names lest they might be called upon to prove their charges. They are mostly liars and slanderers, and any one who would deliberately destroy a wife's faith in her husband is an enemy who would stab her in the back in the dark.

As for your husband having chances to be unfaithful to you, every man in the world has that, and when he is true to his wife it is not because she watches him, but because of his love for her and his sense of honor. So disregard the anonymous letters and be happy.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: Do you think a girl should marry who hates babies?

ANSWER: No. But you needn't worry about that. When you have a baby of your own it won't be a howling brat, like some one else's baby. It will be a beautiful, adorable, fascinating angel child.

Care of the Eyes

Adults, who in their vocations must concentrate for long periods, should relieve their eyes as much as possible. Sleep is the most natural rest, but even long hours of sleep are not sufficient to overcome long working hours at close work. Nature has arranged human eyes so that they are resting while looking at distances of more than twenty feet.

It is a great advantage to workers to momentarily and frequently look across their room or office in order to relieve the nervous and muscular strain involved in close work. This very simple but effective relief will aid a great deal of visual difficulty.

When difficulties persist other means available to the profession of Optometry must be utilized.

If you have any question concerning your eyes, or any visual problems, your enquiries are very welcome. Enquiries should be addressed to A Ward Smith, 341 George St. (Over Selkirk's), Peterborough, Ont. A personal visit to Mr. Smith at this address (Telephone 9397) would be even more desirable.

NICK NICKELS

Lazy June days set most of dreaming of happy childhood times when we used to go perch fishing. Remember the leeky old punt, the rusty can filled with worms, the crooked green pole and bright cork float? Of course you do. And Can't you still feel the absolute bliss of just lolling there by the shady bank, the old boat swinging in the swell You could wrap the cotton line around your big toe, pull your battered straw hat over your eyes and take forty winks whenever you felt like it. Remember the tug on your toe as you woke up with a start to see the float dancing and the thrill of swinging a small fish abroad. You could go asleep again too, or if the excitment was not too great for the moment, ruminate on the flitting dragon flies or the beauty of wild briar roses on the bank. That meant goin' fishin' to all of us.

We understand that the Jaycees are hoping to move their Tourist Bureau to the junction of Highways 7 and 28, opposite the Kawartha Golf Club. A move is all very well, boys, but it's still in the wrong direction, in my opinion. I have made a survey of these establishments in various Ontario, Quebec and Manitoba centres and the trend is to locate right in the thick of traffic flow where potential customers are shopping for merchandise as well as information. You will say there is the parking problem, but, the customers you want to contact will have already parked and would spend more time talking and listening to you. You know how American tourists drive, always in a terrific hurry and those who pull up outside the city are on the run, if they are not travelling too fast to see your booth. A year ago spring, Pete McGillen and I tried our best to have you locate on the Charlotte St. side of the city parking lo. No dice. Then again, there is the former United Cigar Store stand on George St., at Charlotte, believed to be on a monthly lease basis from the present owners of the olock. THAT'S A PLACE for you. Have a look at Lakefield. They have a brand new Tourist Bureau on the main street which will catch all interested comers. There is a similar one in that sort of location in Perth and they are both working out very satisfactorily. I hope you will take this as good-natured constructive criticism, open to further discussion.

Fisherman-guide Sam Taylor is on the alert even when fishing at the London St. Dam. The other evening he heard a commotion just north along the east shore of the Goose Pond. He found five carp wallowing in the shallows, rushed home and got his trusty hatchet and laid them all out on the bank, but dead. They averaged ten younds apiece and he buried them declaring vengeance on any more he sees or hears about within the city limits. Some sort of medal should go to such conservationists as Sam who not only think and talk about such menaces, but act.

Nature is making unusual trouble within the city limits these days. The worst of these to come to light has to do with kingfishers. They have been reported in unusual numbers around the banks of the Otonabee River in the heart of the city and being nesting time with many small bills to fill, parents birds are pressed for food. Some of the birds have hit on a very bright idea and citizens with private lily-goldfish pools in their back yards are the ones that are figuratively filling their bills with goldfish. Reports from Jock Smith, Wilson Craw, Cubby Haggerman, Walter Blackwell, Lawrie Mitchell, Stan Shields and many others, show they have not only seen parent kingfishers divebombing their pools, but have had to put chicken netting over them. Some report the loss of as man yas 25 fish during the past week.

Twenty-five United States newspaper publishers will have a 1600-mile look at Ontario's vacation land. They started on a ten-day bus tour from Windsor, apparently, will work their way east to Ottawa, north to Pembroke and North Bay and home to the border by Georgian Bay points. Sponsored by the Ontario Department of Travel and Publicity, they will take home some fine editorial fodder for distribution to fellow Americans who would like to hear more of our great playgrounds from heads of their own press. A similiar party from another cross-section of the United States did the same thing last year and spent several hours at South Beach on Clear Lake. The Peterborough Ornamental Swimming Club highlighted the afternoon at that time and were they ever impressed!

Certain people took offense at the recent publicity given the Tent Caterpiller plague by the Examiner. They reasoned that it threw cold water on the effort of publicizing the district through their Canadian Vacation Guide and that tourist trade would suffer accordingly. It is more honest to tell prospective visitors the current score. The menace, which is now on the wane, will be over before tourist season gets over full swing. Since the story has come out every man and his keeper tell of the ravages they have seen on weekend drives. It is diminishing, however. And as a natural antidote, Fred Tuggy may have seen the answer at his Burleigh cottage. Said he, "They have eaten everything green and are now going to work on the poison ivy." Maybe that will fix them. We have heard the old wives' tale that by eating a leaf of the deadly plant, one may become immune from the poison. If this is ease, it may work the same way for the pests.

The investigation of liver diseases attacking elk, and possibly deer, in the Eel's Creek Crown Peserve, mentioned in this column three weeks ago, may have been good work done before this type of wild life disappears. A report from Petawawa this week tells that a herd of elk brought from Wainwright National Park about 15 years ago, may have to be destroyed. Assistant District Forester W. E. Gimby said that an investigation conducted over the past year revealed that nothing [illegible] animals.

Peterborough folks need not feel that Northern Ontario is such a remote and mysterious place for, after all, it comes right down to their back door. The great Pre-Cambrian Shield that identifies the North, and is made up of the world's oldest rocks, comes to an abrupt edge at the road running east from Carmel Church, Crowes Landing, to the head of Stoney Lake. On the opposite side of the road one can see the Kingston limestone, a much younger rock, which indicates an entirely different type of typography.

Nigel Drayton, Gore's Landing naturalist, reported seeing two beaver recently on the south shore of Rice Lake. This is the first time they have made their appearance in that area in several years, say oldtimers. The last colony dammed up Goose creek and flooded a good portion of land inland from Rice Lake. It is hoped that poachers will leave these two beaver alone and that they will settle and prosper in their new district.

The country needs rain very, very badly but there still appears to be no signs of it in the near future. We can still hope and even do a little wishful thinking. It prompts us to take a peek at our Tall Friend's Old Almanac to see what it says about the approach of foul or wet weather. Here it is: "If swine be restless, and grunt loudly; if they squeak and jerk up their heads, there will be much wind; whence the proverb—"Pigs can see the wind."

BOGUS TREE

The banana plant, resembling a tree, [illegible] is an herb with tightly rolled leaves serving as stems.

BALTIC DISPLACED PERSONS march in mass demonstration at Hanau, Germany, this week in an appeal to the western world to free their homelands from "Bolshevist terror." Marchers pass under a banner and past a huge cartoon depicting Stalin astride their trampled countries. Demonstrators were 3,500 Latvians, Estonians, Lithuanians and Ukrainians, who had been living in Germany as DP's since the war and have refused to return to their Soviet-ruled homelands.

Everywhere people are changing to PEPSI-COLA

"I changed to Pepsi-Cola because it hits the spot," says Pete Conacher, Toronto student. You bet it does! That's the secret of Pepsi's quick, delicious flavour. It's refreshing. It's satisfying. And it's good! Nothing else can match it. Try a Pepsi-Cola today. You'll never again be satisfied with any other soft drink.

Housewives, too, are changing to Pepsi. Mrs. A. W. Eisner, Calgary, Alta., says, "We changed to Pepsi-Cola because there's twice as much in the big, 12-ounce bottle." A mighty good reason when you have a thirsty family around. Doubly good when you consider that Pepsi is a favourite with family and friends alike. Take home a carton today.

Former Governor Dies

ALPENA, Mich., June 17 (CP) —William A. Comstock, 71, Governor of Michigan in 1933-34, died Thursday night. Comstock, a Democrat, suffered a stroke May 24 while on a vacation. He had been in hospital since then.

PC Candidate Says Provinces Were Key Aids

Provincial governments, with Ontario under Drew leading, had played a key role in university and vocational training of veterans for which they were getting no credit from the Liberal federal government, Gordon K. Fraser, M. P., and Progressive Conservative candidate in the June 27 federal election, charged in a meeting in Buckhorn Thursday night.

It was the provincial governments which had supplied the training and much of the money to back the training plans, Mr. Fraser asserted.

Canada was wasting its natural resources in two ways, Mr. Fraser said. Young people who had received their education at the expense of the Canadian taxpayer, were unable to find employment offering a real future in Canada. As a result they were going to the United States to find it. If Canada's resources were put to use, the country could offer a future for its young people and at the same time step up Canada's production of marketable goods.

Mr. Fraser charged the Liberal government in Ottawa had done very little if anything for children's health and welfare compared to what George Drew had accomplished in Ontario.

Lawyer Criticizes Government.

The other speaker at the meeting was J. C. N. Currelly, Peterborough lawyer. He said disabled veterans had had a poor deal from the Liberal government. Men who had been taken into the army with A1 medical classification and discharged unfit for service were told their disability was due to pre-war service conditions and not the result of their war service.

Mr. Currelly said Mackenzie King had promised the veterans a great deal before the 1945 election but had failed to fulfill those promises. Anything he had done was forced upon him by the Progressive Conservatives.

The Liberals claimed they had reduced taxes every year since 1945, but there had been no reduction last year Mr. Currelly said. If the Liberal government had been reducing taxes every year, why was it now collecting four times as much money through taxes as it had in 1939, he asked.

CCF Candidate Appeal For Farmers' Support

Only a CCF candidate can hope to do anything for either the farmer or laborer once he gets to Ottawa, J. H. Miles told his audience at a CCF rally held Thursday night at Douro.

Mr. Miles and his agent, W. C. Grant, charged the election speeches of Liberal and Progressive Conservative candidates have little meaning. Mr. Miles said he believed his two opponents were gentlemen with the sincerest intentions. But it was evident from past records they had little chance of getting results from any requests they might make for improvements in the riding. The reason, Mr. Miles said, was the Liberal and Progressive Conservative party members were subject to the dictates of their party leaders. They are forced to subordinate their ridings' needs to the overall party platforms.

Mr. Miles compared the health program now in effect in CCF Saskatchewan and Tory Ontario. He termed Saskatchewan's health program humanitarian but said Ontario's most deplorable.

The CCF candidate charged monopolistic control by a very few farm implement manufacturers set the prices of farm machinery at a "prohibitive" level for the average farmer.

Mr. Grant told some of the reasons for the formation of the CCF party. It was based on the belief that as many people as possible should take some part in running their country even if they were not always successful. In the older parties, the party's programs had been formed by the executive, not by the members. The CCF believed the program was not all-important. The members took an active part in forming party policy.

The result was that CCF programs were carried out, Mr. Grant said. He stated that the program of Premier T. C. Douglas of Saskatchewan had been entirely fulfilled, but in contrast, George Drew's 22-point program for Ontario had been largely neglected.

Mr. Grant condemned the part newspapers, with the exception of The Examiner, were playing in the election. He said the Toronto Telegram was the most outstanding example of a paper in election time becoming little more than a propaganda sheet.

Human Freedom Placed On New Basis

"The basis of human freedom is not service or friendship, but a belief that man is the Son of God and therefore the possessor of a soul, which raises him above the level of the animal." So declared Rev. Robert MacDonald, parish priest of St. Alphonse Parish and member of the Redemptorist Order, in an address given to the Kiwanis Club at its weekly luncheon on Monday in the Empress Hotel. Father MacDonald was introduced by Ralph Standish and thanked by Charles H. Spearin.

The speaker deplored a tendency today, even on this side of the Atlantic, for people to stoop to violence in their efforts to solve problems caused by the "social stress and economic insecurity" of the present day.

"In spite of all the efforts we have made in the past few years to solve world problems, we are at the door of failure," said Father MacDonald, who also foresaw "trouble of some kind coming between labor and management in our cities and towns" as a result of present tensions.

The question which men today must answer one way or the other, said the speaker, is: "Is man the Son of God or is he not?" The Russians in giving a negative answer to this question are "absolutely denying the basis of human freedom." Because of this lack of belief in God, men who are of no use to the Communist cause in Russia are thrust aside in the same way that a farmer in this country disposes of one of his cattle which for some reason is no longer useful to him. "The Russians do not regard it as murder when a human being is disposed of."

Father MacDonald said that the ideals of the Four Freedoms of Roosevelt have no validity unless they are rooted in the belief "that there is a God."

Four Bodies Found

MONTREAL, June 17 (CP) — Police Thursday night reported the recovery of the bodies of four persons believed to have drowned during the day in Montreal district waters.

Forest Fire In B.C.

VANCOUVER, June 17 (CP)— A serious forest fire was reported raging out of control Thursday night above Howe Sound, 25 miles northwest of Vancouver. First report said the fire covered about 100 acres of timberland. Smoke from the blaze is visible here. About 55 loggers are fighting the fire.

Worker Wins Long Fight With Income Tax Dept.

OTTAWA, June 17— (CP). — A Winnipeg trade unionist has won his four-year fight against the Income Tax Department. But it probably won't be much help to the rest of the taxpayers.

One Exchequer Court ruled Joseph Cooper may deduct union dues of $35 from his 1945 income tax.

Revenue Department officials feared at first the decision might have knocked a big loophole in income tax regulations. But they took a second look at the judgment and the regulations and said it will affect only a handful of Canadians.

Mr Justice E. R. Angers ruled the $35 paid by Mr. Cooper as a member of a Motion Picture Projectionists' Union was deductable because the money was spent for the sole purpose of earning his income. Without union membership, he could not have worked as a projectionist.

But the Department said only those persons whose income tax for the years from 1945 to 1948 has not been finally settled will be in a position to claim similar exemptions. And there are not very many of them.

A new Income Tax Act passed in 1948 states no deduction is allowed for "expense paid out for the purpose of earning an income."

This clause does not apply, however, to professional men in private practice—and not on a salary—who may deduct membership fees paid to recognized organizations.

Persons who might have claimed exemption for union dues in 1945 are out of luck. Canadians are given 60 days to appeal their assessments, and if no appeal is filed, the case is closed.

The Department ruled in 1945 Mr. Cooper could not deduct union dues from income tax. He took the ruling to court.

Senior Petes Take Batawa 6-2

BELLEVILLE, June 17.—(CP).—Peterborough Marines tightened their grip on first place in the COBL race here Thursday night when they defeated a patched-up Batawa shoemen team by a 6-2 count.

Due to an OBA ruling three of Batawa's regulars were not in the lineup, because of a Trenton intermediate team manager's refusal to waive them.

The shoemen plugged the gaps with Belleville juniors and for six innings it was one of the best hurling duels seen here between Petes' Dadson and Batawa's Dyer.

Tied Count

The score was tied one-all going into the top half of the seventh when the Petes' bats exploded and nicked Dyer for five safeties for three runs. Batawa got one back in the eighth, but the Petes scored the clinching pair in the ninth off four hits and two Batawa errors.

Dadson was touched for nine hits, but was good in the clutches, striking out 10 and walking four. He aided his own cause with a ninth-inning triple. Dyer held the Petes to one hit for six innings when he blew up for five safeties. He struck out four and walked one.

Mouse Bush, Batawa junior player, hit a triple and two singles for the losers, Holmes and Spencer hit doubles and singles. Crowe, Garvey and Lowrey hit a pair each for the Petes. Three smart double plays, two for Batawa, were fielding features.

June 24-26—Trinity Pack.
July 1-3—Park Hill Pack.

August 27-28 — Commissioners Staff—Local Association—Group Committee and Group officers conference.

Applications for the use of the grounds and equipment should be directed to W. G. Shiner or Quartermaster Albert Ingham.

Camp Grounds

A very special move is to be made to get the gate at the entrance of the grounds finished. The committee is also being urged to look after the spots of poison ivy.

Badges on the Decline

Chairman Charlie Johnson reported that only two overnight hikes had been reported since the last meeting and that Scouts and Scouters will find the service for passing badges ready at any time during the summer months.

Canadian Jamboree

Here we might say "Wake up Peterborough" for there are only two uncertain applications from this district at present. It is felt that those who can go and don't are missing one of the best things in their scouting. It was also reported that it is not too late to apply. Those Scouts who are over 14 years of age by the end of this month and are first class standing should get in touch with their Scouters at once.

Swimming

The great outdoors is calling and many of the Cubs and Scouts are taking to the water like fish. The Badge Committee is planning to hold a Badge meeting at the YMCA probably in September where the fellows who have learned to swim during the summer months will be able to prove their ability and gain their badges. Further details later.

Shades of the P. L. Course

The All Saints Scouts at the Camporee were seen cooking chicken over the open fire as per Art Jackson style. Their leaders had attended the P. L. Course.

Gilwell Camp

No applications have been received for this training course and it was suggested by one of the committee that before a leader be allowed to take the course, he or she should have completed the correspondence course and been in charge of a pack for at least six months.

At St. John's

Skipper G. was pinch hitting for Akela Clegg at the last meeting and took the boys for a softball game over in the Park.

Greetings Lakefield

Received some Scout news from Lakefield this week. It appears that things are getting down to normal. One thing in their favour, their representation to the Canadian Jamboree betters Peterborough for they have two boys who are certain to go. Morley Brown and Jack Burger sent in a swell report of their First Class Hike and are sure working hard for the trip to Ottawa.

Last week Scouter Stan Metcalfe accompanied by Gord Baskerville, Michel Sproule, Daled Robinson and Gord McDonald of the 12th Ottawa Troop were guests of the Lakefield Sea Scouts joining in the church service in the morning and sailing on the Warspite in the afternoon.

Trinity Pack

Ron Brazer is now proudly wearing his First Star in his cap, being presented with same at a short but fitting ceremony at the last meeting. Mrs. C. Ross was on hand and presented her son David with his toymaker's and artist badges. These events were followed with games and test work Jim Robinson and Gary Rishor completing ball-throwing, Jim Robinson — somersault and Ron Brazer, message.

Held Responsible

EDMONTON, June 17 (CP) — Leo Burke, 42-year-old cripple, Thursday was found guilty of manslaughter in the penknife slaying May 10 of his brother-in-law, James Holmes. Burke was remanded to Saturday for sentence. Evidence at the four-day murder trial of the Edmonton advertising salesman was that Holmes died of a knife wound in the neck after the two men quarreled in the victim's home.

Border Traffic Up

OTTAWA, June 17 (CP)—Traffic at international border points was 14 per cent heavier in April than in the same month last year, mainly because of returning Canadian traffic, the Bureau of Statistics reported Thursday. During the month, the number of Canadian vehicles returning to Canada increased by 40 per cent, while United States traffic entering Canada increased five per cent.

Sea-Serpent Loose?

PORT CREDIT, June 17 (CP)—A sea-serpent is loose in Lake Ontario. At least, that's what the man said—and his wife backs him up. Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Langford of Toronto say they saw a "huge fish" or "gigantic seal" wallowing in the lake, a few feet from shore, as they were driving Thursday near this town, 15 miles west of Toronto.

Peach-Pitting Machine

ADELAIDE, Australia — (CP) —A local man has invented a machine to pit peaches which will save Australian canners £40,000 ($160,000) a year. He says the machine, operated by hand or power, halves fruit and ejects stones at a rate up to 56 a minute.

FARMERS Of Peterborough West

Give me your votes on June 27. I ask you to do this favour for me because it means doing a favour for yourselves.

You know the history of farming during the past 20 years: When the Tories were in power you had a tough time. When the Liberals were in power you had a square deal.

Farming is the hardest work in the world, and your job has more kinds of unavoidable tough luck than any other. But there is one kind of tough luck you can avoid, and that is the tough luck of a Tory Government.

Support the party that gives you a break. The country depends on you; v hp party that you can depend on.

Asbestos Workers To Take Vote

New Proposal Submitted To 2,500 Strikers

QUEBEC, June 18 — (CP)— Some 2,500 Asbestos workers, on strike since Feb. 13 at Asbestos, Que., are to take a vote on a new settlement proposal submitted by the Canadian Johns-Manville Company Limited. The announcement was made Friday night by Gerard Picard, president of the Canadian Catholic Confederation of Labor.

Mr. Picard did not give the date of the ballot which, he said, would be secret like the vote taken last Tuesday by 2,000 Thetford Miners who turned down a joint settlement proposal by three mining concerns.

In all, 5,000 workers have been holding out for a 15-cents-an-hour increase, to raise the basic pay to $1.

What the settlement proposal of the Johns-Manville contained was not announced by Mr. Picard.

To Meet Government

Meanwhile it was reported that Lewis H. Brown, president of the Canadian Johns-Manville Co. arrived in Quebec Friday to confer with provincial government officials on the Asbestos deadlock.

No announcements were made following the conference. Mr. Brown was not available for comment on company proposals.

Simultaneously, Jean Marchand, secretary of the CCCL, charged that the Thetford mines companies had ordered their foremen to recruit "strike-breakers." He said violence was used in some cases.

Marchand also denied a "citizens' committee" statement saying the Catholic union had not told their miners at Thetford mines of a 10-cents-an-hour wage increase offer.

Marchand said that the settlement proposal at Thetford mines contained no offer of a salary increase.

Blaze Destroys Much Timber

VANCOUVER, June 18 (CP)— A raging forest fire, still out of control, has destroyed or damaged six million board feet of timber at Lamb Company logging camp, Sechelt Inlet.

Flames spread rapidly Friday through the area, situated 40 miles northwest of Vancouver. Already 170 acres of newly-felled timber and bucked timber are affected, with the flames moving to green timber.

Forestry officials expressed the fear that renewed winds may send it rushing into virgin timber. Hopes are high, however, that with an even break in the weather the 70-odd firefighters will have the blaze under control within 24 hours.

Many School Pupils Suffer Emotional Disturbances

TORONTO, June 18 — (CP) — A mental health export said Friday that more than 10 per cent of Ontario school children are showing signs of severe emotional tension and anxiety.

Dr. J. D. Griffin, medical director of the National Committee for Mental Hygiene, told the annual conference of the Ontario Association of Children's Aid Societies that children are bewildered because "life is changing so fast." A survey had been taken in Ontario schools to determine the size of the problem but results have not yet been made public.

"In one Toronto high school, more than half the students showed emotional disturbance," Dr. Griffin said.

"These children are timid, excessively shy, excessively worried about themselves and the way to get along with other people. Or they're over-aggressive, hostile, always getting into trouble because they can't control their hostility.

"Life is changing so fast that a child hasn't a chance to develop a clear idea of it. He doesn't know what kind of person he is, what he wants to be, or what the world expects him to be . . ."

Dr. Griffin said the basic cause of the emotional disturbance is conflict between a child's inner urges — need for security, love, protection—and outside pressures of environment.

"A child who can reconcile the things he is taught in Sunday school with the things he is taught in the neighborhood gang is doing a pretty big job."

Emotional difficulties sometimes arise when children are removed from their own homes, Stuart Sutton, director of the Toronto Children's Aid Society, told the conference. He said pressure of public opinion occasionally forces Children's Aid Societies to move children from homes and in some cases such action meant the children lost a sense of security and affection."

Freight Wrecked

SUDBURY, June 18 (CP) —A crashing train wreck a half-mile south of Bigwood Station, some 40 miles south of here, left box-cars strewn all over the area Friday afternoon. Nobody was hurt.

The wreck occurred when one freight car jumped the tracks. Fourteen followed immediately and three lines were torn up. The main line and the passing track were completely wrecked. The town siding escaped with minor damage.

Austrian Treaty Studied By Big Four

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

PARIS, June 18—(AP)—Western-power diplomats concentrated today on removing the obstacles delaying agreement with Russia on an Austrian independence treaty.

The foreign ministers of Britain, the United States, France and Russia, after a recess, will reconvene tomorrow to try and settle the problem in what may be the last secret session of their four-week conference.

They also are expected to discuss a "code of air play" which would eliminate the barriers to trade and transportation in Germany.

The western diplomats continued today to study in detail every aspect of Russia's price for re-establishing Austrian independence. They were seeking to determine just what assets in Austria Russia is likely to claim as part of her settlement.

Meanwhile, leaders of the pro-Tito "Slovene Liberation Front," a minority group supporting Yugoslavia's territorial claims against Austria, have been called to Vienna for an emergency conference with officials of the Yugoslav legation. It was believed the conference was called to discuss the Austrian treaty negotiations.

However, the issue of an Austrian independence treaty was still in doubt here after a week's secret negotiations, but diplomats asserted the odds slightly favored an accord.

Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky of Russia was reported in close contact with the Kremlin over the western plan for a way of east-west life in Germany. The plan is said to call for:

1. Formation of a four-power liaison committee in Germany (comprising each power's occupation chief) to develop economic, trade and financial relations between the eastern and western zones.

2. Promotion of a free flow of goods, people and information between the east and west.

3. Full and lasting implementation of the New York agreement for ending the blockade and counter blockade of Berlin.

Buy Canadian Paper

WASHINGTON, June 18—(CP) —The Economic Co-operation Administration Friday authorized Britain to buy $5,340,000 worth of Canadian pulp and paper. One-half is for delivery during the third quarter of 1949 the rest during the last quarter.

2 Members Of Union Shot In Riot

Pair Roughed Up By Crowd Of 300 Strikers

FAIRMONT CITY, Ill., June 18 (AP)—Two union men were shot and two members of a rival union were beaten in a melee that broke out Friday night among a crowd of striking American Zinc Company employees.

Shot were Joe Petroski, former financial secretary of Local 82, Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers Union (C.I.O.), which called a strike at the company's plant here last August, and Colmaro Rodriquez, a member of the local's strike committee. Both were taken to hospital for treatment.

Roughed up by a crowd of about 300 which included wives of the strikers, were Angelo and Joe Verdu, brothers, who led a revolt of midwestern locals in June, 1947, from the Smelters Workers' Union.

The Verdus head the progressive Metal Workers Council, (C.I.O.), which last Tuesday lost a National Labor Relations Board election to the Smelter Workers' Union by 34 votes.

Petroski was shot in the chest Rodriquez in the abdomen. Both were in a serious condition.

The Verdu brothers were attacked by persons in the crowd, police said. Neither was hurt severely enough to require treatment.

The company has refused to bargain with the Smelter Workers Union because its officials have refused to sign non-Communist affidavits required by the Taft-Hartley labor law.

Seamen Offer New Settlement

MONTREAL, June 18—(CP) — A letter offering a four-point proposal for settlement of the east-coast deep-sea shipping strike is en route today to Prime Minister St. Laurent.

Harry Davis, president, and T. G McManus, secretary of the Canadian Seamen's Union signed the letter which they "hope may end the strike."

Their proposals are:

1. That striking seamen be rehired in their former positions without discrimination.

2. That all wages owing to striking seamen for the period they worked on their ships, prior to the strike and in returning their ships to their home port, as well as personal belongings, be paid and returned to them as quickly as possible.

3. That a government supervised vote be held aboard all Atlantic ships two months after the end of the strike and after the strikers will have returned to their jobs so the seamen themselves may decide what union they select at their bargaining agency.

4. That all court charges laid against striking seamen be dropped.

In the letter, Davis and McManus said if the prime minister accepts the proposals they, as the two chief officers of the CSU, will be prepared to advise the striking seamen to call off the strike at once and return to the ships.

Want To Know Reason For High Meat Prices

OTTAWA, June 18 (CP)—The high prices of meat and bread has led the Canadian Association of Consumers to seek an explanation of the situation.

At a meeting of the C.A.C. national executive here this week officials decided to seek assistance from the Industrial and Development Council of Meat Packers and Retail Merchants Association, as well as the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, to find out the cause of the present high prices of meat, and particularly of pork.

The baking industry, trade and also the government will be asked to explain why bread is so high-priced.

IT USED TO BE SAID—"It's not the heat, it's the humidity. That story does not wash these days. If there is any humidity, we'd like to see it, not up in the air, but on the ground, the parched ground. These days it's not the heat but the aridity that is the worry. Today Peterborough enters its fourth hot, dry, rainless week. Oh, yes, here and there have been a few drops, but not enough to wet one's whistle. And so, as the man on the street, in the factory, on the farm, in the office, sweats it out, he can dream of the cold blizzards of winter, when he dreamt of hot summer days when he dreamt of the cold blizzards of winter—and so on!

Liberal Leader Says Houses Will Give Jobs For Years

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Prime Minister St. Laurent says he expects housing construction will provide jobs on a large scale in Canada for years to come. Addressing a federal election campaign meeting Friday night in London, Ont., he said Canada's population is growing "so fast that the supply of homes will not and cannot catch up with demand even in a year or two."

Mr. St. Laurent, who today swings into Eastern Ontario for speeches at Kingston and Brockville, said the government is constantly working toward increasing both Canada's exports and imports.

George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, and M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader, also made campaign addresses Friday, Mr. Drew in the Ontario communities of Orillia and Oshawa and Mr. Coldwell in Lacombe, Alta. Mr. Coldwell also made a transcribed broadcast address from Edmonton over a CBC national network.

Mr. Coldwell in his 15-minute broadcast said a CCF federal government would propose a system of guaranteed prices for farm products. He said a Marketing Act is needed to enable establishment of marketing boards for farm products.

He said at Calgary that his party, if it gains power June 27, will give Canadians real freedom, "whereas today they are shackled by the uncertainties and insecurity of the so-called free enterprise system."

Mr. Drew at Orillia said a Progressive Conservative government would call a new Dominion-Provincial conference to iron out social security problems and other matters. He said such a government would be willing to co-operate with all provincial governments.

Mystery Shrouds Police Inquiry

TORONTO, June 18 (CP)—Still shrouded in mystery, the Toronto Police Commission inquiry into accusations against Det.-Sgt. Arthur Keay stands adjourned until June 24.

Mayor Hiram E. McCallum, commission chairman, said Friday following adjournment of a brief hearing:

"There may be something (in the accusations) but I have to be shown. There has not been enough evidence yet to warrant the laying of charges."

The hearing was closed to the press.

Det.-Sgt. Keay, suspended Tuesday pending the investigation, flatly denied the accusations and termed them "fantastic."

It was learned from a man who attended the hearing in the office of Chief Constable John Chisholm at police headquarters that the investigation may extend to other persons. The man said: "This involves more people than Art. Keay."

He would not elaborate.

A veteran officer who has been attached to the headquarters detective squad, Det.-Sgt. Keay, before being promoted to his present rank, was active in prosecuting drug cases.

T. B. Horkins, counsel for Keay, said Keay had no intention of resigning from the force because all the charges could be cleared up.

Told To Take Notes, Claim

WASHINGTON, June 18 (AP) Judith Coplon Friday told the jury trying her on espionage charges that her Justice Department boss insisted she take the notes from a "decoy" memorandum which were found in her purse when she was arrested.

When the trial resumes Monday for its ninth week, Miss Coplon will return to the witness stand to finish her denial that she ever engaged in espionage activity.

She testified Friday that William E. Foley, chief of the Justice Department's foreign agents registration and internal security sections, gave her the "decoy" paper the morning of March 4 as she was about to leave for New York.

He said it was 'hot and interesting' and pointed to Needleman's name," she said. "He told me he wanted me to make notes of the highlights in connection with the possible prosecution of Amtorg.'

(The memorandum said Isidore G. Needleman, general counsel of Amtorg, Soviet trading agency, and another high-placed Amtorg official, had become informants for the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Crash Injury Proves Fatal to Sudbury Boy

SUDBURY, June 18. (CP) — Jimmy Richardson died today in hospital. He had never recovered consciousness from a skull injury sustained in a highway accident on the Capreol road near here last Wednesday.

Richardson was one of two Capreol youths injured when their motorcycle crashed. Jerry MacNicoll was driving the motorcycle when it collided head-on with an oncoming car. MacNicoll suffered serious leg injuries but is on the way to recovery.

River Swelled By Downpour Overflows Isolating Entire W. Virginia Hamlets

Petersburg Almost Entirely Submerged; Efforts To Aid 300 Families Hampered By Severed Phone, Power Lines

PETERSBURG, W. Va., June 18—(AP)—Flash floods unleashed by torrential rain struck this valley area Friday night, sending thousands scurrying from their homes. First reports said at least five persons were feared lost and the toll was expected to rise, but disrupted communications prevented confirmation from official sources. State Police said eight to 10 persons were unaccounted for here and that they "believe there will be some casualties." Communications were disrupted and police said they were unable to verify reports that at least five others were lost elsewhere in the flooded area.

Fed by incessant downpours Friday, the Potomac river's north and south branches swirled over their banks, isolating entire communities and sweeping away smaller dwellings. The danger zone was the heart of West Virginia's eastern Panhandle.

Petersburg, nestled between the Shenandoah and Allegheny mountains on the Potomac's south branch, was reported almost completely submerged.

Reports from the downtown section said three feet of water covered the business district.

Distress calls for aid to 300 families were sent to Red Cross headquarters in Washington, and word was received that disaster units could be expected today.

State police predicted the flood itself would subside today, but rescue efforts were hampered by severed telephone lines and power failures.

Beside a state police radio hookup with Romney, some 50 miles northeast, emergency telephone service to Moorefield was the main link with the outside world. Moorefield is 25 miles away in the same general direction.

Both Moorefield, with a population of 1,300 and Romney, with 2,000, expected to receive the brunt of the southern branch flood later today.

Officials expressed fear for the safety of tourists who invaded the area for the opening of the bass fishing season today.

One Killed, 10 Hurt As Truck Leaves Road

SYDNEY, N. S., June 18 (CP) —One youth was killed and ten others injured, three of them critically, near here early today when a truck left the highway and rolled over in the ditch.

At least 14 teen-agers were riding in the truck from nearby Glace Bay to Sydney after the annual Morrison High School Prom at Glace Bay. One of the youths said the truck tried to pass a car and left the road.

Killed was Bernard Currie, Jr., 16, nephew of Attorney General L. D. Currie of Nova Scotia. Critically injured were Herbert Stevens, 18, Stanley Wadden, 18, and Ambrose Mombriquet, 18.

Sudbury Youth Sentenced To Die Sept. 29

SUDBURY, Ont., June 18 — (CP)—Gerard Chretien, 23, will be hanged Sept. 29 for killing 29-year-old William Wilson last Dec. 9 with a hunting rifle.

The former Ottawa valley resident was convicted late Friday of murder. Mr. Justice P. E. F. Smily of the Ontario Supreme Court passed sentence immediately after the jury foreman announced the verdict.

Evidence was that the shooting affray arose from a lovers' quarrel between Chretien and 19-year-old Gertrude Lamothe, a district girl who broke her engagement with him and returned his ring. Witnesses said Chretien went to the home of Mrs. Rose McRoberts, for whom the girl worked, in search of the girl. Wilson, a brother-in-law of Mrs. McRoberts, was killed while protecting the girl from Chretien.

Nothing To Say

Throughout the trial, which started Tuesday, Chretien sat quietly, yet carefully listened to the testimony. Occasionally he would lean forward in the prisoner's dock to confer with his lawyer, L. A. Landreville of Sudbury. He had nothing to say when sentence was passed.

The defence tried to show that Chretien bordered on insanity at the time of the shooting. Witnesses said that after an accident in 1940, in which an automobile knocked him from a bicycle, he had been subject to sudden and violent outbursts of rage.

Mr. Landreville, summing up for the defence, said:

Railmen Reject New Wage Offer

LONDON, June 18 — (AP) — Britain's 460,000 union railway men last night turned down a government offer of slight pay raises for lower-paid workers and renewed their demands for a flat 10s ($2) a week raise for all.

They gave the government until June 28 to agree to the demand. The increases ofered were reported to be from 6d to 2s a week.

The deadline is five days before 50,000 London railway men, also seeking the 10s-a-week increase, have scheduled a slowdown strike.

Czech Archbishop Will Try To Break Out of Police Net

PRAGUE, June 18 — (AP) — A close friend of Archbishop Joseph Beran said the prelate will try today to break the police net that binds him prisoner in his palace.

Despite secret police guards at the entrances and telephone switchboard of the palace this friend said he has been in communication with the top Roman Catholic prelate in Czechoslovakia.

He quoted Archbishop Beran as saying:

"Now I am angry. I plead with you to tell someone in authority that things that have been written are true.

"I intend to try to leave the palace late today to go to Strahovsky cloister (this is a huge monastery high on a hill above Prague) and preach there."

All the archbishop's old staff of porters in the entrance lodge have been sent away and replaced by new "Catholic" Action committee or security police members.

His friends, including those in the diplomatic corps, have been turned away. Newspaper men have been denied access to the archbishop.

The decision to preach at the Strahovsky monastery on the eve of the celebration of Corpus Christi Sunday moved up the deadline for a showdown between Archbishop Beran and the Communist government of Czechoslovakia.

If the Archbishop is unable to leave the palace then the world would know that the government, which is fighting him as the principal representative of a free Roman Catholic Church here, had succeeded in making him prisoner.

James Gifford Honored By Ennismore

Ennismore Town Hall was filled to overflowing Friday night as the residents of that township gathered to celebrate the opening of the Chemong Causeway and honor their reeve, James Gifford, JP.

Official opening of the causeway will be June 22 but the Ennismore residents who will be the chief beneficiaries decided on a celebration of their own as well.

A purse was presented to Reeve Gifford on behalf of the citizens by the township clerk, Michael Young.

James Maloney delivered an address of thanks to Mr. Gifford and pointed out that but for his persistence the causeway would never have been built.

A three-quarters-of-an-hour concert preceded the presentation ceremony. In reply Mr. Gifford thanked the donors and stated the causeway would be of great benefit to the citizens of the township.

At the last session of the County Council Mr. Gifford stated that the cost of fill was gauged almost exactly. Many critics had claimed the cost would be two or three times as much as it was.

Apart from some minor work the causeway is now ready for motor traffic.

WINNIPEG GRAINS

WINNIPEG, June 18—(CP) — Beneficial rains in varied sections of the prairie grain belt brought out modest selling in oats and barley trade yesterday on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange and prices displayed an easier tone.

Increased hedging pressure and fair support also was noted during the dull trading. Shippers were buyers in both coarse grains, while barley also was being bought by exporters. At the close, oats prices were ¼ to ⅞ cent lower and barley ⅝ to ⅞ cent lower.

Following much the same pattern, rye prices closed 1¼ to one cent lower. Flax trade was dull with the July contract unchanged.

In the export business reported, 1,200,000 bushels of Canadian wheat were allocated to the United Kingdom under the long-term agreement, while Belgium bought 100,000 bushels of Canadian oats. Class two wheat prices fell off five cents to stand at $2.00.

Lectures Hecklers

At Oshawa, Mr. Drew told a noisy group of hecklers that they were "giving an example of the intelligence of the CCF." The true test of democracy was a willingness to listen to all points of view and then form an opinion.

Mr. St. Laurent at London accused the Progressive-Conservatives of using one type of advertisement to appeal to Quebec and another to court English-speaking Canada.

He swung over to a renewal of his attacks on Progressive-Conservative conduct in Quebec toward the end of a speech in which he said that "unless we can restore and maintain our international trade it will be difficult to maintain prosperity."

In "special Tory ads in Quebec" that party had "tried to compare us (the government) with government behind the iron curtain." That party's advertisements said "Stalin also governs by order-in-council" and that Mr. St. Laurent governed the country "without consulting parliament."

Mr. St. Laurent said President Truman is "as anxious as we are" to get started on the St. Lawrence seaway and is bending every effort" to get approval at Washington.

Auto Destroyed In Garage Fire

Fire that started in a five-car garage Friday night gutted a 1949 Ford sedan belonging to Melville Jamieson of 182 McDonnel St. Additional damage was caused to the east end of the garage.

Cause of the outbreak has not been determined but Fire Chief George Smith is investigating the possibility it was a short circuit in the car. Neighbors told him they heard the car horn blowing shortly before the fire was reported.

The car had been used by Mr. Jamieson and was put in the garage for the night. At that time there was no fire and everything was in order. Some time later the blaze was discovered and J. E. Lillico also of McDonnel St., turned in the alarm.

The garage, owned by Miss Maude Rush of the same apartment house is a former stable. Three of the five sections for cars were practically untouched by flames, but the fourth which contained the car was seriously damaged. The fifth was also scorched.

Flames are believed to have spread from the car, eaten their way through the ceiling into the loft and causing a dense smoke. Damage mainly was confined to the east end of the building.

The telephone cable was burned and an emergency crew worked most of the night restoring it.

A monetary assessment of damage has not yet been made.

Sands and Bateman are increasing to 30 the number of houses in their Parkdale subdivision to be built this year. Arnold Steele, the contractor, has been making rapid progress with a staff of competent builders.

The Parkdale property, east of Nicholls Oval, has been subdivided into 76 lots. Board of Education has indicated an interest in one corner of the subdivision for a new school in Ashburnham.

Canada Falls Behind On Housing—Jolliffe

PEMBROKE, June 18 (CP) — E. B. Jolliffe, Ontario CCF leader said Friday night Canada is "falling behind all the time" in housing.

Canada badly needed a social security system. It would not have old age pensions now had it not been for the actions of the late J. S. Woodsworth, founder of the CCF, he said.

CCF Only Ones Backing Unions Conroy Claims

HAMILTON, June 18 (CP) — The Canadian Congress of Labor is supporting the CCF "because it is the only political party in this election which is supporting a trade union program," Pat Conroy, secretary-treasurer of the Congress, said Friday night.

Mr. Conroy spoke over a CBC Trans-Canada network in conjunction with M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader and David Lewis, secretary of the party.

"The program of the Congress was sent to all political parties "and the CCF was the only party which has approved our proposals," said Mr. Conroy in a 15-minute speech.

He said the Prime Minister had summed up the position of the Liberal party "very well" by saying recently that there are no issues in the forthcoming election, and charged that George Drew, Progressive-Conservative leader, was prepared to make "any promise" to get into power.

He cited housing, health and living costs as the three basic problems affecting every Canadian family.

"Only the CCF has fought for the people's interests in all of these things I have mentioned."

Mr. Lewis said it would be wise to draw up a program to be put into effect in event of a depression. Already layoffs were taking place in some industries and more than 200,000 Canadians were unemployed. The CCF has a program to provide "work and plenty for all," Mr. Lewis said.

"We propose to build 1,000,000 low-cost and low-rental homes in town and country and to subsidize the public housing program from the public treasury to undertake a vast program of National development, to bring electricity to every farm, to rebuild our forests and conserve our soils to construct urgently-needed schools and hospitals, to develop the riches of Canada's northland and to expand our world trade through long-term contracts with the United Kingdom and other natural customers of Canada."

Can YOU Pay $1.10 For Every $1.00?

George Drew says that if he becomes Prime Minister he will devalue every Canadian dollar to ninety cents to help trade.

Such a move would help a few of Mr. Drew's supporters, but it would mean that every imported article you bought would cost ten cents more on every dollar than it does now.

Last year Canada imported $1,959,800,000 worth of goods from the U.S.A. Add ten cents to each of those dollars and you will see that Mr. Drew's scheme would cost this country $195,980,000 EXTRA on that sum.

Can YOU afford to pay ten cents extra on every dollar you spend on coal, gasoline and similar imported necessities?

If you can't vote for the Liberal party. It understands economics and it knows your problem.

NINE YEARS OF ASKING QUESTIONS

DIT CLAPPER

For nine years Peterborough has been represented in Parliament by Mr. Gordon Fraser. He is known in Ottawa as the man who asks more unnecessary questions in Parliament than anybody else.

It costs money to ask questions in Parliament. Big money— sometimes several thousand dollars — has to be spent on clerical and statistical work to answer every one of Mr. Fraser's questions. When the questions don't amount to anything anyway, that is wasted money. And it's your money. You pay it in taxes. If the Conservative party was in earnest about cutting down the country's expenses it would have asked Mr. Fraser to cut down on his questions long ago. Asking questions is not good enough.

Peterborough needs a man in Parliament who can say something for her. Peterborough needs a man on the Government side of the House of Commons.
Vote for me on June 27, and change the question to positive statements.

Fallis' school of 11 pupils, teacher Mrs. Carlton Patton, came a close third.

Franklin school of 10 pupils, with Mrs. Mansell Wright as teacher, did well but as a smaller school, did not have manp entries in the open classes.

Miss Gladys Bigelow of Bethany, a pupil of Lawrence Millson, was awarded first prize in the senior vocal class. This was the only entry from Bethany school which had no musical instructor during the past year.

Visiting prize winning pupils from North Janetville school, accompanied by their teacher, Miss Elaine Brian, entertained with several numbers at the close of the competition.

The closing number was the mass choir of all the schools singing four part choruses led by Mr. Armstrong and accompanied by Norman Lowes.

Toronto Labor Group Places Ban On CSU

TORONTO, June 18 — (CP) — The Toronto District Labor Council (A.F.L.) Thursday night closed its doors to the Canadian Seamen's Union (T.L.C.).

The Labor Council voted 127 to 76 to unseat delegates to the Communist-led C.S.U. In doing so, it approved a recommendation of the council executive. The executive said it considered the action advisable in view of the recent suspension of the C.S.U. by the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada.

The council's decision barred the C.S.U. from the largest trades council in Canada, with 125 affiliated locals and a membership of more than 60,000. It also dealt a major blow to the C.S.U. in its fight to have the T.L.C.'s September convention reverse the Congress executive's suspension order.

Left Baby Unattended

TORONTO, June 18 (CP) — A bench warrant ordered for the arrest of Mrs. Martha McFarland, 34, was cancelled Friday when she made a belated appearance in court. She was convicted on Thursday of leaving her year-old baby unattended to visit a downtown tavern and was to appear for sentence Friday. The remand Friday for sentence was granted by Magistrate S. T. Bigelow to enable her to raise money for her fine of $50 or 14 days. She was also fined $5 or five days for being drunk.

Halifax Harbor Strategic Port For 200 Years

By ARNOLD AGNEW
Canadian Press Staff Writer

HALIFAX, June 18 — (CP) — "Voila," said Champlain in 1607, "a very safe bay." Nearly a century and a half later, in 1749, Edward Cornwallis wrote: "All the officers agree the harbor is the finest they have ever seen...."

People have been saying that about Halifax ever since. Founded by Cornwallis the year he wrote those words, the city celebrates its 200th birthday June 21.

That birthday finds Halifax determined to make Canada conscious of the port's importance. Some 75 per cent of the city's population derive their livelihood directly or indirectly from the activities of the harbor.

Halifax held its own with the major ports of the world last year. Ships of 55 steamship companies called here. More than 80,000 passengers crossed over Halifax quays. Many of the immigrants and displaced persons coming to Canada have landed here.

Most of the port facilities are owned by the federal government and administered by the National Harbors Board, which now has an investment of $26,000,000 in Halifax. A large construction program is under way, including building of two new piers.

Always Naval Base

Halifax is still a major naval base, housing units of Canada's Atlantic fleet. Until the turn of the century, Britain's North American and West Indian squadrons were stationed here as well as Imperial Army regiments.

Halifax was founded as a military outpost and has known its greatest periods of prosperity in wartime. But those were also times of stress and strain. Free of ice the year round, Halifax in peacetime does good business in winter, but not in summer.

Last year, merchants and shippers of the city formed a club to promote the interests of Halifax —the Port of Halifax Club. The club held a marine and industrial exhibition to display the advantages of Halifax as an all-year port. They will probably repeat the exhibition this year.

They would like to see all those pretty phrases about the harbor turned into dollars and cents for Halifax.

Peterborough's Record Growth

In no decade has Peterborough expanded so rapidly, either relatively or absolutely, as in the ten years since 1939. By the end of 1948 the population had almost doubled from 1939's (a 45 per cent. increase, from 24,171 to 35,065); the city's boundaries had been extended to increase the corporation's area by nearly 40 per cent.; there had been a large addition to business and industrial premises, for instance the war-time, Government factory "Genelco", now part of the C.G.E.; and despite the still-present demand for houses, 2,255 single-dwelling units had been added to the city, an increase of 47 per cent. over the number in 1939.

* * *

This growth has been so remarkable that The Examiner has summarized it in a special article published on our Feature Page, together with an illustrative map. The account and map have been prepared from information supplied by the City Clerk, Engineer and Assessor, and correlated with records of the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation in the city and at Ottawa.

* * *

The growth of our city, which the article can do little more than indicate—an extended analysis would be required to assess the importance and relate all the facts—has been so rapid that the wonder is that there has been no serious dislocation of the city's economy and society. It came at a time when Peterborough like the rest of Canada was engaged in war work, when its citizens' thoughts and hearts were anxiously cast beyond municipal and national borders. The growth continued during three post-war years when Peterborough's sons returned from war service to swell the population, and when industry felt the strain of conversion from war to peacetime.

* * *

Industrially and socially the city has progressed on even keel, and even in the matter of housing Peterburians are better off than residents of many other Canadian cities. This is due not only to the planning and assistance of the Federal Government. It is due also to the wise management, foresight and careful direction of our own municipal officers and leaders in industry, commerce and community bodies. Much credit belongs to the citizens generally, who, active in good works, thorough, competent and honest in their enterprises, and conscious of the responsibilities of citizenship, have created an enlarged Peterborough which is sound, worthy of its creditable past and prepared for its distinguished future.

* * *

There has been no disruption of civic life but this does not mean that there have been no changes. The physical changes seen everywhere, from the brighter, more bustling main street to the new southern sections, point to less apparent social changes. Their significance and direction will be better assessed a decade hence. Then it may be realized that the greatest development during the past decade has not been in what meets the eye but in the thinking, the heart and the habits.

Canada And Pan America

Last Saturday in these columns we discussed the recent great expansion of trade between this country and Latin American countries, a ten-fold increase in a decade. This trade growth was accomplished by a great extension of diplomatic and consular services between Canada and the twenty republics south of the Rio Grande, and by a much closer social and political affinity. In view of this greater economic intimacy and the recognition of the mutual interests, why has Canada not joined the Pan-American Union?

As the recent war showed, and as present international conditions verify, Canada must not be economically and politically dependent upon Europe and Britain to the exclusion of South America. Geopolitics as well as commerce dictate an increasing need for the solid-From Tierra del Fuego to the 49th Parallel, the Americas are united by the Pan American Union and the "Organization of American States". Canada alone of the important countries abstains. Why?

Let us first say what this Union and Organization are. The Pan American Union grew out of the first Pan American Conference ('Pan' is of course from the Greek word for 'all') held in Washington in 1889-90. Although at that time Canada was a self-governing Dominion, its foreign affairs were administered by London, and Canada took no part in the Conference. For a long time the bureau of the Pan American union was merely a clearing-house for commercial information; later Conferences extended its agency to scientific, cultural and social spheres. It was not until 1945, however, that the Governing Board of the Union acquired political functions. The creation of U.N. and the experiences of war-time co-operation led various American republics to feel that an inter-American system should be set up, with more specific commitments than existed under the Union. Canada was an observer at meetings called to discuss this, but still abstained from committing herself when the Organization of American States was created last year at Bogota, (Columbia), with a Charter declaring it to be a regional agency within the United Nations. The Pan American Union became the secretariat of the Organization as a whole.

That many of our readers may have required the foregoing brief outline of the Inter-American system is one of the reasons why Canada is not taking part in it. As the Prime Minister, Mr. King, stated in the House of Commons in August, 1944, "Canadian participation in such an organization could be based only upon a wide general appreciation in this country of the purpose and responsibilities of the Pan American Union". This wide appreciation does not exist.

The Canadian public is not prepared for this country's participation in a purely American system, and in Canada there are "larger outcomes" which must not be prejudiced: the Commonwealth and U.N. In March, 1947 Mr. L. B. Pearson, now Minister of External Affairs, then Under-Secretary of the department, told a New York audience that since Canada was already a member "of two Clubs, the Commonwealth and the United Nations, we are satisfied that our relationships of friendship and mutual interest with the other American countries will continue to grow, irrespective of membership or non-membership in any formal organization."

Canada is in a unique position on the American continents. It is the only self-governing country which is not a republic. It has very close ties both formal and informal with the United States, and in the matter of defence of the continent guarantees its share through the Canada-United States Permanent Joint Board on Defence, and through the North Atlantic Pact. Canada has, however, even closer, more mature and deep-rooted ties with Britain.

Peterborough's Summer Theatre

A week from tonight the Peterborough Summer Theatre will begin an eleven-week season in the auditorium of Queen Mary School. The first play, by a Canadian, is on a Canadian theme; in the weeks following a variety of excellent plays, both British and American, will be performed. The venture is under the management of Mr. Michael Sadlier, who is already well known to a large number of people in this city and its vicinity, and the actors, designers and other workers in the venture are Canadians, Americans and British. We commend this venture very warmly to our readers, for we think that it marks the beginning of a pleasant new era for Peterborough, and a decided advance in our stature as a tourist centre.

Summer theatres are extremely popular in the United States, and there is every reason to believe that our American visitors will be glad to find entertainment of the kind to which they are accustomed in Peterborough. But the Summer Theatre is not for visitors alone; it is for the people of this city and the surrounding district, who have shown themselves enthusiastic supporters of the theatre when it offers the kind of entertainment they want. Circumstances have made it impossible for most of us to do much playgoing in the winter; the Summer Theatre gives us a chance to make up that loss in the summer, in a new Peterborough auditorium which has every advantage of design and comfort.

We may claim to know something of ventures of this kind in Canada, and we can say frankly that we know of no other summer theatre in this country which has better actors, better management or fairer prospects than this. The venture deserves to succeed. It will be to the advantage of Peterborough and its tourist district if it does succeed. It is in the power of all of us to make it succeed.

British Dramatists Of Today

By HAROLD HOBSON
Dramatic Critic of The Sunday Times (London)

LONG ago Shakespeare wrote that:

"In a theatre the eyes of men,
After a well-graced actor leaves the stage,
Are idly bent on him that enters next,
Thinking his prattle to be tedious."

British dramatists of today might easily have been in the position of that actor who enters next, after the great star of the evening. Their predecessors — the men who wrote plays up to about 1930—are amongst the greatest names in the history of the British theatre. In Bernard Shaw, in John Galsworthy, in Somerset Maugham, Harley Granville-Barker, and Sir James Barrie, the theatre produced one of its richest flowerings of genius. Their plays were presented in every part of the world, and the critics of all countries united to praise them. The dramatists of the late Victorian (1880-1901), Edwardian (1901-1910), and the early part of the twentieth century set up a tremendous record. Young men of today and yesterday, as they brought out their pens and sat down to write their plays, might well have been daunted by it. But they were not.

And they have had their reward, for they have proved anything but an anti-climax. No one has thought their prattle to be tedious. On the contrary, great attention has been paid to what they have to say, and the way they have said it. The names of Coward, O'Casey, Bridie, Priestley, Sherriff, Rattigan, Ustinov, Eliot shine brightly in any company, however lustrous.

* * *

THEY have been assisted by remarkably fine actors and actresses, by players like Dame Edith Evans, Dame Lilian Braithwaite, Dame Sybil Thorndike, Sir Laurence Olivier, Sir Ralph Richardson, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, and John Gielgud. The result of it all was summed up to me the other day by a young American Professor of English, from the great state university of Illinois, who is spending a few months in England writing the biography of Thackeray. He said, "Between them, your actors and your playwrights have made London the most vigorous and alive centre of drama in the world today".

* * *

HOW have they done this? There has been no spectacular breakaway from the methods and subject of the past. Noel Coward, who, with thirty years of successful play writing behind him, is still under fifty, has continued the comedy of wit that was so successful in the hands of Oscar Wilde, making it, however, more staccato and bitter than it was in the eighteen-nineties. One of Mr. Coward's most popular plays of this kind is also one of his most recent, a satire on a self-centred and charming actor called Present Laughter (1942). After a long run at the Haymarket Theatre in London, this play is now being given in French in Paris, with Mr. Coward playing the leading role.

* * *

A MUCH younger man than Coward, Terence Rattigan, has Coward's flair for light, amusing dialogue, and is the only dramatist in the entire history of the British theatre who has written two plays each of which has run for more than a thousand consecutive performances. These pieces, French Without Tears (1936) and While The Sun Shines (1943), were extremely light-hearted comedies, but lately Mr. Rattigan, whilst still retaining his striking mastery of the technique of naturalistic theatre, has shown signs of a deepening understanding of the problems of existence which in time may well make him a major dramatist. His study of a disappointed schoolmaster, The Browning Version (1948), a simple anecdote told with extraordinary tenderness, is one of the most moving things seen on the English stage for a long time.

* * *

RATTIGAN and Coward write their plays in the naturalistic language of ordinary life; they rarely heighten the emotional tension of a phrase. Peter Ustinov, the author of The Banbury Nose (1944) and House Of Regrets (1942), who is still in his late twenties, is also a naturalistic writer, but he is influenced, not by Wilde, but by Chekov. Over his plays there hangs the atmosphere of frustration and melancholy beauty that distinguishes the Russian master. Ustinov has not yet had the success of Rattigan or Coward, perhaps because, though his tactical management of separate incidents in a play is good, he has not yet shewn much skill in the construction of a play as a whole. But no doubt his time will come.

* * *

SOME of the most remarkable talents in the British theatre, however, throw aside the naturalistic technique, and write in speeches as highly charged with emotion as their command of word and imagery allows. The master in this line is the Irishman, Sean O'Casey, who, in a series of plays from Juno And The Paycock (1925) to Red Roses For Me (1943), has splashed the purple phrase across the proscenium arch of many a London theatre. If O'Casey's medium is poetic prose, T. E. Eliot has gone further and brought back poetry itself into the London playhouse, achieving an extraordinary success with his verse play about the martyrdom of Thomas a Becket, Murder In The Cathedral (1935). The Scotsman, James Bridie, author of A Sleeping Clergyman (1933) (a study in genetics and genius) and The Anatomist (1931), is another writer who exploits to the full his considerable powers of rhetoric.

* * *

EACH of these writers may be held to be an experimenter, but the most enterprising experimenter of all is J. B. Priestley, who, in Time And The Conways (1937) and Dangerous Corner (1932), used the naturalistic technique with as astute an originality as in Johnson Over Jordan (1939) he employed the method of the modern morality. In some recent plays Priestley has seemed more interested in politics than drama, but The Linden Tree (1947), a portrait of an old history professor who refused to surrender either to old age or to his colleagues who wanted to get rid of him, last year showed much of his former mastery.

* * *

THIS by no means exhausts the list of contemporary British dramatists. There is, for example, the actor Emlyn Williams, who won a scholarship to Christ Church, the richest and most aristocratic of the colleges of Oxford University, took a degree with first-class honours there, and made out of his experiences a most moving drama, The Corn Is Green (1939), about the spiritual and material changes that affect a young man who rises in the world through education. Mr. Williams is also the author of several other effective plays. Then there is R. C. Sherriff, who wrote that magnificent play of the first World War, Journey's End (1928). Mr. Sherriff has recently come back to the London theatre with a striking litle drama called Miss Mabel (1948) that might easily have been only a penny plain melodrama, but which is made, by Mr. Sherriff's understanding of human nature and his integrity as a craftsman, into a gentle and touching psychological study. There is a young man, Keith Thomson, who at the present moment is planning a university for the ancient and historic city of York, whose work has not yet been seen in London, but who shows decided talent for the stage, a quick and lively humour, and who brings to the study of contemporary dilemmas a sensitive sympathy. And there is always, of course, the greatest of all, George Bernard Shaw, whose work has been seen all over the world. They are a very goodly company indeed.

TWO OF BRITAIN'S leading dramatists today are J. B. Priestley (left) whose recent play "An Inspector Calls" will be seen in Peterborough this summer, and Dr. O. H. Mavor (right) who writes under the name of James Bridie; his latest play "Daphne Laureola" is playing successfully in London at present. (See Third Column).

Remember Mr. Remington?

(CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR)

THE New York did something very clever not long ago. It dug up William W. Remington. With the new crop of subversive lists and spy charges occupying the front pages, many Americans may have forgotten who Mr. Remington is. The fanfare of publicity which greeted the accusations of espionage made against him by Miss Elizabeth. T. Bentley (remember?) has long since faded away.

There is a useful parable in the New Yorker's vivid story of the days when the headlines screamed Miss Bentley's lurid charges against him and of his life since the Loyalty Review Board gave him complete clearance from these charges, as reported in considerably smaller type in the press. For the bitter residue of the public infamy to which he was exposed is still with him, as a residue of suspicion commonly remains with the public from even the most irresponsible personal accusations.

Yet there is encouragement in the story of the essential fairness of Americans in their response to the situation. The New Yorker quotes by name the conservative college presidents, Episcopal rectors, economists, and officials who, from their own knowledge of him, came courageously and vigorously to his defense. It quotes the correspondent of the Wall Street Journal who testified that the accused man's views were "more critical of the foreign policy of the Soviet Union than my own," and the assistant to the president of Dun and Bradstreet who wrote that in his frequent contacts with Remington in the Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion he had found "his policy and administrative beliefs to be premised on an early return to free enterprise."

The parable needs no pointing. The public official whom a former vice-president of Standard Oil of Indiana rated as a conservative ("I wouldn't even place him very far over on the liberal side in his economic views") has long since been reinstated by the Department of Commerce. But he refuses to be told the combination of the office safe or to be the last to leave the office. Surely the Remington story should warn us of the dangers in recklessly tearing down confidence in our public servants with unproved charges.

Mowing With A Scythe

(OTTAWA JOURNAL)

HALF a century ago Grandfather used to tell stories about haying before mowing machines became common. In early morning while grass stems were still moist men went forth to mow. Each man took a swath cross field or meadow; each left an even windrow of wilting grass and as the sun rose and dried the dew the fragrance of the making hay was sweet in the air. The raking was done by hand with big bullrakes; and hay was cocked, pitched in and pitched off by muscle power.

There aren't too many men who can handle a scythe well today. It is an art to swing the twisted snath with its razor-edged scythe. It does not require much knowhow to hack down grass along walls and fences where the machine cannot reach. Of course, young men who have to turn the grindstones feel there is still too much hard work in haying and that hedgerows should be allowed to grow for wildlife protection. Fifty years ago older men were proud of their ability to mow by hand.

It requires a craftsman skill and an instinctive sense of rhythm to be a good mower. The countryman can remember Grandfather's direction, "Keep the heel down keep the point down. Don't bend over or you will grow tired quickly. Don't try to cut too wide a swath. Take it easy and slow."

In the long ago when men took quiet pride in their craftmanship it was a pleasure to watch Grandfather work around the field, cutting a swath of timothy and clover before Father started around with the big Percherons. His swing was slow and even; at each swing he moved ahead with short, rhythmic steps; one could almost feel his pride in doing a good job. Today the countryman on his one man farm uses the scythe to trim out around the buildings and along the borders. It doesn't give a man much opportunity to practise straight-ahead mowing.

We are in favor of mechanized agriculture. But sometimes when one stops on an early summer day and sees the grass rushing toward maturity, he can hear the clang of whetstones of long ago and see men going forth at dawn to mow by hand.

Score: 10,912,875 To 5

We've been keeping score on the people who publicly change allegiance for ideological reasons. So far the tabulation looks something like this:

Persons who have got out of Russia and other Communist-dominated countries: 10,912,875.

Persons from democratic countries who have willingly taken on citizenship in Communist countries: 5.

We're not sure we've got all the figures. There may be a few more in the second category who have escaped our notice. One was added to the list yesterday when a British Council representative in Poland renounced British citizenship to become a Pole because he couldn't agree with British foreign policy. Recently a British editor in Russia decided he would like to stay there and renounced British citizenship.

What we're really waiting for is someone who would rather die than go back to the United States or Britain. So far not a single person has jumped out of a window in the face of this prospect.—Montreal Star.

AMONG the younger British damatists of note are Terence Rattigan (Left) best known as author of "French Without Tears", and Peter Ustinov (right) who wrote "The House of Regrets". (See Third Column).

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old: which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

We will not hide them from their children, shewing to the generation to come the praises of the Lord, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done. For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children... That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments: and might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not stedfast with God....

He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand as an heap. In the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire....

And they sinned yet more against him by provoking the most High in the wilderness .... Yea, they spake against God; they said, Can God furnish a tablet in the wilderness?

Though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors of heaven, and had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven....

So they did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire. (Ps. 78: 2-5, 7, 8, 13, 14, 17, 19, 23, 24, 29.)

Letter To The Editor

WORDS CANNOT EXPRESS

Sir: We noticed the cartoon regarding sewage in a recent issue of the "Examiner". Three Cheers and a Tiger, someone is of the same mind as we and we certainly hope that other citizens will join the campaign and raise such a cry that action will have to be taken.

The Sanitation Plant is disgustingly inadequate. Putting sewage into an open river is a medieval trick being practiced by people who should know better. Peterborough may pride itself upon being an advanced cultural centre but it had better close its lips and hide its face when the talk veers toward sanitation. We are surprised, shocked, and horrified that such a condition is allowed to exist.

We invite the city Fathers to visit the south-end when the wind is in the right direction. We'll guarantee that they will beat a hasty retreat begging for clothespins as they go.

If that is not enough, if they can "stomach the stench," we would like to take them for a boat ride, provided we can find someone strong enough to row a boat through a thick murky river of sewage. And we have seen children swimming in it. Has the Department of Health no fear of an epidemic of typhoid or perhaps polio.

We wonder if such an evil would be allowed to exist if this river flowed past the city hall or past some of our venerable councillors homes or close by? Moreover that river could be a place of beauty, a drawing card for tourists, instead it repells even our own citizens.

Words cannot express our indignation that such a disgrace, a filthy, running sore in the side of our Peterborough continues to make foul the air.

Citizens of Peterborough, we beg you Arise Now! bombard the city with such a barrage of complaints that this condition will be rectified immediately.

"ANOTHER SOUTHENDER".

Where Soccer Is King

When 17,000 fans turned out in Toronto the other day to watch a soccer game they made news.

For this country that's a big crowd, and it was a tribute to the touring Newcastle players from England. Association football, like cricket, still has a keen if small army of devotees in Canada; neither sports attract large attendances. A third of John Bull's favourite pastimes, English rugby, is losing out in its last strongholds of the Maritimes and British Columbia as the Americanized Canadian game gets a grip (For their part Englishmen have formed seventeen baseball teams in London, with new ones springing up all over the country.)

Soccer is still king in Great Britain, where it attracts the biggest crowds of any athletic contest on earth. Although the record attendance is 150,000 for the international match between England and Scotland at Hampden Park in 1937, crowds of well over 100,000 are not uncommon. American college football is a runner-up with Rose Bowl battles attracting over 90,000 customers. Baseball's record in the U.S. is just over 85,000.

Increase In Population 45%; Houses 47% ; Area 39% Here Is The Record of City's Notable Ten-Year Growth

By ROBERT HATTON.

No one in Peterborough has to be told the city has been growing for the past nine years. And everyone knows that, although families still have to scramble to get places to live, an amazing number of houses have been built since 1940.

More surprising are the actual figures. Assessment records show that from 24,530 people in 1940, the population soared almost 50 per cent to 35,065 as counted by the September, 1948 city census. Two thirds of that increase or 7,000 people has been added since Sept. 30, 1944. This wave of peopie had to be housed. Many were accommodated in about 850 new houses built since 1944, of which approximately 670 were construct ted under the wing of the government through the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation. Approximately 2,000 houses have been built all told since 1939, three quarters of them with financial help from the Dominion Government.

Some of these new citizens of Peterborough were living in parts of townships annexed by the city at various times. But most have had to find new accommodation. They were not always too happy about what they were able to find. It varied from new wartime housing, post-war veterans' housing, new houses built privately for sale or rent, to all sorts of makeshifts. There were not, and still are not, enough houses to go around. People lucky enough to own large houses cut them up into apartments. Attics and even basements were converted into small apartments. Householders have rented rooms to young couples and small families. There are modest houses in this city in which three and four families are living, all sharing one bathroom and sometimes one kitchen. And of course, young couples have moved in with in-laws and tried to overcome the difficulties of that situation.

The demand for houses has been unceasing for all wanted homes of their own. In 1945 the war ended. Veterans came back sick of living out of kit bags and eager to enjoy the high standard of living of which they had been boasting to Europeans. Some came home to marry and others already had a family. In that year Central Mortgage and Housing Corportion was set up by act of parliament.

Wartime Housing

The story of Peterborough's building boom rally started back in 1941 when Wartime Housing Ltd. went into action. In that year contractor J. A. Eastwood planted 82 houses at Burnham's Point, the piece of land jutting out into Little Lake opposite George St. wharf. This was just the beginning. In the rest of that year and the first part of 1942, 225 of the wartime bungalows were erected north of Parkhill Road and east of Jackson Park in the area surrounded by Park Hill Rd., Fairburn St., Bellevue and Donegal Sts. Also in 1942, on the Hatton property on the west end of Charlotte St., an additional 125 were constructed. Almost before people in Peterborough could realize it, the Eastwood Construction Company installed another 125 at the Racetrack property near the south-west corner of the city bounded by Ford St. on the west, St. Mary's St. on the south, and High St. and Chamberlain St. on the east and north. On sites scattered throughout the city, 100 other wartime houses were added by 1946.

These wartime bungalows account for much of the increase in houses in Peterborough in the early building boom years. The scarcity of materials soon developed. Private citizens hesitated at the prospect of competing for building supplies with a government putting up camps for the armed services and war factories.

Records of the city's assessment office show a fast-climbing increase in the number of Peterborough houses since 1940. The year ending September 30, 1941, saw an increase of 54 houses in the city. A year later there were 245 more houses. By September 30, 1943 another 104 had been added to the assessment rolls. The largest increase occurred in the year ending Sept. 30, 1944 when a whopping 935 houses were added to the city, but most of these are accounted for by the annexation of Claraday ward and parts of the south and west wards.

In the following four years the number of houses increased by 70, 221, 241 and 317 houses in succession. The grand total September 30, 1948 was 7,034 houses in Peterborough. This figure does not include the considerable large houses turned into duplexes and apartments.

Annexed Land

Parallel with the increase in houses was an increase in land area of the city. In some cases the houses on the land annexed by the city accounted for a large part of yearly increase figure However the first additions to the city after 1940 were mostly empty fields which made sites for the war time houses.

In 1941 the piece of land just east of Jackson Park surrounded by Park Hill Rd., Dixon St. (now the top of Park St.), Wolsley St. and Fairburn St. was brought into the city. Two years later, in 1943, the area directly north as far as Bellevue St. was also added.

In 1945 a whole new side was added to the west section of the city. It included the Claraday ward and part of the west and south wards. It moved the boundary from Monaghan Rd. west beyond Western Ave. A large area east of Park St. and south of Lansdowne came in at the same time. In all, 680 acres and 4,348 people were brought into the city. Included in this area were the war time housing sections on the Hatton property and in the Racetrack area.

In 1946 another 63 acres were added which made a site for the new Civic hospital and the Cherney subdivision south and north of the extreme west end of Wellar St. in that year also the Dutton subdivision was added in the south end of town between Park St. and Monaghan at McKellar St.

Twenty-nine acres were taken from Smith township in 1947 to give room for the Brookdale project in the north end of town. west of the Chemong highway and north of point where Reid St joins the highway. Finally in 1948, 290.6 acres of North Monaghan township were annexed made up the southern part of the city bounded by Lansdowne, Park St., the river and Concession Rd. and the newly formed boundary west of Erskine Ave.

Federal Corporation

When Central Mortgage and Housing was set up in December, 1945, it took over the work of Wartime Housing Ltd. and the federal government, through the Corporation, has been building houses for rental ever since.

Under this rental scheme Central Mortgage and Housing built 200 houses in 1948. Twenty-six of these went up near the Lock's bridge at the east end of Lansdowne St. Another 110 were constructed in the south end between Park St. and Monaghan Rd. from O'Connell to Braidwood. West across Monaghan Rd. the remaining 64 were erected.

On sites scattered through the city are another 100 houses built by the Corporation in 1945 and 1946.

Some of the houses originally built to be rented to war workers and World war II veterans have since been sold to their tenants or veterans. The remainder are still under the administration of Central Mortgage and Housing

Included in the rental houses being administered by Central Mortgage and Housing are the 128 houses built in the Dutton subdivision at McKellar St. by Housing Enterprise September, 1947.

The other major activity of Central Mortgage and Housing is to administer the National Housing Act. About 145 houses have been built under this act by individuals since the beginning of 1946. Builders operating subdivision projects have added another 167 to the total built under the act. Almost all these houses have been sold to individuals who are paying for them through mortgages held by financial houses with the approval of Central Mortgage and Housing.

These projects were operated in Peterborough under what is called the Integrated Housing scheme. The builder contracts to erect houses for a sale price fixed by Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation. The Corporation agrees to buy any house the builder is unable to sell. In its 1948 annual report, the Corporation stated the maximum sales prices under the Integrated scheme was 15 per cent lower than the market sales price. In the whole of Canada, Integrated Housing projects made up 30 percent of all houses being built under the Housing Act in 1948.

Arnold Steele and Donald Ephgrave and Sands and Bateman Ltd. have built houses under the Integrated scheme. In 1947 and 1948, Steele and Ephgrave built 89 houses at the Arndon project in the south end between Park St. and Monaghan Rd. on Arndon St. During 1948 and the first months of 1949 the partners erected 46 bungalows in the Cadberly project east of Armour Rd. between Euclid Ave. and McFarlane St.

The 52-house Brookdale subdivision just completed in the north end by Sands and Bateman was another of the Integrated schemes.

Backed by one of the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporatoin plans, 105 houses were completed in 1949 by April 1. Ninety-five of these were started last year. The number of houses completed in 1948 in Peterborough in conjunction with Central Mortgage and Housing was 203, a Dominion Bureau of Statistics Housing Bulletin showed. Of these, 164 were partly-completed carry-overs from 1947.

Although the number of houses built through Central Mortgage and Housing in 1947 is not immediately available, the Corporation approved Peterborough loans for 147 houses with a total value of $853,080. When the Corporation was just getting under way in 1946, it gave its approval to 18 loans with a total value of $69,680.

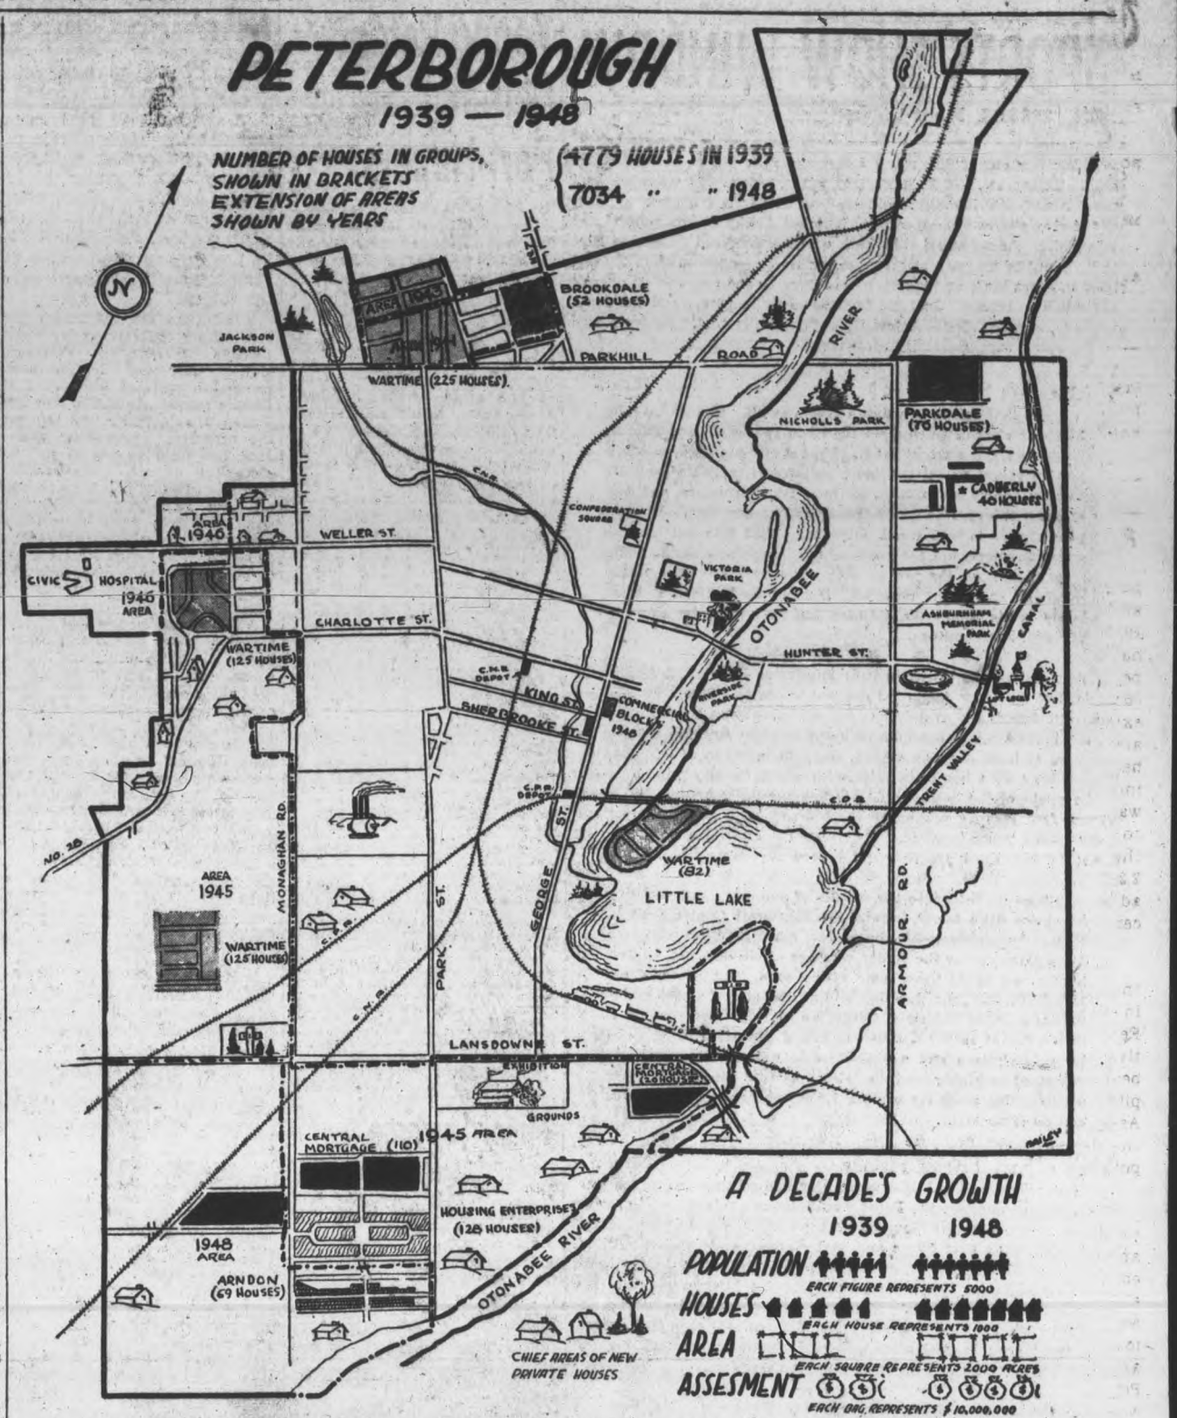
Financing The Houses

Operating under the National Housing Act, Central Mortgage Housing Corporation works in cooperation with loan companies such as insurance firms in a plan known as the joint loan system. In this system, the Corporation provides 25 per cent. of the loan while the financial house supplies the remainder.

The National Housing is designed to help the prospective home owner in several ways. It reduces the down payment a borrower must make and gives him more than the usual time to repay the money. The borrower repays the loan and interest in monthly payments as if he were paying rent. Interest is fixed at a maximum of four and one half per cent. The Act sets a building standard which must be met if the loan is to be made through the Corporation.

The amount of the loan is based on a lending value set on the house and land which may be determined by the estimated cost of construction plus the cost of the land or the appraised value of the house and land, whichever is the lower amount. This lending value is not necessarily equal to the cost of the proposed project. The loan then made is a percentage of the lending value, on the average about 80 to 85 per cent. The maximum loan for four room bungalows is $5,000. Top loan for larger houses is $8,500.

Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation's rental scheme is available only to veterans. The government, through the Corporation, builds the houses on land provided by the city. The city must also provide water, sewage, and other normal services. The provincial government often helps the municipality to finance the land and services. The Corporation enters into an agreement with the city to build the houses and make a payment instead of taxes. The veteran's rent is fixed on the cost of the house.



With the help of Central Mortgage and Housing, which made the building easier, and a larger supply of building material available, housing experts in town tend to believe that the tremendous growth will be successfully absorbed and the Peterborough patient will survive.

Private Building

Apart from the major blocks of houses built by Housing Enterprises, Wartime Housing, and Central Mortgage agencies, hundreds of new private houses, in some places whole streets of them, have sprung up during the last decade. The new building is most noticeable on the following Streets: Curtis Rd., Armour Rd., in East City; Clonsilla, Albertus, Sherbrooke and Bolivar west of Monaghan Rd., Gordon Ave., Weller Street west, Thompson and Walkerfield in the west end; in the north end George Street. west side north of Argyle; Braidwood Ave., King George Street, Wilson Street, Hurley, Herman, Jane, Young, Payne, McCannan, Fagan, and Lundy's Lane, all in the expanded south end of the city.

This year 100 new houses, in groups, are to be built under Federal auspices, and most of them will be in East City.

The record of Peterborough's growth in the decade since 1939 is impressive—in houses built, in increased population, in extended boundaries, in value, as shown by the assessment surveys.

THE ABOVE MAP SHOWS GRAPHICALLY the growth of civic Peterborough in the ten years from January, 1939 to the end of 1948. Present boundaries are shown in heavy solid line; boundaries in 1939 and subsequent years are set out in heavy broken lines and the dates when each separate area was added are indicated. The Parkdale development shown on the map is a project for this year; its contemplated 76 houses are not yet built. Not shown are the 100 new houses planned by Central Mortgage and Finance Corporation in co-operation with the city, which will be built this year. Also not shown are the numerous new factory buildings and extensions put up during the decade.

Rosehaugh House, Aspect Of Scotland's Victorian Era

By JOHN M. McCULLOCH

Trying to discover the largest occupied house in Scotland, I landed in a quagmire of doubtful opinions. Experts mentioned such well-known mansions as Floors Castle, Dunrobin Castle, Culzean Castle, Drumlanrig Castle and Hopetoun House, but two architects named Rosehaugh House.

I had never heard of it previously, and my curiosity led me up to Cromarty in the Highlands to have a look at it.

If this great castle of the Black Isle isn't the largest house in Scotland, it is certainly the most imposing monument to the opulence of the Victorian era that I have ever seen. Standing on the heights near Avoch, it looks like an outsize Swiss chalet which has lost itself and gone to sleep.

When asked what he would take to let a man give him a blow on the head, Diogenes said, "A helmet".

Time is the image of eternity.

Plato (427-347 B.C.)

✧ ✧ ✧

Socrates said, "Bad men live that they may eat and drink, whereas good men eat and drink that they may live."

Plutarch (A.D. 46-120)

In the good old days, the head gardener had 16 gardeners under him, and they lived in a fine dormitory building, with a housekeeper. One of them specialized in the growing of oranges another had charge of the fig house.

The interior of the house is luxurious in the extreme, for Mr. James Douglas Fletcher, who inherited the estate and brought it to perfection, was a man of rare tastes who travelled widely.

For Paris, Rome, Bagdad, and many other cities he brought ideas and ornaments. The weathervane above the great tower is a Spanish galleon, 6 feet long in full sail, which changes its course to suit the shifting winds. An enormous bronze Buddha squats on the terrace. Two brass elephants, as big as ponies, guard the entrance to the drawing-room.

The drawing-room, a gorgeous creation in the French style, with old gold predominating, is like the inside of a jewel-box.

The woodwork of Rosehaugh is one of its most striking features. The doors are mostly of oak, and the rich variety of their designs and their massive carved decorations reflect a craftsmanship which no longer exsits. Some of them appear to be nearly a foot thick.

The billiard-room has walls of tooled leather, a graceful domed ceiling and a fireplace in which one could park a motor-car. The smoking-room has a chaste marble floor and is panelled in cedar.

Nothing was too good for this Babylonian palace of the Black Isle. We walked along a white-tiled cellar corridor, unlocked a magnificent swimming pool and elaborate Turkish baths. The walls of the Turkish baths are of blue tiling brought from Persia, and the ceiling is a blue dome.

I went up to the stables. There are no horses there—only their names on stall-plates—but in one of the coach-houses there are five fine old carriages, in excellent condition.

In another coach-house I found two Rolls-Royce cars. One, still in good running order, was the eleventh car built by Rolls-Royce. The other is a sleek modern model.

The gaiety of Rosehaugh has vanished. Its present chatelaine, the widow of James Douglas Fletcher, lives simply in a part of her house of memories.

Its golf course is now farmed; three or four old employees do their best to keep the garden and grounds in order.

Rosehaugh is, in fact, a chapter of Scotland's social history, as written by house-proud Victorians and the craftsman they employed. A full stop has been savagely jabbed to the chapter.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

One day out of 365, many folks take time out to honor the old man. Tomorrow, it's Father's Day again. Now, the old man isn't fussy about this homage business—and often says it's just a merchandizing stunt—but we believe it is but fitting to honor him once in a while. As a general rule, he is a pretty good old duck who tries to keep out of the way at home, cough up the mazuma each Friday, loan an extra buck on request, or his shirt, or the car, and he doesn't ask much in return. Just his favorite chair, a pipe, and the front half of the paper first. A few little things like that. He isn't hard to get along with, generally speaking.

Fathers A Sorry Lot?

Not that father is a dumb cluck, at all. Chances are he has been around much more than you young gaffers. Though he doesn't say much about it. That shows his wisdom, since mother might resent any bragging of earlier goings-on. He usually knows his politics, his own job thoroughly, and lots of other things, like sports, good reading and such. His advice usually is well worth following. Dad may not look so smart anymore, but the years of toil leave their mark. After a tough day on the job — with sometimes the boss pretty rough on the help, especially if the boss has had it grim lately in his home—the old man just asks to be let alone in peaceful surroundings.

Ancient Greeks had Saturn or Jupiter as the first father in the world, but we know Adam led the way on earth. True he slipped once, but doggone it so did Eve, yet we chivalrously give the ladies all the breaks. And it seems to us to be only suitable to give the old man, at least one day a year, some little token of appreciation. Even if it's only a box of hankies with which he may wipe off some of the sweat of the brow whilst earning the daily bread. So, here's to you, fathers, may you enjoy the morrow with your family, and many happy years to come. They may not often show it, but no doubt the kids think you're a pretty good guy, after all.

Soon we'll be into the middle of summer and nothing has been done lately toward the Memorial Centre project. It may be unseasonable, but a few more months will see folks planning for the colder weather of autumn and winter. Surely, we could have some action soon. An item from Kamloops, B.C., the ther day told of that city of 18,000 opening its $350,000 Memorial Centre on May 24 after starting it in the fall of 1948. Money was raised through raffles, public subscriptions and a $95,000 civic bylaw. The arena is described as highly modern, with a seating capacity of 2,500 and standing room for another 1,000. Seems like some cities can do it up right.

Make 'Em Three Heats

If last night's senior OLA game here had commenced at the start of the second quarter, the Petes would have gained a tie with Mimico. As it was, the Mountaineers got hot at the start to rack up a 7-1 lead in the first frame and that six-goal edge was the difference in the 20-14 score. A good game after the initial inning, with the Petes bothering the second-place Mimico huskies plenty. Big crowd and they had lots to yell about. McNulty led the local snipers, Foote, Dootch Vitarelli, Digby and Teatero getting a pair apiece. Frick went good in goal after that early bombardment. Creighton crew is off to St. Kitts tonight and Weston on Monday.

Couple of colleens' contests over Bowl-ward last p.m. with Ashby's finishing quite strongly to beat Lock Co. 16-2 and Westclox edging Marines 7-5 in the 11th on a two-base homer. That overtime joust was a honey with both clubs looking good, while the other was okay, also, till the last inning or two. When you consider that a 16-3 game was run off in one hour, and an 11-inning tilt took just an hour and five minutes, you know that the girls are playing snappy ball. Any fan can time these games himself and see how they're hustling. Two tussles listed for there Monday, Marines vs. Woollens, and Ashby's vs. Lock Co.

Young Petes Defeat Port Hopers

By FRED MAYBEE

George Sullivan let Port Hope Intermediates down with six hits as McGinnis' Young Petes won 8-5 at the lakeshore town last evening. It was the third win in the last four games played by the scrappy Pagett squad.

Petes scored six in the fourth on hits by Thomson, Sullivan, Dadson, Floyd and Collins, aided by two errors afield, to take a commanding lead which they held. Dadson and Collins led at bat, while the latter fielded faultlessly. Miller snared three to star in left field. Foote, Dolly, Ashby and Thixon were best for the losers in a fine game.

Mimico Gains Early Lead To Defeat Petes, 20 to 14

A six-goal lead built up in the first quarter gave Mimico Mountaineers their margin of victory over the Petes as they won 20-14 here last night. A big crowd in Miller Bowl saw a wide-open OLA senior "A" fixture with the second-place Mimico squad no better than the last-place Petes the last three quarters of the fast and clean contest. They had it 7-1 in the first quarter, 12-8 at the half, and 17-12 going into the fourth.

Ken Dixon led the attack for the visitors with six goals, while Beatty, McDonald, Peterson, Hewitt, Gair and McPhail each counted a pair, as Williams and Rankin scored one apiece. For the Petes, Jim McNulty was best on the offensive with four goals, Jack Foote having two as well as aiding on a pair, Leo Teatero counting two and helping a couple of other times, Dootch Vitarelli and Les Digby each hitting the hemp twice, and Curly Warren and Em Creighton getting a marker each. Frick made a lot of good saves in goal.

Close Enough

After that one-sided first frame, it was a close and interesting struggle right down to the finish. Mimico had to hustle to hold their own in the third, after being shaded in the second, and to have a slight margin in the fourth. But their hard dash at the start paid off as the Creighton crew were a bit slow to start and faced a big deficit the end of 15 minutes of play. A. Dugan didn't arrive in time to make the lineup. Don McPhail hurt his leg in a collision with Mick Magee in the fourth and had to retire. A light sprinkle of rain fell before the fourth heat started but the good-sized crowd laughed at the little dust-layer.

The teams:

Mimico: Goal, Mortimer; defence, Pritchard and McNair; centre, Dixon; wings, McPhail and Hewitt; rover, Simpson; alternates, Beatty, McDonald, Williams, Rankin, Peterson, Banks and Gair.

Petes: Goal, Frick; defence, Horton and Magee; centre, Creighton; wings, L. Vitarelli and D. Vitarelli; rover, Foote; alternates, Digby, Lewis, Teatero, McNulty, Howse, Fairley and Warren.

Westclox Wins In The 11th Over Marines

Westclox yanked out a 7-5 Girls Softball League win over the Marines at the Bowl last night with M. Selkirk homering with one aboard in the 11th inning. The overtime tilt was run off in an hour and five minutes and gave the fans real snapp entertainment from start to finish. It was anybody's game, and an error hurt Marines in the 11th, though the homer would have won in any case. Both pitchers went the route in fine style and on even terms, with the fielding pretty even, too.

J. Vass and I. Clarke stood out defensively for the league-leading Westclox, while M. Hill and B. Larmer were best for Outboards. E. Whittaker had six strikeouts to three for M. Downer and the improving Marines were in the game all the way. B. Morrow and J. Vass led the winners at bat with three hits each, as M. Hill topped the losers with three safeties.

The teams:

Marines—A. LaPointe, 2b; E. Smith, rf; M. Cheel, rf; B. Larmer, ss; M. Walling, c; A. Lawless, lf; M. Hill, cf; V. Mitchell, 3b; M. Behan, 1b; E. Whittaker, p.

Ashby's Grab A Victory Over Lock Co.

Ashby's finished strong to romp to a 16-2 Girls Softball League victory over Lock Co. at the Bowl last night. It was a neat number till the last three frames when the classy young Ashby outfit cashed in on walks and errors, with a few timely hits, to roll up the count as Lock Co. had an off-night. The winners deserved their victory but not by as big a count. The game was over in an hour, despite the score and eight miscues by the losers.

Doris McFadden hurled six-hit ball and fanned nine, as she got good support, while two twirlers saw action without any luck for the Lock Co. coleens. Between them, they fanned seven, but walks and errors were too much. D. Callan, J. Dunk, J. McIntyre and E. Simmonds were best in the field. J. Dunk had three hits and R. Gilmour a homer for Ashby's, as D. Jackson had two hits for the losers.

The teams:

Lock Co.—D. Jackson, lf; C. Michard, lf; R. Crowley, cf, 2b; R. Roberts, 2b; E. Simmonds, 3b; M. Stewart, p, cf; B. Ayotte, rf; J. McIntyre 1b; B. McMahon, ss; D. Westlake, c; P. Williams, 2b, p.

Ashby's—E. McFadden, 2b; J. Reynolds, c; D. Callan, cf; L. Jordan, ss; M. Freeman, 1b; J. Dunk, 3b; R. Gilmour lf; J. Murduff, rf; D. McFadden, p.

Bus Drivers Win

Bus Drivers beat Bankers 19-4 last night in a loose Civic Softball League fixture. Strickland was in fine form for the winners to fan 16, getting good support afield and at bat. The losers were shaky defensively. Teams

Canoe Co. lost last Monday over A & P, but continued to show improvement for a bunch of youngsters. A & P earned an 18-8 victory. COF won Wednesday by default over A & P, when the Grocers apparently had half-holiday trouble and failed to show up—which is not good. On Thursday, Post Office pulled out a 19-17 win over COF in a hard-fought open tussle. Plenty of hard hitting seen in this one.

The league is levelling off now with the top three teams making it battle down the stretch. Games next week are: June 20, Post Office v. Canoe Co.; June 22, Canoe Co. v. A & P; June 24, Canoe Co. v. COF. A busy week for the Canoemen. Standings:

Resurrection Of Jesus Holds Personal Message

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D.D.

Light, glory and triumph soon followed upon the darkness and apparent defeat of the trial, humiliation and cruel death of Jesus on the cross. Resurrection joy and new faith, courage and inspiration came to the disciples as they first heard the amazing news of the opened tomb, and then met their risen Lord face to face.

The glorious experience that was theirs may be yours and mine. The Resurrection of Jesus has a direct and personal message for each of us. The word that it brings to us is the word that Jesus had already spoken to the disciples before His death: "Because I live, ye shall live also" (John 14:19).

That word of faith, and hope, and life, does not come from the Resurrection as a single, or isolated event. It is the message of the whole life and mission of Jesus. He rose from the dead because of the life that was in Him, and it is because He imparts that life to us that we have hope of immortality. "The gift of God is eternal life."

We tend to think of immortality chiefly in terms of continuing existance; we should think of it in terms of the quality of the life and the living. What the Resurrection attests is the indestructibility of the good life — the life that the New Testament calls "eternal" or "everlasting."

Life, of course, is more than just good deeds. It is the spirit, the character, the source from which good deeds flow. But even good deeds, the outward expression of the life, are indestructible. Even the minor acts of love and graciousness are as pebbles cast into the water that radiate in ever widening circles. Nothing in God's universe is lost. The Bible itself emphasizes this very figure in its reference to the bread cast upon the water that returns after many days.

The future life is related to the present life, not in mere continuance, but in the preservation, fulfilment, and enlargement of all that is best here. The noblest expression of it is in I John 3:2: "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be; but we know that, when He shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is."

And John proceeds to give this its immediate and practical application, calling for the purification of the heart, and the urging of the life from sin.

Paul speaks of "the power of the Resurrection" The Resurrection of Jesus is not an ancient, isolated instance of a man surviving death, but the persistent, longing power of a life-giving life that offers to man external horizons, and illimitable outlets of growth, achievement, and triumph. It is a call to be "always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord" (I Corinthians 15:58).

The Reward Of Faith

REV. E. R. JAMES

The woman came behind Jesus and touched the hem of His garment. Jesus saith unto her: Daughter, Thy faith hath made thee whole. Go in peace. St. Matthew 9: 20.

This writer called on a parishioner whose thigh bone was broken. He had never been ill in his life and found it hard to suffer. His pastor left him the thought that he would now be able to sympathize with the injured, which has could not do before. He heartily agreed.

Here is a story of tender, human interest, which caused the three Evangelists to record it with more or less fullness. Can you see the touch of an eye witness in these words:—"Jesus looked round about Him to see her that had done this thing". The Master's searching eye is his outstanding characteristic. All three writers are agreed that the woman came behind and touched the hem of His garment. She received instant healing. She was sensitive and self conscious. St. Mark records her feelings:—"The woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what was done, came and fell down before Him and told Him all the truth." Having touched Him she only desired to get away quietly. Her heart was full of thankfulness. But the Lord knew that virtue had gone out of Him. He could not let the matter end in this way. He, Who said of the Gentile:—"I have not found so great faith in Israel" He must give this daughter of Israel a greater blessing. He searches for her. She is self conscious. In the days to come her consciense might acuse her of stealing the blessing. The Lord is full of compassion for all affliction and His Heart goes out of her because of her faith. He desires to give her a deeper blessing and to strengthen her faith.

There is another beautiful reason. The Good Shepherd sought for the trembling sheep to give her the blessing of the Peace of God which passeth all understanding. She came behind Him. She could not see His Face. So He turns and looks for her. For the first time she looks upon the Face of the Pure One, full of tender love. She will never forget that Face; she "Beheld His glory, the glory of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth". She looked into the Face of the only begotten Son of God. He speaks to her. She alone of all the women mentioned in the Gospels receives the title "Daughter". "Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole, Go in peace".

This took place about two thousand years ago, Do you wish to see His Face of love and beauty. He has graciously left us four word portraits. A portrait is different from a camera. The portrait reveals something that the artist sees on His Subject. Four men, who loved Him wrote as each saw Him. Have you read and pondered over any of these portraits. As you read and pray let it be your desire that you may see something of Him. "Who, for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary and was made MAN".

ONE THING HAVE I DESIRED OF THE LORD: THAT WILL I SEEK AFTER: THAT I MAY BEHOLD THE BEAUTY OF THE LORD.

Can Pass On Tax

OTTAWA, June 18 (CP) — A Finance Department spokesman said Friday that landlords always had the privilege of applying for permission to pass along property tax increases to tenants in rent-controlled homes. But a few features of the privilege is that cities boosting property tax can make application on behalf of all its property owners and work out a percentage formula for the rental increase.

Killed In Crash

WARDSVILLE, Ont., June 18 (CP)—Mrs. Marguerite Dark of Detroit, Mich., was killed almost instantly and Mrs. Lola Dace, also of Detroit, was severely injured Friday when their car collided with a transport truck.

Thugs Grab Loot

TORONTO, June 18 (CP) — Two thugs held up Art's Credit Jewellers on downtown Queen street east late Friday and fled with $30 in cash and several watches and rings. Andrew Los, clerk, who was alone in the store, told police one of the thieves carried a revolver.

Made from three widths of brown wrapping paper, the total cost was $2.35, mostly for paints. Each figure in the mural represents a "talking" animal story. Murray Hill, 21, Acquitted Reckless Driving

Found not guilty on a charge of reckless driving arising out of the death of a Peterborough woman last winter, Murray Hill, a 21-year old taxi driver, was discharged from custody Friday.

Hill, a Dublin St. resident, appeared before His Honor Judge S. L. Smoke at a special sitting of the County Judge's Criminal Court. He had been out on $2,000 bail after being committed for trial at a preliminary hearing in March.

In his judgment Judge Smoke contended that on a charge of reckless driving more than a degree of negligence must be proven if a conviction is to be obtained. He quoted Mr. Justice Laidlaw who stated in a similar case that there must be some degree of criminal misconduct.

While driving his taxi south on Lock St. at 6.30 a.m. March 19, Hill struck Mrs. Alice Waldron of 735 Young St., as she crossed Braidwood Ave. to catch a bus. She died shortly afterwards in St. Joseph's Hospital as a result of injuries received.

Eye Witness

Mrs. Kathleen Gilbert, of River Rd., a witness to the accident, said Mrs. Waldon walked out of Braidwood Ave. and began to cross Lock St. in a south-easterly direction. Half way across she turned her head to say hello to the witness and was struck by the cab.

Although she saw the fatally injured woman nearly every work day, Mrs. Gilbert did not recognize her that morning. Defence counsel tributed this to the dark clothing worn by Mrs. Waldron, the dark winter morning, and the fact that there is only one street light on the corner.

No Evidence as to Speed

The Crown witness could give no evidence as to speed of the accused man's car, and was confused as to how far away it was when she first saw it.

Police Constable J. F. Morrow, testified that the point of impact was about a foot east of the centre line of the road, and that Mrs. Waldron was picked up a distance of 38 feet from the car. (She was also carried along on the left fender for some distance after the collision).

Skid marks 54 feet from the front tires were measured by the constable. As a result of cross-examination he said measurement was from the front tires because the car had slewed sideways during part of its course and came to rest in an oblique position.

The accused said it was a windy morning with leaves, garbage pails and other objects being blown about the city streets. He first saw Mrs. Waldron as an indefinite object in a stationary position near the centre of the road.

Later he put on his brakes and recognized that it was a human form. But he said he was unable to avoid the collision.

"Why didn't you see her sooner?" asked T. J. Carley, K.C. in examination.

"She didn't show up at all against the dark pavement," was the reoly.

He denied he had been warned by a police constable in east city about speeding that same night.

"The essential point of this case is in the accused's own admission that he did not see the woman until he was right on top of her," said Crown Attorney John Bradshaw.

"Is the driver of a car supposed to anticipate a woman being in the centre of the road who then turns to talk to another woman?" queried Judge Smoke.

He then said there was no evidence of criminal culpability as required in a reckless driving charge.

"I am satisfied that no jury would convict the accused on the evidence in this case," he stated. And he ordered Hill to be discharged.

They require considerable watering, of course, and she was being assisted on Thursday at the pleasant chore by neighbour David Drynan, who like the young genetleman that he is, handles the largest watering can.

Manvers Reeve Rescued From Upturned Auto

Charles Chapman, reeve of Manvers Township, was taken to Civic Hospital in a critical condition Friday afternoon after his car crashed into a tree on Highway 35, at the intersection of Lotus Rd., two miles east of his Pontypool home.

With a badly injured head, and possible fractured skull, he was taken, unconscious, to the hospital, where he is now reported to be in "fair" condition.

Hector Beggs, outside whose farm the accident occurred, rescued Mr. Chapman from his upturned car and Dr. G. M. Longfield of Bethany rushed to the scene.

Provincial Constable J. R. Pollard thinks the car must have gone out of control on the hill. It ran 125 feet from the crest of the hill to the side of the road, crashed into the tree and overturned.

Mr. Chapman had no passengers in his car, as he was driving home from Bethany. He owns a lumber mill in Pontypool.

Smoke-Filled House Greets Father's Return

When Laverne Healey of 459 Elm St. arrived home shortly after midnight he found the house filled with acrid smoke and his three children sleeping.

Source of the blaze was difficult to locate but he eventually found it in a downstairs clothes closet. A couple of suits and some dresses were destroyed but there was no additional damage.

What caused the smouldering fire is not known but Fire Chief George Smith is of the opinion that somebody lit a match to look for an article in the closet and did not properly put it out.

Council Ponders Barring Forest During Drought

Whether or not the County Forests Area, north of Norwood, should be closed during the present period of fire hazard was a matter of debate on the final day of the June session of the County Council.

Both Reeves Grant and Gifford felt that a definite danger existed because of the public travelling through the area at this dry season. Many of them are strangers and there is no way of checking on their identity of purpose.

Reflecting this point of view the two reeves moved that a report be brought back at the next session of council setting out the regulation regarding public access to the area. And they went a step further by recommending that the area be closed to the public until these specific regulations were drafted.

Most other members of council felt that there was an all too hazy knowledge of county's jurisdiction within the area and were in favor of drawing up regulations, but they demurred at the wholesale exclusion of the public.

A motion by Reeves Johnston and Leeson scouted this objection by proposing that the Reforestation Committee be allowed to use its own judgment in the matter.

Reeve Grant stated council had insufficient knowledge regarding the whole area and moved that a full fact-finding report be drawn up dealing with that piece of county property. Motion passed.

Council also recommended that Raymond Rodgers, caretaker, be made a county constable in order to enforce regulations in the area.

Hob With 20,000 Trees

John McColl, chairman of the Reforestation Committee, told members that 20,000 trees had been planted there this spring, but the hot dry weather is "playing hob with them."

He reported that along the road into the County Area fencing had been erected, and he recommended that the road, now full of potholes, be given a gravel surface.

For his work in stopping the recent fire that threatened the County Area he was highly praised by council. An agreement with the hydro men providing for the prevention or combat of future bush fires was proposed by Mr. McColl.

The matter of putting in a telephone line to the caretaker's house was left in the hands of the committee. Correspondence on this subject has already been exchanged between the Bell Telephone Co. and the county, but no decision has yet been reached.

No Fixed Assessment In City For Industry Labor Told

"No industrial concern in Peterborough is enjoying the benefits of a fixed assessment," City Clerk Outram has written to Mr. Phil Knibbs in reply to his letter as secretary of the Allied Labor Council. The A.L.C. was enquiring about assessments in general and fixed assessments in particular. Mr. Outram received from the city council authority to provide the information sought in the communication from Mr. Knibbs.

"Several industries did have these benefits," Mr. Outram wrote. "They were in accordance with the law and following the required favorable vote of the property owners, years gone by, but the last of them expired five years ago."

"Peterborough's assessment structure and procedure in respect to all properties, homes and industrial, is considered by municipal experts to be fair, equitable and reasonable, and to have established a record in this connection, which is the envy of many other municipalities.

"Municipal taxation should be a more or less fixed charge which can be reasonably predicted for some years in advance. Unfortunately, the mounting demands from citizens for more and more municipal services, particularly social services, have in recent years put great pressure on the budgets of urban municipalities and almost without exception annual taxes in cities and towns have increased in the past three years or so by at least 30 per cent.

Definite Information

"Just as home owners like to know in advance of building a home or an addition, their probably annual taxes for some years in advance, so companies which have to make a much large investment of funds in a building program desire some definite information on taxation. The practice has developed that companies planning to establish new industrial buildings in the city, or to add to existing factory buildings, usually inquire in advance regarding the probable asesssment on these buildings when completed. In such cases, the Assessment Commissioner when furnished with all particulars he requires concerning the proposed building, will inform the company the probable municipal assessment on such building or buildings.

"Any property owner, whether a company or individual, not content with the municipal assessment on his property, is invited to appeal his asessment at the proper time to the Court of Revision. This Court, which is a completely independent body, hears these appeals without charge and can decrease or increase the assessment as it deems necessary. If the property owner is still not satisfied he can appeal to the County Judge—still without cost—who reviews the whole matter anew. In cases where the assessment valuation is $10,000 or more the party has still a further appeal to the Ontario Municipal Board Thus, it can be seen that the way is made easy for any property owner to have his municipal assesment reviewed by three authorities beyond the municipal assessment commissioner It should be pointed out also that any interested party may appeal any assessment in the city. He does not need to be the owner or tenant of the said property

"Property owners in Peterborough appear to be satisfied that their assessments are fair and reasonable because for some years appeals to the Court of Revision on property valuations have averaged less than 25 in number per year. And not more than one or two have been taken to the County Judge and none to the Ontario Municipal Board

"I have gone beyond the questions asked in your letter in an effort to inform your members of some of the broad features of assessment procedure in Peterborough"

In another part of his letter, City Clerk Outram quotes the sections of the Municipal Act pertaining to the granting of any such special tax or assessment to industry, and emphasizes that no such grant may be made by a municipal council except within the authority of the Act.

10-Year Fixed Assessment

A fixed assessment shall not be for a longer period than 10 years. It shall not be renewable and shall not apply to or affect taxation for school purposes or local improvements.

"No bylaw shall be passed granting a fixed assessment in respect of any business which has at any time theretofore enjoyed a fixed assessment of the same property.

"A bylaw shall not be passed except with the affirmative vote of three-quarters of all the members of the council, the approval of the Municipal Board, and the asent of two-thirds of the electors qualified to vote on money bylaws who vote on the bylaw."

No person interested in or holding shares in a company, and no nominee of a corporation to which a fixed assessment is to be granted shall be entitled to vote on the bylaw.

"No bylaw shall be passed granting a fixed assessment in respect of a branch of industry of a similar nature to one established in the municipality unless the person by whom it is carried on consents in writing to the granting of the fixed assessment."

Several other minor phases of the legislation were also quoted by Mr. Outram in his letter.

LAND ACT OFFICIAL ARRIVES

Plan To Close SPCA Office: Lack Of Funds

COBOURG, June 18 (ENS)—C. W. Morris chief inspector for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, who has prosecuted a number of cases in local courts, announced yesterday at the conclusion of a case in which a proprietor of a riding school was convicted for not looking after his horses, that his office had been abolished because of lack of funds.

"We get $1,000 a year from the province but the rest comes from donations from people interested in seeing that animals are treated properly. However, there is not enough money to carry on and the work will revert to municipal and provincial police," Mr. Morris said.

"I am very sorry to hear that," observed Magistrate R. B. Baxter. "I have had some idea of what you are doing from the cases that have come before me in court and I know that you have been doing a very good job. Such work, to my mind, is very essential, and I am indeed sorry that it is being taken from your hands."

Started With One Car

Sherwood J. Collacutt appears to have followed the common pattern in the gasoline coach business, multiplying one bus into many.

The head of the Oshawa passenger transport firm which recently sold its holdings to Colonial Coach Lines, set up in business with a solitary Ford 25 years ago. Traffic was waiting for him between Pickering and Toronto, the next year between Oshawa and Toronto, and elsewhere along the lake shore. He extended his franchise to Gananoque. In 1928 he had 15 buses running; and the fleet was 50 in the sale to Colonial.

During the second World War, Lloyd Collacutt, son of Sherwood Collacutt, acquired in 1942 a franchise on No. 7 Highway from Toronto to Peterborough, under the name of Kawartha Coach Lines. Mr. Collacutt, Jr., carried on that business during the war years and since then. Both lines have been absorbed by Colonial.

Give Moppets No Matches Urges Worried Fire Chief

Storekeepers who sell matches to small children without question get no kudos from Fire Chief George Smith.

Recently there have been several fires started by children who, unknown to their parents, have purchased matches and caused considerable damage. And a few of the parents have shown their displeasure by lodging complaints with the Chief.

A family man himself, the Chief can sympathize with their view, and regards such conduct by shop owners as unethical.

There is still another fret: Proprietors of soft drink stands are always keen to get back empty bottles after patrons have discarded them. Retrieving these has always seemed a field of legitimate enterprise for young boys. But some proprietors instead of paying off the junior businessmen in money have been shelling out packets of book matches.

Apart from an inducement to start the boys smoking the matches have been responsible for several minor flares.

The Chief thinks storekeepers should insist on a note from parents unless they know the children personally. That's one way to reduce the fire hazard these days.

Farmers Use Molasses In Storing Alfalfa

Four enquiries at Co-Op Services today were for molasses, generally used as a silage preservative. One of those telephoning was Elmcroft Farms of Oshawa.

Farmers were coming to the decision to take off the alfalfa, store it in silos, and use it immediately for feed, taking a chance on rains later producing a second crop.

This is one of the necessary shifts of practice farmers have to make in the necessities of this driest June in more than 40 years, according to Ottawa reports.

R. M. Peirson said about 50 pounds of molasses were used to the ton of alfalfa. Four calls in a short time this morning was an evidence of the present urgent thinking and doing of farmers in their harassment by the perversity of the weather in holding back rain so long.

PRACTICAL PLANS FOR THE HOME YOU WANT AND HOW TO PLAN IT

Extra Game or Party Room Real Need in Most Homes

What wouldn't most of us give for an additional living room — and a very usuable informal living room at that — one that doesn't have to conform to the usual formal standards of what such a room should be?

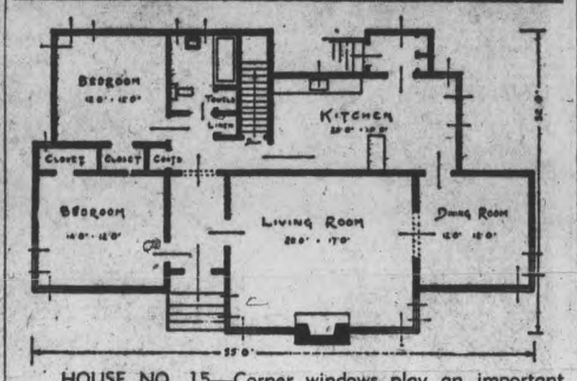
Not always, without discomfort to someone, can the diverse interest, of a family be carried on in a common living room. Perhaps Dad wants the radio on, while son or daughter is doing home work. Perhaps son and daughter want to dance to the radio while mother is reading her favorite magazine and dad an interesting book. The fact is that most homes need an extra game or party room very badly indeed.

The real solution to the problem lies in a basement recreation room. With a minimum of expense, your dark, dusty basement can be transformed into an attractive room for all the family. These recreation rooms, or "rumpus rooms" as they are popularly called, are becoming more and more popular as a means of home-renewing. And a rumpus room is not the only possibility — basements these days are being transformed into model laundries or entire service units, into playrooms, dens, gymnasiums, extra bedrooms, and sometimes even garages.

Where the space in your basement is sufficient only for a child's playroom, a laundry or gymnasium, the effort and money spent will be more than justified. Every child needs a playroom, where a network of train tracks may be laid and remain indefinitely, where doll-houses continue to be occupied by their doll tenants, and where little girls may cut out dolls to their hearts' content. Such a playroom is not only a boon to the child but to the mother as well. This is likewise true of the workshop or laboratory for the growing boy, or the man of the house, who longs to tinker and evperiment.

Automatic heating has done much to direct attention to the excellent living space available in the basement. Of course, reclaiming the cellar is not entirely dependent upon automatic heating, but having it does tremendously reduce the problem of renovation and cleanliness. For another thing, automatic heating releases the space otherwise needed for the coal bin and eliminates the need for erecting dust-proof partitions. But barring this, no matter what kind of heating is used, if these is willingness to spend time, effort and a little money, the basement can be transformed into an attractive living portion of your home.

If your furnace is set in a large room like an oasis in a desert, you can probably enclose it in a fraction of the space allotted to it and of the rest make your recreation room.



It is needless to say that such a room must be properly waterproofed, lighted, insulated, and ventilated. Walls may be easily and satisfactorily achieved by the use of one of the many varieties of insulating board, or the foundation walls may be freshened up by a coat or two of cement paint.

The insulating board may be papered or painted in good light reflecting colors. Floors, if the young people want to dance frequently, might be constructed of hardwood. Otherwise, one of the new inlaid linoleum patterns can be cemented directly to the good, dry basement floor or to rough flooring laid over the cement. When composition flooring is used, it should be heavy enough to prevent the cold of the concrete from coming through.

You will want to build in plenty of shelves and cupboards to hold books, toys, games, and a case for your sporting gear if you hunt or fish.

For this purpose, you could use plywood to good advantage. Plywood is light and strong and will not split. It is excellent for ping pong tables and other games tables for recreation rooms, and is unexcelled as a product to use in making closets, cupboards, and drawers.

HOUSE NO. 15—Corner windows play an important part in this interesting stucco bungalow. Every room has at least one, and the big living room has two of them flanking the open fireplace! Room arrangement is good, with the centre hall carrying all the main house traffic. Closets are plentiful. The huge kitchen is divided into two sections, one end for meal preparation and the other for breakfast table and chairs. There is a tiny back entry room with window and two closets for brooms, mops, vacuum cleaner, etc. Both bedrooms are well proportioned for furniture arrangement and are insulated from each other by a wall of closets. For further information write Home Building in Canada, 372 Bay St., Toronto.

Halifax Get Heat

HALIFAX, June 18 (CP)—Heat hung in a pall over the Maritimes for the fifth straight day Friday and more of it was predicted for the week-end. The temperature at Halifax was 88—a record for June 17. It was the longest heat wave in Halifax since 1930.

"Father's Day" Gets Big Hand From Bob Young

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, June 18—(AP)—Hi, pop! Tomorrow's your day. And if you think you've got troubles, listen to Robert Young.

Bob is the father of four girls. When it's suggested that he might be a poor man if he weren't a movie star, he answers:

"What do you mean? I am a movie star and I AM a poor man. I've got the overhead of a small corporation."

He adds:

"I just don't have a chance in this household of women. They are all past masters in the art of psychology. They manage to get just about everything they want from me."

The situation is slightly different on Father's Day, said Young on the set of a film wryly titled "And Baby Makes Three".

One Day A Year

"For one day out of the year I am more than tolerated. It's a nice feeling, but so short-lived. The next day I go back to just being the guy who pays the bills."

"Between the newspaper ads and their mother's prompting, the girls always come up with something. I have a special drawer where I file away my gifts. The socks and dollar pipes are pushing out the sides.

"This year I expect to get the mate to the sock I got for Christmas knitted by my oldest daughter."

The daughters range from 15 to three, the latter being the quiet one, "probably because she hasn't a chance against the others."

The actor is not as stern a parent as he sounds. "It may sound trite," he admitted, "but my only ambition for them is that they have happy, successful lives."

Firemen Save Burning House

HASTINGS, June 18—(ENS)—A serious fire was averted Thursday afternoon when Hastings fire department acted promptly in answer to a call from Mrs. W. Dodd on Front St.

At Mrs. Dodd's home the firemen found a bad chimney fire which had spread into some of the timbers of the building. They were at the house for more than an hour.

First to notice the fire was Mrs. Lorna Nelson who lives in the next house. Mrs. Dodd called Iden Bonds Sr. who sent his mechanic to give aid.

After using a fire bomb and two extinguishers to no avail, they called the fire department.

The firemen responded to a second call to the same house approximately two hours later when fire broke out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dodd were nearly burn out last fall when the Queen's Hotel next door was gutted by a fire of unknown origin.

Phillies Trounce Cardinals In 8-0 Shutout Victory

By JOE REICHLER,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

It's about time somebody started paying attention to those fightin' Phillies from Philadelphia.

And while they're at it, they could also give the double-O to the Phils' young bonus pitcher, 22-year-old Robin Roberts.

A chronic second division club since 1932, the Phils weren't given a tumble in pre-season polls.

Well, here it is in the middle of June, and genial Eddie Sawyer's scrappy bunch are in the thick of the pennant fight — a mere two games from the top. They've won 15 of their last 19 games.

The Phils achieved their most noteworthy feat of the year Friday night, cooling off a hot St. Louis Cardinal team in their own back yard with an 8-0 shutout.

The victory extended Philadelphia's winning streak to six straight games and moved them into a virtual tie with the Red Birds for second place.

The victory was Robert's eighth of the year to tie him with Brooklyn's Ralph Branca for the league leadership. He has lost only three.

He held the Red Birds to five hits while the Phils collected 16 against three Card pitchers.

The Dodgers snapped a two-game losing slump, winning a 2-1 decision over the Chicago Cubs. Don Newcombe outpitched young Warren Hacker with a six-hitter for his fourth victory against no defeats. Gil Hodges' single which scored Duke Snider from second broke up a 1-1 tie in the ninth. The defeat was the cellar-dwelling Cubs' sixth in a row.

Cincinnati dumped the Boston Braves into fourth place, knocking off Billy Southworth's crew 7-2. Howie Fox, aided by Walker Cooper's first-inning home run with two aboard, won his fourth game. Johnny Sain was the loser again, his seventh defeat. He has won only four.

Shelling Clint Hartung from the hill with a four-run barrage in the first inning, Pittsburgh Pirates went on to defeat the New York Giants 6-4 in a night game in Pittsburgh. Big Ernie Bonham spaced seven hits for his second victory.

The upsurging Cleveland Indians whipped the New York Yankees 10-4 to extend their winning streak to six games. The Indians now are only 5½ games from the top. Ken Keltner, emerging from a protracted slump, hammered two homers and a single. Larry Doby and pitcher Bob Lemon also homered. Lemon gained credit for his sixth victory against one defeat.

Win Both Ends

Boston Red Sox won both ends of an afternoon-night doubleheader from the Chicago White Sox, 4-3 and 10-8. Joe Dobson survived a three-run first inning to win his fifth game in the opener. The Red Sox won in the ninth when Vern Stephens singled to score Johnny Pesky with the winning run.

Boston pounded out 15 hits in the nightcap. Stephens smashed his 16th home run, and Williams his 15th.

Philadelphia Athletics moved to within a half-game of the second place Detroit Tigers, defeating the St. Louis Browns, 6-5. Joe Coleman weathered two bad innings to go the route and register his sixth victory.

The scheduled night game between Detroit and the Senators in Washington was postponed due to rain.

Walcott Eagerly Awaits Title Fight

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

KANKAKEE, Ill., June 18. — (AP).—At an age when most fellows get winded just running for a street car, Jersey Joe Walcott has run 300 miles.

This road work, plus 131 rounds against sparring mates, has left him as solid as a bull and as eager as one preparing to toss a matador.

Jersey Joe, aged 35-40, is a trim 196 pounder and confident he will chill 27-year-old Ezzard Charles and win the world heavyweight boxing championship — National Boxing Association version.

They tangle in Comiskey Park Wednesday night. Advance sales thus far are reliably reported under $100,000. This is a far cry from the $715,478 paid by 45,500 fans at the same site 12 years ago to watch Joe Louis capture the crown from James J. Braddock.

Louis, who at 35 has retired and vacated his heavyweight throne, finds a guy just as old—and probably older—in there battling to gain it.

That's the unique angle about Walcott, twice beaten by Louis and now getting a third crack at a world's title at an age when most of us are packing up.'

Chest Like Oak

Walcott is a Negro with huge biceps and a chest as big as the trunk of an oak tree. He was educated in the school of hard knocks and has been hardened by them. During 19 years of fighting, he has made six or seven comebacks trying to keep his family of six children.

Between comebacks he was a garbage collector, cement mixer, ice truck driver, hod carrier and worked in a defence plant. When times got too tough even to find any type of work, Jersey Joe went on relief.

In the last three years under the piloting of astute Felix Bocchioch, Walcott has found a new grip on life. He has $50,000 in the bank, a 10-room house and a well-fed family.

This has all been built on fistic achievement and on a dream of making good ever since Walcott discovered he really could punch. That was in the 30's when he was a sparmate for Joe Louis training for his first fight with Max Schmeling. Walcott tagged Louis in the first round of a workout, knocking him down.

Montreal Royals Beat Newark In 12-11 Game

By The Associated Press

Sam Jethroe, fleet Negro outfielder with Montreal Royals, is making International League fans forget Jackie Robinson.

The 29-year-old fly-chaser is burning up the basepaths and hitting hard and often in the Montreal bid to make it two pennants in a row.

Jethroe, in his second season of organized ball, enjoyed a field day Friday night as Montreal won a wild-and-woolly decision over the Newark Bears, 12-11.

He pounded out five hits in as many trips to the plate, drove in four runs, scored three and stole his 32nd base of the season. Two of his blows were home runs to boost his output in that department to six.

Righthander Clyde King started for the Royals and entered the eighth inning with a 12-0 lead. The Bears clipped him for three markers in the eight, on Lou Novikoff's 10th homer and drove him to cover with an eight-run spree in the ninth.

Take Third Place

The triumph enabled the Royals to take over third place from Jersey City Giants by three percentage points. The Giants dropped a 11-7 game to the fifth-place Rochester Red Wings.

Rochester ripped three Giant pitchers for 16 hits and clinched the game in the fourth with a seven-run rally against starter George Bamberger, who was seeking his eighth straight triumph.

The second-place Toronto Maple Leafs, led by Al Roberge, turned back Syracuse Chiefs 11-5. Roberge pounded out four of Toronto's 19 hits, including a homer and double and drove home four runs.

Veteran Nick Strincevich started for the Leafs, but left in the fifth, leading 6-5, in favor of Bill Smith.

Toronto trails the first-place Buffalo Bisons by 1½ games. The Bisons' scheduled games with the Orioles in Baltimore was postponed because of rain.

in Westbury, New York. He took the lead at the backstretch to win by a length over the onrushing Indian Land. Dr. Stanton, owned and driven by W. L. (Lindy) Fraser of Forest, Ont., faded in the stretch and wound up third after setting the pace for most of the mile. The winner paid $5.50. The time was 2:05 2-5.

Find Body In River

MONTREAL, June 18 (CP) — Police here said Friday night they would "look into" circumstances surrounding the death of Theodore R. Ferguson of Vancouver, a member of the Canadian Seamen's Union, whose body was found in the St. Lawrence river Wednesday.

Here and There In Sport

By The Canadian Press

Dr. Cary Middlecoff proved himself a pretty good mudder as he moved into a two-stroke lead Friday at the halfway mark of the Motor City Open Golf Tournament at Detroit.

The methodical Memphis dentist, unruffled by a steady rain that fell through most of his round, bagged five one-under-pars and 12 pars as he shot a 67 —four under par.

It gave him a 133 total and a two-stroke lead over Bob Hamilton of Landover, Md., and Henry Ransom of St. Andrews, Ill., who tied for second place at 135.

Mrs. Cecil Gooderham of Toronto won her fifth Ontario ladies' golf championship Friday over the Brantford Golf and Country Club course, defeating her sister, Mrs. J. A. McDougald, also of Toronto, 3 and 2 in the 18-hole final. Mrs. Gooderham won her first title in 1928 and repeated in 1930, 1938 and 1948.

Mrs. McDougald won the title in 1929 when the tournament was last held here. Friday was the third time the two sisters have met for the title.

North Sydney Victorias of the Cape Breton Senior Hockey League Friday named Lex Cook of Weyburn, Sask., as coach for the 1949-50 season. Cook was playing coach of Kirkland Lake Blue Devils when they won the Allan Cup in 1940. Later he coached Quebec Aces of the Quebec Senior Hockey League.

At Chicago, Eddie Waitkus, Philadelphia Nationals star first baseman, Friday underwent a minor operation to draw blood from a lung pierced when he was shot by a bobby-sox fan. Later the hospital said he was "breathing easier" and showing "marked improvement." Doctors explained that the bullet, fired by Ruth Ann Steinhagen, 19-year-old typist who idolized Waitkus from afair, had lacerated the right lung and caused internal bleeding.

The Bombay Government Friday announced its decision to ban horse racing throughout the province would take effect in April, 1953. The Government will shortly prohibit publication and circulation of racing literature except on racetracks.

Gay One, a four-year-old mare, set a track record for the mile pace at Buffalo raceway Friday night, but failed to win the race. Gay One, owned by C. E. Burkepyle of Mt. Vernon, O., and driven by Bob Plaxico, paced the distance in 2:04 2-5. The previous record was 2:04 4-5. The judges ruled interference and put Gay One in fourth place in the $1,000 open pace, but the record stands. The winner was Royal Chief.

Jimmy Creed, seven-year-old chestnut driven by James Cruise, Friday night won the featured New Hampshire pace for a purse of $5,000 at Roosevelt raceway

Tending Horses Job Sought By English Widow

CALGARY, June 18 (CP) — A petite, tweed-clad English woman stepped off a train at Calgary Friday, a little upset about the stories that she wants to be a cowpuncher on a western ranch.

To Mrs. Joyce Mack of Wareham, Dorsetshire, her aims are quite simple. She said she liked Western Canada when she visited it in 1936. She prefers an outdoor life to city life ,and she knows more about horses than most things.

"If I can get a job looking after horses on a ranch or a farm, that's all I want," she said.

In Britain Mrs. Mack turned her hand to a variety of jobs. During the war she was in the Marine division of the British Overseas Airways Corporation. Following that she got a job as a deckhand on a harbor tug, on the strength of her wartime training.

When she is settled, Mrs. Mack will send for her two children, Sara, eight, and Nicholas, seven, nw in Wendover, Buckinghamshire.

Mrs. Mack's husband a wing commander in the RAF, was killed during the war.

AnySpareUndies? British Women Will Accept Them

WASHINGTON, June 18 (AP) —Paul Hoffman, economic co-operation administrator, has been given the task of finding some spare under-things for a British housewife.

The director of the European Recovery Program has disclosed he received the request from Mrs. Dorothy M. Rockcliffe, 35, Mitcham, Surrey, England.

Hoffman had once remarked that most Britons have only one set of cotton underwear—and his statement found its way into a British newspaper. Mrs. Rockcliffe wrote:

"It was really your comment on the 'one set of cotton underwear' that 'got' me. How right you are. Our clothing coupons are so few that it is quite essential to keep the top layers looking fairly presentable, but regarding the underneath I walk about every day with my fingers crossed hoping I don't get knocked down.

"So if you know any ladies who have any undies that they no longer need, and they would like to send them over, I would have no false pride about accepting them and if they don't fit me, there are hosts of people who would be glad of them."

Shave, Haircut By Woman Barber

OTTAWA, June 18 (CP)—Ottawa has its first woman barber—a shave and haircut specialist, not the finger-wave and facial type.

Alide Vainu, as Estonian who came to the capital as a displaced person, worked her year in domestic service. Now she is back at her own trade—barbering.

Those who have sat in the chair in a down-town barber shop say Mrs. Vainu possesses a delicate touch rarely found in male counterparts. What's more, she is just as adept at giving a shave as cutting hair. Several men have gone under her special Swedish razor and were perfectly at ease throughout.

Mrs. Vainu is a graduate of the barbers' school in Tallinu, Estonia, and her experience has been wide and varied. For four years she cut hair in a German prison camp. Later she worked in the US zone of Germany.

Happy Marriages Assured If Women Did the Courting

Why women who have trodden under foot all the other old superstitions that have hampered them — the superstition that it would defeminize them and rob them of all their charm to be educated or to earn honest living—and yet are still in bondage to the superstition that there is something immodest in a woman frankly telling a man that she would like to marry him, is one of the things that no one can fathom.

Dorothy Dix

Of all the disadvantages under which woman labors none is such a heavy handicap to her as the foolish ban that custom puts upon her love activities and that makes her take a passive instead of an active part in courtship. Certainly nothing could be more idiotic than the old romantic theory that a woman never looks at a man until after he has seen her first and that her heart is so well disciplined that it never yearns after any man until he has signified his desire to marry her, whereupon she automatically discovers, to her amazement, that she is wildly in love with him.

Yet that is how courtship is practically conducted, and all that a woman can do is to sit around and look willing when men come about, and pray that the Lord will send her a husband that she can put up with, and the result is that only too often a girl has to take the man she can get rather than the one who is her preference.

Cramps Style

Of course, men contend that in reality women do pick out their husbands and that no man knows how he came to marry the woman he does marry, but even if this were true—and it seldom is—it certainly cramps a woman's style to have to do her wooing under cover and inveigle a man by subtle and nefarious means to the altar instead of being able openly and aboveboard to sell him the idea that to marry her would insure his happiness and prosperity.

It is beyond doubt that if women were free, as men are, to select their mates and do the proposing that there would be a great matrimonial boom and an unprecedented era of domestic bliss. There would be more marriages, because many men are kept from asking women to marry because they think they are physically unattractive or because they feel that they cannot support their wives in luxury.

Many a lonely old maid would like to tell some homely old bachelor that she loves his beautiful soul and fine mind and doesn't care a rap about his looks and that she would like to marry him and make him comfortable and give him the home and attention he craves. Many a middle-aged widow, with a starved maternal heart, would like to marry some widower with a houseful of children and mother them. Many a rich woman would like to say to a poor man: "Marry me and give me the companionship that my money won't buy and let me make life easier for you."

And there would be happier marriages, because women are better pickers than men are. They have more discernment in matters of the affections. It is men who pick out girls young enough to be their grandmothers and expect to be happy with them. Mighty few women are silly enough to marry young boys.

If we knew the truth, we would probably find out that most of the peevish, fretful discontented wives who make no effort to please their husbands or get along with them, are those who married men they didn't really love nor want, but who were all that they could get, and who are taking out their disappointment upon their poor, unfortunate yokemates.

Of course, in the past, when women were helpless creatures who had to be supported, it was perhaps manners for them to wait to be asked, but now, when most of them have as good jobs as men, there is no reason why they shouldn't pop the question to any man they fancy.

Father Performs Marriage Of Margaret R. Balfour

The wedding of Margaret Rosalind, youngest daughter of Archdeacon and Mrs. C. W. Balfour of Peterborough to the Reverend Frank Robert Coyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Coyle of Montreal, was solemnized this morning at 11:00 o'clock in St. John's Anglican Church, with the bride's father performing the ceremony. Archdeacon W. P. Robertson assisted and celebrated the Communion service for the bride and groom which followed.

White larkspur and white carnations were used in the altar. The boys' choir singing "Praise My Soul the King of Heaven" preceded the bride up the aisle and at the signing of the register sang "O Perfect Love". Mr. F. G. Mann presided at the organ.

The bride wore her mother's wedding dress of cream brocaded silk. Lace, used on her grandmother's wedding gown, formed a panel down the entire front of the dress and was also used to form a yoke in the bodice. The long skirt, caught in box pleats in the back, had a flounce of lace and extended in a slight train. She wore a full-length veil with a coronet of wax orange blossoms and she had lace mittens, cream satin sandals and carried a shower bouquet of pure white roses with blue cornflower tied in the white ribbons.

She was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Andrew Balfour.

Miss Ruth Balfour, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, wore a tearose yellow taffeta frock made with a tight-fitting bodice. A frilled collar tapered to a vee neckline and the full skirt was tied with a wide yellow sash. Her hat was of natural straw with a wide brim trimmed with yellow daisies and she carried a bouquet of daisies and cornflowers.

Miss Sylvia Jackson, niece of the groom, as flower girl, wore pale green taffeta with a wide yoke and long full skirt. She wore a coronet of pink sweet peas and carried a nosegay of sweet peas with one pink rose in the centre.

Mr. John Wilson of Owen Sound was groomsman and Mr. Balfour Le Gresley of Newcastle and Mr. Richard Heward of Montreal ushered the guests to their places.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Her mother received, wearing a gown of royal blue crepe, a navy hat with flowers and navy accessories. The groom's mother also received and wore mauve silk with matching hat and black accessories.

The couple left later for a few days in Haliburton. For travelling the bride changed to a blue linen suit, a wide-brimmed navy straw hat trimmed with pink and blue flowers, and navy accessories. She wore a corsage of white gardenias. The Reverend and Mrs. Coyle will reside in Swan River, Manitoba.

Many friends from out-of-town attended the wedding, coming from Toronto, Montreal, Fort William, Owen Sound and other points.

Man, $5,000 Missing

CHICAGO, June 18—(AP)—Police are searching today for a dapper little man with a tweedy appearance in the hopes of finding an attractive red-haired widow who has been missing since Sunday. Also missing is $5,000 which police said the widow, Mrs. Reseda Corrigan, 39, turned over to the man. He had been courting her for a month.

Foil Overthrow Plot

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador, June 18—(AP)—The government announced Friday it had discovered a plot to overthrow the regime and had taken measures to foil it. A communique issued by the governing military Junta said the plan called for killing government leaders, releasing former officials convicted under the present regime, and placing Col. Osmin Aguirre Y. Salinas, a former president, in office again.

2,000 Out Of Work

FORT WILLIAM, June 18 (CP)—Although unemployment at the lakehead has been slow in picking up, there "is nothing to be alarmed at," Fred J. White, regional superintendent of the Unemployment Insurance Commission said Friday in an interview. There are about 2,000 persons out of work in this area, Mr. White said. But he believed that new developments in the district will alleviate the situation.

Held After Shooting

ALBANY, N.Y., June 18—(AP)—Richard N. Bard, 27, was shot fatally Friday, police said, by a woman whose sister he allegedly attacked. Police held Mrs. Donna H. Robinson, 27, in connection with the shooting. No charge was placed against her. District Attorney Julian B. Erway said Mrs. Robertson told him she shot Bard five times with a .25-calibre revolver after he grabbed her sister around the neck and started to choke her.

Demands $100,000

NEW YORK, June 18—(AP)—Catherine Mastice Friday asked $100,000 for remarks made about her television opera stint by blonde Dorothy Kirsten, Metropolitan opera star. Miss Mastice appeared on Milton Berle's television show May 24. Her appearance brought an angry outburst from Miss Kirsten who took the skit to be a burlesque of her own considerable singing talents.

Neglects Horses: Dude Ranch Man Convicted, Fined

COBOURG, June 18 (ENS)—Ralph Nelson, operator of a dude ranch and riding school in Haldimand Township, was found guilty in court Friday of failing to look after some eleven horses. C. W. Morris, investigator for the S.P.C.A., told the court at the hearing last week that the horses bore saddle sores and had undergone unnecessary suffering.

Magistrate R. B. Baxter fined him $50 and ordered him to pay $86.50 costs. Defence counsel A. D. Hall objected to the high costs but the Magistrate held that the S.P.C.A. inspector, who resides in Hamilton, was entitled to his mile-age for two court sittings and the cost of the photographs taken and filed as exhibits.

"I was born and brought up on a farm and I have some idea about horses and I am entirely out of sympathy with the accused," said the magistrate.

"Dr. Guest, your own veterinary witness, said that the horses had been occasioned unnecessary suffering," Mr. Baxter said. "Maybe you were trying to get started in your riding school but you are supposed to know something about horses and should have taken better care of them."

"Animals such as horses can't protect themselves and so the law must see that they are not abused. I am going to charge you with the costs as requested by the inspector. I think I have been too lenient in regard to costs against accused persons. They bring the charges against themselves by their own actions and the people should not be put to the expense of paying for court trials," said the magistrate.

Discover Thefts After Break-In

CAMPBELLFORD, June 18 — (ENS). — Local police are investigating a break-in which occurred early Friday morning, when David Bowen's service station, Grand Road, was entered, and a considerable amount of cash and merchandise taken. The place was littered with empty pop bottles and cans, chocolate bar wrappings, and cigarette stubs.

Two juveniles have admitted to the police that they broke in the Uptown Motors, Heathcote's Maching Shop, the Co-operative Store, and Davidson's Service Station within the past few weeks.

Enter 15 Cars Soap Box Derby

Fifteen entries have been made for the Y's Men's Club annual Soap Box Derby July 15 and 16. Of the 15 cars four are now completed with one having made a trial run. There were nine entries last year. Some members of the Y's Men's Club visited the homes of the entrants Thursday night to see how the work was progressing.

Races will start from the corner of Armour Road and Hunter St. Last year the cars raced in heats, the winners finally completing. This year a system of timing will be used. Cars will tow the Derby models to the top of the hill eliminating the delay caused last year.

Officials for the races will be one official starter, three assistant starters, and there judges at the end of the race.

The regulations require the cars to be built by the boys, with the wheels, tires, bearings, axle rods, steering wheel and shaft the only parts that may be ready made. All cars must have four wheels with no wheel being more than 12 inches in diameter including the tire. Neither the front nor the rear wheel tread shall be less than 30 inches or more than 36 inches. Cost of any of the cars must not be more than $6.

Abortion will be permitted when the health of the mother is in danger and in the case of women with large families who are so poor that they would be unable to afford to keep additional children.

Agree To Unload Ship

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., June 18—(Reuters)—Longshoremen Friday decided at a union meeting to unload the Canadian freighter Seaboard Trader. The vote was 303 to 64 in favor of working the ship. Earlier the men had refused at an informal dockside meeting to handle the cargo of wheat and lumber.

Reds Make "Mistake"

BERLIN, June 18 — (AP) — Russian highway guards gave Berlin a new dose of blockade jitters Thursday. Guards on the autobahn outside Berlin halted western allied traffic without explanation for almost two hours Thursday evening. Later the Russians said it was all a mistake.

Bush Has 2,000 Roses

WARKWORTH, June 18 (ENS)—A rosebush bearing some two thousand blooms is not only the pride of Mr. and Mrs. James MacGrath, at whose Percy Township home the bush is growing.

Passers-by eye the mass of blooms with wonder as they seem to ask themselves how the creamy yellow flowers have formed and survived during the dry weather.

Eliminate Echo That Prevented Hearing Sermons

LONDON, June 18 — (CP) — Scientists finally have bagged the echo that made sermons inaudible in St. Paul's Cathedral.

It took four miles of wire and seven dozen microphones to do it.

For years only 10 per cent of St. Paul's worshippers could catch more than an occasional sentence from the pulpit. Within three months, the scientists say, 95 per cent will be able to follow the service word by word.

Earlier use of loudspeakers on the cathedral walls merely added to the reverberation. The microphones couldn't be attached to the cathedral seating by conventional wiring because the chairs are moved about regularly.

Magnetic induction did the trick. Under the roof of the cathedral, along the crypt floor, a network of wires was laid and connected with an amplifier. Above the stone floor, 24 loudspeakers were placed under the cathedral seats, one to every ninth chair. The speech current from the amplifier below strikes up through the floor, which is transparent to magnetism, and links with copper bands on the chairs. The under-seat loudspeakers relay the voice.

WA At Warkworth Plans Cooking Sale

WARKWORTH, June 18 (ENS)—The Woman's Association of St. Paul's United Church met at the home of Mrs. Elwood Greenly for the June meeting. The worship service, conducted by Mrs. A. Buchanan, was followed by the reading of a poem and prayer by Mrs. Robert Edgar.

Mrs. Elmer McKee gave the scripture reading and short papers on this passage were given by Mrs. E. Hutchinson and Mrs. J. Greenly. Mrs. Jolliffe sang and the worship service closed with prayer by Mrs. Allen Buchanan.

The corresponding secretary reported five cards sent and read a reply from Mrs. E. Edgar. A letter from the Peterborough Salvation Army Band was read, expressing thanks for the lunch served after the memorial service on June 5. It was decided to hold a cooking sale July 9th.

The following program included a vocal duet by Mrs. J. McCleary and Mrs. D. Thompson; a reading by Mrs. G. Allen and an instrumental duet by Gwen Wartman and Alice Nelson; an anatomy contest by Mrs. Allan Buchanan with Mrs. Hancock furnishing the music.

Lunch was served by the hostess and the lunch committee and a vote of thanks was extended to the hostess.

Near Drowning As Tagged Boy Dove Into Trent

A game of tag nearly ended in death this week for Patrick Quinn when he jumped into the Trent River from the dock at the village of Trent River to escape being tagged.

Only the efforts of 13-year-old John Glenn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Glenn, Trent River, saved the boy. Young Pat could swim but he swallowed water when he jumped in. He struggled desperately but couldn't keep afloat. John saw Pat's plight and reached for him by lying down on the dock.

The drowning boy nearly pulled his rescuer into the river. A playmate grabbed John's legs and held him while John pulled Pat out.

Settle Mix-Up On Bond Issue

VANCOUVER, June 18 — (CP) —A "misunderstanding" over a recent Vancouver city bond issue has been cleared up, Ald. George Miller, chairman of the civic finance committee, reported Friday.

Ald. Miller is with Mayor Charles Thompson in Toronto conferring with financial houses, seeking a better rate on future bond issues.

In a telephone interview, Ald. Miller said: "There was some little misunderstanding, and this has been cleared up to our satisfaction . . . we are pretty satisfied there wasn't a gang-up against us."

At Edmonton Thursday night M. J. Coldwell, national CCF leader, charged there had been irregularities in handling the bond issue and he demanded a feeral government investigation.

He sai six banks and 22 investment firms had submitted one "low bid" on the $7,500,000 issue which the city was forced to accept.

Ald. Miller said from Toronto Friday that the investment houses had explained it was "quite a big issue" and that was the reason for not offering competitive bids.

Declares Truth Only Answer

MONTREAL, June 18 (CP) — Defence Minister Brooke Claxton Friday night told the conference of Vice-Chancellors of the Universities of the British Commonwealth here that truth is the only answer to the present fight for the survival of freedom against influences which would mean enslavement.

The universities, he said, are the front line fighters in the war and "the only thing more expensive than education is ignorance."

Mr. Claxton, acting as host at a reception tendered the delegates by the Federal Government, extended to them the welcome of the Prime Minister on behalf of the government and the people of Canada.

He said the conference was "an inspiring example of free men in free institutions working together to preserve and to extend their heritage."

Jolliffe Claims Export Trade Stiffled

PORT HOPE, June 18—(CP)—E. B. Jolliffe, Ontario CCF leader, predicted a period of unemployment for Canada because of what he termed federal government stifling of export trade.

Speaking on behalf of J. P. Kenney, Durham County CCF candidate, Mr. Jolliffe said the Liberal government had failed to take measures to counteract unemployment. He said the government had actually increased unemployment through policies that brought about a dwindling export market.

"The claims of the Liberal government of increased housing had catches to them," he said. "For one thing the cost was excessive, and secondly new families are in greater number than new dwellings."

Attacking the national health program Mr. Jolliffe said the infant mortality in Canada during the war was 130,000, while only 41,000 men were killed in actual fighting. If Canada had been as competent in health measures as New Zealand, he said, 65,000 babies would have been saved during the period.

IFAO Conference A Preliminary Success To World Wheat Agreement — Federation Proposes Livestock Auction In Fall — Shorthorn Breeders Going To OAC Thursday.

Acceptance of the broad principle of the proposed international wheat agreement for the sale and distribution of surpluses was the outstanding accomplishment of the IFAP conference at O.A.C. Guelph last week, Mr. V. S. Milburn of Toronto told the Examiner yesterday.

From that basis, the representatives of the 24 participating countries have to obtain the approval of their respective government.

"The International Federation of Agricultural Producers is essentially an advisory body," Mr. Milburn said. "Action must come through government, and it appears obvious that it would have to be some joint action, largely inspired by IFAP through the delegated agricultural representatives to its conferences which have been held in France, Great Britain, the Netherlands and Canada.

It has taken the first four years to give shape and direction to IFAP, and to bring the members to close understanding of their common aims. From now on it is hoped that the efforts of IFAP will begin to bring about accomplishment in international accord and action in marketing and disposal of food surplus and in solving problems associated with it. As a result of such direct action, one of the great achievements would be the distribution of food from surplus countries to those where food is scarce.

There is a large element of unselfishness in the objection of the international organization. It is hoped, also, that, as an effect of the IFAP conferences and continuing discussions, differences in monetary exchange will not be allowed to stand in the way of attaining the objectives which the delegates have now generally agreed upon."

Mr. Milburn said it was not easy to explain the full significance of the recent conference at Guelph to the average Canadian farmer. There were many effects incidental of the main purpose and culmination of this conference. The potential benefits of the international body of farm producers have yet to be brought to reality, but the ground work has now been laid, Mr. Milburn said.

The strong delegation from Great Britain was optimistic of the future. Their hopes of maintaining their own standing in the British economy are to a considerable extent wrapped up in the broad acceptance and application of the wheat agreement and the disposal of food surpluses. The United States representatives were also hopeful. They are somewhat handicapped, Mr. Milburn said, by the division of the agricultural interests of the U. S. A. into four large organizations, an international problem, in contrast with the established unity of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture.

If IFAP eventually attains its purposes, Mr. Milburn, it would a great contribution by organized farmers in organized marketing and also in feeding needy peoples.

"Many of the delegates incidentally received an impressive lesson in our democratic way of life. The fact that graduates and undergraduates of O.A.C. worked during the conference in the dormitories making beds and cleaning out rooms, waiting on tables, was something outside the experience of delegate from countries in which classes of society are rather sharply defined. One of the men from Europe told me he had never seen so many fine young people serving at table. We did not think anything of it, but to them it was amazing that a college graduate would engage in such menial work. Of course it was only temporary work. but it packed home a lesson."

INSTRUCTOR RETIRES

C. Arthur Davies, instructor and inspector of dairy plants in the Toronto- Peterborough Tottenham area, is retiring after 26 years with the Department of Agriculture of Ontario. He pays tribute to the dairymen for their willingness to co-operate, and gives the dairy branch, under the direction of C. E. Lackner, credit for the vast improvement in quality of dairy products during the last quarter century.

Herbert M. Arbuckle, B.S.A., formerly of Ottawa and now of Lindsay, succeeds Mr. Davies.

May reports from creamery instructors indicate that the cream producers of Ontario have become "quality-minded" and ap-cream, according to the dairy pear to be keenly concerned about branch of the Ontario Department.

ONTARIO FIELD CROPS

Value of fruits, vegetables, potatoes and turnips marketed by Ontario farmers in 1948 was $79,960,000, almost three times the total of 1939, Mr. G. F. Perkin, Commissioner of Marketing, Ontario Department of Agriculture, reported this week. He said he was amazed at the substantial expansion in this branch of agriculture.

Total value of these crops in 1939 was $26,791,000. In 1943 the amount was $43,395,000; in 1947 the crop estimate had increased to $73,124,000; and last year total value was $79,960,000.

Total value of all field crops sold by Ontario farmers since 1939 had more than trebled from $150,288,000 in 1939 to $369,349,000 in 1948.

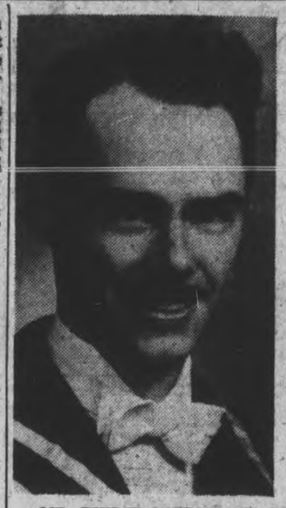
PLANNING LATE CROPS



Dr. G. P. McRostie, head of field husbandry department, OAC, offered several suggestions this week for planning late crops to meet the anticipated shortage of hay, grain and other feeds.

"No amount of rain from now on can insure a heavy hay crop in most sections. Sudan Grass seeded during the next two weeks at the rate of 30 pounds an acre can be pastured when 16 to 18 inches high or cut for hay in the early heading stage. Millets can be similarly used. Siberian, Hungarian, Empire and Common are varieties that are used chiefly for emergency hay, but may also be used for pasture. These may be seeded as late as the third week of June at 30 lbs. per acre, and should be harvested for hay when fully headed.

Oats make a satisfactory hay if harvested six to eight days after heading. In some parts of Canada this crop provides much of the hay used.

For fall pasture, rape and kale may be seeded in drills using one pound of seed per acre, or broadcast using 4 or 5 lbs. per acre. The crop is ready to pasture six to eight weeks after seeding and may be planted as late as the middle of July.

Oats at one bushel and fall rye at 1½ bus. an acre, seeded during the first two weeks of August make an excellent fall pasture. The oats provide early fall pasture, and the rye, late pasture. and if needed, the rye can be left to provide early pasture the following spring."

MR. PHILIP RISTOW, a recent graduate from the Queen's University, Kingston, in Electrical Engineering. He is employed with the Ferranti Electric Limited, Mount Dennis, and will leave shortly for Great Britain to take a training course. His wife who lives at 571 Park St., will accompany him when they sail on the Aquitania July 2. Mr. Ristow is a son of Mrs. Irwin Wedlock, Peterborough, and the late Mr. Harry Ristow.

NEW TYPE OF FIELD DAY

A farm improvement and soil conservation field day is planned for early in September on the farm of Heber Down at Brooklin, Ontario county, by the Ontario Department of Agriculture and OAC.

The project is to convert in one day a farm operated in the ordinary manner of long accepted practice into an example of contour-plowed, strip-croped, waste-free farm land in which the greatest possible use is made of the soil and rainfall.

Proposers are not yet decided on the extent of preliminary work that could and should be done.

NO INDEPENDENT FARMERS

Farmers of Yugoslavia are gradually being squeeze into the strait-jacket of communism. The minister of agriculture, M. Todorovitch, recently announced that 20 per cent of all arable land in the country had been socialized, "and the day was not far off when the economic power of independent farmers would be overcome".

He introduced a bill providing the death penalty for sabotage on state farms which had increased as a result of the campaign of the Communist Information Bureau against the Yugoslav Communist party leadership. That split is an echo of the breach between the Soviets of Moscow and Tito's tyranny.

In the language of communism the average farmer is classed a peasant. The substance of the press story from Belgrade is that under communism there is no personal ownership of land.

LATE CORN PLANTING

Ontario Department of Agriculture is suggesting emergency planting of corn as a fodder crop to make up the deficiency in hay that is already apparent.

Crops and Seeds Branch remind farmers that corn can be sown as late as June 25 in most sections of the province, and with favoring conditions of weather and moisture a substantial crop could be expected.

"Perhaps the greatest need fulfilled by extra silage corn would be to cut and feed green corn during the fall months to keep up the milk flow," one of the department officials said this week. "Any extra corn can be put in the silo or stooked and dried for early winter feed. In some cases sorghum is sown with oats for pasture."

"In choosing a variety of corn for late June planting, it is doubly important to give particular attention to using seed of early hybrid varieties. Supplies of high quality seed corn are ample, and varieties for plate sowing are included."

LIVESTOCK AUCTION PROPOSED

Sponsored by the Peterborough Federation of Agriculture, a meeting of livestock representatives has been called for Monday, June 20, at the office of Frank C. Paterson to consider an auction sale of selected stock here in October.

The outline of the proposal was discussed by Federation directors Wednesday night. Next Monday's meeting is the first step. Three representatives of the beef and dairy breeds of cattle, sheep and swine are expected to attend and express their opinions of this project. W. W. Dawson presided on Wednesday night.

A similar suggestion was mentioned last fall by Norman McConkey who envisioned a stock sale that would embrace cattle, sheep and swine, planned on a scale that would attract wide attention. Probably he got the idea from the success of the district Holstein show. Mr. McConkey evidently did not try to enlist support for the idea at that time.

Federation of Agriculture is hoping that the different breed organizations will each send three of their members to the meeting M noayit gndh , thmd meeting Monday night. The county has a spirit of enterprise that shows itself from time to time, and Federation directors believe that the auction idea could be developed into an important annual event.

BIG FOUR AGREE ON BERLIN, AUSTRIA

Archbishop Watched By Czech Police

Vatican Decrees Excommunication Of New Group

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, June 20 (AP)—The Communist government's security police today apparently tightened their guard on Archbishop Joseph Beran's palace while Roman Catholics weighed the meaning of organized Communist heckling of the prelate at Sunday's cathedral services. The heckling drove him from his cathedral and prevented him from completing his sermon.

Attempts of many persons to talk to the archbishop today were foiled by security police supervising the palace reception desk and telephone switchboard.

Shrill Communist interruptions of the archbishop's Corpus Christi day sermon in St. Vitus Cathedral Sunday brought the long battle between church and state to its highest tension. The archbishop, defiantly resisting Communist efforts to control the church and break the spiritual rule of the Vatican over Czechoslovakia's 10,000,000 Roman Catholics, had to leave the pulpit and return to his palace, already under the watchful eyes of the security police.

The whistling and jeering broke out from demonstrators bunched near the altar as the archbishop started a denunciation of the government's moves against the church. The rest of the congregation, many in tears, burst into a hymn in an attempt to quell the disorder.

The archbishop was back in the seclusion of his palace, facing the prospect of even more surveillance because he had been able to send a pastoral letter out of the palace to be read in churches throughout the country yesterday. The letter declared there would be "no compromise" in any further church-state negotiations. Police had been withholding his mail and turning away most callers, including priests bent on assuring him of their loyalty.

Three Surrender After Attack On Police Chief

QUEENSVILLE, Ont., June 20 (CP)—Three youths from Toronto and Scarboro surrendered to Police Chief Joseph Jardine today after attacking and beating him Saturday night when he stopped their truck. This ended a two-day search by police from Scarboro and York County, all near Toronto. Police said the youths surrendered after one of them was located in his home today.

Chief Jardine said he stopped the youths after seeing them weaving down the road in their truck. He tried to take a half-empty beer case from them and they attacked him. Shortly after he stopped them he said a gang of 20 zoot-suiters from Toronto joined the fight against him.

"The driver seemed to go berserk," he said. "He threatened to tramp me into the ground."

Witnesses said the Chief was grabbed by the men, slammed against the truck and mauled before aid could be summoned from town.

When a posse of 10 Queensville residents arrived to rescue the Chief they were warned by the youths standing around to "keep out of it or we will bring a gang from Toronto that'll fix your hash."

Chief Jardine said none of the men had drivers' or owners' licences for the truck.

On Guard Against Disease In Flood-Stricken Valley

PETERSBURG, W.Va., June 20—(AP)—Health authorities today moved into the flood stricken Shenandoah and Potomac River valleys to avert any possible threat of typhoid from polluted water. The danger of disease was the aftermath of flash floods that struck in Petersburg and Moorefield, W. Va., and Bridgewater, Va., during the week-end, killing at least nine persons.

Still unaccounted for were about a dozen others in the area. Officials directing the operations said, however, that they might still be alive but unable to communicate with rescuers.

Officials said damage from the flood may run into several millions. They added that only about 15 persons are actually homeless, but that some 300 are depending on the Red Cross food kitchen for meals.

Drinking water in Petersburg and other communities hit by the floods has been polluted, and health officials are starting a program of inoculations.

Officials said no disease has occurred as the result of the flood yet and that the chances are good that none will. But they have 1,400 units of vaccine ready and expect more to be shipped in.

Saves Child's Life

DRESDEN, June 20 (CP) — Alvin (Buck) Wicks, 19-year-old grocery clerk, Saturday rescued four-year-old Ronnie Johnson from drowning in a well. The child had fallen through the crumbling concrete cover of the well. Wicks heard the child's screams and dropped through the 18-inch opening to the water 14 feet below. He grasped the boy and climbed back up the rough sides of the well unaided.

Tennis Player Feared Drowned

MONTREAL, June 20 (CP)—The mystery of a pile of clothing on a wharf and a sheet of paper bearing the scribbled name "Marcel Rainville" continued to baffle police today as they tried to determine whether the one-time Canadian tennis ace was a drowning victim.

Discovery of the clothing and the paper Friday night coincided with a report from a ship that a body had been sighted floating in Montreal harbor.

Efforts to find the body, however, were unavailing and attempts to get in touch with the little former Davis Cupper, who has been living in various Montreal hotels recently, were fruitless.

Members of his family and friends said they last saw him Thursday night when he went to play tennis.

"We have nothing much to work on, beyond knowing that an unidentified man drowned," an official of the Missing Persons Bureau said.

"The victim cannot be identified until his body has been recovered, and so far it has not. As to whether he is Marcel Rainville, the tennis player, there may be more than one person by that name in the Montreal district."

Known as Pee-wee Rainville, the tennis player was top man of the Canadian Davis Cup team during 1932-36 and once put the British Davis Cupper Fred Perry to the limit before he was edged out. Rainville practised law in Montreal.

Britain, US Try To Settle Row Over Argentine Pact

WASHINGTON, June 20—(AP) British and United States officials apparently are searching for a face-saving compromise in their row over a proposed British-Argentine trade agreement.

While the issue is the most serious which has thus far entered the United States relations with any country under the European Recovery Program, officials discounted speculation that the United States might actually cut off some Marshall plan aid to Britain.

Rather it appeared from information available here that a compromise is shaping up along these lines:

1. Britain and Argentina will not sign the treaty until after the state department and ECA have had a chance to study and comment on it.

2. Britain intends to go through with the five-year agreement but concedes that such two-country deals are contrary to the principles of free international trade and should be avoided whenever possible.

3. While Britain will make a firm agreement to buy specified quantities of meat from Argentina for five years. Argentina will decide each year what she wants from Britain. Thus, Argentina's purchase contracts will be renegotiated every year so that almost any time an American seller theoretically could enter the market.

This latter point is perhaps the most important now under study here. British embassy officials stressed it to the state department last week with the argument that Britain is not trying to sew up Argentine trade or exclude American goods from Argentine markets. That has been one of the American objections to the treaty.

On another British point there seems to be substantial United States agreement already— that is that a trade deal between Britain and Argentina was natural, since each has goods the other wants and neither has the dollars to supply its needs in the United States.

Drys Win Out In Owen Sound

OWEN SOUND, June 20 (CP) —Residents in this Grey County city Saturday voted heavily to retain the 43-year ban on sale of beer, wine and liquor.

A 60-per-cent margin was required to authorize the legal sale of alcoholic beverages.

The highest favorable vote in the five questions was for the brewers' warehouse, which had a 49 per cent "yes." Liquor stores were close behind, while the three others, dining lounges, women's beverage rooms, and men's beverage rooms, trailed in that order.

Of the 16,500 residents voting in 33 polls, many voted "wet" in the north-east section of the city. But only one poll gave a 60 per cent majority of the five forms. Another poll gave a 50 per cent "yes."

N.S. Liberals Pick Up One Seat In Recount

HALIFAX, June 20 (CP) — A recount in the provincial riding of Hants West Saturday gave Premier Angus L. Macdonald's Liberal administration another seat today. Elected following a recount in which Returning Officer Charles E. Fleming had to cast the deciding ballot was George B. Cole, Liberal, with a one-vote majority over over George H. Wilson, Progressive Conservative.

The recount gave Cole 2,529 and Wilson the same number as when tallied after the polls closed June 9, but the returning officer's ballot, called upon to break the tie, gave the seat to Cole.

This changed the standing in the 37-seat legislature to 28 Liberals, 7 Progressive Conservatives and 2 CCF.

Expected To Ease Cold War

Communique Will Be Issued Late Today

PARIS, June 20 Reuters) —The big four Foreign Ministers tonight announced that they have reached an agreement on the Austrian peace treaty. They also said they had reached a "live and let live" arrangement for the occupying powers in Germany.

The Ministers instructed their deputies to resume work immediately to reach agreement on completing the Austrian treaty by Sept. 1, 1949.

Austria's frontiers would be the same as those of Jan. 1, 1938. Austria would pay no reparations but the Soviet Union would receive from her $150,000,000 in convertible currency, to be paid in six years.

The agreement on Germany was that further four-power consultations would be held in New York in September to consider the next big four meeting on Germany, and that the New York agreement on lifting the Berlin blockade and the counter-blackade would be maintained. There would be continued four-power consultations in Berlin, and steps to improve east-west trade.

A communique for publication at 8 p.m. was released to reporters. The eight-page document, explaining the details of what was done, outlined draft articles for an independence treaty for Austria and contained a working agreement between the east and west in Berlin.

The four Ministers—Ernest Bevin, Dean Acheson, Andrei Y. Vishinsky and Robert Schuman—went into the bar of the Pink Marble Palace for a sandwich and a glass of champagne as their discussions came to an end. Reporters and photographers were allowed into the palace, scene of the conference, on the last day.

Authoritative sources said the agreement was reached Sunday on a "live-and-let-live" pact on the former German capital and also on instructions to the Ministers' deputies to write an independence treaty for Austria.

The agreement on Berlin and on resumption of East-West trade in Germany is expected to ease international tension.

It is understood that in return for the West's re-opening of trade with the East, Russia will issue a statement guaranteeing the West free access to Berlin, preventing another blockade of the city.

Big-Four experts reached a speedy agreement on a communique to be released later to-day announcing terms of the accord between the East and West.

An American spokesman said the agreement is complete "except for a couple of drafting points on Germany and Austria." He added "there is no disagreement on the principle" of the communique.

The Ministers will hold a secret afternoon meeting and then issue the communique at a later open session.

Informed sources said the agreement was a statement of principles which would not solve the basic problems between Russia and the Western powers, but which might ease international tension and relieve fears of a clash which might lead to war.

Cougar Kills Indian Boy, 7

VANCOUVER, June 20—(CP) —A seven-year-old Indian boy, mauled Sunday by a vicious cougar, died Sunday night at the small Indian fishing village of Kyuquot, B.C., 217 miles northwest of here on the west coast of Vancouver Island.

Today a hunt will start for the beast which slashed to shreds the face of the victim, son of fisherman Dominic Taylor.

Scanty reports received from Kyuquot said the lad was mauled before witnesses helpless to save him.

A mercy plane carrying a doctor and supplies of blood plasma left for the scene when the first report of the incident was received. However, it was grounded by bad weather.

Sunday night, a message from Kyuquot, relayed by an air taxi service, said "Cancel the plane. It's too late."

Naval Airman Escapes Death In Plane Crash

OTTAWA, June 20 — (CP) — Lieut. Jack Runiman, 25, of Montreal and Dartmouth, N.S., was unhurt today when his navy sea fury aircraft crashed during an emergency landing at St. Eugene, Ont., about 63 miles east of here.

The plane was one of a flight of 17 sea furies which took off from the navy air station at Dartmouth, N.S., today at 6:40 a.m. EDT. The remainder of the flight landed at nearby Rockcliffe about 8:30 a.m.

Lieut. Runciman's plane, however, developed engine trouble in the latter stages of the flight and he broke off from the formation to land at the emergency field at St. Eugene, where the R.C.A.F. had an elementary flying training school during the war.

Quite Different

BIRMINGHAM, England, June 20—(Reuters) — The place and the time a man chooses to slap his wife makes all the difference, a divorce court judge has ruled.

If a husband slapped his wife's face at a reception, I would regard it as a very cruel act," the judge said. But, he said, were there a row on the street on a Saturday night and a man slapped his wife it would be ridiculous if she wanted a divorce for that.

He refused divorce decrees to a truck driver and his wife. "I don't think that in their station of life such a thing is at all uncommon," the judge commented.

City Man Aids In Supplying Arctic Outposts

OTTAWA, June 20 (CP)—The "Spring break-up" in the arctic, with its fields of drifting ice and snow, is causing an acute supply problem, army headquarters reported today.

For several weeks RCAF Dakota aircraft have been dropping supplies and mail by parachute to such outposts as Kittigazuit at the mouth of the Mackenzie river, about 1,000 miles northwest of Edmonton and Cambridge Bay, about 1,200 miles north.

RCAF air crews, working side by side with supply-dropping crews of the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, last week completed one Edmonton-Kittigazuit flight when 3,000 pounds of supplies were dropped.

During the cold winter months, heavy Dakota aircraft find little difficulty landing on the packed ice fields, but when spring reaches north about June, these fields become treacherous. The breakups are expected to be completed by the end of the month when Canso flying boats will be on the runs and the normal supply routine resumed.

Capt. J. G. Davis of Ottawa and a crew of 10 RCASC privates are doing the air-lift job for the army. The crew includes: Ptes, H. C. Beach, Stouffville, Ont.; J. R. Trottier, Moonbeam, Ont.; H. J. Watson, Pefferlaw, Ont.; K. A. Wimbush, Stratford; R. J. B. Foster, Sutton Wes, Ont.; and J. A. Rae, Peterborough.

Ed. McDonald Freed Forged Money Count

WHITBY, June 20—(CP)—Edwin McDonald and his wife, Mary, today were acquitted by Judge D. B. Coleman on joint charges of possessing forged United States currency.

McDonald, brother of Donald (Mickey) McDonald, convict who escaped from Kingston penitentiary August, 1947, was charged with his wife last Feb. 7, after PCMP officers found a parcel containing $18,000 in counterfeit U.S. bills in an Oshawa house.

Enraged Sudbury Man Kills Three, Wounds Five Before Shooting Himself

Holds Off 75 Policemen, Volunteers For Two Hours; Believe Battle Followed Quarrel With Wife

SUDBURY, June 20—(CP)—An enraged factory worker shot three men to death, wounded five others and then killed himself Saturday night in a twilight massacre which stunned this northern Ontario mining city. The deadly marksman was 46-year-old Clarence Brosseau, who barricaded himself in his neat, frame home in Sudbury's western suburbs and held off an armed posse of 75 policemen and volunteers for more than two hours before ending his life by putting a bullet through his abdomen and another through his head. His victims were two police constables and a bystander.

The reason for the eventide battle—it began shortly before 8 p.m.—was obscure, but neighbors said Brosseau had been quarreling with his wife, apparently over his drinking.

Mrs. Brosseau and their two young children sought refuge in a neighboring apartment before the shooting started and escaped harm.

Firing through his windows with dead-shot accuracy Brosseau killed and wounded these persons:

Dead:

Constable Ed Terrell, 29, married and the father of one child.

Constable Gerry Dault, 32, married and the father of two.

James Germa, about 50, felled when he moved into Brosseau's line of fire. Germa formerly lived in Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.

Wounded:

Police Sergeant Lloyd Hanwell, shot in the right arm.

W. J. Pellerin, a by-stander, shot in the left foot.

David McKenny, Sudbury ambulance attendant, shot in the right wrist, forearm and abdomen as he tried to move one of the slain constables from the bullet-spattered street.

Ontario (Red) Venturi, Sudbury, grazed by a bullet on the left shoulder.

Carlyle Germa, 21, Copper Cliff, grazed on the head by the bullet which killed Constable Dault. He is a nephew of James Germa.

Burned By Tear Gas

Police Chief Jack McLaren suffered severe burns to the eyes and chest and was temporarily blinded when a bottle of tear gas exploded in his face. He had thrown it but it failed to clear a window and fell back on him.

Brosseau, described by relatives as a quiet, pleasant man who had been subject to intermittent fits of rage since an illness two years ago, was a keen hunter and police said his accuracy during the blistering gun fight was "uncanny."

Moving from room to room and from window to window in the two-storey home on west-end Lorne Street, he peppered the

Blaze Causes $50,000 Loss In Owen Sound

OWEN SOUND, June 20—(CP) — A fire of unknown origin swept through the plant of the Southampton Furniture Company early today causing damage estimated at more than $50,000 and completely destroying the northern section of the plant. Southampton is on Lake Huron, 20 miles west of Owen Sound.

Believed to have started in a veneer storage section, the fire was raging when the Southampton fire department arrived five minutes after the alarm was turned in at 3 a.m.

Brigades called from Port Elgin and Owen Sound fought to confine the blaze to the fourth storey of the southern section of the plant which was protected by a firewall. Later the blaze broke through the roof and spread to this part of the plant. Sparks forced many residents to get out of bed and play hoses on their roofs. So far no one has been injured or overcome by the fire.

The northern section is occupied by the Southampton Furniture Company employing about 30 men. The southern section of the plant is used for furniture storage and an upholstery business operated by W. J. Lochead.

Try To Brave Ocean On Raft

VANCOUVER, June 20 (CP) — A daring attempt to coach civilization by a raft trip across 30 miles of Pacific Ocean was related Sunday night in a radio-telephone interview with three survivors of a fishing mishap.

Three Indian fishermen, Wilson Walla, Abel Dickson and Louis Watkus, were shipwrecked by a savage northwester gale off the northern tip of Vancouver Island.

The men set out to fish salmon, when they were blown on Triangle Island, about 30 miles off course. The Island lies 30 miles north of Vancouver Island's tip.

The survivors said they managed to get through the huge waves to shore with a bit of food and spent three days waiting to be rescued.

The sea had calmed by the third day and they improvised two rafts to try to get back to the mainland.

"We left Triangle six days after we had landed and were out of grub," they said.

They said they realized the fourth day out that they were heading out to sea. The next day the trawler Surf Point found them. They are not in serious condition.

Coal Strike Threat Causes Power Cut-off In Australia

SYDNEY, Australia, June 30—(CP)—Electric power for Sydney's industry will cease Tuesday, leaving 230,000 jobless by the end of the week.

Supply authorities Sunday night warned Joseph Cahill, state minister for works, that following the government Coal Board's order cutting supplies, they will be unable to supply power for industry.

The New South Wales cabinet ordered regulations banning the use of electricity by industry and drastically restricting its use in homes.

Gas companies warned that the last trickle of gas will cease this morning and after that little or no gas will be available for at least a week—and much longer if the miners start their threatened general strike June 27.

Lay-offs already have started. Steel mills at Newcastle have discharged nearly 6,000 men and unions believe another 6,000 will lose their jobs there this week.

Labor leaders' appeals to miners at the week-end had no effect and the miners' Communist and pro-Communist leaders were standing firm on the threat to call out all miners in Australia next Monday unless they are immediately granted long-service leave, a 35-hour week and a £2 (Australian)—weekly pay raise.

Charles Anderson, president of the New South Wales Trades and Labor Council said: "No one can deny that miners who work under intolerable conditions are entitled to substantial improvements. I believe their claims are reasonable. Unfortunately, however, miners who are in the main decent trade unionists, have allowed themselves to be manoeuvred into a false position by Communist leaders of the Miners Federation who now are preparing to sacrifice hundreds of thousands of trade unionists together with the Labor government.

"I ask the decent elements within the federation to prevent their organizations being smashed by a few working-class traitors who call themselves Communists."

Russia Will Resume Repatriation Of Japs

TOKYO, June 20 — (AP). — Russia said to-day she is ready to resume repatriation of Japanese prisoners of war. Gen. Douglas MacArthur of the United States, has been pressing the Soviet Union to speed up their return. The Russian intention was announced in a letter from the Soviet mission here to Allied headquarters.

Just a week ago, MacArthur, Allied Commander in Japan, accused Russia of failing to live up to repatriation agreements.

Allied headquarters and the Japanese government have accused Russia of holding 408,000 Japanese.

U.S. Miners Troop Back To Work

"Stabilization" Strike Ends; Negotiations Near Showdown Stage

PITTSBURGH, Penn., June 20 (AP)—John L. Lewis' 480,000 United Mine Workers today trooped back to the pits as the UMW's contract negotiations neared the showdown stage.

Just as UMW district leaders predicted, the week-long "stabilization" walkout ordered by Lewis ended on schedule. The few mines operating midnight shifts reported full-scale production under way. Little absenteeism was expected as 7 a.m. shifts began.

The UMW members can use the money they earn this week. Saturday they quit work again—this time for their 10-day paid vacation. But the loss of last week's wages offset to a considerable degree the $100 each of them will receive for their vacation.

The miners, too, aren't sure just when they'll return to work after the end of their vacations. That's because the current UMW contracts run out June 30.

If Lewis and the operators can't come to terms it's a foregone conclusion there will be a strike.

Last week's walkout didn't hurt the United States' economy. Despite the fact it was the second walkout of the year for the UMW—in March Lewis ordered a two-week shutdown—there's more coal above ground than ever before.

Benelux Powers In Full Accord

LUXEMBOURG CITY, June 20—(AP)—The five Brussels Treaty powers of Western Europe are in complete agreement on their combined role in future world affairs.

The foreign ministers of Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, and Luxembourg Saturday ended a speedy two-day conference on a note of full harmony.

When their consultative council session ended, Foreign Minister Robert Schuman of France told correspondents there had been no disagreements.

During their conference, the five diplomats discussed, among other things:

Financial aspects of a joint military program which later will be integrated with United States and Canadian programs under the North Atlantic Pact;

Germany's future, and the part the Brussels Treaty countries can play in shaping it.

Weekend Accidents Cause 21 Deaths In Ontario

By The Canadian Press

A berserk factory worker with "uncanny" accuracy Saturday night held off Sudbury police for nearly two hours in a gunfight during which he shot and killed three men and wounded five others before shooting himself to death. The four deaths were included in the 21 reported in Ontario to the Canadian Press as a heat-wave sent thousands scurrying to beaches and resorts the province over.

Nine persons lost their lives by drowning as water accidents took the largest toll.

Joyce Lodge and Jerry Thompson, both 14, of Malton, near Toronto, were killed at Malton when the bicycle they were riding was struck by an automobile.

Two Polish immigrants, Edward Zwirko, 28, and Kazimierez Ginko 37, both of Vanessa, suffered fatal injuries when the automobile in which they were riding collided with a truck at Waterford.

Pembroke, in the Ottawa valley reported three fatalities. Annie Kidd, 64, was fatally injured by a car. Mrs. Edward V. Burwell, 20, of Ottawa, was killed when an out of control truck hit a parked motorcycle which she and her husband were about to mount. Philip Doyle, 31, of Fort Coulonge, Que., died in hospital of injuries suffered in a fall from a power line pole.

Danny Vandendriessche, seven, of Glen Meyer, was drowned in four feet of water near Port Rowan.

Breaks Neck

Howard Hird, 15, a non-sswimmer, lost his life in the Grand River near Brantford. C. E. McDonald, 25, formerly of Sudbury, to escape the heat plunged into the Sydenham River at Alvinston, where the river is 18 inches deep, broke his neck and died.

George Clement, 27, of Wilberforce, was drowned while swimming in Dark Lake, Haliburton County. Another swimmer, Jimmy Bell, 14, of Lindsay, slipped off an inner-tube float and was drowned at the Tully's Landing swimming hole near Lindsay.

A swim in the Niagara River near Queenston, claimed the life of Paul Carroborg, 20-year-old farm worker.

Two brothers, John and Andy Trussa of Crow Point, Ind., were drowned 60 miles south-east of Kenora, when their canoe capsized in Beach Lake. A canoe upset near a Toronto breakwater took the life of Harry Warren, 18, formerly of Belle Isle, Nfld.

roadways and nearby buildings with a deadly fire for more than two hours. Police and volunteers, armed with borrowed neighborhood weapons, crouched behind every available cover and exchanged shots with Brosseau, but failed to hit him.

Suddenly, the firing petered out. Policemen edged cautiously through the doorways.

They found Brosseau sprawled in a thickening pool of blood on the kitchen floor. He was dead. There was a scarlet patch where a self-inflicted bullet had gone through his abdomen and his chin was torn where a second shot had gone through his head to emerge from the skull. Brosseau's weapon, a .303-calibre rifle, lay near his body.

This is the sequence of events which police said led up to the shootings:

Brosseau and his wife began quarreling, presumably at or after supper. Mrs. Brosseau called her brother, who lives nearby, and Brosseau bundled their two children, Clarence, 10, and Melbourne, six, into his car with a neighbor's youngster, 11-year-old Bobby Gauthier.

As his wife and his brother-in-law, Lorne Rollins, appeared on the front porch, Brosseau pulled a shotgun from the car. Rollins and Rosseau struggled, and the shotgun was fired, but no one was wounded. Rollins disarmed Brosseau and handed the shotgun to a by-stander.

Brosseau went into the house, where he had the .303 rifle and a store of ammunition. Rollins went to his home to call the police. A crowd, attracted by the shot, began to form.

A police cruiser arrived and Constables Terrell and Dault, their guns still holstered, were moving up the walk when Brosseau opened fire. Terrell pitched to the ground, dead, a bullet in his chest. Hanwell, Dault and Rochon dashed for cover. As Hanwell edged around the corner of the house to open fire, Brosseau snapped a shot through his gun arm.

Shot Through Head

Dault circled an electrical store adjoining the Brosseau house and sprinted up an intersecting street to warn by-standers. He was about 100 yards away at the rear of the house, when Brosseau felled him with a shot through the head. He died almost instantly.

Brosseau then fired at the corner of the store as Sgt. Hanwell was ordering passers-by to cover. Germa, too, was shot through the head and killed.

A Roman Catholic priest ventured into the open roadway and knelt beside Dault to administer the last rites of his church. Brosseau withheld his fire until the priest had completed the sacrament and retired.

An ambulance pulled up and McKenney and another attendant, Alf Dawson, went to remove Dault's body. Brosseau peppered them with four shots and McKenney was wounded.

Bengough Urges Plan Of CSU Be Considered

OTTAWA, June 20—(CP)—Percy R. Bengough, president of the Trades and Labor Congress, said Saturday that a four-point proposal made by the Canadian Seamen's Union to settle the East-Coast Deep-Sea shipping strike was worthy of consideration.

There is urgent need to reach an adjustment, Mr. Bengough added. The proposal was offered Friday by Harry Davis, CSU president, in a letter from Montreal to Prime Minister St. Laurent. A government spokesman said the letter had not yet been received. He declined to comment on what action the government might take.

Prime Minister Heard In 13 Addresses

By The Canadian Press

M. J. Coldwell, national leader of the CCF, wants health service made available to Canadians "just as school is to our children."

He set forth his ideas on a health program in a Federal election campaign speech Saturday night in Winnipeg. Continuing his campaigning in the west today, he has speeches scheduled for Regia and Indian Head, Sask.

"There is no such thing as 'free service,'" he said in Winnipeg. "It has to be paid for somehow."

He suggested that public ownership of banks and other financial institutions would help to meet the cost but the people should pay, just as they pay for their schools.

Mr. Coldwell will remain in the west for the campaign's final week. Except for a Friday night speech in Saskatoon, he plans to spend his time in his home riding of Rosetown-Biggar.

Prime Minister St. Laurent spoke 13 times Saturday during a 300-mile trip by train and automobile from Oshawa to Ottawa. He speaks tonight in Ottawa, tomorrow in Toronto and then moves eastward to Quebec and Newfoundland platforms.

In Quebec Today

George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, made a week-end campaign speech in Three Rivers, Que., and today is in Quebec City. Later this week, he will speak in Granby, Que., Sherbrooke, Que., and Montreal before returning to Ontario for speeches in Toronto, Belleville and Ottawa.

Mr. St. Laurent said at Brockville that he is in constant correspondence with President Truman about the St. Lawrence seaway and that Mr. Truman "is just as anxious as we are" to get it started. At Kingston he said:

"We (Liberals) differ from the Conservative party in that we conceive of Canada as one nation with 10 provinces and not as a group of 10 separate states each of which has the right of veto over joint decisions of all."

Mr. Drew said at Three Rivers that Trade Minister Howe should apologize in Quebec for saying that "our (Progressive Conservative) candidates in Quebec are the type that you put into concentration camps." Twenty-seven of the party's candidates are war veterans.

In his Three Rivers speech, and earlier at Joliette, Que., Mr. Drew pledged himself to uphold the constitutional rights of the provinces against any threat of federal infringement.

Textile Workers Get Five-Cent Wage Boost

HAMILTON, June 20. — First contract signed by the Textile Workers' Union of America (CCL) with the Glendale Spinning Mills of Hamilton, resulted in employees receiving a five-cent general increase in wages. This was announced by Jack Robinson, director of the greater Hamilton joint board of TWUA last night.

This increase, said Mr. Robinson, is in addition to a 10-cent general increase received by employees during the union organizational campaign last November. Union agreement includes 5 to 10 cent off-shift premium, eight paid statutory holidays, two weeks' vacation on the escalator plan, 100 per cent average earnings for down time, higher rates for job transfer, four-hours' reporting time allowance, and modified union shop.

Additional benefits covered by the contract are hospitalization and sick benefit plan, entirely paid for by the company, and a pension plan, cost of which is borne by the company and employees on a 50-50 basis.

Venturo and Carlyle Germa, both of whom were wounded, were by-standers. Their wounds are not serious.

During the long gun battle, Melbourne Rollins, another of Mrs. Brosseau's brothers, tried to enter the house, but was held back.

Mr. Carter had lived in Peterborough 46 years, having come here from Reading, Eng. He was employed with the Quaker Oats Company, retiring 15 years ago.

Mr. Carter was a successful home gardener, and his flowers and vegetables behind his residence at the top of Murray St. hill were a show place of that neighborhood. He was also interested in the Girls' Softball League which he had followed as a regular supporter for years.

The funeral will take place Wednesday at 3 p.m. from the family residence, 60 Murray St., to Little Lake Cemetery. Major Charles Watt of the Salvation Army will conduct the service.

Boy And Girl Cyclists Killed

MALTON, June 20—Two children from Malton housing settlement were victims in a double fatality early Sunday on the Sixth Concession Rd. Killed when the bicycle they were riding double was struck by a car were Joyce Lodge, 14, of Winston Hall, Malton, and Jerry Thomson, 14, of North Camp, Malton.

Provincial police said driver of the car was Frank Maniex, 34, of Dundas St. W., Toronto. Police said there were no lights on the bike. Maniex claimed he did not see the bicycle.

Joyce Lodge was only 200 yards from her home when killed. The force of the impact hurled the girl 18 feet into a ditch. The boy was thrown to the road. The girl died while being taken to St. Joseph's Hospital by ambulance. Thomson was killed instantly.

Movement of Prices Narrow at Toronto

TORONTO, June 20—(CP)—Price movements were very narrow and small in a very dull session here today. Golds showed slightly firmer tone on small gains and industrials opened firmer but sagged in later dealings. Base metals were about balanced.

Kerr Addison led the stronger senior golds at a gain of ¼ at 15. Juniors marked up advances of about five cents as action picked up slightly in mid-session.

Early fractional advances in industrials were practically wiped out in later dealings and the list was about balanced. A few key issues were ahead. Bell Telephone, Massey-Harris and McColl oil were among the gainers. Montreal Locomotive widened an early loss and B.C. pulp pfd. was down $5 to a new low at $145.

Waite Amulet, Sherritt Gordon and Pend Oreille gained pennies in a dull base metal list.

The Sacred Congregation of the Holy Office issued a decree which condemned the group as a schismatic one fraudulently labelled.

The decree, published in Osservatore Romano, the Vatican newspaper, declared:

"Recently the opponents of the Catholic church in Czechoslovakia founded a so-called Catholic action by which they tried to induce the Catholics of that republic to desert the Catholic church and to deny obedience to the legitimate pastors of the church."

IS THIS A CITY OF SOREHEADS?

DIT CLAPPER

Some people have told me that I am wrong to criticize Mr. Fraser because he has been nine years in the Opposition in Parliament. "That's democracy" they say. "There must be an Opposition."

Very true. But does Peterborough always have to add a man to it? For nine years Peterborough has done its duty to the Opposition. Now it is time to get a man on the Government side of the House of Commons.

A member of Parliament really represents his constituency; he is all that most people ever see of that constituency. And because we have supplied the Opposition with its chief asker of unnecessary questions for nine years, a lot of people think that Peterborough is a city of soreheads.

It isn't, of course. And if you will give me your vote on June 27, I'll go to Ottawa and prove it.

25,000 Police Keep Reds, De Gaullists Apart In Paris

PARIS, June 20—(AP)—An army of police, some equipped with rifles and tear gas, kept Communists and De Gaullists separated Saturday as the two bitter political enemies held rallies in the same district.

An estimated 25,000 police were deployed in military fashion to present a clash during ceremonies to render homage to the late Gen. Jacques Le Clerc. He led the French 2nd Armored Division into Paris for the liberation in 1944 and died in a plane crash in Algeria in December, 1947.

The occasion was the renaming of Avenue d'Orleans for Le Clerc. It was along this street that his division marched to help clear the French capital of Germans.

Crowded into an area of about one square mile Saturday was an armed camp, with companies of police and mobile guards on every corner. Cordons were formed along the main street.

In the face of this overwhelming show of police strength, only three minor incidents were reported. Two of them involved brief flurries of Gaulle's Rassemblement du Peuple fist-fighting among members of De Francais and police. The other was a brief scuffle between Communists and De Gaullists.

The ceremony fell on the ninth anniversary of Gen Charles de Gaulle's historic cry to the French people: "France has lost a battle; she has not lost the war."

The Communists charged de Gaulle's party was appropriating the ceremony for political reasons. They claimed since the street was being named for Le Clerc, the ceremony should have been held on the anniversary of LeClerc's entry into Paris. The upshot was that the Communists staged their own demonstration half a mile away.

CCF Speaker, O. R. Bragg Assails Sale of Margarine

At the CCF rally Saturday night in the committee rooms, O. R. Bragg, Bowmanville farmer, said that the Canadian farmer has no economic security, and that with present conditions the way they are, Canada is headed into a depression. The farmer, he stated, believes in an economy of plenty, and desires to grow all that he can grow, but that when he has to buy what he needs, he is forced to buy in an economy of scarcity.

Mr. Bragg said that if a capitalist government is elected at Ottawa, the floor on butter fat will be competing with margar be removed, and the farmer will be competing with margarine. Already, according to Mr. Bragg, the Canadian farmer has lost $70,000,000 worth of purchasing power with the coming of margarine. This means, said the speaker, that the farmer is less able to purchase the necessary things of life, and less able to contribute to the schools and churches. Commenting on the fact that margarine was on the market less than two weeks after the Privy Council permitted it sale, Mr. Bragg said, "I wonder if the Canada Packers is the Privy Council!"

Long Term Credits

Mr. Bragg pointed out that the Argentine had signed a five-year beef contract with Britain, and that Australia had obtained a 15-year contract with Britain for beef and mutton, and yet Canada's bacon contracts have been steadily decreasing since 1946. He said that the CCF would arrange trade so that "Britain must have long-term agreements in food with speculation removed."

The speaker told that the farmer in 1947 got only 3¾c from a 25c tin of tomatoes, and in 1949 is getting only 2½c from a can of standard pack peas that cost the consumer from 16 to 18c.

Mr. Bragg based his belief that the country is heading for a depression on the fact that good prices have prevailed for some time and that unemployment is increasing, here as in the United States.

Mr. Bragg, declaring that the CCF has a fighting chance, in the election, said that the Canadian people have failed to take their politics seriously, and that the CCF was attempting to arouse their interest.

The second speaker was Benjamin Swartz, Peterborough businessman. He ridiculed the propaganda that has been spread that the CCF would take over the small businesses. He said that the proof is that in England, and comparative countries, the small businessman has gained in social security.

Return Rent Controls

Mr Swartz said that the biggest danger the small businessman has to face is the forces of big business and cartels, which are swallowing him up. He urged the return of rent controls, with the statement that since controls were taken off, commercial rents have soared 300 to 400 per cent. "The small businessman has everything to gain, and nothing to lose, if the CCF Party comes to power. The CCF believes in the survival of the small businessman."

During a question period following the addresses, the success of farmers' co-operatives, farmers' attitude towards organized labor, the high cost of living, and the pressure exerted by chain stores on small business were discussed.

Mr. Bragg was introduced by Irvin Yeo, and Mr. Swartz by the chairman, Walter Dinesen. Mr. Dinesen also thanked the speakers. The third scheduled speaker, Mr. Jack Morton, was unable to attend.

CCF Express Disappointment Over B.C. Result

OTTAWA, June 20.—(CP). — It's the now-or-never week for the 851 Canadians who want to be members of Canada's 21st Parliament.

This is the last chance they'll have to plug any gaps in their political fences and make sure their organizations are in good working order for the all-important federal vote June 27.

The four political leaders will be spending the time where they think it will do the most good. Prime Minister St. Laurent and George Drew, the Progressive-Conservative leader, will concentrate on the 156 Commons seats in Ontario and Quebec. Mr. St. Laurent will also campaign in Newfoundland for the first time since it joined Confederation.

M. J. Coldwell of the CCF and Solon Low of the Social Credit party wind up their campaigns in the provinces where their parties form provincial governments —Saskatchewan for the CCF leader and Alberta for Mr. Low.

Behind them are nearly two months of arduous political campaigning and a session of Parliament that proved to be a curtain-raiser to the actual campaign.

Also behind them are provincial elections in Newfoundland, Nova Scotia and British Columbia—widely-heralded as possible indications of the federal result. But what those provincial elections mean depends largely on what party you support—there's a different interpretation for every party.

Counted On Gain

But CCF leaders frankly said they were disappointed at the results of the B.C. vote where the party's membership in the Legislature dropped from 11 to six seats. On the basis of a string of federal by-election victories in British Columbia, the CCF counted on gaining seats there. It had seven members from B.C. in the last House. The Liberals and Progressive-Conservatives had four each.

The CCF set-back in the provincial election, however, does not necessarily mean a set-back in the federal election where the Liberals and Progressive-Conservatives are opposing each other. They formed a coalition in the provincial election.

Sometime this week, Trade Minister Howe is expected to give a detailed answer to the charges of Mr. Drew that the $22,000,000 Government-built Canadair aircraft plant in Montreal had been sold to an American firm that belonged to a "sinister" international arms ring.

Mr. Drew first made the charges two weeks ago in Mr. Howe's own constituency—Port Arthur—and the minister said he would wait until his return to the lakehead before giving a detailed answer. He's due back at Port Arthur early this week after campaigning last week in the West.

Mr. St. Laurent stepped off the car and walked among the throng on the platform, shaking hands and chatting.

After for them to take two five-pound cheese home with them. After the luncheon, which was attended by about 30 people from Cobourg and district, the visitors were taken on a trip to Rice Lake, after which they proceeded on to Smiths Falls.

Devaluing Dollar Will Hinder Foreign Trade, MacDonald Claims

COBOURG, June 20.—(ENS).—A crowd of over 1,200 people gathered in Victoria Park here on Saturday night for a Liberal meeting which was addressed by the Hon. Angus MacDonald, premier of Nova Scotia. Chairman was Harry Fisher and other speakers were the candidate for Northumberland, Dr. Fred Robertson, and Johnny James, candidate for Durham.

On the platform were Len Gordon of Colborne, president of the County Liberal Association; Mrs. Lena Fisher, Mrs. Fred Robertson, Miss Julia Bulger, W. A. Fraser and Harry Fisher.

"The tactics employed by the Conservatives in Nova Scotia during the election there are not unlike those in the present federal campaign, in that in every instance they attempt to discredit the Government for doing the things which the Conservatives said could not be done," the premier of Nova Scotia declared.

"I can mention specifically the road building, educational program and social security benefits accomplished by the Liberals in Nova Scotia. The Conservatives have never done one fine thing for the common people of Nova Scotia or the rest of Canada. Every statute in aid of the common people was placed on the books by a Liberal Government. They who have never tried and who claim it could not be done are berating the Liberals who have done these 'impossible' things. The best way to judge a business man, an industry or a government is to inspect closely their records. Newfoundland had to do just that before electing a Liberal Government for the first time. Having just been admitted as Canada's tenth province, Newfoundland was not accustomed to Canada's political views. Traditions of party preference had not been established. The new Canadians had to review the records of both major parties and vote as they judged best. They were overwhelming in their choice of a Liberal program. The rest of Canada may well take a tip from these Newfoundlanders and review before election day the records of the parties seeking support. The traditional plea of the Tory party is for high tariffs. They objected to the British preference and to reciprocity with the all-too-well-remembered depression as the result. They attempt to use the tariff wall to blast their way into the world market," Mr. MacDonald said.

As Canada produces much more than it can consumer by itself, she must export in order to be prosperous, he continued. The Liberals believe in freer trade and low tariffs. The Tories now say that they will go against tradition and they advocate free trade, too.

"The record shows that the Liberals are the ones most likely to gain and hold the world markets. The Liberal party has pursued this policy for the past seventy years, while the Tories have opposed it. Today, thanks to this policy, Canada is surpassed in trade only by Great Britain and the United States, but on the per capita basis she does twice the trade of these two great countries. While much of this success is due to the workers of Canada and to world demand, it is also in no small measure due to the policies of the Liberal Government.

Two-Way Business

"No nation is sufficient unto itself," he continued. "It is a two-way business—one must be able to buy and the other to supply. England was the biggest customer for Canadian apples, but she could not buy them because she doesn't have the dollars to pay for them. We must buy more from England so that she will have the dollars to buy from us."

The Conservative policy of devaluating the Canadian dollar will hinder rather than assist foreign trade, Mr. MacDonald asserted. If the Canadian dollar was worth only 90 cents, it follows that foreign customers will be paying less for Canadian products and workers' wages will suffer. Liberal trade policies have created high employment in Canada and employment was never so high as today. Because of this unprecedented prosperity the Liberals had been able to introduce its many fine social measures and had steadily reduced taxation.

"Canada today is one of the world's most favored nations. Why change from the Liberal Government which has done so much to make it so?" he said in conclusion.

Dr. Fred Robertson, the candidate, referring to a rumor that the local car ferries were going to be taken off the Cobourg to Rochester route, said that it was a rumor that was without foundation, and apparently originated in an attempt to discredit the Liberal Government. Both Percy Scott, general manager of the car ferry company, and the Hon. Lionel Chevrier, minister of transport, said the rumor was incorrect, he declared.

MONTREAL, June 20 (CP) — Police said Sunday they are investigating the discovery of a pile of clothing and a sheet of paper bearing the pencilled name "Marcel Rainville" on Victoria pier Friday night. The discovery was followed by the report of an apparent drowning in the St. Lawrence river. Detectives said they are trying to determine whether the clothing belonged to Marcel Rainville, Montreal lawyer and member of Canadian Davis Cup teams from 1932 to 1936.

The Last Week

The ranks of candidates have been formed, and today they close in on the final week of the Federal election campaign. In all 851 candidates are contesting the 262 seats, which makes an average of three and a quarter candidates in every constituency. This is about a hundred fewer than entered the lists in 1945, when there were 17 fewer seats.

• • •

Each of the three major parties has brought forward candidates potentially sufficient to provide the required majority of 132 seats to control the next Parliament. Liberals have been nominated in all but two of the 262 ridings; Progressive-Conservatives in all but 13. The C.C.F. have 180 candidates and are making their strongest bid west of the Great Lakes. A fourth party has emerged numerically strong in its candidature, for the Social Credit Party has 82 adherents entered; 27 in the West (chiefly Alberta) who bear the official label, and 55 Union of Electors candidates in Quebec with an overflow into French-speaking parts of Ontario and New Brunswick. Judging from the performance of the one Union of Electors member in the last Parliament, this party is Social Credit, at least in its monetary principles.

• • •

Quebec has the largest assortment of splinter groups. There are 40 contestants in that Province, including Mayor Houde of Montreal, who are professedly "independent", or flying variegated flags. There is one "republican" and one running under the label of "social justice". The Communists, through the Labor-Progressive Party, have modestly put up only 19 candidates; the party's leader, Tim Buck, is contesting the Toronto riding of Trinity.

• • •

So this day week the electors of Canada go to the polls to choose from among 851 candidates. In this area, all the contests are three-cornered, excepting in Northumberland. The candidates are: Peterborough West—G. K. Fraser, P.C., A. V. Clapper, Liberal, J. H. Miles, C.C.F.; Hastings-Peterborough: G. S. White, P.C., J. W. Munro, Liberal, J. Haffey, C.C.F.; Durham: C. E. Stephenson, P.C.; J. M. James, Liberal, J. D. Kenny, C.C.F.; Northumberland: R. E. Drops, P.C., Dr. Fred Robertson, Liberal, Victoria—C. W. Hodgson, P.C., Bruce McNevin, Liberal, G. Milling, C.C.F. In the foregoing list the member who represented the riding in the last Parliament is named first.

Rotary International Goes Prudish About Profits

Rotary International, at its convention in New York last week, made a notable concession to the school of thought which holds there is something inherently evil in profits. The organization had two slogans, one of which was "He profits most who serves best". That slogan has now been dropped. Rotary International feared someone might misconstrue the word "profits".

This prudishness about profits is rather difficult to understand in a group of men not usually considered disciples of Socialism. We had thought that majority opinion among Rotarians would be that to make an honest profit of any description is an honourable and commendable achievement. We were wrong, apparently. It seems obvious that Rotary International considers it highly improper to profit financially through serving best.

We know that the slogan did not refer to financial profits. We know that it meant spiritual or moral profits, and the magnificent work of service done by Rotary clubs everywhere is proof that Rotarians generally knew what the slogan meant. But what if it did refer to financial profits, as well as honest profits by giving the best service, excepting in the eyes of Socialists. And why should Rotary truckle to the Socialists?

We are heartily sick of Socialistic claptrap about the evil of profits. Enlightened operation of the profit system has built up standards of living, on this continent, as high as any in the world, and far higher than most. The profit system provides incentive and encourages initiative by rewarding industry and ingenuity—and by rewarding the best service. We admit freely that the Socialists have every right to form their own opinion about profits, but we also uphold our right to form our own opinion of Socialist theories. And we contend there is too great a tendency on the part of non-Socialists toward being mealy-mouthed when speaking of profits. We hope that trend is checked before someone attempts to have the word "profit" expunged from the Bible, for fear it may be misconstrued.

How Big Are Industrial Profits?

The C.C.F. are not the only people who make surveys to determine what profits are being made by corporations. Industry itself has very good reasons for doing so, and their surveys do not reveal the grandiose profiteering which some C.C.F.'ers are fond of alleging. The Canadian Manufacturers' Association has made a composite study of industrial profits, correlating figures from 800 firms employing 400,000 people and with total annual sales of more than $3,500,000,000. It was a pretty comprehensive survey and we think its results are as likely to be as fair a representation of the profit situation in Canada as any analysis which the C.C.F. makes.

[illegible]h Crombie, gave the Canadian Manufacturers' Association meeting in New Brunswick a digest of this [illegible] the manufacturers how each sales dollar is distributed.

"In the first place, the manufacturer pays out more than forty cents to his suppliers for his materials. Then he pays out about 24½ cents to his employes in wages, salaries and employee benefits. Next he must pay the Dominion and provincial tax collectors about 14½ cents to cover excise, sales and income taxes.

"With 21 cents left, nearly eleven cents are required to cover other expenses, including shop and office supplies, office administration and selling expenses, municipal taxes, maintenance and repairs, charitable donations and interest on bonds and loans.

"Out of the ten cents left the manufacturer sets aside more than three cents for depreciation to cover the cost of replacement.... This leaves 6.2 cents which is our net profit."

Even these 6.2 cents do not go out in dividends; 3.2 cents of it must be withheld to cover expansion, losses, bad debts and contingencies. Thus the dividend to the shareholder is three cents.

As the Montreal Star remarks in its comment on industrial profits, a dollar earned is not a dollar made. Mr. Crombie's figures show that people who blather about huge corporation profits must often be talking without relation to the facts.

Be Canadian

American tourists are again upon us, and welcome they are as fine summer days. We wish now to put in our annual word about us, the hosts, greeting them and treating them as if we were the Canadians we are. Let us act our best selves, and not mimic American manners, customs and prejudices. Let us do this not because American manners and methods are worse or better than ours, but because the American visitors come up here to see us as Canadians.

One of the lures of Canada for tourists is that they cross an international border, come into a country which is under a different flag than their own, and could have an interesting difference in ways of living. Let us therefore remember the border, practice the virtues and ways which make the inhabitants of this country north of the border different, fly our own flag, and in all good ways be simply, proudly, yet modestly Canadian. Americans do not come up to Canada to see their own Stars and Stripes waving from every hot-dog stand. In fact, they do not come here to see hot-dog stands. We should offer them the best we have in food, lodging, countryside and courtesy; and the best we have in us that is Canadian.

Of Cabbages And Kings

By PETER ELIOT

LEWIS CARROLL was a favourite "Uncle" to many little girls on the beach at Eastbourne where he spent his long vacations for 15 years. He used to play with them and tell them stories which held them spellbound for hours. It was here that he met his most devastating critic, a little girl who, when asked if she had ever read Alice's Adventures In Wonderland replied, "Yes, indeed, and I think it's the stupidest book I ever read."

THE publication of the Life Of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle by John Dickson Carr brings to mind the famous story of how he met his match in Paris.

Alighting from his car on arriving at his Paris hotel, he tipped the driver who replied, "Merci Monsieur Conan Doyle."

"How did you know me?" asked Sir Arthur curiously.

Demonstrating the native logical thinking, the cab driver replied, "There was a notice in the paper that you were arriving in Paris from the South of France. I knew from your general appearance that you were an Englishman. It is evident that your hair was last cut by a barber of the South of France. And by these indication I knew you."

Astounded by these extraordinary deductions which would have done credit to his own Sherlock Holmes, Doyle asked: "You had no other evidence to go upon?"'

"Nothing except," said the driver, "the fact that your name is on your luggage."

DAMON RUNYON, reporter, columnist, poet, short-story writer and beloved creator of Harry the Horse and many other never-to-be-forgotten characters, is fondly sketched by Ed Weiner in the Damon Runyon Story.

Weiner explains what made Runyon a great reporter. "One of Damon's assignments," he writes, "was to cover an international yacht race. The fact that he had only a meagre knowledge of yachts and was almost completely ignorant of the intricacies of boat racing didn't seem to concern the sports editor and certainly didn't bother Damon.

"The reporters followed the yachts in a cutter and, while the others watched, talked, smoked and recited jokes, Damon scribbled continuously in his notebook. When the race was over, Damon's story, bursting with descriptive details the other reporters could never hope to remember, was already fashioned in his notebook. The next day every reader, whether he was a yachting enthusiast or not, could understand and enjoy the spectacle of the race by reading Runyon's story.

❖ ❖ ❖

MANY of his friends were sure that he was a hyprochondriac. The doctor who told him he must have his appendix removed thought so. Damon wanted the best medical attention but the blood drained from his face when he learned that he would have to spend $500 for it. According to the Broadway legend, Damon hurried back to his hotel room after his interview with the doctor, locking himself in his room.

Two hours later he had smoked a package of cigarettes and had thrown twelve pages of copy into the wastepaper basket. He started once more.

"What I always say is that Wilbur Willard is nothing but a very lucky guy, because what is it but luck that has him teetering along Forty-ninth Street one cold, snowy morning when Lillian is mee-owing around the sidewalk looking for her mama?"

And so begins one of the most amusing stories ever written about a cat. It was the first of the series which became known as Broadway fables and made their author famous and rich enough to have his appendix out a dozen times if necessary.

❖ ❖ ❖

SOME humorous anecdotes are related by Laura Benet in the excellent biography—Thackeray: Of The Great Heart And Humorous Pen—concerning the great Englishman's visit to New York.

For his first breakfast in an American hotel he ordered his usual two three-minute eggs, but he failed to recognize them among the other breakfast dishes.

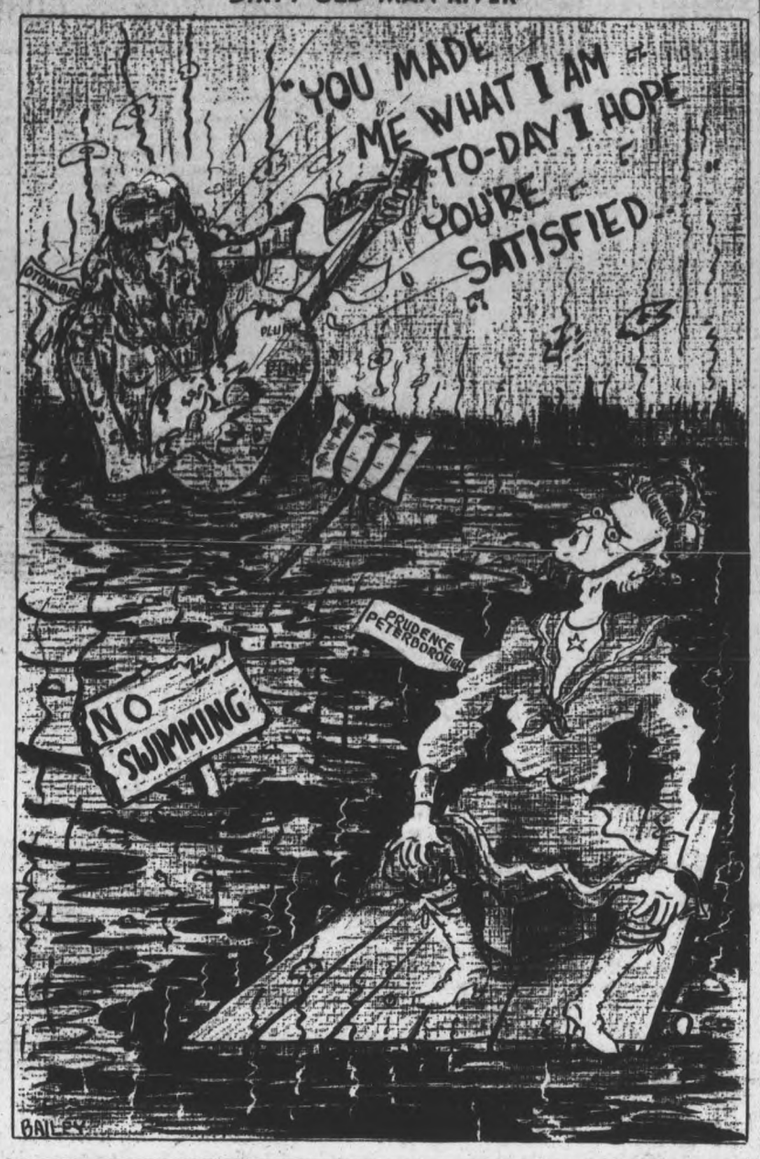
"That's them in the glass, sir," said the waiter, who had opened the eggs into a goblet.

"Well, yes—but where are the shells?" asked Thackeray, peering at them curiously.

"You didn't ask for shells, sir," rejoined his waiter dutifully.

She also tells the story of the rejoinder of a young "touch" from the Bowery district of New York. He met the boy sitting on a hydrant.

"Please, sir," said the novelist, "I want to go to Brooklyn." The other looked a him sardonically. "Well," said he, omitting the word sir, "why the h—l, don't you go?"



Caesarean In Technicolour

Most women who have to undergo a Caesarean operation would, we think, enjoy the maximum amount of privacy, and it is with that simple thought in mind that we call attention to the public spectacle involved in calling in large numbers of Philadelphia newspapermen to witness such an operation done in coloured television. A Caesarean in Technicolour! A Super-Colossal Smash Hit! A Stupendous Spectacle Everyone Must See! Bring (we presume) Your Children!

Now, we know that the operation was performed under such auspices in order to advance the cause of medical education. Students must learn their profession as well as they can. Films have been used for years and television is an adaptation or combination of various modern techniques. But we still find it, let us say, a bit odd that medical education had to be advanced thus in the presence of large numbers of our own craft. Education does not have to be turned into a stunt, and the authorities of the institution involved did not, it seems to us, engage in any higher purpose when they called in the press.

Television is, we presume, something we are going to get. In the form here described, you can have all of it.—Montreal Star.

DIRTY OLD MAN RIVER

Poor Jacques Cartier!

(BROCKVILLE RECORDER AND TIMES)

POOR old Jacques Cartier! Why cannot his bones be permitted to rest in peace in the crypt of the cathedral at St. Malo, where the Dominion Archivist, Dr. Lanctot, thinks he has found them instead of being borne to Canada for reburial? And certainly the proposal that, to meet French and Canadian sentiment, some of them should stay where they are whilst others cross the Atlantic to rest forever in the country where he landed in 1534 is utterly preposterous.

With every recognition of Dr. Lanctot's zeal in the prosecution of historical research, we fail to see any purpose of real value that would be served by disinterring the remains of Jacques Cartier and moving them to this country. St. Malo was his home. It was from that port that he sailed on the voyage of exploration that ended on the coast of Gaspe. It was also at St. Malo that Jacques Cartier died. In all probability Cartier would prefer to be buried there in one piece rather than to have his bones divided between the Old and the New Worlds. Why not let them stay where they are?

The re-burial of Cartier's skeleton, or any part of it, in Canada is not needed to remind Canadians of the services he rendered or the part he played in laying the earliest foundations to this country. He has a permanent place in the history of Canada and in the affections of Canadians which the presence here of his bones, or part of them, will not alter in any way.

Dawn Chorus In Surrey

(MANCHESTER GUARDIAN)

THE Whitsunside bird-watchers all over Britain participated in what has now become an annual event—the mass observation of the dawn chorus. Recently in the very early hours of the morning I set down some notes on the awakening birds in the neighbourhood of Box Hill. Sunrise was just after five o'clock, but two hours before that, at 3:20 when it was still dark, a common whitethroat uttered an unexpected burst of song.

At the same moment we heard the distant sound of cocks crowing. At 3:40 a partridge called, followed five minutes later by a woodpigeon cooing. It was not until four o'clock that blackbird sang, and twenty minutes later three or four robins joined in.

By this time a cold, grey mist had descended and it was more like November than May, which was depressing considering we had walked all night to see the sun rise. At 4:40 a wren's song, sounding incredibly loud, rang out and a few minutes later one of the commonest songsters, the chaffinches, joined the chorus. Garden warblers, willow warblers, and wood warblers were not heard till about the moment of sunrise.

As on previous exped[illegible]ns of this kind, I noticed that the songs of the awakening birds seemed to come in waves, and what impressed me particularly was that for the first hour of the dawn chorus birds seemed to be singularly inactive except for their singing.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God .... In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not. (John 1: 1, 4, 5.)

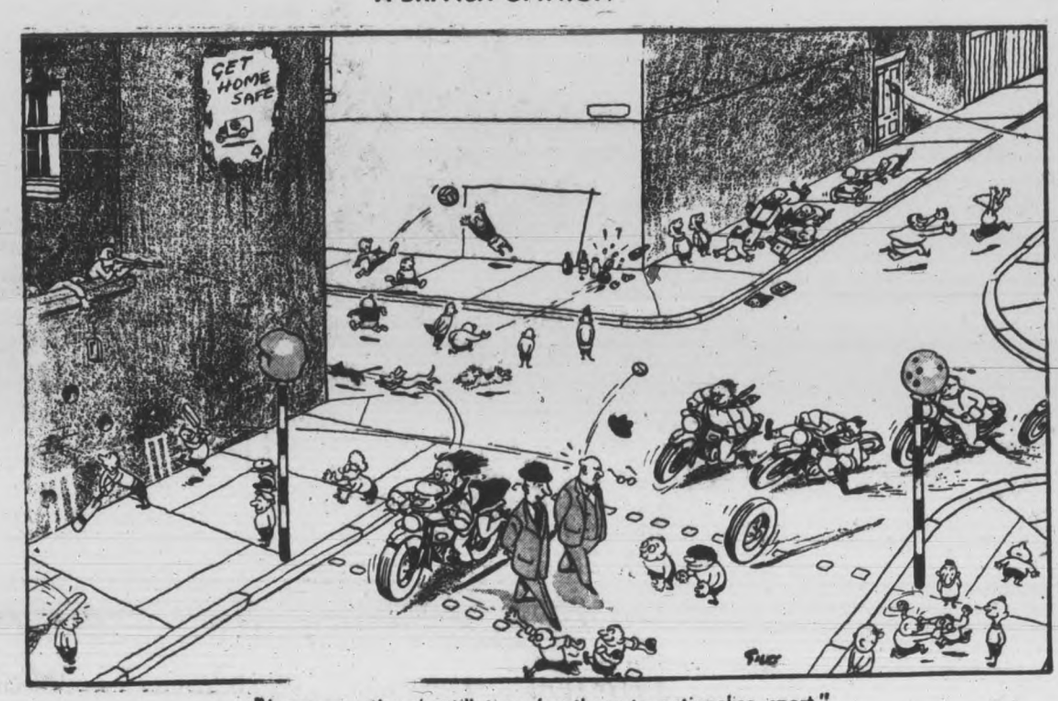
Search Dogs Needed

That the airplanes, prominent in today's headlines, has not displaced "man's best friend" on the search-and-rescue front is amply demonstrated by the success of trained dogs in finding many lost persons in recent years. The career of "Cliffe of the R.C.M.P.," a famous police dog which died recently in Edmonton, alone provided plenty of evidence.

The plane, obviously, is indispensable for area coverage but the trained dog is equally valuable for search through deep brush and other terrain that would hide the lost persons from aerial view. The continuing, even increasing, need for the trained dog is emphasized by the failure of ground searchers, so far, to find a Quebec child, a Vancouver fisherman and two Alberta women currently lost in brush land.

The experience of searchers for one Alberta woman demonstrates clearly that it is a trained dog that is needed. A pet collie dog, with the woman when she was last seen, returned home half-starved. It was restored to good health, but would not work as a tracker.



Provided enough trained dogs can be found or developed, two steps might be taken to make canine tracking services more readily available where they are often most needed—in the outlying settlement areas of the dominion. The first is to station more dogs in or near these areas, distributing them systematically across the dominion. The second is to arrange a more systematic coordination of aerial and canine search forces as they are available. The feasibility of steps along these lines should be studied by the appropriate authorities, if they have not already been considered.

Building A House In Two Hours

A mobile dwelling that can be built in two hours is helping to solve Britain's housing problems. In this short time six men can assemble a four-roomed home that is completely selfcontained. Known as the "Terrapin", this house is made of aluminum and contains a livingroom, two bedrooms, a kitchen and a bathroom. When production gathers full momentum, the cost of each house will be about $3,200. Its inventor, Major Boult, considers that it would prove particularly valuable in the Commonwealth countries and the USA for opening up undeveloped areas—U.K. Information Office.

Rail Workers Abandon Strike

LONDON, June 20—(CP)—Britain yesterday had normal Sunday train service for the first time in five weeks, as railway workers on the state - owned railways abandoned their week-end strikes.

North-south passenger lines, which had been disrupted by the stoppages, were jammed with travellers.

The railway executive, which operates the trains, met Sunday to prepare for the reopening of wage negotiations with the rail unions today.

The union rail men are asking an increase of 10 shillings ($2) a week.

In Southport, Lancashire, however, delegates representing 80,000 locomotive shop workers, members of the National Union of Railwaymen, approved a resolution calling for "go slow" tactics and refusal to work overtime if the 10-shilling increase is not granted by June 28.

London railway employees fixed on July 4 deadline when they passed a similar resolution last week.

A. E. Green, composer of the Southport resolution, said the executive's offers of increases of 6d., 1s and 2s for various categories of rail workers is "an insult to the intelligence of every British railway worker."

The book, entitled, "Rheumatism," fully explains why drugs and medicines give only temporary relief and fail to remove the causes of the trouble.

The Ball Clinic, Excelsior Springs, Missouri, has perfected a specialized system of treatment for rheumatism and arthritis, combined with the world famous mineral waters and baths. This system of treatment, which has proven successful for over thirty years, is fully described in a book that tells how it may be possible for you to find freedom from rheumatism.

You incur no obligation in sending for this instructive book. It may be the means of saving you years of untold misery. For writing promptly, the Clinic will send their newly enlarged book entitled, "Rheumatism". Believes Murder Stories Can Help Stop Slayings

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

NEW YORK, June 20—(AP)—Murder stories should help prevent murders by telling what goes on in the killer's mind, a prominent psychiatrist suggests. Nearly everyone likes to read a good murder story," because they suddenly can learn how other people live," says Dr. Fredric Wertham in a new book, " The Show of Violence." Dr. Wertham, head of two psychiatric and mental health clinics, has long made a study of murder. He has been a witness in many famous murder trials.

His suggestion is that the stories also tell what psychiatrists find in examining murderers. Such tests often are made to determine if a killer is sane or insane. A good psychiatrist learns why the murderer acted as he did and what ideas and emotions made him do it.

Dr. Wertham claims "people are born non-violent, and like to be non violent." To murder, they have to make up reasons to justify killing. The reasons may come from their own thinking and the social ideas and conditions surrounding them.

Making the psychiatric reports public would help society understand why murders happen: The facts would often point to social conditions and ideas that should be changed. he says.

Murder is far too common, he adds, citing some "mathematics of murder.'

"A murder is committed every 45 minutes in this country. There are times and places where murder outranks tuberculosis as a cause of death.

"In the United States, 60 per cent of the murderers get away with it. Every two hours a murderer commits a perfect crime."

Dr. Wertham says this shows that "society doesn't have enough sense of guilty" about murders, and thus is partly to blame for the high murder rates.

"There are underlying psychological and social facts behind each act of murder," and these should be publicized.

REMEMBER

what happened the LAST time the Tories gave you "A CHANGE"

It meant "SHORT CHANGE" for everyone

Instead of expanded foreign trade, as promised, exports fell off by over $500 million a year.

Instead of jobs and good wages, as promised, workers got unemployment and starvation dole.

Instead of fair prices and good markets, as promised, farmers dumped crops or sold them at a loss.

Instead of prosperous times, as promised, small businessmen were forced to the wall by cut-throat competition.

Instead of lower taxes, as promised, business was burdened with the payment of staggering relief bills.

Instead of education and opportunity, as promised, young men "rode the rods" or worked in relief camps.

Instead of adequate labour laws, as promised, labour got sweatshops, speed-ups and denial of the right to organize.

Instead of security in later life, as promised, many elder citizens lost their jobs, their homes and their independence.

Instead of enjoying a fair chance for healthy growth, a generation of children knew only malnutrition, privation and want.

DON'T CHANGE BACK TO THESE CONDITIONS!

If you have forgotten the last depression, tie a string around your finger to remind yourself on voting day that hard times was the "change" the Conservatives gave you in 1930, the last time they took over from the Liberals.

Maybe the Tories didn't cause the depression, but they certainly made it worse and worse by their "do-nothing" policies. The vast resources of Canada lay idle, while hundreds of thousands begged for work in vain. Courageous leadership, like Roosevelt gave in the U.S.A., would have beaten the depression. But the Tories were pledged to protect wealth and vested interests . . . even at the cost of human welfare.

THEN came the change — in 1935 The past 14 years of Liberal government has seen the most prosperous times in Canada's history. Family Allowances . . . Unemployment Insurance . . . cyclical budgeting . . . increased exports . . . farm price stabilization . . . high purchasing power for labour . . . dozens of wise Liberal measures have helped keep Canada going constantly forward.

Now the Tories say "14 years is too long — it's time for a change".

Do you think 14 years of good government and good times is too long? Do you want the Tories to "march" you back to conditions of the early 30's?

If not . . . if you want to keep going forward to even greater prosperity in the future — vote LIBERAL on June 27th.

Oshawa Takes Third Straight Over Petes 4-1

OSHAWA, June 20.—(CP). — Oshawa Merchants defeated Peterborough Marines 4-1 Saturday in a Central Ontario Baseball League. It was Oshawa's third win in as many games with Marines.

Bill Gingerich, the Oshawa hurler, allowed only four hits, two of them in the seventh when a double-play throw from the outfield prevented a run. One of the other hits came in the ninth when Fred Garvey's single and Jack Lowrey's double produces Marines' only run.

Three of Oshawa's runs came in the fifth. Dell was safe on an error by Stewart when Gingerich tripled. Bill Cook drew a walk and George Ticony came through with a hit that drove in Gingerich and Cook.

Rays Victorious

Raybestos clipped the Woollens 16-8 in a fastball fixture on the latter's grounds. The losers had fair flinging, but winners combed them for timely bingles, and Woollens' fielding was shaky. Nicholls pitched good ball and had fine backing.

Games in this circuit tomorrow: Quakers vs. Raybestos at the Quaker diamond, and Woollens vs. Westclox at Brinton field. On Thursday, Westclox meets Raybestos at Brinton field.

Parkdale Gets Victory Over P-W Club

By C. H. IRESON.

Parkdale "B" of the Toronto Cricket Council won 126-34 over the Peterborough-Whitaker Club at the Oval on Saturday. Ald. Burrows was on hand to welcome the visitors in the first council match here this season. Play was closer than the score indicates.

The winners batted first and had six wickets down for 34 but the tailenders gave the bowlers a bad time. T. Ratcliffe (31) and D. Mitchell (38) scored freely off all bowlers and the total reached 126. Mitchell's 38 included two sixes and five fours. In bowling, Booth had three wickets for 33, H. Pyle four for 40 and F. Dyer, two for 17. F. Booth in the long field and F. Dyer in the slips made brilliant catches.

The P-W innings was a long disaster. Before a run scored, Booth was out. With one run scored, Pyle was caught, and the rest could not overcome the bad start. Seven wickets were down for 18, and with Tomsett's 8 the side's high score, the total was 34.

Parkdale—A. Bromley 10, T. Morrow 1, E. Hutchinson 9, N. Rogers 5, T. Pisani 21, F. Clarke 0, T. Blackwell 0, T. Ratcliffe 31, J. Warren 0, D. Mitchell 38 and C. Candler 8 not out. Extras 2. Total 126.

Bowling—F. Booth 3 for 33, H. Pyle 4 for 40, W. Wright 0 to 34, and F. Dyer 2 to 17.

Peterborough Whitakers — F. Booth 0, W. Wright 6, H. Pple 0, B. Roberts 5, F. Dyer 7, S. Jennings 0, W. Freeman 2, E. Tomsett 8, R. Harvey 4, R. Rollwagen 2, H. Dibben 0 (not out). Total 34.

Next Saturday, June 25, the club makes another trip to Toronto to play New Hambledon who paid a visit here last season and lost to the local club.

Well over 100 bowlers—ladies and gents—were out on Saturday evening to take part in the weekly "Family Hour" tournament. The main reason for such a large attendance was the entry of 40 players from the Hillcrest Bowling Club, Toronto. They motored down earlier in the day, held their picnic over by the Lift Locks and then joined our bowlers in the evening. It was the first time many of them had ever been here and they were greatly impressed.

They were mixed with the local bowlers and spent about three hours playing. At the conclusion of the games light refreshments were served in the club house. The committee of Robt. Hendry and Geo. Soulby had a big job on their hands and they did it in a big way.

Tonight we begin the annual singles competition, first draw at 7.00 o'clock.

Outlaws Hand A Reverse To Jewellers

Outlaws captured a 9-2 City Softball League win Saturday night at the Bowl over Jewellers to creep to within three games of the top three squads and sink Jewellers further into last spot. A good-sized crowd saw a fair fray with Gordon limiting the losers to seven hits as he whiffed 10 in a good effort. Killingbeck was shelled out in the third and Nicholls finished in neat style to allow but three runs. A trick double-play by McCarthy to Anderson and a pick-up by Pagett were fieldi... features. Kumpf and Anderson led the winners at bat with two for three each as Foster hit a homer. Pagett, Doughty and Cornwell each got two in four tries for the losers.

Walter Fedorick, of the Hamilton Olympic Club, a member of the 1948 Olympic track team, set a new Canadian record Saturday in the six-mile run at the Ontario track and field championships in Hamilton.

Fedorick won the race in 32.58 3-5, bettering the mark set by George Berry in a Montreal meet in 1934.

Team prize went to the North Toronto Track Club with 23 points. Hamilton Olympic Club was second with 26 and University of Western Ontario third, with 16.

The junior championship was taken by the Hamilton Olympic Club with seven points.

At Toronto, Pete Stewart, 17, Ontario's third-ranking junior tennis player, Saturday took the spotlight as 83 matches were completed in the opening rounds of the provincial tennis championships here.

The speedy Stewart defeated veteran Reg Little of Toronto 2-6, 6-3, 7-3. He then moved into the third round with an easy 7-5, 6-1 win over Ralph Ander.

In the ladies' singles Miss Jacqueline Merner of Waterloo defeated Gwen Lugar of Toronto 6-4, 4-6, 6-0.

Victory Arch, speedy filly owned by the North Downs Farm, put on a stretch drive to win the Prince of Wales Plate at Toronto's Thorncliffe race track Saturday.

Considered only a sprinter, the daughter of Archworth and Spion Crest covered the 1 1-6 miles in 1:45 3-5. Victory Arch ran as an entry with Filis, which finished second in the no-wagering race. Bunty Line was third. The race carried $3,000 added. Speedy Irish, carrying top weight at 126 pounds, failed to prove a serious threat.

The Canadian marathon champions, which also will be a British Empire Games trial, have been awarded to Hamilton Olympic Club, Ken Yost, secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, announced Sunday night at Winnipeg. The championships will be staged at Hamilton Stadium July 9.

The Edmonton Maple Leafs Athletic Club has signed a working agreement with Detroit Red Wings of the National Hockey League, Stan Ward, club president, announced Saturday.

The contract of Eddie Cutts, under suspension for two years by Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League, has been purchased by Montreal Canadiens, Frank Selke, Habitants' general manager, announced at Edmonton. Cutts will be turned over to the Edmonton Flyers of the Western Canada Senior Hockey League next season, Selke said.

At San Jose, Calif., Charley Gehringer, famed former major league baseball player, and Josephine Stillen of Detroit, were married Saturday after switching plans to avoid publicity.

While news camera men and reporters waited at St. Clare's Church in nearby Santa Clara, where the wedding was to have been performed, Gehringer, a former Detroit player, and Miss Stillen were married in St. Patrick's Church here by Rev. William F. McNally.

At St. Cloud, Minn., Herman Miller, pitcher for Duluth Dukes of the Northern League, chalked up a no-hit, no-run performance Saturday night as the Dukes beat St. Cloud Sox 4-0 in their seven-inning opener of a doubleheader.

At Detroit, Bobby Locke of Johannesburg, South Africa, withdrew from the Motor City golf tournament after completing Friday's round. Locke said he saw "no point in chasing Middlecoff around." He referred to Dr. Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, Tenn., winner of the National Open, who led the Motor City tournament at the end of Friday's play with 133. Locke had 143.

Awards Doubled

OTTAWA, June 20 (CP)—More than 71,000 Canadians received awards for proficiency in first aid and home nursing from the St. John Ambulance Brigade last year. This was double the number of any pre-war year and 10,000 more than in 1947, C. A. Gray, sub-prior of the Order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem, told the Order's annual meeting Saturday.

Best diamond fight we've seen in a long, long time—that brawl at the Bowl on Saturday night. Knights won the game o'er Uniteds to go into a first-place tie with Uniteds and Cosmos, while Outlaws crept closer with a 9-2 decision over Jewellers on good pitching by Gordon. Knights were in front 8-5 with two away in the last of the ninth when the rhubarb broke out. After the pieces were picked up and a couple of guys ejected, 'twas found Uniteds couldn't field a team to finish the frey. In such a case, it is forfeited with the score 9-0 and no box score run. A bit early for hot tempers as playoffs are more than a month away, but it was a heated tilt throughout.

* * * * * *

Bud Harrison touched it off when he erred twice. After accidentally spiking Skeeter O'Heron, he walked off the diamond without aiding O'Heron to his feet, a mistake in judgement. He looked surprised and upset when he was booed roundly coming up to the plate. Catcher Don Griffin must have taken a verbal crack at him, too, and then Bud made another mistake—by taking a punch at Don. It started a free-for-all as half a dozen or more players of each side tore into it. The battle raged hotly about the infield—six or eight fights at one time—several minutes before order was restored. Some stiff punches thrown, too. Two guys grappled hard in one corner and then found out they were old grid pals, Scriver and Conlin, so they grinned and quit it with a pat on each other's back.

Fans Got Big Kick

We're not particularly perturbed over a fight—if the fans stay out of it—and this was a dandy. It won't chase away any customers at all. But we are surprised at the bad feeling being built up so early in the race among several squads. It's not nearly playoff time yet. Johnny Russelle almost poked Douglas earlier in the game, and Spin Spencer looked like he was seriously considering teeing off on Ump Wimp Borland after being ejected. And those guys who came off the bench to get into the main riot needed no urging. They just boiled over in a rush and hit anything wearing a rival uniform. Tch, tch, boys, save that fire for the playoffs. Tomorrow's tussles: Outlaws vs. Cosmos, and Uniteds vs. Jewellers.

Biffo, Joko, Loco, Socko, Stretcho and the rest of the Kokomo Clowns will be back at Riverside tomorrow night at nine, this time under the arcs. The touring Clowns have a portable lighting set and they draw good crowds for their games. Not only do they put on a lot of funny stuff before and during a game, but play surprisingly good ball. They drew 7-7 with the Petes here last time, and the teams ought to dish up another neat number on the morrow. These warm nights, with rain a fading memory, find more and more folks taking in night games as a pleasant way to pass a hot evening. A sound idea.

COBL Scramble On

Batawa beat Brockville 7-5 Saturday in Belleville to take over third place in the COBL, while Oshawa won 4-1 o'er the Petes in the Motor City to go into a first-place tie with the locals. Batawa will be here this Wednesday night for a loop fixture, and the Petes will be away Saturday to Brockville. Once again, Gingerich had the Indian sign on the Murphyites to give but four hits—Lowrey getting two of 'em—as Oshawa made it three in a row over Peterborough. Gunner Whitehill went good, also, but they bunched blows for three runs in the fifth, and that did it. Looks like quite a scramble in the COBL before they hit the stretch drive, eh?

Our senior "A" lacrossers are off for Weston tonight but can then take a well-earned rest till Friday when Hamilton Tigers come here. They had a rugged week, winding up by losing 20-15 in overtime down in St. Catharines. Just plain tired out and faded in the extra inning. But the Creighton crew turned in a whale of an effort ere bowing to the Athletics, with Teatero, Em Creighton and Bobby Thorpe shining on the attack, and Whitey Frick generally effective in the net. Thorpe, a newcomer—and we'll deal more with him tomorrow—was in for just half the game but he tied it up to force overtime. He'll be a regular from now on.

St. Kitts Grab OLA Win Against Petes

Rapping in five goals in the overtime period St. Catharines Athletics turned back Peterborough 20-15 in a senior lacrosse fixture in St. Catharines Saturday. With only 22 seconds left to play Bob Thorpe, former St. Catharines player shot the tying goal to force overtime play.

In a slow first quarter good goaltending kept the score down to 4-2 for St. Kitts. Poor shooting by St. Catharines helped the Petes whose defence was weak due to the absence of Warren and Howse. The second quarter was rougher than the first with 10 penalties being handed out. D'Amico hit Frick over the head late in the period to earn a major penalty. Peart threatened to report the game to the lacrosse executive if the slashing and rough play did not stop.

Good Fight

Lewis and O'Hearn provided the only real excitement in the third quarter when they started a fight in front of the Petes goal. In the penalty box the players went at it again. The players were sent from the game. Petes tied it up in the fourth.

Fitzgerald of St. Kitts had seven scoring points with three goals and four assists. Hildebrand and Whitely each had four points. O'Hearn had three goals before he was sent from the game. YOUNGSTER WINS

At Laconia, N.H., George Boss, 18 - year - old accountant from Glencoe, Ont., defeated Bill McManus of Knoxville, Tenn., by 12 seconds in a 50-mile amateur motorcycle race here Saturday before 6,000 persons. Boss' time over the tricky five-sided course was one hour, three minutes, 18 seconds.

Westenders Win

Westend peewees won a 15-3 City Baseball League game from Northend on Saturday as D. Hillier gave up but one hit and fanned five in the five-inning fray. Davis also pitched well but his support wasn't as good. Seven runs scored in the first for the winners, two each the next two frames, three in the fourth and one in the fifth, as Northend got one each in the third, fourth and fifth. Teams:

West: Carveth, c; Hillier, p; Barry, 1b; Livingston, 2b; Johnson, 3b; Montgomery, cc; Henderson, cf; Morley, rf; Trotter, lf.

North: Hamelin, Pollard, Well, McClennan, Vickers, Montgomery, Rowatt, Silvestro, Gardiner, Hewitt, Crowe, Grant, Smith, Davis.

Knights Take Forfeit After Battle

Knights moved into a three-way top tie in City Softball league at the Bowl on Saturday night with Cosmos and Uniteds when they won 9-0 from Uniteds on a forfeit in the ninth. They were leading 8-5 with two out in the last of the ninth when a fist fight touched off a free-for-all among opposing players and when Bud Harrison was ejected for fighting, along with Don Griffin, following an earlier ejection of Spencer for arguing, Uniteds were short-handed and forfeited the fixture. A 9-0 score automatically resulted, and no box score is necessary.

There were hard feelings apparent early, with Jack Russelle nearly tangling once with Douglas over a plate decision. Umpire Wimp Borland later ousted Spin Spencer for arguing too strongly over a call. In the first of the ninth, Skeeter O'Heron was accidentally spiked as he slid into second by Harrison. The latter failed to aid him up and was booed by some fans when he came to bat in the last of the ninth. Apparently, Catcher Don Griffin and Harrison had words at the plate, for the latter lifted Griffin's mask and hit him. Griffin retaliating. Players rushed from both benches and half a dozen or more fist fights boiled about the infield for several minutes before cooler heads and a police constable broke up the riot. The forfeit followed the ejections.

Hinton had pitched seven-hit ball and fanned seven, as Reid gave a dozen bingles and struck out six. Vic Griffin, O'Heron, Leether and Conlin led the winners at bat, as Woods homered. Hancock and Douglas were best for Uniteds in the game which never finished. Legrow looked good in the field. Further action will likely result from this forfeit.

Yesterday's Stars

Batting—Mickey Vernon, Indians—Slammed a home run with one on in the 11th inning to give the Indians a 4-2 victory over New York Yankees.

Pitching—Virgil Trucks and Fred Hutchinson, Tigers—Pitched the Tigers to a double shutout victory over Washington Senators, 9-0 and 7-0. Trucks gave up four hits and Hutchinson eight.

CGE Defeated By Toronto In Soccer Go

Toronto Davenport defeated CGE 9-3 here Saturday in inter-company soccer competition before the largest crowd in years. The winners gave a brilliant display with Roy, Ballantyne and Keenen predominating, as Titshell, Strong, Cotton and Goodhew shone for the local team. The CGE Pipe Band entertained, also.

Toronto rattled in three early goals, Roy first, Morgan on a penalty kick and then Keenen. Good defensive work held out CGE as Attard and Strong threatened. Keenen counted another and Ewing had it 5-0 at the interval. On resuming, Ballantyne found the mark, and Roy followed with a beautiful drive after a solo dash. CGE fought back and Goodhew smashed home their first one. Strong put on a brilliant effort to score two to make it 7-3. A lot of subbing followed by both sides, with Ballantyne and Keenen tallying two more when the goal custodian was out while clearing.

Toronto-Davenport — J. Clark, goal; H. McIntyre and S. Larsen full backs; D. Boyle, J. Murphy and H. Morgan, half backs; R. Roy, B. Dawson, J. Ballantyne, J. Keenen and R. Russell, forwards. Subs—J. Ewing, J. Stevenson, L. Waters.

CGE—F. Titshell, goal; S. Murduff and G. Murduff, fullbacks; H. Steel, J. Craig and J. Chamberlain, half backs; R. Strong, E. Cotton, F. Attard, D. Gourley and J. Goodhew, forwards. Subs A. Dunn, D. McCauley, T. McCauley.

Referee—Tom Garland. Linesmen, J. Ritchie and D. Duncan.

Westend Victors

Westend bantams of the City Baseball League took a 6-2 verdict over the northenders in a neat fixture. Lefty Goodson pitched two-hit ball in the abbreviated joust and he struck out 11. McIlwain, Brooks and Pollard saw slab service for Walter Dinesen's crew, McIlwain fielding his position well. Teams:

Northend: McFee, 3b; Hamlin, rf; Smith, 2b; Pollard, 1b, p; Brooks, lf, p; Gibbs, cf; McIlwain, p; Starr, c; Roberts, ss.

Westend: Mongraw, cf; Rose, rf; Legrow, 3b; Cupoli, 2b; Halliday, lf; Griffin, c; Spellman, 1b; Carleton, ss; Goodson, p.

Bob Feller Pitches Indians To 4-2 Win Over Yankees

By JOE REICHLER.

Bob Feller is up to his old tricks again. He is engaging in his favorite pastime of making the baseball experts eat their words.

It was only a couple of days ago that the experts predicted, for the umpty-umpth time, that the erstwhile great Cleveland pitcher was through—finished as a winning hurler. And as he did on all previous occasions, the 30-year-old righthander has proved them wrong.

He stilled them Sunday with a brilliant 11-inning performance as the Indians defeated New York Yankees 4-2. Feller allowed six hits, only one in the last seven innings.

Feller, who won 122 games in five straight complete seasons for the Indians, reached the nadir of his pitching fortunes just eight days ago. June 11, the Yankees handed him the most humiliating defeat of his career. They shelled him out in the first inning with a nine run attack that saw Bob retire only one man. It was his fifth straight defeat.

Started Obituary

That was the signal for many of the scribes to start writing Feller's baseball obituary. They were forced to hold up when Bob came back three days after to beat the Red Sox in Boston with a six-hit effort. Sunday's showing by Bob probably made them chuck the whole idea for a while.

Feller's victory was an important one for the fourth-place Indians. It gave them the series from the league-leaders—two games to one—and moved them up to within 5½ from the top. They've now won seven of their last eight and trail the third-place Philadelphia Athletics by only one game.

A home run with one on by first baseman Mickey Vernon broke up the game in the 11th. Tommy Henrich drove in one of the Yankees' two runs with his 13th homer.

Helped by homers by Ted Williams and Don DiMaggio, each with two mates aboard, Boston Red Sox walloped Chicago White Sox 9-2 to sweep the four-game series. The victory moved Boston past Washington into fifth place, 6½ games off the pace.

The second place Detroit Tigers behind the superb pitching of Virgil Trucks and Fred Hutchinson shut out the Washington Senators in both ends of a doubleheader 9-0 and 7-0.

Third baseman George Kell of the Tigers increased his league leading batting figure to .353 with four hits three in the nightcap. He batted in a pair of runs in each game.

Philadelphia and St. Louis divided a doubleheader, the Athletics winning the first game 8-2 and the Browns taking the second 7-3. Rookie Alex Kellner won his ninth game for the A's, scattering six hits. He drove home three runs with a couple of singles.

Hit Homers

Chuck Diering's ninth inning single scored Lou Klein with the run that gave the second place St. Louis Cardinals a 6-5 victory over Philadelphia. Diering earlier had slammed a two-run homer. Stan Musial also hit two homers for the Cards.

Johnny Schmitz pitched Chicago Cubs to an 8-2 triumph over the Dodgers to snap a seven-game losing streak for his club. Andy Pafko, helped him with two homers. It was the first game the Cubs won since Frank Frisch became manager, but he was not around to see it. He was ejected in the third inning by umpire Larry Goetz for protesting a decision too vigorously.

Boston Braves regained third place from the Phillies by taking both ends of a doubleheader from Cincinnati Reds, 5-2 and 3-2.

Scoring five runs in the seventh on two hits, two walks and two New York errors, Pittsburgh Pirates snapped a 4-4 tie and defeated the Giants 9-4, to take the rubber of the three game series.

Batawa Shoemen Beat Brockville

BELLEVILLE, June 20.—(CP).—Steady defensive playing by Batawa Shoemen's new infield proved a big help in turning back Brockville Memos 7-5 here Saturday.

Steady pitching by Rowe of Brockville and Muffit of Batawa held the teams tied one-all for five innings, but in the sixth Batawa on two hits, a Brockville error, scored three runs.

Brockville came back in the seventh to score four runs off a lone hit, an error, a walk and two batters hit by pitched balls. Batawa, however, came through with one run in the eighth and a pair in the ninth.

Solmes paced the Batawa attack with a double and two singles. Dafoe lined up a three-base hit for Brockville.

Reds Interfere With Search For Noah's Ark

GREENSBORO, N.C., June 20.—(AP)— The search for Noah's Ark, atop Mt. Ararat, goes underground as of next Tuesday for year of Communist sabotage.

Dr. A. J. Smith of People's Bible School said Thursday he will move the assembly point for his ark-hunting expedition Tuesday because he thinks Soviet agents might try to wreck his plan.

The gentle, 61-year-old dean plans to comb the frozen wastes of Mt. Ararat, which rises 16,916 feet above Turkey near the Russian border, for the remains of the Ark.

The Russian newspaper Pravda and radio Moscow have already branded Dr. Smith an "imperialist spy" who wants to peek behind the iron curtain. Mt. Ararat —although in Turkish territory— overshadows Soviet soil.

The religious educator said he feared "Russia's world-wide network of Communists" might try to sabotage his expedition before it leaves United States shores. Dr. Smith said when he departs from Greensboro Tuesday he will clamp a news blackout on all Ark hunt operations.

"It's a top secret mission from here on," said Dr. Smith grimly.

Earlier he had announced that he would fly to Turkey with a party of eight in mid-June.

Cotton Tariff Ups Price To Public

OTTAWA, June 20.—(CP). — Trade experts, predict that when Canada reimposes tariff barriers on United Kingdom cotton and rayon fabrics July 1, Canadian buyers likely will find these British commodities more expensive than at any time since May, 1948.

That was the date temporary tariff concessions were made with the result that United Kingdom textiles entered without paying customs duties, averaging about 15 per cent of value.

The U.K., a big textile exporter, took advantage by shipping about 300,000,000 pounds of cotton and about 2,800,000 pounds of rayon to Canada and obtaining more than $20,000,00 in hard—dollar—currency.

That concession placed the U.K. in a favorable price position, compared with the United States, another big textiles exporter which ships to Canada under quota restrictions.

When the temporary tariff concession was made, Canada gave some of its benefits to countries receiving Most Favored Nation tariff treatment, which includes the United States.

But the U.S. also pays a further duty of about 40 per cent on top of the customs duty. Nevertheless the U.S. during a 12-month period shipped 31,000,000 pounds of cotton and 5,000,000 pounds of rayon, obtaining about $43,000,000 from Canadian buyers.

The most favored nation concession also will come to an end July 1. Thus the U.K. still will be in a more favorable tariff position, but there is no indication this will apply to price competition.

The capital is host to more than 100 members of an old and honored association of celestial experts from all over the continent this week.

The group, more formally known as the American Astronomical Society, is holding its 31st annual meeting here at the invitation of Dr. C. S. Beals, Dominion astronomer. The society has met in Canada only three times previously, in Ottawa in 1911 and 1929 and in Toronto in 1935.

Researchers Keeping Cool While Other Folks Swelter

By HAROLD MORRISON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, June 20.—(CP). — B-r-r-r! It's cold.

Crazy with the heat? No, just writing about a little Arctic spot we've discovered on the eastern outskirts of Ottawa.

Some days its gets as cold as 85 degrees below zero here. But that's abnormal. Usually the temperatures don't go under 65 below.

Did I say one spot? Actually there's three—all within a radius of 200 feet. They're the cold-weather testing rooms of the National Research Council.

A secret project is being developed among the scientists, they say, to move all the desks and filing cabinets into the rooms—purely for research, of course!

While the rest of Canada is wilting in the sun, thoughts come cool and quiet here. There's plenty of space, too. One room is 50 feet long and 15 feet wide. The other two are 10 feet square.

Cooling Off

Aircraft fuselages, tanks, vehicles, guns and clothing all get a cooling off in simulated Arctic temperatures. Some times they come out loaded with ice.

NRC has spent thousands of dollars to keep these spots cool. The chambers are built of 13 plates of metal, each spaced a half-inch apart and all sealed tight.

On the roof is a refrigerator system with coils and big fans that push the cold air into the vault-like rooms.

One disadvantage, they've found is that to keep alive, a person has to dress pretty warmly—sheep-lined flying suits for instance.

So if you feel a little warm, just come down to this mecca for Polar bears and move around a bit among the railway tool systems, fire extinguishers (getting the cold-weather test, too) and the oil dilutions. You'll find yourself freezing in no time.

Another Spot

Talking of cold spots, there's another comparatively cool haven in town. Many tourists have overlooked it.

It's the stone-walled parliament buildings. While members are out in the heat fighting election campaigns, hundreds of tourists are walking through the cool corridors of the centre block. They are getting a close-up of the stately chambers where the laws of the land are made.

Refuses To Sell

TORONTO, June 20.—(CP).—The hermit of nearby Musselman's Lake refuses to sell his cherished 50-acre plot—even when a civic delegation makes special visits to him. William Linton Friday told members of York County Council and some 80 followers, that he wouldn't sell his property. Council had hoped to use the property for reclamation purposes.

Bleeding, Alone, Arm Severed, Motorist Saved

Cecil Finley, Napanee, Ont., whose arm was severed when his car crashed into a steel girder late Saturday night on Highway 28 south of Peterborough, owes his life to the clear thinking and quick action of a Toronto motorist.

A tire blew out as Mr. Finley's car was travelling along the highway near the Kendry rail crossing, eight miles south of the city. The car hurtled across the road and into a cement bridge. His left arm, which he had been resting on the window frame of the front door, was pinned by the girder and was completely severed above the elbow, four inches from the shoulder.

Fully Conscious

Travelling alone to Belleville, where he was to have reported Sunday morning for duty as a railway patrolman, Mr. Finley was lying on the road beside his wrecked car, fully conscious, for about seven minutes before Frank Bowen, 65 Boston Ave., Toronto, found him.

Taking an old handkerchief, Mr. Bowen promptly applied a tourniquet to the bleeding arm. When other motorists arrived Dr. Herbert Young and an ambulance were summoned from Peterborough.

The report from St. Joseph's Hospital this morning states that Mr. Finley is "resting satisfactorily."

Provincial Constable R. A. Feely told the Examiner there is no doubt Mr. Bowen saved the life of the injured man. A recommendation for a Red Cross award is to be forwarded from Peterborough headquarters of the Provincial Police.

Man Drops Through Open Trap Door

BONARLAW, June 20 (ENS)—Colin Bain, Belleville, suffered a painful accident on Friday evening while visiting at the home of his brother Kenneth Bain in Rawdon township. Mr. Bain went out to the barn and not noticing an open trap door fell to the basement below fracturing his right shoulder. He was taken to the Belleville Hospital.

CGE Tape Idea Gets Top Award

The highest suggestion award cheque at the C.G.E. this year was paid last week to Ben McMaster, an Armature Stores worker. The award was $600.

In the Armature Stores where Mr. McMaster works, special mica tape is kept for insulating electric motor rotor coils. Mr. McMaster thought the same machine-made tape, which was much cheaper than a hand made variety used extensively, could also be used for insulating the field coils in electric motors as well. The idea was worth $600 when approved by suggestion investigator Fred Marshall.

Nuptial Vows Renewed At Rededication Ceremony

Nearly 200 of the married people of the parish of St. Alphonsus renewed their nuptial vows in a ceremony of rededication Sunday night. The church at Western Ave. and Frank St. was filled for this occasion of reaffirming the importance and sacred nature of the family and of the sacrement of matrimony.

The declarations of consent and the pledges of fidelity to one another were taken by the couples, of whom there were nearly 100, and at the conclusion Bishop Gerald Berry imparted the papal blessing. Some of those taking part in the renewal were married 40 to 50 years ago, and some only a few months.

The sermon by Bishop Berry followed the congregational hymn "Come Holy Ghost." His Excellency said the sacrament of matrimony provided a special grace to last the life time of the union. It was a support to the young couples beginning married life with their fresh ideals; to the parents who had the responsibility of bringing up their children; and finally to those who had lived long together and whose grandchildren were a renewal and extension of their own lives.

Bishop Berry spoke of the resistance of the world to the Christian ideals of marriage. The merits of the sacrament and the grace of God were required all through life as aids in maintaining marriage in the purpose for which God intended it. His Excellency said that it was a beautiful idea that marriage was undertaken in the love and service of God and that this service to God would be extended by its children. The married Christian couple gave children to God for His love and honor.

Part of Attendants

Children of the parish took part as little attendants during the renewal of the marriage vows.

Although Sunday was celebrated as Corpus Christi feast day throughout the Catholic world, it was the feast of Our Lady of Perpetual Help in the Redemptorist churches. Very Rev. D. Ehman, superior of the Redemptorists, was present Sunday evening for the ceremony arranged by the pastor, Rev Robt. MacDonald.

Driveway Crash

Two cars crashed on Water St. Saturday when Fred H. Taylor, 591 Water St., drove out of his driveway and collided with a car driven by C. S. Lewis, R.R. 2, Lakefield.

A report was made by Mr. Taylor who said his front bumper and grill had been bent. Constables Allen Edmison and Ernie Beatty reported the Lewis car had made light skid mark 49 feet 10 inches long before the point of collision. No one was hurt.

Day Laid Off Work Man Finds Purse

The day Howard Mayhew was laid off from his work, he found a purse on McDonnel St. containing $15 and a cheque. After discovering that the purse belonged to Mrs. William Jones, 552 Stewart St., whose maiden name, Betty Primeau, 270B Rubidge St. was on papers inside the purse, Mr. Mayhew returned it Friday evening.

A stranger in the city, Mr. Mayhew sought the assistance of a friend in finding Rubidge St.

Mrs. Jones lost her purse on McDonnel St. while out shopping with her children, who she thinks may have thrown her purse from the baby carriage.

Boy 13 Drowned While Playing In Scugog River

Children seeking the refreshing cool of the Scugog River, half a mile east of Lindsay, Sunday evening, saw 13-year-old Jim Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wally Bell, 40 Howard St., Lindsay, take a cramp and drown.

Young Bell fell off a rubber tube as he took a cramp and sank without once re-appearing. Family parties in the water and along the river bank saw the boy go down, and although many of the spectators dived in to rescue him, his body was not located until two hours later.

Only a few feet below the surface of the water the river is very weedy.

When it was found that the lad could not be located by the usual methods, police were called from Lindsay detachment of the Provincial Police, the town police and members of the fire department. They dragged the river until 9.15 p.m. when Provincial Constable Gordon Caldwell found the body.

Provincial Constable Keith York, in charge of the search, and some 30 or 40 other policemen and firemen took part in the dragging, and the crowd of spectators increased to more than a thousand.

MAIN ST. TOPICS

NO OSHAWA WATERING

Oshawa lawns and gardens are going to be as dry as Peterborough's. The city's Utilities Commission has ordered indefinite suspension of outdoor watering.

THE RAIN'S BORDER

Sunday night's rain in the Peterborough area did not extend easterly beyond Burnham's woods on No. 7 Highway, according to reports from that neighborhood. Several Stony Lake cottagers said it was only a shower in their sections.

HOLD PARADES

Pay and issue nights will be held for the 50th A.A. Regiment, R.C.A. Tuesday and Thursday nights. Saturday the Regiment leaves for Picton for the annual summer camp. Sixty ordinary ranks, 15 non-commissioned officers and eight officers are expected to attend.

NARROW ESCAPE

Thanks to the prompt action of George H. Hunking of Oshawa, 15-year-old cyclist Donna Paquette of Lindsay is uninjured to-day. Hunking was travelling south of Lindsay when Miss Paquette swung her bike. He swerved his automobile sharply, missing the girl, but his trailer ripped out several highway sign posts.

NO DOGS ALLOWED

Dogs will have to find recreation in some other place than in the playgrounds of the city. Several complaints of dogs snapping at children and causing unsanitary conditions in the parks led the Recreation Commission to ban dogs from the city parks.

CLEANING FLUID BURNS

One small fire was reported over the weekend. A workman at the Woods Truck and Equipment Co., 465 Aylmer St., Saturday night attempted to light a blow torch but the head of the match he was using broke off and dropped into a nearby container of cleaning fluid. Flames shot into the air but as the container was removed from anything else combustible they did not spread. Three extinguishers were emptied by the workman in an effort to snuff out the blaze and when the Fire Department arrived a booster pump was used. The nearby cement wall was blackened; otherwise there was no damage.

DOES OPENING HONORS

The Hon. Harold R. Scott, Minister of Lands and Forests, on Wednesday will officially open the Chemong Causeway. A number of other federal and provincial notables have been invited but the press of the present political campaign leaves them with little time for such formal ceremonies. An afternoon of aquatic sports as well as parachute jumping and other events has been scheduled.

Right On The Dot

John Mousmoulias of Churchill restaurant was impressed by the precise compliance of a Stewart St. neighbour with the Utilities Commission early last week.

"You couldn't turn on the water until 9 p.m." he said. "Well, this man went out with his hose about five minutes to nine. Just stood there, glancing at his watch now and then, and then finally he walked to the tap and turned on the water. It was exactly nine o'clock. I saw the time on my own watch."

155 Sets Netted By Radio Hams In Orchard Vigil

Tucked in an apple orchard three-quarters of a mile west of Jackson's Park the Peterborough Amateur Radio Club joined in the 24-hour annual amateur radio hook-up Sunday. This is the third time that the local club has participated in the nation-wide radio day during which the clubs make as many contacts with other clubs as possible in the 24-hour period. All the members took part in the scheme with the operators taking turns at the transmitters and receivers for five-hour periods.

With the antenna rising through the branches of an apple tree the operators in the tent with the radio equipment picked up signals from 155 other radio "hams" in the United States and Canada. Last year only 105 contacts were made with other stations.

Most of the contacts made Sunday were with stations in the United States but one signal was received from Newfoundland. Upon making a contact the hams reported to each other the strength of the signal, the quality of the signal, how well the signal could be read and the location of the station. Most contacts during the 24-hour period from 5 p.m. Saturday until 5 p.m. Sunday were made between 7 a.m. and noon Sunday by Jack Stacey. During that time he managed to contact 41 other "hams" in Canada and the United States.

Attempt to Kite Antenna

According to Stan Weber, secretary of the local club, there were times when the band went dead for more than half an hour. He explained this by saying that a higher place was needed to send and receive the messages even though the orchard location was 50 feet higher than Armour Hill.

Club members were prepared to reach higher, by kite. Johnny Todd made a seven by four-foot silk kite and the club members had 600 feet of parachute rope ready to take the antenna up as high as possible by means of the kite. This kite method, he said, could have eliminated the dead periods on the band. However the wind was not strong enough to take the kite off the ground.

First on the sets was Johnny Todd who worked from 5 p.m. Saturday until 10 p.m. Last on the sets were Stan Weber and Oliver Brailley. Other members who took part in the drill were Jack Stacey, Ken King, Bert Crump, Len Thibadeau, George Wong, Bill Farris, George Gould, Frank Schoales, John Holmes and Mel Leal. George Tweedy supplied the generator used to power the transmitters and receivers.

Club meetings will begin early in September.

LABOR COUNCIL MEETS

The regular meeting of the Allied Labor Council will be held Tuesday night at 450 George St. Details regarding the agenda are not yet known.

Grim Sunday at Waterworks Its Phone Deluged By Drys, Almost Pumped Raw Water

Peterborough's waterworks department set a new pumpage record of 6,940,000 gallons Sunday with the lifting for the day of the regulation indefinitely suspending the watering of lawns and gardens. Said R. L. Dobbin, manager, today: "The Utilities Commission did not anticipate how enthusiastically the citizens would rush to turn on their lawn and garden taps. "The first sign of increase as shown on the meter at the pump house was at 5 a.m. Sunday when the rate of pumping was 3,000 gallons a minute. By 10 a.m. the rate had reached 7,000 gallons. As a result, water pressures in the higher parts of the city were nonexistent. Telephone calls were frequent, and we had to appeal to the people over CHEX to reduce the watering of lawns and gardens."

"That broadcast at 11 a.m. was followed by others until at 1 p.m. it was necessary to ban all use of hoses. From that time until 7 p.m. the broadcast was repeated at every opportunity directing people to shut off their outdoor taps."

Rain Cut Demand

The rate of pumpage decreased slightly each hour until 5 p.m. when it became stabilized at 5,500 gallons a minute. When the rain came at 10 p.m. the rate fell sharply to 2,100 gals. a minute at midnight.

Altogether it was a difficult day for many water consumers, especially in homes with young children.

For the waterworks staff it was an anxious time. Telephone calls were continuous and irate consumers were hard to placate. There are still some pumps in reserve even at the time of peak pumpage, but the friction in the mains caused heavy loss of pressure at the farther points of the distribution system.

Filtration Plant Pushed

Not only was there a new record pumpage, but also the filtration plant was pushed to the limit to supply enough water. At one time it was thought raw river water would have to be used. That would have been safe enough with extra chlorination, Mr. Dobbin said.

"The commission has decided that there will be no more watering until after the drought is over. An advertisement in the Examiner today bans any use of water on lawns and gardens, fountains, etc. The commission is grateful to CHEX for its excellent co-operation in the effect of reducing the Sunday consumption."

Mr. Dobbin recalled that the restrictions of last Thursday, Friday and Saturday resulted in an average total pumpage of five million gallons a day and pressures generally over the city were normal. Many citizens depend on their gardens to help meet the cost of living.

Bath For Baby

It seemed to the commission that the restriction was a hardship and for that reason the decision was made to permit use of water for lawns and gardens on Sunday.

Then came the deluge on the thirsty plants and herbage, with its counterpart on the telephone lines of the Utilities deparment.

"How am I going to bath the baby?" was one of the questions created by young mothers.

On higher levels there was not enough water pressure to flush toilets Sunday morning. The ordinary domestic services depending on water supply were out of commission. Taps were turned in many a house, and nothing happened, except reactions of impatience that was presently diverted into telephone transmitters.

The waterworks department got an earful. Mr. Dobbin says it was a grim Sunday.

Police Forces Honor Former Crown Attorney

V. J. McElderry, KC, was presented with a travelling bag by Chief Constable John Thompson on behalf of the Peterborough detachment of the Provincial Police, the Peterborough county police and the city police in recognition of Mr. McElderry's 20 years service as Crown Attorney.

Mr. McElderry retired Jan. 1, but has since acted as crown attorney from time to time in the absence of John A. Bradshaw.

Chief Constable Thompson said the police force regretted Mr. McElderry's retirement and felt he had been a great help to the force while he had been crown attorney.

In thanking the police officers, Mr. McElderry said, "I have enjoyed working with the constables very much." He expressed the opinion that Peterborough and district had fine police protection.

A policeman's lot is not a happy one, he observed. Since his retirement, Mr. McElderry said he found he regretted "not being now a part of the team" in the administration of justice.

PETERBOROUGH PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION

Workers Of Peterboro

You know the history of labour in this city. Or if you are too young to know it, the old-timers can tell you. When the Tories were in power, times were tough. When the Liberals were in power, you have known the best times in Canada's history.

Your leaders can tell you that the Liberals have put more laws on the books which favored labour than the Tories ever dreamed were possible. And they can tell you that in their dealings with Liberal governments they have met with understanding, decent treatment and a good deal of solid success.

That is because the Liberal Party is not a rich man's party. It knows better than the Tories or the C.C.F. that a recent balance and understanding between labour and management is the only way to keep Canada on the up-grade.

And it's on the up-grade that the best wages, best contracts and the most jobs are found.

American Films Will Bear Identification

By BOB THOMASC.

HOLLYWOOD, June 20 (AP). —The day may come when all American movies bear the legend "Made in Hollywood, US."

That's the hope of film bigwig Dore Schary, who has put the tag on all forthcoming MGM pictures. I asked the reason for this and here is his reply:

"We are going to miss on some of our product. It is normal that we do. But, generally, we are confident that we are going to be very proud of our product, and that it will reflect the best in motion picture making and reflect much of the best things about the American personality.

"Because our films also play overseas a good deal, and because we are going to be generally proud of them, we have put the legend 'Made in Hollywood, US' on our product.

"I would like to see it on all Hollywood films, because over the long pull and on the record, I think we do a d——d good job."

Carson Gets Papers

Jack Carson receives his final citizenship papers within a week. He is from Carman, Man., and he hopes to fly back there after "Good Humor Man." The latter is a good role for Jack; he is a three-quart man himself. "Ice-cream, you understand," he adds hastily.

Jane Powell is working in "Nancy Goes to Rio," after a film lapse of almost 1½ years. She is denying rumors of a rift with her fiancee Gary Steffen. "I've seen him every day since February and we have never had an argument," she says. It must be love.

Lauritz Melchior was lunching with Producer Joe Pasternack, so I asked him what he thought of colleague Ezio Pinza's success in "South Pacific."

"I don't envy him," said the sizable Scandinavian. "Imagine singing 'Some Enchanted Evening' eight times a week."

Robeson Defiant

NEW YORK, June 20 (AP) — Paul Robeson said Sunday night he defies "any part of an insolent, dominating America to challenge my Americanism." The Negro baritone made the statement during an attack against discrimination at a "welcome home" rally following his tour of Europe and the Soviet Union. Shortly before the rally, he had attended the wedding of his son, Cornell University athlete Paul Robeson, Jr., to a white girl.

Controls Speedboat

NEW YORK, June 20 (AP) — A daring policeman lowered himself from a helicopter into a runaway speedboat Sunday and brought the craft under control after it endangered scores of other small boats in Jamaica Bay. The speedboat, its rudder locked, sped in dizzy circles in the crowded bay after its pilot had fallen overboard.

To Become Cardinals?

VATICAN CITY, June 20 (AP) —An informed Vatican source said Sunday it is "very likely" that Most Rev. Joseph Beran, Archbishop of Prague, will soon be made a Cardinal of the Roman Catholic Church. It also is likely, this informant added, that Msgr. Alojzije Stepinac, will be elevated to the purple. Archbishop Ssepinac was convicted by a Yugoslav court in 1946 of charges that he collaborated with the Axis and was sentenced to 16 years in prison.

TRENT RIVER, June 20 (ENS) —The spacious lawn at the Sedgwick House was the scene of a community picnic, on Thursday when about 150 people enjoyed an evening of entertainment. It was made possible by Mr. and Mrs. William Sedgwick and their daughter Evelyn Sedgwick of Chicago, Ill.

After supper the following sports events were run under the supervision of Bill Christie of Toronto and John A. Ruttan of Trent River.

Baby diaper race, winner—Jean Stephens; boys and girls race, five years and under, Joell Stephens: boys seven years and under, Robin Little; girls seven years and under, Diane McLaughlin: boys nine years and under—Scott Little; girls under nine, Marilyn Quinlan.

Syria Decides To Abolish Old Land Law

By ELIAS ELISSA

DAMASCUS, June 20 (Reuters) —The Cyrian government, pursuing its policy of bringing the country's legislation more into line with modern living conditions, is taking steps to break up the Waqfs—lands bequeathed in perpetuity.

These Waqfs, through the years, have become a serious obstacle to the agricultural, economic and social development of the country.

This step follows closely upon the government's action in putting into effect a new civil code and in instituting an inheritance tax.

Previous administrations had hesitated to adopt both these measures fearing that they would be ill-received by the tradition-loving Moslem people who are prone to regard any modification of accepted practice as an encroachment upon the preserves of Islam and therefore anti-religious.

Under the Waqf system, any person could bequeathe a specified area of land or estate to his heirs in such a way that it could never be sold or split up by them, or any of their heirs after them. The object was to ensure a perpetual income for all the heirs of the Waqf.

Serious Handicap

In practice, in modern times, the system has proved a distinct handicap to progress.

Apart from the inevitable disputes which break out between the heirs as they become more and more numerous, no new development of these Waqfs was possible and they therefore became a serious handicap in any attempt to modernize conditions.

Dissolution of the Waqfs means that the heirs bought out will receive a sum of money which will enable them to raise their standard of living. At the same time the country will benefit from the land being bought up and developed on modern lines.

Heat Wave Ends

MONTREAL, June 20 (CP) — The heat wave which plagued Montrealers for the last week came to an end Sunday but the city's water shortage showed no immediate signs of improving. The intense heat last week which shot thermometers up to the 90-degree mark was replaced early Sunday by cool dry air, preceded by scattered rain showers.

Former Press Club

HALIFAX, N. S., June 20 (CP) —Canadian newspaper men Saturday formed a national press club. At a special meeting here delegates from Victoria, B. C., to St. John's, Nfld., adopted a constitution designed "to promote the best tenets of journalism to foster a closer understanding between all sections of Canada. . ." C. R. McElhiney of the Halifax Mail-Star was elected president.

'Copter Curbs Fires

FREDERICTON, June 20 (CP) —Use of a helicopter from the RCAF base at Greenwood, N. S., was credited Sunday night with reducing forest fire danger in New Brunswick. Two fires between Semiwagan and McDonald Brooks, Northumberland County, and at Sabbies Brook, Kent County, were reported being brought under control by crews flown to the areas difficult to reach.

Judge Criticised

TORONTO, June 20 (CP) — District Council 26 of the United Automobile Workers' Union (CIO-CCL) at a week-end conference here, attacked Judge Ian Macdonell former chairman of the Ontario Labor Relations Board and clauses of the labor law which they said were "biased in favor of management." The 75 delegates, representing 50,000 UAW members decided to ask Ontario Labor Minister Charles Daley not to appoint Judge Macdonnel to deal with any dispute between management and labor.

Back From Rome

OTTAWA, June 20 (CP)—Most Rev. Alexandre Vachon, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Ottawa, returned Saturday from an overseas journey which took him to the Vatican and Dublin University where he received an honorary degree. The Archbishop said Pope Pius XII expressed his heartfelt thanks to the people of Canada for the assistance they had rendered to war-devastated countries of Europe.

Noted Dancer Dies

TORONTO, June 20 (CP) — Polly Green, a world champion male dancer of the gay nineties, died penniless in hospital here Friday. The old Negro, who was 85, won the Richard K. Pearse-Fair Nuptials Held

On Saturday morning at 11 o'clock the Rev. R. Garvey of St. Peter's Cathedral solemnized the marriage of Mary Margaret Fair and Mr. Donald Grant Pearse. Miss Fair is a daughter of W. J. Arthur Fair Esq. KC, and Mrs. Fair, and is a graduate of the Loretto College, Toronto. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Pearse, and all are residents of Peterborough.

A reception was held during the afternoon in the Kawartha Room of the Empress Hotel.

The bride was beautiful in a Victorian style gown of embossed marquisette with a low cut neckline set in with fine net which formed a bertha on the shoulders, and she wore a finger tip veil and a tiara of pleated tulle with orange blossoms. She caried a large cascade of white roses and white sweet peas with pink roses for color accents.

Miss Joan Donnelly of Toronto as bridesmaid was lovely in a hyacinth blue silk faile gown styled with hip interest and a bertha. She wore matching halo hat and gloves and carried a cascade of pale pink roses and sweet peas. The groomsman was Mr. Paul J. Sullivan.

The bride's mother was in an ankle-length gown of grey-blue silk and lace and wore a picture hat of pink tulle with French flowers filling the brim. She carried a corsage of pale pink roses on her purse. The groom's mother chose a soft grey dress and black mohair hat, and her corsage of red roses was also carried on her purse.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Pearse left for Buffalo and New York. The bride travelled in a suit of black silk foulard with white flower pattern and wore a hat of fine white straw draped with black and white veiling, and a corsage of white roses. She carried a shortie topcoat of white garbardine.

The couple will spend the summer months at Lake Chemong.

Helen Hay Weds Harold F. Oliver

TRENT RIVER, June 20. — (ENS).—The wedding was solemnized Saturday at the home of Mrs. Ella Hay and the late John Hay of Helen Jean May and Harold Fraser Oliver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Oliver of Orangeville. The Rev. F. R. Vanderburgh of the United Church officiated.

The living-room was decorated with pink and white streamers, small white bells and baskets of pink and white peonies and fern. Mrs. F. R. Vanderburgh played the weding music and the soloist was Miss Beulah Chase of Havelock.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Gerald Hay of Campbellford, was lovely in a quaint gown in the Queen Anne style, of white embossed organdy over satin. The tight-fitted bodice was buttoned at the back and had long sleeves. The scalloped yoke was caught with clusters of small pearls and the hooped skirt was scalloped at the hem and caught up with bows of satin. Her shoulder length veil was of embossed organdy caught to a tierra of pearl clusters. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Miss Gladys Chase of Havelock was bridesmaid and wore a frock of ice blue organdy over satin with tight-fitted bodice and full skirt. Her headdress was a flower bandeau, and she wore long lace mittens and carried Talisman roses. Mr. William Thimbow of Toronto was groomsman.

At the reception the bride's mother received wearing a gown of black figured crepe black hat and a corsage of pink carnations.

The groom's mother assisted, wearing black figured voile, black hat and assessories, and a corsage of pink carnations.

Friends of the bride, Misses Maureen Vaughan, "Chum" Lean (Trent River), Laura Chase and Marion Vanvolkenburgh (Havelock) served a buffet lunch assisted by Mrs. James Carnrite.

Later the bride and groom left on a trip through the border states. For travelling the bride wore a silver grey tailored suit, matching hat and red accessories, and a corsage of red roses.

On return they will live in Havelock.

Of Interest to Women

DOROTHY DIX

Marriage No Life of Ease Must Be Willing to Work

DEAR MISS DIX: I am thinking of advertising in a matrimonial journal for a wife. What do you think of the plan?

E. Z.

Dorothy Dix

ANSWER: All to bad. Matrimony is full enough of risks without adding another chance to it by getting a mail-order wife that you take sight unseen.

When you are contracting to spend the next 30 or 40 years with a woman, you want to look her over carefully before you sign on the dotted line and find out everything you possibly can about her character and disposition, and tastes and habits, and industry and thrift, and what school of cooking and religion she has been brought up in, if any.

For on the knowledge thus gained you must base your guess as to whether you will suit each other and be happy and companionable.

Even when a man has made mud pies with a girl in kindergarten and scrapped with her in grammar school and dated her through high, it is hard enough for him to get a real line upon her. She has little peculiarities and ways and eccentricities of temper and temperament hidden away that he never suspected were concealed about her angelic person, and marriage brings these out as a hot poultice does the measles.

So if a man who has known a girl all her life can't tell just what he is getting when he picks one out for a wife, what earthly chance has a man who marries a woman the first time he ever sees her and whom he recognizes by her having a white carnation pinned on her left shoulder?

It really doesn't matter much what kind of a woman a man marries. The thing that is important is getting one that suits him, and the only way to test congeniality is by the application thereof. A man has to sit and talk to a woman by the hour to ascertain whether she is an entertaining companion or a bore. He has to eat her cooking before he can tell whether he is willing to trust his digestion to her or not. And these things cannot be found out in a school of correspondence.

Besides, the mere fact that a woman has to advertise for a husband, is indication in itself that she is on the bargain counter and has been passed over by the men in her community.

Some, of course, are women of irreproachable character, all silk and a yard wide, but who didn't happen to be a pretty pattern, or have the right colored hair, or for some reason failed to hit the finicky masculine taste and who, seeing they were leftovers, have taken this way of trying to force themselves on the matrimonial market. But many others who advertise for husbands are adventuresses who prey on the gullible and optimistic gentlemen who believe their statements that they are beautiful and wealthy ladies who taking that way of finding mates.

So, Mr. E. Z., if you want to marry pick out a wife from among the women you have known for a long time. Right around the corner you will find a girl who is just as good-looking, just as intelligent, just as domestic as exists in the world, and she will have the added advantage of having been reared in the same environment as you and having the same tastes and habits. And you will know what you are getting, which you will not know if you marry a stranger.

DOROTHY DIX.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: I am four years older than the man I am going to marry. He does not know it. Shall I tell him?

PERPLEXED.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: A woman's age is a secret between herself and her mirror and it is nobody's business, not ever her fiance's and she is perfectly justified in refusing to answer if he asks her the direct question.

I once heard a very charming elderly beau get out of this situation in a particularly diplomatic manner. An inquisitive woman asked him bluntly how old he was, to which he responded, "If you will forgive me for not telling you, I will forgive you for asking the question."

There are so many things so much more important in marriage than age that I am constantly amazed that people put such stress upon it. There is congeniality of taste, of habits. There is personality. There is sweetness of disposition. There is mutual understanding. There is kindness and helpfulness, a thousand things that mater so much more than whether a woman is four years younger or four years older than a man.

So tell your sweetheart that it is not of his business how old you are and that so far as he is concerned you are just exactly the right age for him. And that you are going to stay that age as long as you live.

DOROTHY DIX.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: I am 16 years old and I don't want to work or help my mother with the housework. What shall I do? I am thinking of running away and getting married.

M. G.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Well, if you don't want to work, I would certainly advise you to refrain from getting married. Believe me, that is no soft snap where a girl sits down on a silk cushion and does nothing but feed upon strawberries, sugar and cream. For most women, marriage means a fourteen-hour-a-day job with no holidays and layoffs.

But, my dear child, work isn't a curse. It is our greatest blessing. It is what puts interest and pep in existence and justifies our having lived. If you don't want to help your mother, get a good job into which you can put your heart and your back and you will find happiness in it.

QUESTION: You printed a recipe for cherry tarts last year—it was a cheese pastry with a syrup glaze over the cherries. They were wonderful. I have been waiting for cherry season so I could make them, and now I can't find the recipe. I think your readers would like this—if they would try it.—Jennie.

ANSWER: I would have forgotten to repeat this. Thanks for the reminder, Jennie.

Special Cherry Tarts

Cover inside of tart pans with cheese pastry (see below) and bake about 12 minutes at 450 degrees Fahr. Remove from tins.

Cook ½ cup mashed or sliced cherries in 1½ cups water 10 minutes to get 1½ cups cherry juice when strained and pushed through sieve. Mix 1-3 cup of sugar with 2½ tablespoons cornstarch in top of double boiler and when thoroughly mixed all the strained juice and stir until thick then cook over boiling water 15 minutes covered. Fill pastry shells with stoned cherries, sprinkle with ½ teaspoon icing or berry sugar, cover with about 1 to 1½ teaspoons of the thickened juice. Chill. When ready to serve top with a rosette of cream cheese or whipped cream and sprinkle with chopped pecans.

Cheese Pastry (for fruit tarts):

Sift together 2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon baking powder. Mix with this 2-3 cup salad oil and 4 tablespoons water and knead until perfectly smooth. Roll out and sprinkle with about 2-3 to ¾ cup grated old dry cheese and sprinkling of cayenne pepper. Fold in 3 layers, roll out, repeat, then roll out the last time and cut out into tart rounds. Bake as suggested under Cherry Tarts. This is a very good pastry for any one-crust fruit pie, including peach, blueberry, raspberry, apple and plum.

✧ ✧ ✧

QUESTION: I saw a demonstration for making ice-cream in automatic refrigerator and the demonstrator said parfaits were good things for amateurs to start with, for they did not require stirring after they were made. She made hers in little paper cups. I guess so they could be passed to the ladies in the audience. Could parfaits be made in the ice trays in the refrigerator? If so, would you give me a few recipes to start with. I am a young wife and need detailed instructions —Yvonne.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: I have seen a demonstration like you describe, and think parfaits are easy as starters.

Golden Paifait

Three-quarters cup sugar, ½ cup water, 6 egg yolks, ½ teaspoon gelatine, 2 tablespoons cold water, 2 cups heavy cream whipped, 1 teaspoon (or 2 if desired) vanilla. Boil the sugar and water to 238 degrees Fahr. or until when a little is dropped in cold water it will form a soft ball. Pour this slowly over the beaten yolks, stirring all of the time. Then cook in top of double boiler until thick, stirring—this takes about 8 minutes. Soak the gelatine in the cold water 5 minutes, then stir it into the hot mixture, which has been taken from the heat. Cool thoroughly before folding in whipped cream. Add the vanilla, pour into freezing tray with temperature at "very cold" and freeze firm. This kind of a frozen mixture never crystallizes when it freezes. (Use the leftover egg whites for making macaroons.)

Maple Nut Parfait

Beat 4 eggs slightly in top of double boiler and add gradually while beating 2-3 cup hot maple syrup. Cook until the mixture thickens, beating constantly. Cool. Carefully fold into it 1 pint heavy cream whipped. Add ½ to 1 cup chopped pecans or walnut meats. Freeze without stirring. Write again when you need more recipes after you have tried these.

Flowers Plentiful On Farm Market

Flowers, blanketing the tables of the Saturday morning market, found a ready market for the first couple of hours. Sales began to slow around 11 a.m. Sweet William, selling at 35c to 65c a dozen and peonies at 50 cents to one dollar a dozen dominated the sales. Bouquets with peonies, tiger lilies, spring phlox, kiss-me-over-the-garden-gate, varied from 40c to $1, depending upon the size. Canterbury bells and fox-gloves were general on the market at 75c a dozen. Iris were selling at 50c a dozen. Geraniums were the main potted plant, going at 25c to 50c a plant. Hothouse plants sold at 25c a box, some lowering their prices to 20c.

Eggs remained firm. Grade A large eggs varied between 55c and 60c a dozen; grade A medium at 50c to 55c, and extra large 60c and 65c. Roasted, dressed chickens sold slowly at $1.75. Chickens varied from 45c to 52c a pound.

Asparagus tips went slowly at 15c a pint box, with the bunches of asparagus selling at two bunches for 29c or 15c a bunch. Strawberries went quickly for 23c a pint and 45c a quart. Head lettuce sold for 15c a head, with leaf lettuce at 5c a bunch. Radishes and onions remained at last week's price of 5c a bunch. Beets sold for two bunches for 15c.

Potatoes, table stock, were $1.60 and $2 for a 75-pound bag.

Anniversary Service Held At Campbellford

CAMPBELLFORD, June 20 — (ENS)—"Christ still stands as the greatest teacher of all ages, and He is the greatest force in shaping men's lives for good in the world today," said the Rev. Dr. F. A. Robinson of Toronto, speaking in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church Sunday night.

He was guest minister at the anniversary services held Sunday. Guest soloist was Mrs. L. R. Groombridge of Peterborough and the choir was under the direction of Albert Hazell.

"You can name your great poets, scientists, musicians and statesmen but Christ is pre-eminent over them all," said the speaker. He told about his experiences in the Kentucky hills where many of the people were illiterate and where there had been no missionaries for a hundred years. Feuds of long standing, he said, had resulted in bloodshed and home-made whiskey had practically destroyed the last vestige of morals. When at last the church moved in, he stated, the people became law abiding, kind and hospitable.

The following numbers were presented by the choir: Organ prelude, "Evensong" by Dale; ladies' trio, "Now Thank We All Our God," Mrs. F. Towns, Miss M. Wallace and Miss P. Hogle; soprano solo, "Faith, Hope and Love," Mrs. L. R. Groombridge; anthem, "Send Down Thy Truth"; soprano solo, "Beyond the Stars," Mrs. L. R. Groombridge; anthem, "Praise My Soul"; organ postlude "Grand Chorus," by Jeboult.

Liberal Reign Too Long Says McDonnell

Eleven of the 24 magazine comics imported from the U.S. are crime comics which are not allowed to be sold in the States, said Gordon K. Fraser, Progressive Conservative candidate for Peterborough West, Saturday at a Conservative campaign meeting. "These magazines are read in Peterborough," Mr. Fraser declared, "but I am quite sure that what is not fit for American readers is certainly not fit for our youngsters."

J. M. MacDonnell, KC, president of the Progressive-Conservative party of Canada and a member for Muskoka in the last Parliament, was guest speaker, and the meeting of more than 50 people also heard the Hon. Harold Scott, Ontario minister of lands and forests.

Describing Mr. Fraser and John Diefenbaker as the two leading party men in the House at question time, Mr. MacDonnell accredited Mr. Fraser with responsibility for getting action from the Government in a number of legislative fields.

"A great many houses standing today would not have been completed if Mr. Fraser had not pressed Mr. Howe to allow more steel to go into the production of nails," Mr. MacDonnell claimed.

Indispensibility

Constantly referring to the slogan, "'It's time for a change," Mr. MacDonnell said that the result of the long Liberal term of office was a complex of indispensibility among the Liberal leaders.

"When people think they are indispensible there is nothing they will not do to stay in power," he declared.

Refuting the Liberal election statement that the Conservatives had plans to amalgamate the railways if returned to Parliament, Mr. MacDonnell said, "We would be ready for the lunatic asylum if we had."

Parliament was dissolved unnecessarily, and at a time when there were 25 matters still outstanding.

Post Office Building

Mr. Fraser claimed that Peterborough's new post office, which he said had been promised as long ago as 1913, could have been built during the Liberal party's government before the Second World War.

"They are holding back public buildings now because the veterans must be looked after, and I don't blame them," said Mr. Fraser. "But they are building theatres and other unessential buildings which are taking away materials from veterans."

In 1945 Mackenzie King had promised that 100,000 houses would be built by Central Mortgage every year. The total built to date, however, was only 35,000.

Honey was being imported from the Argentine and sold in Peterborough at a time when Canadian farmers had more honey than they could sell, Mr. Fraser said.

Minister Praises Drew

Mr. Scott instanced several aspects of Conservative government to refute the Liberal charge that George Drew was the tool of big interests.

When the party gained power in the provincial government in 1943, Mr. Drew cancelled concessions to big interests amounting to more than $13 million.

It was Mr. Drew who had brought in legislation regulating the annual cut in Crown forests so that only Canadian mills would be supplied and with the quantity of wood they could use.

When an opportunity came to export a million cords of wood pulp to the U.S. it was not known how many cords of wood the government had. His ministry had started the first inventory of wood ever made throughout the forests of the Dominion.

Mrs. John Cridland, president of Peterborough Women's Progressive Conservative Association, thanked Mr. MacDonnell and James Juby was chairman.

Declares Censorship Of News Rearing Head

GEARHART, Ore., June 20. — (AP).—A subtle form of censorship already is operating in the United States, Frank J. Starzel, general manager of The Associated Press, said Saturday night. In a speech before the Oregon Newspaper Publishers' Association, he called upon publishers and readers to join in battling trends which encroach on true, accurate reporting of news. Censorship in the United States, Starzel said, isn't outright blue-penciling. More often, it is an attempt to control news at the source.

Suspended Sentence

A two year suspended sentence was given to Leslie Booth, Belmont township, on pleading guilty to stealing some building material, tools and small machinery parts from the home of Wm. Berry, by Magistrate W. R. Philp in police court today.

From information he received, Constable Stevens secured warrant for the arrest of young Booth who admitted the theft. All the stolen property was returned.

Doubts Congress Will Deal With Seaway

BROCKVILLE, June 20 (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent said Saturday night he is in constant correspondence with President Truman about the St. Lawrence Seaway and that Mr. Truman "is just as anxious as we are" to get it started.

Mr. St. Laurent said he had had "very satisfactory discussions" with Mr. Truman early this year about the Seaway. A Bill to put the joint power and navigation project through was already before Congress but Mr. St. Laurent said "I'm not so sure it will be dealt with this session."

He touched upon the Seaway subject in the midst of a public address in which he answered an editorial in the Toronto Globe and Mail which gave a number of reasons why the Liberal Government should be defeated. One of the reasons given by the Globe and Mail was because "the government has done nothing to hasten" the Seaway.

Mr. St. Laurent predicted that the Liberals, who the Globe said have been in power too long, would continue in office. Their long tenure, he said, reflected their wisdom in doing the things wanted by the majority of the people.

Royals Take Doubleheader From Newark 5-3, 12-0

By The Associated Press.

Bobby Morgan, heir-apparent to Pee Wee Reese's berth as shortstop on Brooklyn Dodgers, is banging International League pitching in health fashion for Montreal Royals.

Morgan, saved from drowning by Brooklyn's Gene Hermanski while at the Dodger training camp this spring, is hitting at .354 gait and is one of the main reasons the Royals are in the pennant battle.

The Royals star enjoyed his greatest day of the season Sunday as the Royals swept a double-header from the last-place Newark Bears, 5-3 and 12-0.

Morgan collected three hits in each game, belted three homers and drove home 11 runs, eight of them in the night cap.

Pat McGlothin stopped the Bears on five hits in the opener with Lou Novikoff's two homers and one by Lou Riggs accounting for all of the Bears' runs. Dan Bankhead breezed to his seventh victory in the nightcap, limiting the Bears to five singles.

The twin triumphs enabled the Royals to remain 1½ games back of the league-leading Buffalo Bisons who took two games from Baltimore Orioles 9-3 and 8-0.

Coasts to Victory

Ray Coleman's grand-slam homer and Chet Laab's three run double allowed Clen Hausmann to coast to his fourth victory. Ken Wood drove home all Baltimore runs on a pair of homers.

Sol Rogovin blanked the Orioles on two hits in the nightcap. Rogovin also blasted a three-run homer.

The Jersey Giants took over third place from Toronto Maple Leafs, beating Rochester Red Wings, 5-4 and 3-1 while the Leafs split with Syracuse Chiefs, winning the first game, 8-4 but losing the finale, 3-1.

Joe Bracchitta singled home Ray Noble from third base with the Giants' winning run in the eighth inning of the first game to give George Bamberger his eighth victory. Neil Watlington's two run single in the sixth inning snapped a 1-1 tie in the second game. Lefty Roger Bowman held the Wings to three hits, one of them a homer by Steve Bilko to gain his seventh conquest.

The Leafs scored five runs in the ninth inning to beat the Chiefs in the first game. Ed Sanicki of the Leafs crashed his 17th homer with a mate on in the fourth.

Dixie Howell blanked the Leafs on six hits in the nightcap. The Chiefs collected only five safeties off three Toronto pitchers but two of them were four-baggers by Sam Meeks and Al Rubeling.

Two Pro Golfers Split Top Prize Money

DETROIT, June 20 (AP) — Cary Middlecoff and Lloyd Mangrum, two of the United States' top pro golfers, today headed homeward with $2,250 each after playing all even in a unique sudden death tournament extra.

The two were tied at 273 at the end of the regulation 72 holes on the four-day motor city open golf competition Sunday.

Then they set out on the sudden death playoff that went 11 thrilling holes before it was called by mutual agreement with the two splitting the championship and the $2,600 and $1,900 first and second prize money.

Local golfing authorities said it was the first such overtime match in PA tournament here and the first time there had been co-champions in any PGA bigtime event.

Middlecoff, the Memphis, Tenn. dentist, who won the National Open Title at Chicago, last week, fired a final round of 69—two under par—Sunday to get his 273 total.

Mangrum, the Niles, Ill., star, who started his last regular round with a 54-hole total of 204 — the same as Middlecoff's score.

Coming into the 18th hole Sunday, Mangrum was two under par and needed a birdie to take the title. He had a 12-foot putt for his birdie, but the ball was a bit short and he settled for the par that sent the match into overtime.

The tournament boosted Middlecoff into the No. 1 spot among the money earners of the United States' pro golfers. He has won $14,249.57 since Jan. 1. Sammy Snead, who did not play in the motor city tournament, dropped to the No. 2 spot with $13,806.83. Mangrum is third with $13,852.50.

2. Signalling back to the engineer, Hickman set the brake on the car — then climbed down, expecting to find the child under the train.

3. In the nick of time, young Jasmine Lowe snatched the child from the tracks. Thanks to her brave and unselfish action, the boy's life was saved.

This declaration was made by railwayman Clyde Hickman:

"We were rounding a curve when I saw a child on the tracks. It was impossible to stop. I signalled the engineer, (the engine was at the rear) set the brake on the car and started to get down — expecting to find the child under the train — when a young girl suddenly ran out and carried the child from the tracks with just a second to spare."
